Today we remember in a special way all those from our parishes whose vocation has led them to serve as missionaries in foreign lands – priests, religious and lay-people, past and present. Remembering Pope Leo's theme for Mission Sunday – One in Christ, united in mission - we give thanks for their vocation and dedication in bringing the Gospel to others. May God continue to bless them in their mission.

A Heartfelt Thank You

Dear friends,

As I prepare to take up my new appointment as Parish Priest of Drumragh (Omagh) on 30th October, I wish to record my deep gratitude to you all for your kindness, support and generosity, both in the life of the parishes and to me personally, for the last seven years. Throughout my seven years of ministry in Aghyaran and Ardstraw West & Castlederg, and three years in Drumquin, I have been supported by wonderful teams of people who have walked with me and, on so many occasions, somehow made the impossible possible! I feel very blessed to have been part of the faith story of the people of the three parishes and, in thanking you for the very significant role you have played in inspiring an encouraging me in my own faith journey, I very much hope that, in some small way, my ministry among you has helped and encouraged you on your own journey of faith.

I could never have managed without the help I have had in the Parochial House, the Office, our churches, our halls, graveyards and our schools. To our parish secretary, newsletter editor, sacristans, caretakers, school staff and volunteers: thank you. You kept everything going, often with little recognition or outward expressions of gratitude. And behind all of our liturgies there lies an 'army' of people – readers, eucharistic ministers, altar servers, musicians/choirs, collectors, counters, cleaners, groundsmen, caretakers – people who just show up faithfully and willingly, week in and week out. Special thanks too to those who have given of their gifts, knowledge and time on parish committees including the various fundraising groups, parish tea group, children's liturgy and, more recently, on our Leadership Teams. I am indebted also to the staff and children of our schools for their warm welcome at all times and their co-operation and willingness to share in the life of our churches and parishes.

I have been privileged to accompany many families and individuals on milestone occasions in their lives over the last seven years. It is always wonderful to share with families in the happy, joyful occasions – the baptisms, weddings, Golden Weddings, First Communions, Confirmations and other achievements. Part of priestly ministry of course is journeying with families in their darkest hours – families facing illness, death and the loss of loved ones, sometimes in the most heartbreaking circumstances. It has been a privilege for me to have walked with many families in sad, difficulty and challenging times in their lives. Again, I have found the faith and courage shown by so many families at such times to be deeply humbling, and a source of strength and reassurance to me in my own faith.

An important part of any priest's ministry is visiting and bringing the Eucharist to those who are housebound or unable to come to church. Visitation of the housebound in our parishes has been a very privileged part of my ministry; so too has visitation of our Nursing Homes.

We came through Covid together, and we've shared seven Christmases and Easters. I won't forget any of this! In recent years it has also been a joy to have Fr Thomas minister alongside me. His generosity and helpfulness have been a great blessing. Thank you, Fr Thomas, for all your support. My thanks too to Fr Gilmore for his wise counsel, and to Fr Peter McCawille for the generous help he continues to give to us all. I leave with a heavy heart, but also with memories of friendship and neighbourliness that, for me, make the Gospel come alive.

Last but not least, I want to say a word of welcome to my successor, Fr Chris. There are a good many projects underway or just about to begin, but Fr Chris is talented, capable and hardworking, and I have no worries on that score. With your help and encouragement, and with his leadership, I know the people of these three parishes will grow stronger in faith and keep the light of the Gospel burning brightly, a beacon of hope in a fragile world. I hope Fr Chris will be as happy here as I have been, and I ask God's blessing on all that you do together.
Please keep me in your thoughts and prayers. I'll always keep the people of this pastoral area in mine, asking that God will reward you for all your goodness and kindness.

With love and gratitude,

Fr Paul

✝️ Gospel Reflection (Matthew 22:15–21)

In today's gospel, religious leaders try to trap Jesus with a question about paying taxes to Caesar. Pointing to the coin's image and inscription, He teaches us to fulfil our earthly responsibilities while giving our deepest allegiance to God.

Jesus reminds us that not every question deserves a fight. What matters is whether our choices reflect goodness, truth, and love, drawing us closer to God, strengthening our character, and blessing others. A life well lived is measured not by arguments won, but by faithfulness to God's will.

The coin carried Caesar's image, reminding us to respect legitimate laws, perform our duties honestly, support our families, and contribute positively to society. Faith does not excuse us from responsible citizenship; it inspires us to fulfil our duties with sincerity and fairness.

The coin bore Caesar's image, but our lives are called to reflect God's goodness. Though we cannot do so perfectly every day, we can choose to grow: let our words encourage, our hands help, and our hearts forgive.

We may give money to the world, time to our responsibilities, and attention to our ambitions, but we must give God what belongs to Him: our love, worship, gratitude, trust, and obedience. Our relationship with God remains the foundation of a meaningful life.

We may carry coins in our pockets, but we carry God's calling in our hearts. Give the world your honest service, others your genuine love, and God your whole heart. That is how an ordinary life becomes a beautiful offering to Him.

🌎 World Mission Sunday

October has been the month of universal mission since 1926. Mission Sunday invites Catholics to unite with missionaries worldwide and recommit to the Church's missionary activity through prayer, sacrifice and financial support.

Funds help young churches and missionaries serve communities in need, both spiritually and materially. Contributions build mission churches, educate seminarians, form catechists and lay leaders, fund children's health clinics, provide emergency aid in war or disaster, and help missionaries care for refugees.

This year's theme is 'One in Christ, united in mission'.

Today we celebrate our approximately 1,500 Irish-born missionaries and all missionaries worldwide, thanking God for them, for those who support them at home, and for our growing communion with them and the communities they serve.

