Twenty Fourth Sunday in Ordinary

MUSIC MINISTRY SEMINAR

The Diocesan Church Music Group will hold a Seminar for all those involved in Music Ministry in Parishes throughout the Diocese on Saturday 10th October in the Mount Errigal Hotel beginning with registration at 10 am.

The purpose of this seminar is to offer a new Mass setting which might interest you and provide some general music, with an emphasis this year on Responsorial Psalms. An additional theme of the Seminar this year, is Music for Weddings and Funerals. We will introduce and reintroduce appropriate music for these important liturgical occasions in the liturgical life of every parish. Whilst this is a specific topic, sometimes outside of the remit of parish choirs, all the music we will be offering will be suitable for use on Sundays and other occasions throughout the year.

- The Seminar is open to Choir Directors, all Choir Members, Organists and Church Musicians.
- We also welcome all who sing or play an instrument at weddings and funerals but who may not be directly associated with music ministry on a regular basis.

A new directory for music appropriate for use at weddings and funerals will be launched by Bishop Niall Coll at the Seminar. It will provide suggestions for music for weddings and funerals as well as giving musicians and singers references for listening to and obtaining music.

- We would ask all Choir Members, if interested in attending this Seminar, to please give your name, to your Choir Director.
- For individuals, who provide music on other occasions, we ask that you contact the Parish Office, leaving your mobile number and email address as soon as possible.
- The cost of this Seminar is €35 per person, which the Parish will be covering for those who are involved in its music ministry.

Collection

Last weeks' Offertory Collection came to €1107. Thank you for your gift to God and His Church.

In the film adaption of the Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe from the novels of CS Lewis, one of most insightful and thought provoking scenes for me, at least, is when Aslan, the lion speaks to Edmund, one of the children about his transgression. Edmund has betrayed his family by following a wicked witch. When he does come back to his family, we see Aslan, the majestic guardian of Narnia speak to Edmund but at a distance. We do not know what is being said, the matter is being dealt with quietly as it should be, minimising the embarrassment of the offender, who in this case is very much aware of his transgression and shame.

The Gospel today puts the responsibility on the offended party, on us, to go speak to those who have wronged us, to speak to them quietly, to point out how they have sinned against us, to offer them forgiveness and hence to put them back on the path to God. Before we decide to do this we must be clear in our intentions and be sure of whose needs we are filling – it cannot be our goal to cause embarrassment or to seek revenge. God calls us to put our needs to one side in this case and to seek redemption for our brother who has turned himself away from God's grace.

Jesus provides steps for doing this. After quietly speaking to your brother, if he will not listen bring witnesses who may convince him. This reminds us that if we are unsuccessful in our attempts we should not give up. If we have been unsuccessful in our attempts are there others who can help – again being mindful of whose needs need to be filled. Matthew closes this passage reassuringly telling us forgiveness belongs to that person where it has been agreed upon by others.

Anxiety

*Lord, I am anxious about my future.
But your love will support me.
Do not disappoint me.*

Prayers of the Angel

"My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You! I ask pardon of You for all those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You!"

"Most Holy Trinity; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."

*For where two or three are gathered in my name,
I am there among them. Matt 18:20*

Reflection

Forgiveness does not come easy to us because we are not like our compassionate and loving Father, 'slow to anger and rich in mercy'. Even in small things we find it difficult to forgive. We can bear grudges for years against those we consider to have wronged us, to have let us down, or to have treated us unfairly. This can apply to family members, neighbours, friends and colleagues at work or in school. We often nurture bad feelings towards them. We avoid people with whom we have clashed or argued. We forget – or overlook the fact – that God continues to forgive us over and over again.

Why does Jesus insist so much on forgiveness? It is because without forgiveness love cannot flourish and peace cannot exist between people. When we refuse to forgive what happens? We simply close the doors of our hearts to love. Nursing anger and resentment is the surest way to keep love out. The elder brother in the parable of the Prodigal Son is a striking example of this. He is someone who cannot forgive because he has closed his heart to his younger brother and even to his Father. He never knew how much the father loved him too. It is in forgiving that we are most like God, our Father, and Christ, his Son. It is in forgiving that we bring healing to ourselves and to others, that we restore broken relationships and release the seeds of love in our communities. It is in forgiving that we extend the reign of God's love on earth.

The Nativity of The Blessed Virgin Mary Tuesday 8th September

Dearest Mother Mary, your conception was immaculate and your birth glorious. You were conceived without sin, born without sin, and remained sinless throughout your life. In Heaven, you radiate the beauty and splendor of God and will do so for all eternity. Please pray for me, that I will more fully imitate your many virtues, so that I can be a fitting instrument of your divine Son in the world. Mother Mary, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You. Amen.

Thoughts on the Readings for the 19th Sunday August 16th 2026

Today in the Gospel, we have a continuation of last week's story about the feeding of thousands of people by Jesus in the desert. Immediately after the event, we are told that Jesus: ...made the disciples get into a boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. Was there reluctance on their part to go? Certainly there is the implication that the disciples were not too willing to leave the scene. They were enjoying the reflected glory of being part of Jesus' 'miracle' and the enthusiasm of the crowds for Jesus, 'their' Jesus. They were basking in the reputation of being partners with Jesus. Yet, it won't be very long before they will be hiding, even denying under oath, ever having had connection with him. Jesus himself, after having dismissed the crowds: ...went up the mountain by himself to pray. In John's version of this story he tells us that the people, after being fed by Jesus, actually wanted to make him their king. They, like the disciples, have totally missed the meaning of what has happened. Here indeed was a real source of temptation. Jesus could easily have convinced himself that here was a golden opportunity to get control of the crowds and 'save' them. They were so ready to follow him—it seemed. The world was at his feet. There is an echo here of one of the temptations in the desert after his baptism: ...the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory, and he said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me."

