October is the month dedicated to Mary; The month of the Rosary

"Take my Hand, O Blessed Mother" is a prayer that reflects the belief in Our Lady's maternal care and her willingness to assist her children who call upon her. It is a plea for guidance, protection, and strength throughout life's journey, recognising Our Lady as our compassionate and loving mother.

Take My Hand O Blessed Mother

Take my hand, O Blessed Mother
hold me firmly lest I fall;
I grow nervous while walking and humbly on thee call.
Guide me over every crossing, watch me when I'm on the stairs let me know that you're beside me;
listen to my fervent prayers.
Bring me to my destination safely along the way, bless my every undertaking and my duties for the day.
And when evening creeps upon me
I'll never fear to be alone:
once again, O Blessed Mother, take my hand and lead me home.
Amen.

A word of thanks to Mary Larkin who created the Sacred Space and the O'Meara family, Fortal for supplying the vegetables in honour of the season of Creation. Mile Buíochas.

Twenty-Eight Sunday in Ordinary Time We gather to celebrate the Eucharist, which is to be a celebration in hope and joy as a foretaste of the heavenly banquet. To take part in it is a grace and a privilege. But we must wear the wedding garment of sinlessness and obedience to God's will. Many before us have been called to the feast but failed to stay.

Castleconnell Parish Hall Needs Your Help Built by our community in 1955, our beloved hall has recently seen a fantastic boom in local use after a three-year cleanup. To keep this momentum going, there is an urgent need to tackle roof, electrical, and plastering repairs, as well as stage and lighting upgrades. This growing activity is a big task for the small committee, so we are calling on local residents to volunteer your time, skills, or trades. Get involved: Message them on Facebook (Castleconnell Parish Hall) or email castleconnellparishhall@gmail.com.

Gathering as a Community to Pray.

An Invitation to Lead.

We are the People of God and united in baptism in our Christian calling. The blessing of being able to gather and pray together is a wonderful gift. All through the centuries people led and were led in prayer by fellow parishioners. Today, this invitation is as strong as ever. With the opportunities that are now present we in Imeall Boirne Pastoral Area have a great gift before us. We have nine churches that have served our communities over the centuries as places of prayer. We are being asked to continue to gather in our communities to pray as is happening with Liturgy of the Word with Holy Communion, Rosary groups, Prayer Groups, Pray and Play groups, Eucharistic Adoration and School based groups are just some of the groups that are currently being led by fellow parishioners. To support and encourage leaders we are inviting all involved and also any person who would like to get involved to a gathering in Ruan Hall on Wednesday Oct. 21st @ 8pm.

If we do not gather we will be scattered!!!

Killaloe Diocese Meeting of Priests The priests of the diocese are having their annual gathering this week. Liturgies will be celebrated at the usual times Monday 12th, Tuesday 13th and Wednesday 14th October.

Safeguarding A safe parish is one where children and young people are cherished, listened to, and protected. Our safeguarding policies, training and procedures help us to provide safe environments for everyone involved in parish activities. We are grateful to our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, clergy, staff, and volunteers for their continued commitment to this important work.
Who needs to be Vetted? Eucharistic Ministers who have been commissioned to bring the Eucharist to homes, hospitals, care homes and other institutions where there are children and vulnerable adults present.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon
If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities,
Lord, who could stand?
But with you is found forgiveness,
O God of Israel.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord
C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.
C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.
Is 25:6-10

On this mountain,
the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples
a banquet of rich food, a banquet of fine wines,
of food rich and juicy,
of fine strained wines.
On this mountain He will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples,
and the shroud enwrapping all nations,
He will destroy Death for ever.
The Lord will wipe away
the tears from every cheek;
he will take away his peoples shame
everywhere on earth,
for the Lord has said so.
That day, it will be said: See, this is our God
in whom we hoped for salvation;
the Lord is the one in whom we hoped.
We exult and we rejoice
that he has saved us;
for the hand of the Lord
rests on this mountain.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm
R. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

The Lord is my shepherd;
There is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
Where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
To revive my drooping spirit. R

He guides me along the right path;
He is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
No evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
With these you give me comfort. R

You have prepared a banquet for me
In the sight of my foes
My head you have anointed with oil;
My cup is overflowing. R

Surely goodness and kindness
shall follow me
All the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell
For ever and ever. R

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Philippians. Ph 4:12-14.19-20
I know how to be poor and I know how to be rich too. I have been through my initiation and now I am ready for anything anywhere: full stomach or empty stomach, poverty or plenty. There is nothing I cannot master with the help of the One who gives me strength. All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships. In return my God will fulfil all your needs, in Christ Jesus, as lavishly as only God can. Glory to God, our Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation
Alleluia, alleluia!
The Word was made flesh
and lived among us;
To all who did accept him
He gave power to become children of God.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. Mt 22:1-14
Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He despatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the cross-roads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out onto the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

The Gospel of the Lord.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day In accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon
The rich suffer want and go hungry
But those who seek the Lord
lack no blessing.

