13Ú MEÁN FÓMHAIR 2026 - AN CEATHRÚ DOMHNACH FICHEAD - A

Reflection

Forgiveness does not come easy to us because we are not like our compassionate and loving Father, 'slow to anger and rich in mercy'. Even in small things we find it difficult to forgive. We can bear grudges for years against those we consider to have wronged us, to have let us down, or to have treated us unfairly. This can apply to family members, neighbours, friends and colleagues at work or in school. We often nurture bad feelings towards them. We avoid people with whom we have clashed or argued. We forget – or overlook the fact – that God continues to forgive us over and over again.

Why does Jesus insist so much on forgiveness? It is because without forgiveness love cannot flourish and peace cannot exist between people. When we refuse to forgive what happens? We simply close the doors of our hearts to love. Nursing anger and resentment is the surest way to keep love out. The elder brother in the parable of the Prodigal Son is a striking example of this. He is someone who cannot forgive because he has closed his heart to his younger brother and even to his Father. He never knew how much the father loved him too. It is in forgiving that we are most like God, our Father, and Christ, his Son. It is in forgiving that we bring healing to ourselves and to others, that we restore broken relationships and release the seeds of love in our communities. It is in forgiving that we extend the reign of God's love on earth.
