Update

I would like to update everyone on our parish restoration project and, most importantly, to thank everyone who has so generously supported the fund so far. Thanks to your support, we can now move forward with several important improvements to our church:

- Upgrading the church sound system, which has not been working satisfactorily for some time — something many will be delighted with, and hopefully with no more interference!

- Providing dedicated accessible parking in the church yard for parishioners and visitors who require easier access to the church.

- Beginning the first and important stage of our wider restoration plan — the restoration of the west-facing entrance door and its associated windows which will include the Evie Hone Window. I am grateful for your continued generosity, patience and support. While the works may cause some temporary inconvenience, we hope that, together, we can continue to preserve our church and parish for future generations.

to bring love where there is hatred,
to bring light where there is darkness,
and to bring trust where there is doubt.

*May the Lord bless you and keep you;
May He make His Face shine upon you and be merciful to you;
May He turn His Countenance towards you and grant you His Peace!*

"My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You! I ask pardon of You for all those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You!"

"Most Holy Trinity; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."

Reflection

Reading today's gospel challenges us to ask ourselves how well we are responding to the Lord's multiple invitations to us. Are we so tied up in all kinds of concerns and anxieties about things which do not really matter that we fail to recognise or simply ignore the invitation to God's banquet? And, even if we may not persecute God's prophets and messengers, how seriously do we take their words of wisdom? Following the refusal of the invited guests to accept the invitation, the King sends his servants out again – this time not to the houses of the wealthy and respectable, but to the crossroads in the town. These were places near the gates and markets of a typical Middle East town where large crowds of ordinary people would gather. Here you found the social and religious outcasts, tax collectors, prostitutes, all those in despised trades. This time no exceptions are made. All are invited, good and bad alike, until the wedding hall is filled. What Jesus is saying is that everyone is invited to the Kingdom of God. All kinds of people are called to be part of God's new world. It does not belong to an elite group of specially chosen ones. It encompasses saints and sinners. As the sacrament of the Kingdom, the Church must never forget that, in God's eyes, there are no first and second-class members. It must resist the temptation to create elite groups that are 'different' and, by implication, 'better' than the ordinary average members. While it might seem wonderful to have a Christian community consisting only of totally dedicated members, it would not reflect the love of God reaching out to all. It would not be a catholic church, a church open to all. The only requirement is 'the simple offering of your faith, green as a leaf'.

Diocesan Conference this week.

Have you every asked yourself why God takes anger so seriously and urges us to cast it out of our lives? One reason is because of what it does to other people. When we lash out at someone in anger, we hurt them and create conflict with them—and that is wrong. God also hates our anger because of what it does to us. Anger cuts us off from others; no one like to be around someone who may explode at any moment.

Thoughts on the Gospel for October 11th 2026

We have today another parable about the rejection of Jesus by the leaders of his own people. It is, as the others were, being addressed to the chief priests and elders of the people, the religious and civic leaders. The parable divides clearly into three distinct parts: 1. two invitations sent out to the intended guests; 2. a general call to all kinds of outcasts; 3. some criteria set for taking part in the Feast. This is a parable about the Kingdom of God and about the people who will eventually belong to it. It is seen here under the aspect of a marriage feast for a king's son. In the First Reading from Isaiah we have a graphic description of the great banquet that the Lord will prepare for his people. There will be rich food and fine wines; there will be neither mourning nor death: In the Gospel parable, the king sends out his servants, referring to the long line of prophets sent to the people of Israel calling them to love and service. Jesus says: When God calls there is always a sense of urgency. The only time to respond is now. I need always to be on the watch, but that is not what happens in the world of today. We are told that those invited were simply not interested. Are we interested?

The Pastoral Council met last Tuesday night, and we decided to go ahead with another Bazaar this year. However, we have decided not to go around the houses this year. But, We will do our best to have plenty of very good and valuable prizes for about 10 or 12 Draws in the Hall and that will include Lambs, Fuel Vouchers, Cash prizes etc and of course a huge 55" Smart TV (Sharp brand) Thank you. Please come out and support our efforts. Anyone who would like to support the Bazaar and cannot attend it, might like to drop a donation into the special boxes in the chapels. Thank You.

