The Irish Cancer Society

is seeking compassionate volunteer drivers to join our pool of drivers. As a volunteer driver you would be bringing patients undergoing chemotherapy to the hospital and back home for their treatment. Gifting your time means that cancer patients will have comfortable (one on one) transport to attend appointments for their lifesaving treatment. If you can spare 2 days per month, have a valid driving licence, and a safe, reliable vehicle, you are the perfect candidate to make a significant difference. The Irish Cancer Society will provide you with training before you start as a driver for us. Your generosity not only eases the journey for many during a challenging time but also offers comfort and support when it's needed most. 40th Anniversary Celebrations

What a lovely couple of weeks we've had here in Ballinora!
On Sunday September 13th we were very lucky to welcome Bishop Fintan to lead our Anniversary Celebration Mass. It was wonderful to have Bishop Fintan joined by Fr John, Fr Alan , Fr Declan and Deacon Frank.
It really was a beautiful Mass. We must take this opportunity to thank our amazing choir under the leadership of Ursula Mulvihill and accompanied by organist Ruth Healy. Their presence always adds so much to our celebrations here in Ballinora and this Sunday was no exception. Thanks also to our wonderful readers and to Noreen and Eamon Lane for bringing forward the offertory gifts. There was a table on the steps near the altar with symbols of some of the many active groups here in our parish. All these things enhanced our celebration.
After the Mass refreshments were served in the Scout Den. It was great to see such a huge turnout and lovely to see Bishop Fintan and all the other celebrants enjoying our hospitality.
We must thank our local ICA for their wonderful baking. We are so lucky to have so many gifted people in our community.
Thanks also to the Scouts for their generosity in sharing The Den with us all.
Then on Friday September 18th we continued our celebrations with our Dinner Dance in The Talbot Hotel in Ballincollig. I think everyone that was there will agree that a great night was had by all. It was a lovely social occasion. An opportunity to catch up with people that we hadn't seen for a while. A tasty dinner was enjoyed before The Irish Weavers started playing and had the dance floor hopping all night!!! Congrats to those who won Spot Prizes!! Again it was lovely to see Fr John, Fr Alan, Fr Ronan, Fr Jojo and Fr Declan enjoying such a lovely social occasion. Seeing some parishioners in a completely new light!!!
Many thanks to the Parish Council and The Parish Social Committee for all their hard work in bringing these events to fruition.

First Reading: Isaiah 25:6-10
The prophet Isaiah presents a vision of a feast prepared for us by the Lord.

Second Reading: Philippians 4:12-14, 19-20
St Paul tells us confidently that anything is possible for him because his strength comes from God.

Gospel: Matthew 22:1-14
Matthew dealt harshly with the wedding guests who made excuses for not attending the king's son's wedding. Not only did they refuse the invitation, but they beat the servant who went in search of them. The king knew that there would be those who appreciated the banquet and sent more servants out to the crossroads to find anyone willing to come. Matthew ended his Gospel with what was probably a separate parable. Someone dressed inappropriately was removed from the banquet. Most likely, Matthew intended his listeners to respond appropriately to God's invitation.

CUH Volunteer Opportunity

Become the Primary Handler (or second handler) for the Cork University Hospital Community Dog

CUH Volunteer Service is attempting to expand, and to offer our patients a visit from a community dog. To do this, we need volunteers to home the community dog, and if possible to volunteer in the hospital for a few hours 3-4 times weekly. Could you, or a person you know, provide a loving home for a specially trained community dog and help bring comfort to our patients? We are seeking expressions of interest from people who may be willing to:

- Provide a permanent home for a community dog trained by Irish Guide Dogs for the Blind. To become a primary handler for the community dog.
- Volunteer to accompany the dog into the hospital to visit patients for approx. 2 hours, 3–4 days per week
- Receive professional training from Irish Guide Dogs for the Blind on how to handle and work with the dog in a healthcare setting OR
- Volunteer as a second handler to accompany the dog into the hospital to visit patients for approx. 2 hours, 3–4 days per week. This person would not home the dog, but arrange to collect the dog, visit the designated wards in CUH and return the dog to the primary handler.
- Receive professional training from Irish Guide Dogs for the Blind on how to handle and work with the dog alongside the primary handler in a healthcare setting.

For more information or to express your interest, please contact:

Thinking about being a Priest in the Diocese of Cork & Ross?

If you are between the ages of 18 and 40 and feel there is a possibility that God may be calling you to be a diocesan priest, then our monthly Discernment Group Meetings may be a good way to help you to discern this call. It is a gentle non-committal first step in the process which takes the form of a monthly meeting with other men discerning their call. The monthly meetings offer an opportunity for prayer, conversation, fellowship and accompaniment. An experienced spiritual director will also be provided to help guide you along the path. The first meeting takes place on Saturday September 26th. To find more, have a chat, or to register your interest, please email Fr Marius at vocations@corkandross.org

God's Love Always Shines

Aeroplanes fly above the clouds for obvious reasons. If only it were as straightforward for people! Unlike aeroplanes, we tend to be victims of clouds, be they meteorological or psychological in nature.

When you are looking down from an aeroplane window, all you can see for seemingly endless miles are the brilliantly white, marshmallow like clouds. If you look through the breaks in the cloud, you might see the darker underbelly of the clouds, the rain falling from them and the shadows they cast. You can imagine the people underneath them being pretty miserable. I'm sure we've all experienced a dark, cloudy day. But it doesn't have to be that way.

Consider it this way instead.
The sun is actually still shining brightly through the majority of the sky. There's just some low-level, insubstantial stuff getting in the way. On the dull days, take the higher view. God's love is still most of the sky. We just need, somehow, to blow away those clouds.

There is always hope. It is real and loving and,
like a guardian angel, it walks beside us every day.
If we don't see it or feel it often enough, it's only because we've let too many other things get in the way.