Mission Sunday

BISHOP MICHAEL ROUTER AT FATHER HEGARTY'S ROCK
Only three weeks after his installation as Bishop of Derry, The Most Reverend Michael Router paid a pastoral visit last Sunday to the parishes of Burt, Inch & Fahan and Desertegney & Lower Fahan (Buncrana). We were delighted to have him amongst us on what was an unseasonably warm and sunny day, for what was a spectacularly wonderful occasion. He walked with us on a Synodal walk from the Stone Jug and celebrated Mass on Father Hegarty's Rock, before returning then to Cockhill Parish Hall for tea and refreshments.

The turnout was splendid, the welcome warm, the support immense and the faith tangible. In the midst of a sometimes stiff Atlantic breeze he joked about not being blown into the water, seemingly perched as he was on the edge of the Lough. But from there he commanded a great view of the gathering and the Statue of Friar Seamus Hegarty OP – and he offered a most memorable Mass recalling the courage and hope which Father Hegarty had in abundance, and asking God to grant us the same gifts for the challenges in our own time. The music and singing were outstanding and the joy and contentment of those gathered there, of all ages, was clear to be seen. After visiting Father Walsh in his home, the bishop returned to Derry with a spring in his step and firm in the knowledge that he will always be welcome in these parts.

It was a truly wonderful occasion made possible only by the devotion and help of huge teams of people: our stewards and volunteers, choirs and musicians, farmers and bakers, schools and Parents' Associations (especially at St Oran's NS), and to all who came to celebrate. To them all and to God himself, we must always be thankful.

Father Bradley

Gospel Reflection (Matthew 22:15-21)

In today's gospel, religious leaders try to trap Jesus with a question about paying taxes to Caesar. Pointing to the coin's image and inscription, He teaches us to fulfil our earthly responsibilities while giving our deepest allegiance to God. Jesus reminds us that not every question deserves a fight. What matters is whether our choices reflect goodness, truth, and love, drawing us closer to God, strengthening our character, and blessing others. A life well lived is measured not by arguments won, but by faithfulness to God's will.
The coin carried Caesar's image, reminding us to respect legitimate laws, perform our duties honestly, support our families, and contribute positively to society. Faith does not excuse us from responsible citizenship; it inspires us to fulfil our duties with sincerity and fairness. The coin bore Caesar's image, but our lives are called to reflect God's goodness. Though we cannot do so perfectly every day, we can choose to grow: let our words encourage, our hands help, and our hearts forgive.
We may give money to the world, time to our responsibilities, and attention to our ambitions, but we must give God what belongs to Him: our love, worship, gratitude, trust, and obedience. Our relationship with God remains the foundation of a meaningful life.
We may carry coins in our pockets, but we carry God's calling in our hearts. Give the world your honest service, others your genuine love, and God your whole heart. That is how an ordinary life becomes a beautiful offering to Him.

Today is World Mission Sunday October has been the month of universal mission since 1926. Mission Sunday invites Catholics to unite with missionaries worldwide and recommit to the Church's missionary activity through prayer, sacrifice and financial support. Funds help young churches and missionaries serve communities in need, both spiritually and materially. Contributions build mission churches, educate seminarians, form catechists and lay leaders, fund children's health clinics, provide emergency aid in war or disaster, and help missionaries care for refugees. This year's theme is 'One in Christ, united in mission'. Today we celebrate our c. 1,500 Irish-born missionaries and all missionaries worldwide, thanking God for them, for those who support them at home, and for our growing communion with them and the communities they serve. Morning Reflection Prayer for Self Confidence

Heavenly Father, Thank You for the gift of a new day.
As I begin this morning, help me to remember that my worth is found in You and not in the opinions of others or in my own doubts. Fill my heart with confidence, not pride, but the quiet assurance that I am created with purpose and loved without condition. Help me to recognise the gifts You have placed within me and give me the courage to use them wisely. When fear or insecurity tries to take hold, remind me that I do not walk alone.
Strengthen my mind, guide my words, and help me face each challenge with faith rather than worry.
Teach me to believe in the person You are shaping me to become.
May I carry myself with kindness, speak with confidence, and trust that Your plans for me are good.
Today, let me walk with peace, knowing that I am enough because I am Yours. Amen.

May God continue to bless them in their mission.

A Heartfelt Thank You

Dear friends,

As I prepare to take up my new appointment as Parish Priest of Drumragh (Omagh) on 30th October, I wish to record my deep gratitude to you all for your kindness, support and generosity, both in the life of the parishes and to me personally, for the last seven years. Throughout my seven years of ministry in Aghyaran and Ardstraw West & Castlederg, and three years in Drumquin, I have been supported by wonderful teams of people who have walked with me and, on so many occasions, somehow made the impossible possible! I feel very blessed to have been part of the faith story of the people of the three parishes and, in thanking you for the very significant role you have played in inspiring an encouraging me in my own faith journey, I very much hope that, in some small way, my ministry among you has helped and encouraged you on your own journey of faith.

I could never have managed without the help I have had in the Parochial House, the Office, our churches, our halls, graveyards and our schools. To our parish secretary, newsletter editor, sacristans, caretakers, school staff and volunteers: thank you. You kept everything going, often with little recognition or outward expressions of gratitude. And behind all of our liturgies there lies an 'army' of people – readers, eucharistic ministers, altar servers, musicians/choirs, collectors, counters, cleaners, groundsmen, caretakers – people who just show up faithfully and willingly, week in and week out. Special thanks too to those who have given of their gifts, knowledge and time on parish committees including the various fundraising groups, parish tea group, children's liturgy and, more recently, on our Leadership Teams. I am indebted also to the staff and children of our schools for their warm welcome at all times and their co-operation and willingness to share in the life of our churches and parishes.

I have been privileged to accompany many families and individuals on milestone occasions in their lives over the last seven years. It is always wonderful to share with families in the happy, joyful occasions – the baptisms, weddings, Golden Weddings, First Communions, Confirmations and other achievements. Part of priestly ministry of course is journeying with families in their darkest hours – families facing illness, death and the loss of loved ones, sometimes in the most heartbreaking circumstances. It has been a privilege for me to have walked with many families in sad, difficulty and challenging times in their lives. Again, I have found the faith and courage shown by so many families at such times to be deeply humbling, and a source of strength and reassurance to me in my own faith.

