· Births, Deaths & Marriages ·

Recent Bereavement: We pray for the happy repose of the soul of Jack Kerr, late of Longford and Moydow, whose funeral mass takes place in St. Mary's Church, Moydow on Sunday at 1pm and burial in Moydow Cemetery. Sympathy to his family and may he rest in peace. Amen.

Patrick Feeney Concert: The Patrick Feeney Concert will take place on Friday 20th November at 8:00pm in Ardagh Community Centre. Tickets on sale in Lyons's shop at €30 each. Also from Pauline at 085-1221432 or Betty at 086-3855424.

Financial Statements for Cluster Parish: The financial statements for Legan/Ballycloghan and Ardagh/Moydow will be available shortly. The Audits have been completed in the last few weeks and I always like to publish the accounts when the audits are done.

New Book Researches the Residents of Ardagh Village 1860 – 2026: Úna Byrne and Mary Keegan Hynes, will launch their new book, "Ardagh, County Longford - Our Estate Village and Our Residents 1860-2026", on October 23rd 2026 at 7:30p.m. in Ardagh Community Centre. All are welcome to attend. The book will be launched by Tom Kenny of Kenny's Bookshop and Art Gallery, Galway. Tom's own grandfather and great grandfather were residents in Ardagh Village from the late 1800s through to 1921.

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time: Prisoners Sunday: Prisoners Sunday is an opportunity to consider how we, as individuals, as a Church, and as communities, are serving our brothers and sisters affected by imprisonment. Our prisons are in crisis. There are record numbers of people behind bars. Inspectors regularly report instances of vermin, violence, self harm and people languishing in cells with nothing to do. At the same time, too many people are released with nothing home, no job, no family and no hope. The ripple effects of this crisis are felt well beyond the prison walls. The lives of hundreds of thousands of families and children are affected as they too, serve a hidden sentence. Having a mother, father, husband or wife in prison can have a devastating impact, more than half of families say they are struggling to afford the basics for themselves and their children. This years Prisoners Sunday takes place this Sunday 11th October, so please remember their families in your prayers.

Legan / Ballycloghan Collections: Many thanks for your generosity to these collections:

Legan Offertory:	€258.00
Ballycloghan Offertory:	€265.00
Harvest Dues (both churches):	€10.00

Ardagh & Moydow: Counting team no. 1 on Tuesday 13th October.

Alzheimer Society Support Group: The Longford branch of The Alzheimer Society will hold their monthly support group on Wednesday 14th October at 7.00pm in our office, 2 Earl street, Longford, opposite Mollaghan's furniture shop. For more information, you can contact Orlaith Leonard on 086-3802183.

Longford Region PTAA Dinner Dance: All are welcome to attend this year's PTAA annual dinner dance in the Rustic Inn on Friday 16th October at 7:30pm. Tickets €35 each. Music by Seamus Farrell. A great night of food, music and craic guaranteed!

Legan ICA: Meeting on Monday 12th October at 7:30pm in the Aurora hall. We plan a craft demonstration, taster, session. If this appeals to people not in ICA, please pop in, have a cuppa and enjoy the crafter.

Hospice Thanks: A collective word of thanks to everyone who prepared, baked, attended and contributed so very generously during the Coffee Morning in support of Longford Hospice Homecare Services in Legan on Friday.
Also a big thank you to all who donated and helped in any way to the recent Hospice Coffee morning held in Ardagh GAA clubhouse, raising €910 which will go towards Hospice and Palliative Care in the county.

PARISH NOTICES

Mission Sunday: 18th October 2026: World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal to support overseas missions and missionaries. This years theme is: "One In Christ United In Mission". Every Christian is called to be a missionary and witness to Christ. If we take mission out of the Bible we have nothing left but the covers. All the monies donated in the Propagation of the Faith or Mission Appeal envelopes go directly to aid missionaries doing great work in different parts of the world. The Funds received are essential, not only for missionaries, but for the future of the Church. It supports missionary activities in over 1,130 mission dioceses, mostly found in Africa, Asia and Latin America. We ask you to please give as generously as you can to this very worthy cause.

PARISH NOTICES

BAPTISMS: We welcome into the Christian Community Gearóid McTigue, who was baptised in St.Patrick's Gowel, last weekend.

DEATH: We pray for the happy repose of the soul of Patrick (Paddy Joe) Walsh, (Kingston Terrace and formerly Arigna) whose funeral took place in St.Mary's Church last Tuesday. May he rest in the peace of Christ.

COMMUNITY NOTICES

OCTOBER: MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY. You are warmly invited to join in the 6 pm Rosary in St. Joseph's Church, Leitrim Village, on any day during this month dedicated to the Holy Rosary.