Prisoners' Sunday

The king in this story is certainly not like the God of love and mercy that we are led to believe in by Jesus himself in much of his teaching. So, to understand this Gospel means we must be prepared to dive deeper into them. Could it be that those invited did not come to the banquet as a sign of protest? That they did not drop everything and go because the promises of the king were false, or because in this king's reign there was no justice, or because the poor were left in their poverty. Maybe they did not go to celebrate with the king because the king was not worthy of the title?

Certainly, some people who live in oppressive regimes wind up behaving in ways which are otherwise reprehensible simply because they feel they have no other choice. And it is worth noting that not everyone behaved in this way and yet the king, in his vengeful ways, not only punishes the 'murderers,' but everyone else who called that city home.

I wonder if Jesus would have found himself to be the one who would not pretend to honour a tyrant king by putting on that wedding robe — who in behalf of all of us was thrown into the outer darkness where there was weeping and gnashing of teeth.

The kingdom of heaven is surely a place of equality and justice – but if those who seek to lead and fill it do not act out of love, then which is right, to bow down to them or to refuse to play along. More than ever, the question is for you – how do you understand this parable and why do you take that view?

National Synodal Assembly Saturday 17th October, 2026

The National Synodal Assembly for the Catholic Church in Ireland will take place next Saturday 17th October at the City North Hotel, Gormanstown, Co. Meath. Delegates from every Diocese across the country will gather to consider proposals, engage in communal discernment and make practical recommendations for the Church in Ireland. This Assembly marks a key moment in the Irish Synodal Pathway, which began in 2021.
The theme is 'The Living Out of Our Baptism' and discussions will focus on seven priorities:

- Belonging;
- Co-responsibility & Lay Ministry;
- Family;
- Formation and Catechesis;
- Healing;
- Women;
- Youth.

The working document entitled 'Is Not This What God Asks of You?' has been published and is available to read. Everyone is warmly invited to pray with and reflect on the question that has guided the Synodal Pathway from the beginning.

What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?

We ask all parishioners to keep this important gathering in your prayers.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon
If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities,
Lord, who could stand?
But with you is found forgiveness,
O God of Israel.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord
C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.
C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

A reading from the prophet Isaiah.
Is 25:6-10

On this mountain,
the Lord of hosts will prepare for all peoples
a banquet of rich food, a banquet of fine wines,
of food rich and juicy,
of fine strained wines.
On this mountain He will remove the
mourning veil covering all peoples,
and the shroud enwrapping all nations,
He will destroy Death for ever.
The Lord will wipe away
the tears from every cheek;
he will take away his peoples shame
everywhere on earth,
for the Lord has said so.
That day, it will be said: See, this is our God
in whom we hoped for salvation;
the Lord is the one in whom we hoped.
We exult and we rejoice
that he has saved us;
for the hand of the Lord
rests on this mountain.

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm
R. In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

The Lord is my shepherd;
There is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
Where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
To revive my drooping spirit. R

He guides me along the right path;
He is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
No evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
With these you give me comfort. R

You have prepared a banquet for me
In the sight of my foes
My head you have anointed with oil;
My cup is overflowing. R

Surely goodness and kindness
shall follow me
All the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell
For ever and ever. R

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Philippians. Ph 4:12-14.19-20
I know how to be poor and I know how to be rich too. I have been through my initiation and now I am ready for anything anywhere: full stomach or empty stomach, poverty or plenty. There is nothing I cannot master with the help of the One who gives me strength. All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships. In return my God will fulfil all your needs, in Christ Jesus, as lavishly as only God can. Glory to God, our Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation
Alleluia, alleluia!
The Word was made flesh
and lived among us;
To all who did accept him
He gave power to become children of God.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew. Mt 22:1-14
Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He despatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the cross-roads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out onto the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

The Gospel of the Lord.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day In accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Communion Antiphon
The rich suffer want and go hungry
But those who seek the Lord
lack no blessing.

Mission Month 2026

October is Mission Month
For Yamikani, getting to school means walking long distances in pain, often without enough food or strength to make the journey. For many families in vulnerable and remote areas like rural Malawi, education has become an impossible choice. But there is hope. Led by Fr. Matthew Semba, a new primary school is being built, offering children a safe place to learn, grow and look ahead with renewed possibility. This World Mission Month, you are invited to share in this mission, standing with families as they build their lives and create a brighter future for their children.