An important part of any priest's ministry is visiting and bringing the Eucharist to those who are housebound or unable to come to church. Visitation of the housebound in our parishes has been a very privileged part of my ministry; so too has visitation of our Nursing Homes.

We came through Covid together, and we've shared seven Christmases and Easters. I won't forget any of this! In recent years it has also been a joy to have Fr Thomas minister alongside me. His generosity and helpfulness have been a great blessing. Thank you, Fr Thomas, for all your support. My thanks too to Fr Gilmore for his wise counsel, and to Fr Peter McCawille for the generous help he continues to give to us all. I leave with a heavy heart, but also with memories of friendship and neighbourliness that, for me, make the Gospel come alive.

Last but not least, I want to say a word of welcome to my successor, Fr Chris. There are a good many projects underway or just about to begin, but Fr Chris is talented, capable and hardworking, and I have no worries on that score. With your help and encouragement, and with his leadership, I know the people of these three parishes will grow stronger in faith and keep the light of the Gospel burning brightly, a beacon of hope in a fragile world. I hope Fr Chris will be as happy here as I have been, and I ask God's blessing on all that you do together.
Please keep me in your thoughts and prayers. I'll always keep the people of this pastoral area in mine, asking that God will reward you for all your goodness and kindness.

With love and gratitude,

Fr Paul

Gospel Reflection (Matthew 22:15-21)

In today's gospel, religious leaders try to trap Jesus with a question about paying taxes to Caesar. Pointing to the coin's image and inscription, He teaches us to fulfil our earthly responsibilities while giving our deepest allegiance to God. Jesus reminds us that not every question deserves a fight. What matters is whether our choices reflect goodness, truth, and love, drawing us closer to God, strengthening our character, and blessing others. A life well lived is measured not by arguments won, but by faithfulness to God's will.

The coin carried Caesar's image, reminding us to respect legitimate laws, perform our duties honestly, support our families, and contribute positively to society. Faith does not excuse us from responsible citizenship; it inspires us to fulfil our duties with sincerity and fairness. The coin bore Caesar's image, but our lives are called to reflect God's goodness. Though we cannot do so perfectly every day, we can choose to grow: let our words encourage, our hands help, and our hearts forgive.

We may give money to the world, time to our responsibilities, and attention to our ambitions, but we must give God what belongs to Him: our love, worship, gratitude, trust, and obedience. Our relationship with God remains the foundation of a meaningful life.

We may carry coins in our pockets, but we carry God's calling in our hearts. Give the world your honest service, others your genuine love, and God your whole heart. That is how an ordinary life becomes a beautiful offering to Him.

Today is World Mission Sunday October has been the month of universal mission since 1926. Mission Sunday invites Catholics to unite with missionaries worldwide and recommit to the Church's missionary activity through prayer, sacrifice and financial support. Funds help young churches and missionaries serve communities in need, both spiritually and materially. Contributions build mission churches, educate seminarians, form catechists and lay leaders, fund children's health clinics, provide emergency aid in war or disaster, and help missionaries care for refugees. This year's theme is 'One in Christ, united in mission'. Today we celebrate our c. 1,500 Irish-born missionaries and all missionaries worldwide, thanking God for them, for those who support them at home, and for our growing communion with them and the communities they serve. SYMPATHY

It was with sadness that we lost three of our more senior members of the Parish. John Duffy, Aughatubrid, Gleneely passed away in Oakleaves Nursing Home. Our deepest sympathy to his wife Claire; his sons Noel, Alan & Declan; his daughters, Beatrice, Geraldine, Martina & Dolores; his grandchildren, Zoe, Orla, Emer, Oisin, Cara, Aoife, Lara, Ciara, Erin and Fiadh; brother Pat and sisters, Bridie, Peggy and Sadie and the wider family circle. John's funeral Mass was in Steelstown and burial in Bocan Cemetery.

We also bade farewell to Donal and Patrick McLaughlin, Falmore, Gleneely. They were two of life's gentlemen. They lived a quite, simple life, filled with hard work, and the speed of their passing, shocked his close friends and neighbours. Their devotion to their Faith guided their lives. We offer our deepest sympathy to Michelle, Oliver and Michaela who looked after them devotedly.

What do I (we) tell Him?
We pray to answer God who has spoken to us first.

We thank you Lord for your word. Today you let me see that just like those people that approached You, sometimes I also come to you to ask you for my petty things and to try to make you an accomplice of my pettiness.
I beg for your help, so that I may be able to change and improve all the time, come closer to you through my prayers and so that I may always approach you to give you praise and worship you.
Lord, I am now aware of my reflection in the mirror of your word, where I can see my own life…that many times I put my eyes and my heart in mundane things.
I am aware of the fact that I carry my life as a reflection of your own image, because I was created in your image and likeness Lord.
I want to ask for your forgiveness for all the times that I have given my time and my things to worldly things and allowed to be confused by the lies of the world.
I want to rebuild my life and my dedication to You God.
Today, I recognize that you are the only God and that only to You I owe obedience, submission and adoration.

18 October 2026 • World Mission Sunday
From the question posed to him by the Pharisees, Jesus draws a more radical and vital question for each of us, a question we can ask ourselves: to whom do I belong? To family, to the city, to friends, to work, to politics, to the State? Yes, of course. But first and foremost – Jesus reminds us – you belong to God. This is the fundamental belonging. It is He who has given you all that you are and have. And therefore, day by day, we can and must live our life in recognition of this fundamental belonging and in heartfelt gratitude toward our Father, who creates each one of us individually, unrepeatable, but always according to the image of his beloved Son, Jesus. It is a wondrous mystery.