THE MARIST LAITY meeting will take place on Tuesday, 13th October, at 10.45 a.m. in the Education Centre, Marymount. New members are most welcome.

KILTOGHERT WOMEN'S GROUP: Will have Catherine McGuire from Ardcarne centre giving a demonstration on Wednesday 14th October at 8.30pm. All welcome.

Invitation and Response:

At the very core of our faith there are two words that stand out, namely, Invitation and Response. God invites. We respond. Over the course of our lives we each make our individual response to the 'open-ended' invitation of God. This is outlined for us in the parable in our gospel. Every generation provides generous responders and many also choose to turn a deaf ear. The parable of the wedding feast is focused on those who refuse the invitation and the inevitable consequences that they experience. Each day we have an opportunity to draw closer to the Lord and respond to His invitation with generosity of spirit.

During the month of October we can invoke the intercession of Mary the Mother of God whose response to God's invitation changed the course of human history.

Take my hand O Blessed Mother, hold me fast lest I fall.

I am nervous when I'm walking, and to thee I humbly call.

Guide me over every crossing, watch me when I'm on my way.

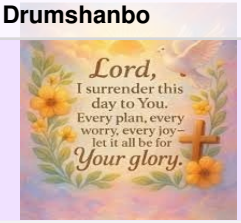

Let me know you are beside me, listen to my frequent prayers.

Bring me to my destination, safely every day.

Help me with my understanding, as the hours pass away.

And when evening falls upon me, and I fear to be alone,

Take my hand O Blessed Mother, and once again guide me home.

St. Teresa of Avila Prayer. (Feast Day 15th October.)

Let nothing disturb you.
Let nothing frighten you.
All things pass.
God does not change.
Patience achieves everything.
Whoever has God, lacks nothing.
God alone suffices. Amen.

October is the month of The Rosary.

The repetition of the Rosary can be calming, soothing and healing to our souls and settling to our fretful minds. Our minds can and will wander but this is the blessing of the beads to hold all the distractions and day dreaming in the pray that knows no divide. When we pray the Rosary, Our Lady, Mother Mary prays with us our deepest hearts desires.

Drumshanbo NW Hospice Group sincerely thank all who contributed to recent Coffee Morning. A special word of thanks to Nessa (Berry's) and all who donated cakes etc. €2780 was raised which includes €627.40 from the pupils and staff of St. Patrick's National School.

Mission Sunday: On Sunday 18th October, the Church sets aside a special day for the Mission of the Church. Special prayers will be said for the Missions and a collection will be taken up to support the poorer parishes in the world. Please use the envelope set aside in your box of envelopes for this collection or if you prefer to use your own envelope and mark Mission Sunday to make your donation. Last year the diocese of Ardagh and Clonmacnois contributed 26 thousand euro to the Mission collection. Please give as generously as you can. Thanking you in advance.

RESPONSE: In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 22: 1-14

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people:
'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come.
Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited" he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding."
But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them.
The king was furious. He despatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town.
Then he said to his servants,
"The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the cross-roads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding".
So these servants went out on to the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests. When the king came in to look at the guests he noticed one man who was not wearing a wedding garment, and said to him,
"How did you get in here, my friend, without a wedding garment?" And the man was silent. Then the king said to the attendants,
"Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth". For many are called, but few are chosen.'

Dressed for the Feast: Clothed in Christ's Love

In recent weeks, the Gospel has reminded us of God's all-embracing love, which welcomes everyone without distinction. Biblical times grappled with so many divisions - the righteous and the outcast, tax collectors and prostitutes, Jews and Gentiles. There were insiders and outsiders. The world of our day is so divided: Israeli and Palestinian, Protestant and Catholic, homeless and housed, black and white, citizen and foreign national, rich and poor, straight and gay, sinner and saint. Yet, the good news is that everyone is welcome at the Lord's Table.

If, as today's Gospel reminds us, everyone is welcome, why does it end by emphasising the "wedding garment"? One man responds to the urgency of the invitation and has no time to get suited and booted. Yet, because he does not meet the dress code, he is cast into the darkness, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

Throughout the New Testament, clothing is a vivid metaphor for inner spiritual renewal. Saint Paul urges us to put on compassion, kindness, humility, and patience, and Saint Peter calls us to clothe ourselves with humility towards one another. "Put on Christ," the priest says as we dress children in the white robe of baptism. We are called to keep that baptismal robe unstained. God's invitation to the banquet is freely given, but accepting it requires inner transformation. The true garment is a heartfelt desire to follow Christ in both word and deed.

We are all invited as God's beloved children. Remembering who we are and whose house we enter prompts the question: How am I clothed within?

Let us live up to our dignity and prepare our hearts for the feast.