THE NATIONAL SYNODAL ASSEMBLY for the Catholic Church in Ireland will take place next Saturday 17th October at the City North Hotel, Gormanstown, Co. Meath. Delegates from every Diocese across the country will gather to consider proposals, engage in communal discernment and make practical recommendations for the Church in Ireland. This Assembly marks a key moment in the Irish Synodal Pathway, which began in 2021. The theme is 'The Living Out of Our Baptism' and discussions will focus on seven priorities: Belonging; Co-responsibility & Lay Ministry; Family; Formation and Catechesis; Healing; Women; Youth. The working document entitled 'Is Not This What God Asks of You?' has been published and is available to read. Everyone is warmly invited to pray with and reflect on the question that has guided the Synodal Pathway from the beginning. What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time? We ask all parishioners to keep this important gathering in your prayers.

MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTION will be taken up next weekend.

MISSION MONTH 2026

October is Mission Month

For Yamikani, getting to school means walking long distances in pain, often without enough food or strength to make the journey. For many families in vulnerable and remote areas like rural Malawi, education has become an impossible choice. But there is hope. Led by Fr. Matthew Semba, a new primary school is being built, offering children a safe place to learn, grow and look ahead with renewed possibility. This World Mission Month, you are invited to share in this mission, standing with families as they build their lives and create a brighter future for their children.

MISSION MONTH ACTIVITY PAGES FOR CHILDREN Are available at all masses this weekend. We encourage all the children to take one home with them.

HARVEST PRAYER

Lord, we pray that this Harvest will provide for those in need.
May the abundance be shared generously, ensuring that no one goes hungry.
Let our hearts be moved to give freely as You have given to us.
Amen

Reflection

This Sunday, we hear about God's invitation to the wedding feast. God invites each of us to be part of His family and to share in His love. As our children begin their journey towards First Holy Communion and Confirmation, may they joyfully answer God's call and grow in faith, love and friendship with Jesus. May our parish family support them with prayer and encouragement as they take these important steps in their faith.

REFLECTION: God's call
God's call comes to us in many ways
and at many different levels.
However, his call is not so much a voice
as a tug at our hearts, which we feel
at quiet and reflective moments in our lives.
He is calling us to a deeper and more authentic life.
He is calling us into intimacy with himself.
He is calling us into community with others.
And at death he will call us into eternal life.
To accept means to admit our need.
Jesus said, 'Woe to you who are full now,
for you will go hungry.
But blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled'.
A sense of something missing in our lives
is not a curse but a blessing.
A spiritual hunger
is God's way of inviting us to his banquet.

REFLECTION – God's call

God's call comes to us in many ways
And at many different levels.
However, his call is not so much a voice
As a tug at our hearts, which we feel
At quiet and reflective moments in our lives.
He is calling us to a deeper and more authentic life.
He is calling us into intimacy with himself.
He is calling us into community with others.
And at death he will call us into eternal life.
To accept means to admit our need.

Jesus said, 'Woe to you who are full now,
For you will go hungry.
But blessed are you who are hungry now,
For you will be filled.'
A sense of something missing in our lives
Is not a curse but a blessing.
A spiritual hunger
Is God's way of inviting us to his banquet.

Prayer for Prisoners
We pray your grace Lord Jesus for prisoners, and their families who walk their sentence with their loved ones.

We pray you healing Lord for the trauma that has caused them to hurt themselves, their families, and their victims

We pray they will turn to You and begin their journey of recovery, finding compassionate support in our Christian society

Jesus we trust in you.

Prisoner's Sunday 2026

Today, on Prisoners' Sunday, the Gospel gives us the striking parable of the wedding banquet. A king prepares a feast for his son. Everything is ready. The invitation has gone out. But those who were first invited refuse to come. Some are too busy with their farms and businesses; others respond with hostility and violence. So the king sends his servants out again, this time to the crossroads, saying to invite everyone you can find.

The servants gather "all they found, bad and good alike." The wedding hall is filled not because the guests have earned their place, but because the king is generous. The Gospel shows us a God whose invitation reaches further than human respectability. It reaches into the streets, into the margins, into the places where people feel forgotten, ashamed or written off.

On Prisoners' Sunday, that message is especially important. We remember men and women in prison, people leaving prison, families carrying the pain of separation, children missing a parent, victims and survivors of crime, prison staff, chaplains, probation workers and volunteers. The Gospel does not ask us to pretend that harm has not been done. Justice matters. Safety matters. Truth matters. But the Gospel also refuses to let any human being be reduced to one label or one failure.

The king's invitation is wide enough to include the good and the bad alike. That is not cheap mercy; it is the beginning of conversion. God does not invite us because we are already perfect. He invites us so that we may be changed. For prisoners, for victims, for families, and for each of us, the hope of the Gospel is that no one is beyond the reach of God's call.