Christians are called to commit themselves concretely in the human and social spheres without comparing 'God' and 'Caesar;' comparing God and Caesar would be a fundamentalist approach. Christians are called to commit themselves concretely in earthly realities but illuminating them with the light that comes from God.
The primary entrustment to God and hope in him do not imply an escape from reality, but rather the diligent rendering to God that which belongs to him. This is why a believer looks to the future reality, that of God, so as to live earthly life to the fullest, and to meet its challenges with courage.

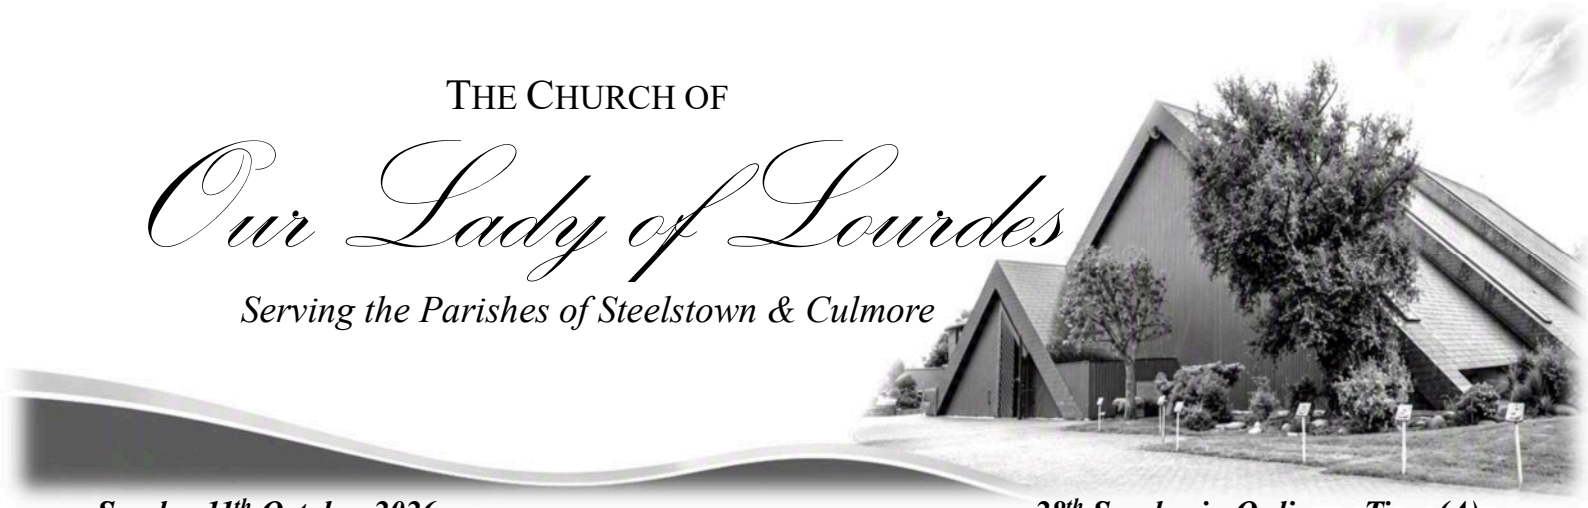

May the Virgin Mary help us to always live in conformity with the image of God that we bear within us, inside, also offering our contribution to the building of the earthly city.
Pope Francis

DIVINE MERCY CHAPLET

After 10am Mass

During his recent visit to the Grotto of Massabielle in Lourdes, Pope Leo XIV made the following appeal. Dear brothers and sisters: I would like to make an appeal that is particularly close to my heart, here in this place. It was here that the Immaculate Virgin appeared to Saint Bernadette with the rosary and, as it were, guided her in prayer. For this reason, today I invite all the faithful and all Christian communities to pray the holy rosary throughout the coming month of October, with the particular intention that wars may cease and that peace may be established among peoples in conflict. Let us accompany this prayer with concrete acts of penance and mercy, committing ourselves always to fostering dialogue and reconciliation. May our most holy Mother intercede for us!"

As we gather here in this church, dedicated to Our Lady of Lourdes, let us take up the Pope's invitation and commit to praying the Holy Rosary each day for peace in our hearts and in our homes, in our country and in our world!

The rosary is recited here on Mondays at 6.30pm and on Tuesdays-Saturdays at 9.30am.

Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, pray for us!

Today we remember in a special way all those from our parishes whose vocation has led them to serve as missionaries in foreign lands – priests, religious and lay-people, past and present. Remembering Pope Leo's theme for Mission Sunday – One in Christ, united in mission - we give thanks for their vocation and dedication in bringing the Gospel to others. May God continue to bless them in their mission.

A Heartfelt Thank You

Dear friends,

As I prepare to take up my new appointment as Parish Priest of Drumragh (Omagh) on 30th October, I wish to record my deep gratitude to you all for your kindness, support and generosity, both in the life of the parishes and to me personally, for the last seven years. Throughout my seven years of ministry in Aghyaran and Ardstraw West & Castlederg, and three years in Drumquin, I have been supported by wonderful teams of people who have walked with me and, on so many occasions, somehow made the impossible possible! I feel very blessed to have been part of the faith story of the people of the three parishes and, in thanking you for the very significant role you have played in inspiring an encouraging me in my own faith journey, I very much hope that, in some small way, my ministry among you has helped and encouraged you on your own journey of faith.

I could never have managed without the help I have had in the Parochial House, the Office, our churches, our halls, graveyards and our schools. To our parish secretary, newsletter editor, sacristans, caretakers, school staff and volunteers: thank you. You kept everything going, often with little recognition or outward expressions of gratitude. And behind all of our liturgies there lies an 'army' of people – readers, eucharistic ministers, altar servers, musicians/choirs, collectors, counters, cleaners, groundsmen, caretakers – people who just show up faithfully and willingly, week in and week out. Special thanks too to those who have given of their gifts, knowledge and time on parish committees including the various fundraising groups, parish tea group, children's liturgy and, more recently, on our Leadership Teams. I am indebted also to the staff and children of our schools for their warm welcome at all times and their co-operation and willingness to share in the life of our churches and parishes.

