TODAY'S MASS READINGS

First reading

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he has taken by his right hand to subdue nations before him and strip the loins of kings, to force gateways before him that their gates be closed no more: 'It is for the sake of my servant Jacob, of Israel my chosen one, that I have called you by your name, conferring a title though you do not know me. I am the Lord, unrivalled; there is no other God besides me. Though you do not know me, I arm you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that, apart from me, all is nothing.'

The Word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm

Response: Give the Lord glory and power.

Second Reading

A reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace. We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ.

We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.

The Word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Your word is truth, O Lord: consecrate us in the truth. Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. Tell us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius, and he said, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God.'

ARLES DOONANE PARISH NEWSLETTER

SERVING ARLES, BALLYLINAN, DOONANE, KILLEEN AND MAYO

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time 18th October 2026

Gospel Reflection

My mother used always say - put things where they belong. Newspapers, food, the bicycle not in the hall etc etc. Jesus says the same here - give what belongs to where it belongs.

So Jesus is being asked about taxes and politics and shifts things further. He knows he is being trapped about money. He moves on to higher questions. Something about the answer of Jesus - where do we belong?

Belonging – Control or Love

Belonging can sound heavy - as if we are being controlled. Or our money belongs to us and we can do what we like with it. But for Jesus - it's the belonging of love. Not of power and control.

It may feel like that - life and death, love, creation - many things are not in our control. We are born at God's time and die the same. This reminds us that we are not the masters of our lives, We come from God and go to God. This belonging is the centre of our human family and community is that we are God's. God doesn't want to control us but to love us.

God and Each Other

But there's a snag - belonging to God means belonging to each other. We have rights and duties of love. Give to others what belongs to others; give to the poor what belongs to the poor. Our work for hunger, education etc is not a charity for people; it is justice. Everyone has a right to the food of the earth and the food of the mind. It's not charity when people are given food, education, a home, freedom of religion, freedom of speech - it is justice.

To give to God what belongs to God is to share the goods of the earth! Big statements which by and large only the Christian faith makes.

The NBSCCCI held their biannual conference from 3rd – 5th September 2025 titled: Towards a Restorative and Transitional Justice model of engaging with victims and survivors in the Catholic Church in Ireland.

The event aimed to enhance the understanding we all have of how we must engage in a just and restorative way with those who have suffered harm in the Catholic Church in Ireland.

Special thanks to the National Board for organising and hosting the event.

Following the 2024 launch of the Church's Child Safeguarding Policy, Ailish Higgins, our Diocesan Director of Safeguarding met with young people from the diocese to ask them "What does a Safe & Welcoming Church mean to you?"

Thanks to all the children and young people who took part in these sessions and were open and honest about their experience of parish life. Thanks too to their parents, the group leaders and parish priests who supported the facilitation of these groups.

Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse

Friday February 20th 2026 (1st Friday of Lent 2026) - Our annual Holy Hour for Survivors of Abuse was held in the Cathedral Parish in Carlow. Thanks to all who attended and participated in the service.

Candle of Atonement Prayer

Lord, forgive us our many sins.

We grieve and repent with all our hearts for having offended you, for our great failings and neglect of the young and vulnerable.

We place all of those who have been hurt by the Church in any way into your loving hands and under the protection of Our Blessed Mother.

Lord, bring peace to their broken lives and show us all the way out of darkness and into the light of your Word.

May we as the people of God be more fully human, more fully Christ-like and more fully your people, that we may see the errors of the past and go forward with renewed hope and faith in Christ and in our Church.

Amen.

Message from Bishop Denis Nulty

Sunday, February 22, is Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday. It is the first Sunday of Lent and appropriately so, as we enter the Penitential Season and seek forgiveness for past failings. In his address at the January Consistory Pope Leo XIV reminded all that "abuse itself causes a deep wound, which may last a lifetime; but often the scandal in the Church is that the door was closed and victims were not welcomed or accompanied with the closeness of authentic pastors". This year we have intentionally linked the 'Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse' on Friday, February 20 with 'Safeguarding Sunday' two days later.

