Have you every asked yourself why God takes anger so seriously and urges us to cast it out of our lives? One reason is because of what it does to other people. When we lash out at someone in anger, we hurt them and create conflict with them—and that is wrong. God also hates our anger because of what it does to us. Anger cuts us off from others; no one like to be around someone who may explode at any moment.

Thoughts on the Gospel for October 11th 2026

We have today another parable about the rejection of Jesus by the leaders of his own people. It is, as the others were, being addressed to the chief priests and elders of the people, the religious and civic leaders. The parable divides clearly into three distinct parts: 1. two invitations sent out to the intended guests; 2. a general call to all kinds of outcasts; 3. some criteria set for taking part in the Feast. This is a parable about the Kingdom of God and about the people who will eventually belong to it. It is seen here under the aspect of a marriage feast for a king's son. In the First Reading from Isaiah we have a graphic description of the great banquet that the Lord will prepare for his people. There will be rich food and fine wines; there will be neither mourning nor death: In the Gospel parable, the king sends out his servants, referring to the long line of prophets sent to the people of Israel calling them to love and service. Jesus says: When God calls there is always a sense of urgency. The only time to respond is now. I need always to be on the watch, but that is not what happens in the world of today. We are told that those invited were simply not interested. Are we interested?

The Pastoral Council met last Tuesday night, and we decided to go ahead with another Bazaar this year. However, we have decided not to go around the houses this year. But, We will do our best to have plenty of very good and valuable prizes for about 10 or 12 Draws in the Hall and that will include Lambs, Fuel Vouchers, Cash prizes etc and of course a huge 55" Smart TV (Sharp brand) Thank you. Please come out and support our efforts. Anyone who would like to support the Bazaar and cannot attend it, might like to drop a donation into the special boxes in the chapels. Thank You.