I have been privileged to accompany many families and individuals on milestone occasions in their lives over the last seven years. It is always wonderful to share with families in the happy, joyful occasions – the baptisms, weddings, Golden Weddings, First Communions, Confirmations and other achievements. Part of priestly ministry of course is journeying with families in their darkest hours – families facing illness, death and the loss of loved ones, sometimes in the most heartbreaking circumstances. It has been a privilege for me to have walked with many families in sad, difficulty and challenging times in their lives. Again, I have found the faith and courage shown by so many families at such times to be deeply humbling, and a source of strength and reassurance to me in my own faith.

An important part of any priest's ministry is visiting and bringing the Eucharist to those who are housebound or unable to come to church. Visitation of the housebound in our parishes has been a very privileged part of my ministry; so too has visitation of our Nursing Homes.

We came through Covid together, and we've shared seven Christmases and Easters. I won't forget any of this! In recent years it has also been a joy to have Fr Thomas minister alongside me. His generosity and helpfulness have been a great blessing. Thank you, Fr Thomas, for all your support. My thanks too to Fr Gilmore for his wise counsel, and to Fr Peter McCawille for the generous help he continues to give to us all. I leave with a heavy heart, but also with memories of friendship and neighbourliness that, for me, make the Gospel come alive.

Last but not least, I want to say a word of welcome to my successor, Fr Chris. There are a good many projects underway or just about to begin, but Fr Chris is talented, capable and hardworking, and I have no worries on that score. With your help and encouragement, and with his leadership, I know the people of these three parishes will grow stronger in faith and keep the light of the Gospel burning brightly, a beacon of hope in a fragile world. I hope Fr Chris will be as happy here as I have been, and I ask God's blessing on all that you do together.
Please keep me in your thoughts and prayers. I'll always keep the people of this pastoral area in mine, asking that God will reward you for all your goodness and kindness.

With love and gratitude,

Fr Paul

A Warm Welcome to Fr Paul Fraser

We are delighted to extend a very warm welcome to Fr Paul Fraser, who has been appointed Parish Priest of Drumragh. A native of Derry City, Fr Paul was ordained to the priesthood in St Patrick's Church, Pennyburn, on 1 June 1986. Following three years of ministry in Buncrana, Co Donegal, he undertook teacher training at St Mary's, Strawberry Hill, London. He subsequently served as a teacher and chaplain at St Columb's College in Derry.

Over his forty years of priestly ministry, Fr Paul has gained a wealth of pastoral and educational experience, including appointments in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and the Diocese of Arundel and Brighton, where, alongside his parish responsibilities, he also taught Psychology and ICT. In 2015, he returned to Derry as curate in St Mary's Parish, Creggan, before moving to Tyrone in 2019 as Parish Priest of Ardstraw West, Castlederg and Aghyaran. Three years ago, Drumquin (Langfield) was added to these parishes, forming the West Tyrone Pastoral Area.

Fr Paul now comes to Drumragh at an important time in the life of our Diocese, as we respond to changing circumstances and seek new ways of working together to build strong and vibrant parish communities. He is looking forward to the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead for the Church in the Omagh area. We wish Fr Paul every blessing as he begins his ministry among us. Let us keep him in our prayers and give him our wholehearted support, not only through our words of welcome, but through our presence, our encouragement and our active participation in the life and mission of the parish.

World Mission Sunday — One in Christ, United in Mission

World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual worldwide celebration of prayer, solidarity and support for the Church's missionary life. It invites Catholics everywhere to participate in the Church's global mission through prayer and financial support for mission dioceses most in need. Every baptised person shares responsibility for proclaiming the Gospel and supporting the growth of the Church throughout the world.

The theme for World Mission Sunday is chosen by the Holy Father. Pope Leo XIV served as a missionary priest and bishop in Peru, where he saw how faith, prayer and generosity can transform communities.

Our Mission — Prayer

Send me, Lord, out into the world that begins at my front door. May my every word flow from your heart and my actions be of love and peace, that everything I do or say reflects your great mercy to all. Help me witness to your truth no less in my silence than in my words and show me, Lord, the way I should go. Help me to see that my solemn duty to spread your gospel to everyone in the world is second only to their right to hear and respond to it. Open my eyes to your presence in others and my ears to recognise your voice, especially in the poor and oppressed. Amen.

World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual worldwide celebration of prayer, solidarity and support for the Church's missionary life. It invites Catholics everywhere to participate in the Church's global mission, through prayer and financial support for mission dioceses most in need. Feasts during the Week: Monday - St. Paul of the Cross (1694 - 1775): He founded the Passionists in Rome, preaching on the Passion of Christ and tending the sick, the dying and the lapsed. Thursday - St. John Paul II: Was pope for over twenty-six years from the 22nd October 1978, the inauguration of his ministry as universal Pastor of the Church, until his death on 2nd April 2005. Ordained Bishop of Krakow in 1958 and took a significant part in the Second Vatican Council. As Bishop of Rome he visited almost all of the Roman parishes and made apostolic journeys to 104 countries, including Ireland, 29th September - 2nd October 1979. (also) St Canice: Was born in Co. Derry around 527 and died in 603. Though his people were poor, he studied at Clonard under Finnian and at Glasnevin under Mobhi. A deep friendship developed between himself and Colmcille, with whom he worked for a time in Scotland, where he set up a number of churches. In Ireland his principal foundation was in Ashaboe in Ossory, but this was replaced centuries later by his church in Kilkenny. Friday - St John of Capistrano (1386 - 1456): Studied civil and canon law and joined the Franciscan Order. A faithful servant of four popes, he attended the Council of Florence, went to Jerusalem as apostolic emissary, and in 1451, set out on a preaching tour through the German provinces and Poland. In a battle at Belgrade he contracted fever and died there. Patron of jurists and military chaplains. Saturday - St. Anthony Mary Claret (1807 - 1870): He founded the Claretians in Spain for missionary work. Archbishop of Santiago, Cuba then returned as chaplain to the Queen of Spain, and built schools and museums, before being exiled with the monarchy.