The National Child Safeguarding Policy for our Church is called 'A Safe and Welcoming Church' and that is what our diocese is and our parishes are, a safe and welcoming Church. The fact that 'Safeguarding Sunday' has become such a regular part of our Diocesan and Parish life, demonstrates how the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults has been so well embedded into every area of the life of our diocese, its 56 parishes and 117 faith communities.

Safeguarding Sunday is once again an opportunity to acknowledge and recognise the years of dedication and work by so many to ensure that Kildare & Leighlin Diocese is a safe place for children and all who work with them. It's an opportunity to thank all who today ensure safeguarding is so well embedded in our diocesan culture, Ailish Higgins, our Director of Safeguarding, currently on maternity leave, Michele Hughes, our Acting Designated Liaison Person, the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee, our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, our priests, our deacons and our people, particularly the many who volunteer at parish level, ensuring the life and vitality of their faith community.

As ever, on my parish visits, I encourage ministry with children and young people, this is an essential part of the mission of the Church. Where altar serving, youth choirs, Sunday School have returned I welcome them warmly; where they haven't for whatever reason, once again I encourage their early return. The life of a parish is often defined by the active engagement of young people in that parish. Safeguarding Sunday is a reassurance to all that being involved in the parish is governed by best practices in safeguarding.

Every blessing & thanks,

+Denis Nulty

Twenty Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A - 18th October 2026

The question as to whether or not it was lawful to pay taxes to Caesar was a very serious one, and it really put Jesus in a spot. If he said it was lawful, he would be regarded as a traitor to the Jewish cause and the Jewish religion. If he said it was unlawful, he could be denounced as fomenting rebellion against Rome. Jesus replied: "Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God" (For Caesar we can substitute the Stte). This doesn't mean that there are some things that belong to Caesar and others that belong to God, as if reality were divisible into 'secular' and 'sacred'. It means that an obligation to Caesar stands under and is judged by a paramount obligation: to acknowledge the sovereignity of God.

Jesus was implying that there need not be conflict between the demands of the State and those of God. The State has a role, but its power is limited and does not supplant God. From this principle Christians deduced that they could accommodate loyalty to the State.

As Christians we have dual citizenship. We are citizens of the country in which we happen to be living or in which we were born. To it we owe many benefits. To its forces of law and order we owe the fact that we are able to live in peace and security. To its public services we owe transport, water, light, etc. To its social provisions we have access to education, medical care, and so on.

But as Christians we are also citizens of the kingdom of God. To it we owe certain priviledges, and to it we also have obligations. In most cases the two responsibilities do not clash. But at times they may. And when they do, Christians will spontaneously know which comes first.

As Christians our first and deepest loyalty is to God. To God alone we render worship. In order things we gladly acknowledge and serve the secular powers, praying that they will rule wisely and justly.

Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse

Friday February 20th 2026 (1st Friday of Lent 2026) - Our annual Holy Hour for Survivors of Abuse was held in the Cathedral Parish in Carlow. Thanks to all who attended and participated in the service.

Candle of Atonement Prayer

Lord, forgive us our many sins.

We grieve and repent with all our hearts for having offended you, for our great failings and neglect of the young and vulnerable.

We place all of those who have been hurt by the Church in any way into your loving hands and under the protection of Our Blessed Mother.

Lord, bring peace to their broken lives and show us all the way out of darkness and into the light of your Word.

May we as the people of God be more fully human, more fully Christ-like and more fully your people, that we may see the errors of the past and go forward with renewed hope and faith in Christ and in our Church.

Amen.

Message from Bishop Denis Nulty

Sunday, February 22, is Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday. It is the first Sunday of Lent and appropriately so, as we enter the Penitential Season and seek forgiveness for past failings. In his address at the January Consistory Pope Leo XIV reminded all that "abuse itself causes a deep wound, which may last a lifetime; but often the scandal in the Church is that the door was closed and victims were not welcomed or accompanied with the closeness of authentic pastors". This year we have intentionally linked the 'Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse' on Friday, February 20 with 'Safeguarding Sunday' two days later.