AN tOCHTÚ DOMHNACH FICHEAD A

AN CHÉAD LÉACHT
Sliocht as leabhar Ísáia fáidh. 25:6-10.
Ar an sliabh seo, ullmhóidh Tiarna na Slua féasta uasal do na ciníocha go léir, féasta de bhianna saora so-chaite agus de fhíonta soiléara so-bhlasta. Ar an sliabh seo tógfaidh sé an brat bróin a bhí os cionn na gciníocha go léir. Cuirfidh sé an bás ar ceal go deo.
Ansin triomoidh an Tiarna Dia na deora de gach aghaidh; tógfaidh sé an náire dá phobal agus den domhan uilig, is é an Tiarna a dúirt é. Déarfar an lá sin: Féachaigí, is é seo ár nDia a rabhamar ag dréim le slánú uaidh; is é an Tiarna é a rabhamar ag feitheamh leis. Déanaimid lúcháir agus gairdeas mar gur shlánaigh sé sinn; nó tá lámh an Tiarna ag lonnú ar an sliabh seo. Briathar an Tiarna..
FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

FREAGRA AN tSAILM:
I dteach an Tiarna a mhairfidh mé go brách na breithe.

AN DARA LÉACHT
Sliocht as litir Naomh Pól chuig na Filipigh. 4:12-14, 19-20.
A bhráithre, tá a fhios agam caidé an rud an t-anás agus tá a fhios agam caidé an rud rathúnas. Tá seanchleachtadh agam ar chúrsaí corracha an tsaoil; an sách agus an seang, an flúirse agus an ghannchuid. Tá mé in innimh gach ní a dhéanamh le cuidiú an té úd a bheir neart domh. Ach ba chineálta an mhaise daoibhse é bheith i bpáirt liom in mo chruachás.
Beidh mo Dhia ag riaradh gach riachtanais dá mbeidh oraibh as flúirse a shaibhris in Íosa Críost. Glóir go deo dár nDia agus dár nAthair trí shaol na saol. Amen.
Briathar an Tiarna..
FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

ALLELUIA
Alleluia, alleluia!
Éisteann mo chuid caorach le mo ghlór, a deir an Tiarna, aithním iad agus leanann siad mé.
Alleluia!

SOISCÉAL
Sliocht as an Soiscéal naofe de réir Naomh Maitiú. 22:1-10
Labhair Íosa arís i bparabail le huachtaráin agus le seanóirí an phobail agus dúirt: "Is féidir ríocht na bhflaitheas," ar seisean, "a chur i gcosúlacht le rí a rinne bainis dá mhac. Chuir sé amach a chuid seirbhíseach a iarraidh orthu sin a fuair cuireadh theacht 'na bainse, ach níor mhian leo theacht. Ansin chiur sé amach tuilleadh seirbhíseach á rá: 'Abraigí leo

World Mission Sunday, 18th October.
What is World Mission Sunday? World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal in support of overseas mission. It takes place in very parish worldwide where the Church is present.
Who organises World Mission Sunday?
Missio Ireland [the Irish branch of Pontifical Mission Societies] coordinates World Mission Sunday. It is part of a global network, serving the Church in over 1,130 dioceses world wide.
How are funds received on World Mission Sunday dispersed? All projects go through the local bishops and nuncios in the countries where funds are requested. They are vetted and checked by the Pontifical Mission Societies in Rome. Projects are allocated to Ireland to match the amount of funds that are available, once the audit is complete. This year, €2.6m has been sent out to projects from Missio Ireland.
Why is World Mission Sunday so important?
All donations received on Mission Sunday become part of the Holy Father's Universal Solidarity Fund. This Fund is essential, not only for missionaries, but for the future of the Church. It supports missionary activities in over 1,130 mission dioceses, mostly found in Africa, Asia and Latin America.

ST FAUSTINA WEEKEND IN CONVOY

On the weekend of October 2, 3 and 4, we are going to hold a St Faustina Weekend. Her Feast Day is on October 5. The idea of the weekend is that we will grow in praying with Divine Mercy. Under this year's theme of 'Divine Mercy is a gift to me', we will have prayer times, quiet times, reflections and Eucharist. You are very welcome to join us for all or any part or parts of the weekend. We hope that more people come to know Divine Mercy in a deep and profound way. The greatest things in life are free. Jesus is not a statue but the living Lord of life. Jesus has paid the price for our sins to bring us back into communion with God. Jesus is a stream of living water from which we are invited to drink. The Divine Mercy Revelations are an invitation to let the future be what life was meant to be.

On behalf of the Parish of Raphoe, we want to express our deepest gratitude and heartfelt appreciation to Fr Jimmy Masereka who covered for Fr Kelly during the months of August and September. May the Lord bless Fr Jimmy as he continues with his studies in Rome and serving God's people.

Reading the Bible

This Autumn in Ards Friary 087 635 5602
with Br. Jeremy
Monday nights 7:30 to 9:00
(starting 28th September 2026)

This year we will be reading the Prophet Isaiah, the second longest book in the Bible, and one of the most influential Old Testament books in the history of the Church.

Each night we begin with a short time of prayer before reading and discussion. During the week we read a little in preparation for the following week's meeting.

This group is non-academic and we will be prayerfully reading the Bible in the Catholic tradition.

Pick up the Bible this autumn!

If you have a Bible please bring it.