Diocesan Vocations: St Paul could have written this passage from today's Second Reading to our seminarians and to the men discerning their vocation: "We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction." For further information, please contact the Diocesan Vocations Director, Fr Pat O'Hagan, at pgoh2111@gmail.com

Anniversaries: It is advisable where possible to book well in advance in the case of anniversaries. These are arranged with a sacristan as the anniversary book is kept in the sacristy. Also, please indicate in the Anniversary book that the Mass is booked for the stated intention - we would appreciate an acknowledgment of the booking by email if possible. In the case of a booked Anniversary Mass please inquire of the sacristan before the Mass begins that the Mass is offered for the intention you request. Names to be added to the weekend anniversary list need to be added to the anniversary book by informing the sacristan - this can be done in advance of the date requested.

Parish Readers/Eucharistic Ministers: If you are unable to attend the schedule allocated to you, it would be much appreciated if you can get a replacement to step in for you. (It may be possible to exchange a rotation with another group member - there is also the opportunity to seek cover via the Whatsapp messaging facility if available to your group). I also ask Readers please to conclude the readings with - 'The Word of the Lord' as directed in the Missalette, and not 'This is the Word of the Lord' as stated in the Lectionary. We have previously discussed this at our reader meetings.

Look out Leaflets...Are now available for children at the back of both churches in the parish focusing on the liturgy of the word each week. Enjoy!

Providing compassionate care at the end of life - To address the sensitive issue of compassionate care at the end of life, and in response to the need to inform the faithful of Catholic teaching on this important life issue that affects so many families, the Bishops of Ireland have published the pastoral letter: Freedom to Live Fully, Until Death Comes. You are invited to read this letter and view the accompanying video Through the Valley, which offers personal testimonies by carers and people with terminal illness. The key message of both letter and video asserts that every person possesses inherent, infinite dignity that remains intact regardless of their circumstances. In this context, bishops strongly oppose the Oireachtas Committee's proposal to Government to legislate for assisted suicide and call on support for healthcare workers who uphold the sanctity of life. To read Freedom to Live Fully, Until Death Comes and to watch Through the Valley, visit the following link: https://www.catholicbishops.ie/2024/06/24/bishops-statement-on-end-of-life-care freedom-to-live-fully-until-death-comes/

Also attach appendix document from survivors of abuse and the Irish Bishops' Conference Cover Letter, which have all been forwarded to the General Secretariat of the Synod of Bishops. Press Release also attached. We are requested to bring the Report to the attention of your parishioners and to share it on your social media outlets. We would appreciate an acknowledgement of this transaction (via the parish email) when it is activated, so that we can have a copy for the parish records. In the information forwarded we will require your address and telephone number.

Bishop Michael Router at Father Hegarty's Rock

Only three weeks after his installation as Bishop of Derry, The Most Reverend Michael Router paid a pastoral visit last Sunday to the parishes of Burt, Inch & Fahan and Desertegney & Lower Fahan (Buncrana). We were delighted to have him amongst us on what was an unseasonably warm and sunny day, for what was a spectacularly wonderful occasion. He walked with us on a Synodal walk from the Stone Jug and celebrated Mass on Father Hegarty's Rock, before returning then to Cockhill Parish Hall for tea and refreshments.
The turnout was splendid, the welcome warm, the support immense and the faith tangible. In the midst of a sometimes stiff Atlantic breeze he joked about not being blown into the water, seemingly perched as he was on the edge of the Lough. But from there he commanded a great view of the gathering and the Statue of Friar Seamus Hegarty OP – and he offered a most memorable Mass recalling the courage and hope which Father Hegarty had in abundance, and asking God to grant us the same gifts for the challenges in our own time. The music and singing were outstanding and the joy and contentment of those gathered there, of all ages, was clear to be seen. After visiting Father Walsh in his home, the bishop returned to Derry with a spring in his step and firm in the knowledge that he will always be welcome in these parts. It was a truly wonderful occasion made possible only by the devotion and help of huge teams of people: our stewards and volunteers, choirs and musicians, farmers and bakers, schools and Parents' Associations (especially at St Oran's NS), and to all who came to celebrate. To them all and to God himself, we must always be thankful.

GIVING TO GOD OR GIVING TO CAESAR

They must really have thought they had their victim sewn up! If Jesus said he paid the Roman taxes, he recognised the Emperor, not God, as his Lord. If he said he didn't pay, he was a traitor to Rome. Jesus turns the question back on them. First he makes them admit that they themselves recognise Rome as overlord by carrying a Roman coin, for the coin would carry the Emperor's head. Next he puts them a question: what do they consider is due to Caesar?

Finally he goes beyond their question, to interrogate their ultimate loyalty: in the last analysis, just what is due to God? At a superficial level this seems a little verbal tussle, in which Jesus outwits his opponents. But the story was remembered and passed on in the Christian community not because of Jesus' cleverness, but because at a deeper level it is a question which Jesus puts to each of us: just where do our loyalties and priorities lie? Money? Respect? Fame? A good holiday? Comfort? Power?

Jesus is not a dictator who imposes his will. He just asks the question and leave us to give our own answer. To those who question him he gives no easy answer, but always replies with another question.

Jesus said: "Give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God." One of the biggest mistakes we make as human beings is to think that what we have belongs to us! The more wonderful truth is that all we have is a gift from God who loves us and who wants us to live in the freedom of that love. The best way of human living is to treasure everything in life rather than try to possess it; to count our blessings rather than moan about what we don't have. And the greatest treasure of all is each other. The quality of our love for one another in marriage and family life is a measure and major part of our worship of God. That love needs to be such that it will radiate out and include those with whom we worship at the Eucharist and so we build a faith community to the glory of God.