The National Child Safeguarding Policy for our Church is called 'A Safe and Welcoming Church' and that is what our diocese is and our parishes are, a safe and welcoming Church. The fact that 'Safeguarding Sunday' has become such a regular part of our Diocesan and Parish life, demonstrates how the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults has been so well embedded into every area of the life of our diocese, its 56 parishes and 117 faith communities.

Safeguarding Sunday is once again an opportunity to acknowledge and recognise the years of dedication and work by so many to ensure that Kildare & Leighlin Diocese is a safe place for children and all who work with them. It's an opportunity to thank all who today ensure safeguarding is so well embedded in our diocesan culture, Ailish Higgins, our Director of Safeguarding, currently on maternity leave, Michele Hughes, our Acting Designated Liaison Person, the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee, our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, our priests, our deacons and our people, particularly the many who volunteer at parish level, ensuring the life and vitality of their faith community.

As ever, on my parish visits, I encourage ministry with children and young people, this is an essential part of the mission of the Church. Where altar serving, youth choirs, Sunday School have returned I welcome them warmly; where they haven't for whatever reason, once again I encourage their early return. The life of a parish is often defined by the active engagement of young people in that parish. Safeguarding Sunday is a reassurance to all that being involved in the parish is governed by best practices in safeguarding.

Every blessing & thanks,

+Denis Nulty

Pope Leo 14th on AI

Even today, colonialism assumes new forms. It no longer dominates only bodies, but appropriates data, transforming personal lives into exploitable information. Entire regions, especially those marked by structural fragility and limited geopolitical relevance, are currently subjected to a new mindset of extraction: that of health data, epidemiological profiles, genetic maps and demographic information. Thes have become the new protections will be allocated. Here lies one of the most urgent moral challenges of our time: to ensure that shared knowledge becomes a true common good rather than an instrument of dominance. This requires restoring to individuals not only the data that describes them, but also the ability to decide how it is used, by whom and for whose benefit. Otherwise, the digital age will not be post-colonial, but colonial in another form.

Safeguarding Sunday 22nd February 2026

Testimonials from Young People who engage in youth activities in our Diocese.

I am a leader in the parish youth group and in the Faith Friends programme. I really enjoy being part of the Church in this way because I am able to understand and deepen my own faith.

It makes me feel part of the Community.

I would like to be a part of their Confirmation journey and beyond

I enjoy helping with the Confirmation kids, because I remember what it is like to make my Confirmation.

I hope that I can encourage the young people to take their faith seriously.

Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse

Friday February 20th 2026 (1st Friday of Lent 2026) - Our annual Holy Hour for Survivors of Abuse was held in the Cathedral Parish in Carlow. Thanks to all who attended and participated in the service.

Candle of Atonement Prayer

Lord, forgive us our many sins.

We grieve and repent with all our hearts for having offended you, for our great failings and neglect of the young and vulnerable.

We place all of those who have been hurt by the Church in any way into your loving hands and under the protection of Our Blessed Mother.

Lord, bring peace to their broken lives and show us all the way out of darkness and into the light of your Word.

May we as the people of God be more fully human, more fully Christ-like and more fully your people, that we may see the errors of the past and go forward with renewed hope and faith in Christ and in our Church.

Amen.

Message from Bishop Denis Nulty

Sunday, February 22, is Diocesan Safeguarding Sunday. It is the first Sunday of Lent and appropriately so, as we enter the Penitential Season and seek forgiveness for past failings. In his address at the January Consistory Pope Leo XIV reminded all that "abuse itself causes a deep wound, which may last a lifetime; but often the scandal in the Church is that the door was closed and victims were not welcomed or accompanied with the closeness of authentic pastors". This year we have intentionally linked the 'Day of Prayer for Survivors and Victims of Abuse' on Friday, February 20 with 'Safeguarding Sunday' two days later.