But the parable also has a serious ending. One guest comes without a wedding garment. The invitation is free, but it is not meaningless. To accept the king's invitation is to allow our lives to be clothed in something new: repentance, humility, responsibility, forgiveness, justice and love. Mercy is not simply being let off; mercy is being called into a new way of living.

This is why the Church's prayer today must hold together mercy and accountability. We pray for those who have committed offences, that they may face the truth, accept responsibility and receive the grace to rebuild their lives. We pray for victims, that their dignity, safety and healing may be honoured. We pray for families, who often carry a hidden sentence of worry, shame and loneliness. And we pray for those who work in prisons and communities, that they may be strengthened in patience, wisdom and compassion.

The wedding banquet is an image of the Kingdom, but it also points us to the Eucharist. Here, too, God prepares a feast. Here, too, none of us comes because we are worthy by ourselves. We come because we have been invited. And every time we come to this table, we are asked to become more like the One who invites us: generous, truthful, merciful and ready to welcome the person others may overlook.

So on this Prisoners' Sunday, let us hear the Gospel invitation again. Go to the crossroads. Invite everyone you can find. Pray for those in prison. Stand with victims. Support families. Encourage the work of chaplaincy, rehabilitation and reconciliation. And ask the Lord to clothe all of us in the wedding garment of grace, so that our lives may bear witness to the mercy we have received. For many are invited, says Jesus. Today we pray that, by our words, our choices and our compassion, no one will feel beyond that invitation.

Prisoners' Sunday is the Catholic day of prayer and action for prisoners and their families. It is a moment to reflect on the lives of those affected by imprisonment — those in prison, their children and families, and all who struggle with the lasting impact of justice system involvement. It is an invitation to respond with compassion, prayer and practical support.

Urgent Blood Donor Appeal - Pre-Amber Alert

Nenagh Scouts Hall
Sunday 11 October | 11:50pm – 3:10pm
New Donors welcome at all clinics. Phone 1800 222 111 for appointment.

The Irish Blood Transfusion Service (IBTS) has issued a Pre-Amber Alert under the National Blood Shortage Plan following a critical shortage of RhD Negative blood, particularly O Negative, and is urgently appealing for donors to come forward. The alert calls on hospitals to conserve blood supplies while every effort is made to rebuild stocks and avoid the cancellation of elective surgeries that depend on blood support. O Negative stocks are forecast to fall to less than three days' supply, placing increasing pressure on hospitals. Although only 8% of the Irish population has RhD Negative blood, these blood groups account for 16% of all blood issued, making them essential for patients undergoing surgery, cancer treatment, emergency care and other lifesaving procedures. O Negative blood is especially valuable because it can be transfused to almost any patient in an emergency when there is no time to determine blood type. With no substitute for blood, every donation has the potential to save lives and help ensure that patients receive the treatment they need without delay. The IBTS is asking all RhD Negative donors to attend a clinic as soon as possible and is also encouraging eligible first-time donors to come forward. An additional 2,000 donations are needed over the coming weeks to restore a safe national blood supply ahead of the increased demands associated with bank holidays, seasonal illness and winter conditions. Appointments can be booked at www.giveblood.ie or by calling 1800 731 137, and walk-in donors will be accommodated wherever possible.

This Week We Offer A Special Prayer ...Prisoners

Lord, you offer freedom to all people.
We pray for all who are incarcerated and for those who are affected by or involved in their imprisonment.
Break the bonds of fear and isolation that exist.
Support with your love, prisoners,
their families, friends,
prison staff and all who care.
Heal those who have been wounded by the activities of others, especially the victims of crime.
Help us to forgive one another,
to act justly,
love mercy
and walk humbly together with Christ, in his strength and his spirit,
now and every day.
Amen.

The National Synodal Assembly: On Saturday, 17th October 2026 The National Synodal Assembly for the Catholic Church in Ireland will take place at the City North Hotel, Gormanston, Co. Meath. Delegates from every diocese across the country will gather to consider proposals, engage in communal discernment, and make practical recommendations for the Church in Ireland. This Assembly marks a key moment in the Irish Synodal Pathway, which began in 2021. The theme is The Living Out of Our Baptism, and discussions will focus on seven priorities: Belonging, Co-responsibility and Lay Ministry, Family, Formation and Catechesis, Healing, Women, and Youth.
The Working Document, entitled "Is not this what God asks of you?", has been published and is available to read. Everyone is warmly invited to pray with it and reflect on the question that has guided the Synodal Pathway from the beginning: "What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?". We ask all parishioners to keep this important gathering in your prayers.

At 7pm, people are asked to take a moment in memory of all the babies who are loved, missed and never forgotten.