Father Johnny Doherty, C.Ss.R.

Gospel Reflection (Matthew 22:15-21)

In today's gospel, religious leaders try to trap Jesus with a question about paying taxes to Caesar. Pointing to the coin's image and inscription, He teaches us to fulfil our earthly responsibilities while giving our deepest allegiance to God. Jesus reminds us that not every question deserves a fight. What matters is whether our choices reflect goodness, truth, and love, drawing us closer to God, strengthening our character, and blessing others. A life well lived is measured not by arguments won, but by faithfulness to God's will.
The coin carried Caesar's image, reminding us to respect legitimate laws, perform our duties honestly, support our families, and contribute positively to society. Faith does not excuse us from responsible citizenship; it inspires us to fulfil our duties with sincerity and fairness. The coin bore Caesar's image, but our lives are called to reflect God's goodness. Though we cannot do so perfectly every day, we can choose to grow: let our words encourage, our hands help, and our hearts forgive.
We may give money to the world, time to our responsibilities, and attention to our ambitions, but we must give God what belongs to Him: our love, worship, gratitude, trust, and obedience. Our relationship with God remains the foundation of a meaningful life.
We may carry coins in our pockets, but we carry God's calling in our hearts. Give the world your honest service, others your genuine love, and God your whole heart. That is how an ordinary life becomes a beautiful offering to Him.

Today is World Mission Sunday October has been the month of universal mission since 1926. Mission Sunday invites Catholics to unite with missionaries worldwide and recommit to the Church's missionary activity through prayer, sacrifice and financial support. Funds help young churches and missionaries serve communities in need, both spiritually and materially. Contributions build mission churches, educate seminarians, form catechists and lay leaders, fund children's health clinics, provide emergency aid in war or disaster, and help missionaries care for refugees. This year's theme is 'One in Christ, united in mission'. Today we celebrate our c. 1,500 Irish-born missionaries and all missionaries worldwide, thanking God for them, for those who support them at home, and for our growing communion with them and the communities they serve. Mission Sunday

Stamped with His Image

They come to Jesus with a trap. The Pharisees, who hated the Roman tax, and the Herodians, who lived off it, suddenly the best of friends. Say pay the tax, and the crowd turns on him. Say don't, and Rome will. Either way, he loses.

Jesus asks for a coin. Notice that he does not have one; they do. They are carrying the emperor's face in their own pockets while they ask the question. Whose image is this? Caesar's. Then give Caesar what is Caesar's and give God what is God's.

The coin bears Caesar's image. What bears God's? We do. Every person in this church, every person on the street outside, was made in the image and likeness of God. Caesar can have his coin. God wants the whole of us. The tax is a small matter. The question Jesus leaves hanging is far bigger: have you given God what is stamped with his image?

The first reading says something surprising about power. God calls Cyrus, a pagan king who has never heard of him, "his anointed", and uses him to bring the exiles home. God is not confined to the people who know his name. He works through rulers, through strangers, through history itself, and his purpose is never in doubt.

Today is World Mission Sunday. We pray for, and support, the missionaries who carry the Gospel where Christ is still unknown, and we remember that Irish men and women have been doing that for centuries, supported in their work by prayer and aid. But mission is not only abroad. St Paul tells the Thessalonians that the Gospel came to them "as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction". That is what we are meant to carry out of here into the mission territory of our own parishes and beyond.

This week, give God what is his, starting with yourself.

Fr Sean

A centenary marked by hope and communion

As the Church prepares to celebrate the 100th World Mission Sunday, Pope Leo XIV invites Catholics to be inspired by the witness of many missionary saints, highlighting St. Francis of Assisi, who "passed into heaven" 800 years ago, and the zeal of Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus, patroness of the missions, who declared that she would continue her mission even after death: "I shall desire in heaven the same thing as I do now on earth: to love Jesus and to make him loved."

"Your prayers and practical support, particularly on World Mission Day, will be a great help in bringing the Gospel of God's love to everyone, especially the poorest and those most in need," the pope wrote. "Every gift, no matter how small, becomes a meaningful act of missionary communion. I renew my heartfelt gratitude for everything you will do to help me help missionaries throughout the world."

On World Mission Sunday 2026, Catholics around the world are once again invited to pray, to give, and to live their faith as one in Christ, united in mission—so that the Gospel of God's faithful love may reach everyone, especially the poorest and those most in need.

They come to Jesus with a trap. The Pharisees, who hated the Roman tax, and the Herodians, who lived off it, suddenly the best of friends. Say pay the tax, and the crowd turns on him. Say don't, and Rome will. Either way, he loses.

Jesus asks for a coin. Notice that he does not have one; they do. They are carrying the emperor's face in their own pockets while they ask the question. Whose image is this? Caesar's. Then give Caesar what is Caesar's and give God what is God's.

The coin bears Caesar's image. What bears God's? We do. Every person in this church, every person on the street outside, was made in the image and likeness of God. Caesar can have his coin. God wants the whole of us. The tax is a small matter. The question Jesus leaves hanging is far bigger: have you given God what is stamped with his image?

The first reading says something surprising about power. God calls Cyrus, a pagan king who has never heard of him, "his anointed", and uses him to bring the exiles home. God is not confined to the people who know his name. He works through rulers, through strangers, through history itself, and his purpose is never in doubt.

Today is World Mission Sunday. We pray for, and support, the missionaries who carry the Gospel where Christ is still unknown, and we remember that Irish men and women have been doing that for centuries, supported in their work by prayer and aid. But mission is not only abroad. St Paul tells the Thessalonians that the Gospel came to them "as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction". That is what we are meant to carry out of here into the mission territory of our own parishes and beyond.