The National Child Safeguarding Policy for our Church is called 'A Safe and Welcoming Church' and that is what our diocese is and our parishes are, a safe and welcoming Church. The fact that 'Safeguarding Sunday' has become such a regular part of our Diocesan and Parish life, demonstrates how the safeguarding of children and vulnerable adults has been so well embedded into every area of the life of our diocese, its 56 parishes and 117 faith communities.

Safeguarding Sunday is once again an opportunity to acknowledge and recognise the years of dedication and work by so many to ensure that Kildare & Leighlin Diocese is a safe place for children and all who work with them. It's an opportunity to thank all who today ensure safeguarding is so well embedded in our diocesan culture, Ailish Higgins, our Director of Safeguarding, currently on maternity leave, Michele Hughes, our Acting Designated Liaison Person, the Diocesan Safeguarding Committee, our Parish Safeguarding Representatives, our priests, our deacons and our people, particularly the many who volunteer at parish level, ensuring the life and vitality of their faith community.

As ever, on my parish visits, I encourage ministry with children and young people, this is an essential part of the mission of the Church. Where altar serving, youth choirs, Sunday School have returned I welcome them warmly; where they haven't for whatever reason, once again I encourage their early return. The life of a parish is often defined by the active engagement of young people in that parish. Safeguarding Sunday is a reassurance to all that being involved in the parish is governed by best practices in safeguarding.

Every blessing & thanks,

+Denis Nulty

National Board for Safeguarding Children in the Catholic Church in Ireland – Biannual conference

The NBSCCCI held their biannual conference from 3rd – 5th September 2025 titled: Towards a Restorative and Transitional Justice model of engaging with victims and survivors in the Catholic Church in Ireland.

The event aimed to enhance the understanding we all have of how we must engage in a just and restorative way with those who have suffered harm in the Catholic Church in Ireland.

Our diocesan director of safeguarding and DLP attended the event and shared valuable feedback with our diocesan safeguarding committee. The learning from the conference will help guide our practice going forward.

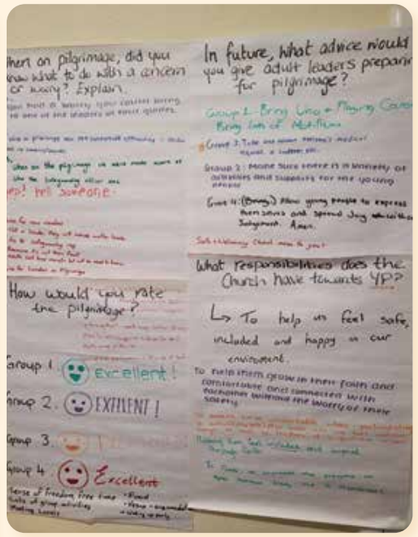

Special thanks to the National Board for organising and hosting the event.

Following the 2024 launch of the Church's Child Safeguarding Policy, Ailish Higgins, our Diocesan Director of Safeguarding met with young people from the diocese to ask them "What does a Safe & Welcoming Church mean to you?"

Thanks to all the children and young people who took part in these sessions and were open and honest about their experience of parish life. Thanks too to their parents, the group leaders and parish priests who supported the facilitation of these groups.

Synodal Pathway Update

300 delegates from across the island of Ireland gathered on Saturday in Gormanstown, Co Meath to discern together 35 proposals for action that have emerged in the synodal pathway that the church has been on since 2021. For each proposal, the assembly had four options: Highly recommend, recommend, needs more discernment, do not recommend. The bishops now have the responsibility of receiving the discernment of the assembly. As the synodal pathway continues, the working document for the assembly remains a valuable document for all interested in the life of our church and parishes. It not only outlines the 35 proposals but also describes a vision for the Church that has emerged through the synodal process. This vision is worth taking the time to read and can be accessed on www.kandle.ie and www.synod.ie

