Church re- opening Fr Martin & Fr. Michael welcomes back our parishioners to the weekday & Sunday Masses. It's great having a live congregation back in the church after the long lockdown. All those attending are reminded that face covering are a necessary part of life still if we are to ensure the safety and health of each other while in the church and in the grounds. It is most important that people who are vulnerable or unwell, and especially those with any symptoms that might suggest Covid-19 infection, should stay at home and, if possible, participate, via webcam. The same applies to those who have been in recent contact with someone who has the virus, in accordance with public health advice. We look forward to welcoming you back.

Anniversary Masses

People are encouraged to have these Masses on a Friday evening as well as the Sunday Mass. This will ensure that there is no overcrowding in the church during any Mass Meeting of Ushers. After the Wednesday evening Mass there will be a short meeting to organise ushers over the next few months. Present ushers and new members are invited to attend.

Church cleaning Thanks to all those that have helped in keeping the inside of the church and the grounds clean and tidy. The work of both groups is greatly appreciated.

velopes & Donations can be dropped into the metal box on the porch wall or into the basket as you walk into the body of the church. Alternatively people can donate to the parish electronically through online or using the IBAN IE23BOFI90326942685351

WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY is celebrated throughout the Catholic Church. The theme this year is "Come and See" (Jn 1:46). Communicating by Encountering People Where and as They Are. Pope Francis tells us that 'the Gospel comes alive in our own day, whenever we accept the compelling witness of people whose lives have been changed by their encounter with Jesus... The challenge that awaits us now, is to communicate by encountering people, where they are and as they are.'

NATIONAL SYNOD FOR THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN IRELAND. A new Synodal Pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland leading to the holding of a National Synodal Assembly within the next five years has been announced. Submissions are invited as to what methods/models to adopt in these coming years of conversations. You are invited to offer feedback (300 words max) to the following question: What would be your preferred option for engagement in a conversation process about the future of the Church? The responses will be considered by the task group to be put in place by the bishops this summer to plan and oversee the first steps along the synodal pathway. Submissions should be made via the new Synodal Pathway webpage: www.catholicbishops.ie/synod.