This week, give God what is his, starting with yourself.

Fr Sean

A short reflection on today's Gospel Matthew 21: 15-21

In today's Gospel Jesus tells us to "repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." His words invite us to reflect on our priorities, our responsibilities and the place God holds in our lives. While we have duties to our families, communities and society, our relationship with God must always remain at the centre.

Giving to God what belongs to God means more than attending Mass or saying our prayers. It means living our faith through love, kindness, forgiveness and compassion. When we care for the vulnerable, support those in need and reach out to the lonely, we make God's love visible through our actions.

In the busyness of everyday life, we can sometimes forget to make time for God. Today's Gospel reminds us that our possessions and achievements should never take his place in our hearts. What matters most is how we use our gifts and blessings to serve God and others.

As we reflect on today's Gospel, let us ask ourselves: Am I putting God first? Am I using my gifts for the good of others? Do my words and actions reflect the love of Christ?

May we have the courage to put God first, the generosity to serve others and the humility to recognise his presence in everyone we meet.

Lord, help us to give you what truly belongs to you: our hearts, our lives and our love. Guide us to serve others with kindness and generosity, and may everything we say and do bring glory to your holy name. Amen.

Prayer for Vocations to the Priesthood: St Paul could have written this passage from today's Second Reading to our seminarians and to the men discerning their vocation: "We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction."

Mission Sunday 2026 – One in Christ, United in Mission. Mission Sunday, celebrated today, Sunday 18th October 2026, invites us to renew our commitment to sharing the Good News of Jesus Christ with people throughout the world. It is a special opportunity to pray for missionaries and the communities they serve, and to support their work through our generosity. Across the world, missionaries bring hope, comfort and practical help to those in need, often in challenging circumstances.

As a parish community, we are reminded that mission begins with each of us. Through our prayers, kindness and willingness to serve others, we can make Christ's love visible in our homes, our parish and the wider world. May this Mission Sunday inspire us to be joyful witnesses to the Gospel, sharing God's love with everyone we meet.

The St Dymphna Mass with Anointing of the Sick will be celebrated at St Eugene's Cathedral on Tuesday 20th October at 7.30pm. This Mass is to give thanks to God for positive mental health and to pray for those who are struggling with mental health issues and those who care for them.

Our Lady, Untier of Knots Novena - The Novena to Our Lady, Untier of Knots continues after the 7.30pm Mass on Thursdays, in St Eugene's Cathedral, concluding on Thursday 26th November. This Novena reminds us that sin never entangled Our Lady, and that Christ gave us His Mother as Our Lady, Untier of Knots. Through this devotion, we entrust our personal "knots" to her loving care - learning to let go and allowing her to gently untie what binds us. All are welcome to join in prayer and reflection during this special time of grace.

After 10am Mass

During his recent visit to the Grotto of Massabielle in Lourdes, Pope Leo XIV made the following appeal. Dear brothers and sisters: I would like to make an appeal that is particularly close to my heart, here in this place. It was here that the Immaculate Virgin appeared to Saint Bernadette with the rosary and, as it were, guided her in prayer. For this reason, today I invite all the faithful and all Christian communities to pray the holy rosary throughout the coming month of October, with the particular intention that wars may cease and that peace may be established among peoples in conflict. Let us accompany this prayer with concrete acts of penance and mercy, committing ourselves always to fostering dialogue and reconciliation. May our most holy Mother intercede for us!"

As we gather here in this church, dedicated to Our Lady of Lourdes, let us take up the Pope's invitation and commit to praying the Holy Rosary each day for peace in our hearts and in our homes, in our country and in our world!

The rosary is recited here on Mondays at 6.30pm and on Tuesdays-Saturdays at 9.30am.

Queen of the Most Holy Rosary, pray for us!

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

World Mission Sunday - 18th October 2026

This weekend the Church celebrates World Mission Sunday, the weekend when the Pope annually invites all Catholics throughout the world to support the Churches missionary life.

World Mission Sunday is the day set aside by the Catholic Church throughout the world to publicly renew its commitment to its universal mission, it's calling to bring the Good News of Christ to the ends of the earth.

In his message marking the 100th World Mission Sunday Pope Leo reminded us that the unity of the Church as a community of Christ's disciples is inseparable from its missionary outreach to the world: 'The unity of disciples is not an end in itself; it is directed towards mission. It is through the witness of a reconciled, fraternal and united community that the proclamation of the Gospel acquires its full communicative power.'

As Christ's disciples, we are all called and sent to be instruments of his compassion in the context of our broken, confused and anxiety riven world.

While all baptised members of the Church are called to bear witness to Christ and the Gospel of love, wherever they are, there is also, within the Church, a special calling to mission outside one's own cultural or national setting – mission ad gentes. Down through the centuries the Church's mission to the nations was carried out by the members of missionary congregations and societies, ready and willing to embark upon a courageous outreach to peoples and cultures outside their homelands.

Irish missionaries and their supporters have made, and continue to make, an outstanding contribution to this missionary outreach. Without the inspiration and leadership given by these women and men, the missionary impulse of the Church would have gradually diminished and died out, and the Church would have never realised its essential vocation to bring the Good News to the ends of the earth.

Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible Many of us want to read the Bible but can find it difficult to understand. The Parish will be running 'Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible', an eight-part course that will help us to understand the main story of the Bible and how all the different parts fit together. It gives the 'big picture' and helps us see what the Bible is really about. We will meet on Monday evenings starting on 2nd November at 8pm (after 7.30pm Mass) in the Parish Hall, St Columb's Church. Sessions will begin with prayer, followed by a video presentation and small group discussion. By the end, you'll feel more confident reading the Bible and have a better understanding of how you fit into God's plan. To register for the course, please leave your name and contact details at the Parish Office (028 71 342303 or email secretary@watersideparish.net).

Lord our God, loving Father,
We humbly pray to you for our beloved missionaries, heralds of the Gospel,