28th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The wedding feast is a picture of God's desire to invite his people to the joy of his kingdom, on the condition that they obey his will. But the Israelites disobey God by doing evil and practicing idolatry. God sends prophets to denounce the people's faithlessness and acts of injustice and then to invite them to repentance. In time, with God's coming, God's invitation is opened also to those who are not 'God's people' The Pagans, rejoice that they are invited and they accept Jesus and his message. But it is not enough to accept the invitation. One should prove oneself worthy of the banquet by being properly attired, by putting in the goodwill and effort to live the message of Jesus.

We gather to celebrate the Eucharist, which is to be a celebration in hope, joy and love as a foretaste of the heavenly banquet. To take part in it is a grace and a privilege. But we must wear the wedding garment of sinlessness and obedience to God's will. Many before us have been called to the feast but failed to stay.

HARVEST OF MY HEART

When I pause to gather the produce of my inner garden, everything that yields abundance holds your flavour,
scent and shape.
The recognised fruits of daily effort,
the results of faithful discipline,
the increasing growth of healthy habits,
and the tender ripening of virtues,
All this comes for your grace,
from you Lord,
Harvest of my Heart.

SYNODAL PATHWAY UPDATE:: 300 delegates gathered on Saturday in Gormanstown, Co Meath to discern together 35 proposals for action that have emerged in the synodal pathway that the church has been on since 2021. For each proposal, the assembly had four options: Highly recommend, recommend, needs more discernment, do not recommend. The bishops now have the responsibility of receiving the discernment of the assembly. As the synodal pathway continues, the working document for the assembly remains a valuable document for all interested in the life of our church and parishes. It not only outlines the 35 proposals but also describes a vision for the Church that has emerged through the synodal process. This vision is worth taking the time to read and can be accessed on www.kandle.ie and www.synod.ie

18TH October 2026
29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

World Mission Sunday 18th October:

"One in Christ, United in Mission".

It is World Mission Sunday, a day when our entire Church family comes together for a truly incredible celebration of solidarity.
Today, every single Church around the world shares what they can, so that the vital work of the Church and our missionaries can continue. Through your extra generosity, you are offering much needed financial help to missionaries who dedicate their lives to those who are suffering and neglected.
Right now, missionaries desperately need your help. In many poorer parishes in Africa, Asia, and Latin America missionaries are serving on the front line. They already do so much, walking hand-in-hand with marginalized communities, long before and after any emergency.
You can show missionaries you care by supporting World Mission Sunday. Your prayers and generosity will change lives.
From all the missionaries your kindness supports, thank you for digging deeper today.

Call Missio Ireland (01)4972035 or log onto www.mission.ie to donate.

Synodal Pathway Update

The Synodal Assembly takes place this Saturday with delegates, including from our Diocese, addressing 35 proposals that have come through the last number of years of discernment nationally. The Assembly will decide on each proposal whether to Highly Recommend; Recommend; Needs further discernment; Do not recommend. The Assembly's response will then be received by the Bishops for the next step of discernment and implementation. The preparatory document for Saturday is very worthwhile reading for all involved in Parish life, It gives a clear vision of Church that has emerged through the participation of thousands across Ireland in the universal and national processes in recent years, as well as laying out the proposals themselves. The document can be read on Kandle.ie and synod.ie

Mt 22:15-21

A Visit to the Eternal City!

Recently, I had the opportunity to travel to Rome to attend the diaconate ordination of a young American seminarian. You may vaguely remember Justin Seidleck from two years ago when he participated in the Holy Week Ceremonies of 2024 in OLSD.

We have a family connection! My grand aunt, Marie Morgan, from near Abbeyleix emigrated along with a number of her siblings to Philadelphia between the years 1911 – 1915. Justin is the great-great-grandson of Marie Morgan.

A re-connection with long lost family members living in America was reignited by a 'letter arriving from America' in 1984. Thus began the renewal of family ties, culminating on the 1st of October when I attended the ordination ceremony in St. Peter's Basilica. And, meeting Justin's parents for the first time!

Below, you will see that the weekend wasn't only about praying and kneeling!...

A lovely opportunity to meet up with Fr. Livui and Fr. Niroj, they asked me to send their kind regards to everyone in Naas, Sallins and Two Mile House.

The Holy Mass

Have you ever wondered why we start Mass in the way that we do? we bless ourselves: "In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" and at the same time we make the sign of the cross.
The Priest follows this by saying "The Lord be with you" and we reply "And, with your Spirit"
To find out why this is, join us on Tuesday 20th Oct. in Ballycane at 7.15pm.
Stay for biscuits and a cup of tea/coffee.

Confirmation 2027

Pictured here, are a class from Scoil an Linbh Íosa, Ballycane, starting off the series of retreats for Confirmation Candidates at Solas Bhríde last week. Over the course of the next month children from our three parishes will participate in a Retreat Day which begins with Mass and includes activities exploring the Holy Spirit in our lives and a pilgrim walk to St. Brigid's Well.
Many thanks to Trish O'Neill and the Youth Ministry Team for accompanying the young people on their journey.

Great news!
Naas Parish have been chosen for the Live TV Broadcast of the Holy Week Ceremonies 2027 on RTE 1 Television, coming live from the Church of Our Lady and St. David.
This will be a wonderful recognition of the Bicentenary of our beloved Church.
This great opportunity will need much cooperation from the entire parish and from all involved in the various areas of parish ministry. It will be a collective effort from both our churches:
CIM and OLSD.
Advanced planning will start shortly!

Matthew 22:15-21 What bears God's image

In the first of three 'conflict stories', we read today that the Pharisees are looking to Jesus for advice on their taxes. They try to flatter him first, ironically by speaking the truth about him, but the tone is still disrespectful. This is a dangerous situation because in an unlikely alliance, the Pharisees have brought along the Herodians with them. The Herodians were great supporters of the Roman Empire, so tensions here would have been high. If Jesus answers 'no' to their question about paying taxes to Caesar he risks being reported to the Roman authorities as a revolutionary; if he says 'yes' then he may be accused of colluding with the occupying Empire and abandoning the people. Jesus sees through their 'malice' and speaks truth to power. He invites us to explore another way, a third way, one that is not a revolt but neither does it lie down and submit to oppression. Yes, do your civic duty, but do not forget what belongs to God; this overrides any political power. This is how one truly advocates for the Kingdom of Heaven in the here and now. In 2018 and again in 2019, Pope Francis met the CEOs of the world's major fossil fuel companies at the Vatican. He reminded them that today's ecological crisis threatens the very future of the human family and our common home. He told them that 'a radical energy transition was needed to save our common home' and that while 'civilisation requires energy … energy use must not destroy civilisation.' Pope Francis in not afraid to speak truth to power, urging these powerful corporations to go beyond merely exploring what needs to be done and actually concentrating on what needs to be done. Embarking on this new path will generate new jobs, reduce inequality and improve the quality of like for all. Being a follower of Jesus means that we prioritise the values that Jesus teaches so that we can be co-creators of this wild and wonderful Kingdom of Heaven here on earth.

SYNODAL PATHWAY UPDATE

300 delegates from across the island of Ireland gathered on Saturday in Gormanstown, Co Meath to discern together 35 proposals for action that have emerged in the synodal pathway that the Church has been on since 2021. For each proposal, the assembly had four options: Highly recommend, recommend, needs more discernment, do not recommend. The bishops now have the responsibility of receiving the discernment of the assembly. As the synodal pathway continues, the working document for the assembly remains a valuable document for all interested in the life of our Church and Parishes. It not only outlines the 35 proposals but also describes a vision for the Church that has emerged through the synodal process. This vision is worth taking the time to read and can be accessed on www.kandle.ie and www.synod.ie