AN CEATHRÚ DOMHNACH FICHEAD A

AN CHÉAD LÉACHT

Sliocht as leabhar Sírach. 27:30-28:7.

Faltanas is fearg, is fuath liom iad, ach bíonn siad ina chroí istigh ag an pheacach. An té a bhaineas díoltas, bainfidh Dia díoltas as, nó coinníonn sé cuntas cruinn ar a pheacaí. Maith do do chomharsa an éagóir atá déanta aige, agus nuair a dhéanfas tú urnaí, maithfear do pheacaí duit. Má choinníonn duine olc istigh ina chroí do dhuine eile, caidé mar is féidir leis bheith ag dréim le leigheas ón Tiarna? Muna ndéana sé trócaire ar dhuine eile atá cosúil leis féin, caidé mar thig leis maithiúnas a iarraidh ina pheacaí féin? Má chothaíonn sé fearg agus gan ann féin ach duine, cé a mhaithfeas a pheacaí dó? Cuimhnigh ar an chríoch atá romhat agus cuir uait an fuath; cuimhnigh ar an deireadh agus ar an bhás agus coinnigh na haitheanta go dílis. Cuimhnigh ar na haitheanta agus ná bí i bhfeirg le do chomharsa. Cuimhnigh ar chonradh an Té is Airde agus déan neamhshuim de lochta do chomharsan.

Briathar an Tiarna. FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

FREAGRA AN tSAILM:

Is grámhar trócaireach é an Tiarna,
foighdeach agus lán de cheansacht.

AN DARA LEACHT

Sliocht as litir Naomh Pól chuig na Rómhánaigh.

14:7-9.

A bhráithre, ní dó féin amháin a mhaireas aon duine againn, agus ní dó féin amháin a fhaigheas aon duine bás; más beo dúinn, mairimid don Tiarna; agus más bás a fhaigheann muid, faighimid bás don Tiarna. Dá bhrí sin, is cuma cé acu beo nó marbh sinn, is leis an Tiarna sinn. Mar is fá choinne sin a fuair Críost bás agus d'éirigh arís ó mharbh, ionas go mba Tiarna na mbeo agus na marbh é.

Briathar an Tiarna. FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

ALLELUIA

Alleluia, alleluia!

Labhair, a Thiarna,

tá do sheirbhíseach ag éisteacht;

is agatsa atá briathra na beatha síoraí.

Alleluia!

SOISCEÁL

Sliocht as an Soiscéal naofa de réir Naomh Maitiú. 18:21-35.

San am sin tháinig Peadar chuig Íosa agus dúirt leis: "A Thiarna, cé mhéad uair ba cheart domh pardún a thabhairt do mo bhráthair nuair a pheacaíos sé i m'eadán; go dtí seacht nuair?" Dúirt Íosa leis: "Ní seacht n-uair a deirim leat, ach seacht n-uair fá sheachtó." "Dá bhrí sin, is féidir ríocht na bhflaitheas a chur i gcosúlacht le rí arb mhian leis cuntas a iarraidh ar a chuid seirbhíseach. Nuair a thosaigh sé ar an chuntasaíocht, tugadh fear chuige a raibh fiacha deich míle talann air. Ó tharla nach raibh glanadh na bhfiach sin aige, d'ordaigh an máistir é féin, a bhean, a chlann agus a raibh aige a dhíol agus na fiacha a ghlanadh. Thuit an seirbhíseach ar a ghlúine ag cur impí air: 'A mháistir, bíodh foighid agat liom agus íocfaidh mé an t-iomlán leat.' Le neart trua dó, lig máistir an tseirbhísigh sin ar shiúl é

Anima Christi
Soul of Christ, sanctify me. Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, inebriate me. Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me. O Good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds hide me. Permit me not to be separated from you.
From the wicked foe, defend me. At the hour of my death, call me and bid me come to you
That with your saints I may praise you for ever and ever. Amen. (St Ignatius of Loyola.)

A Prayer for the Earth (from Laudato Si, 246)

All-powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures.
 You embrace with your tenderness all that exists.
 Pour out upon us the power of your love, that we may protect life and beauty.
 Fill us with peace, that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one.
 O God of the poor, help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth, so precious in your eyes.
 Bring healing to our lives, that we may protect the world and not prey on it, that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction.
 Touch the hearts of those who look only for gain at the expense of the poor and the earth.
 Teach us to discover the worth of each thing, to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognize that we are profoundly united with every creature as we journey towards your infinite light.
 We thank you for being with us each day.
 Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace.

Freely Freely

God forgave my sin in Jesus' name
 I've been born again in Jesus' name
 And in Jesus' name I come to you
 To share his love as he told me to.

*Chorus: He said freely, freely you have received;
 Freely, freely give,
 Go in my name and because you believe
 Others will know that I live.*

All power is given in Jesus' name
 In earth and heaven in Jesus' name,
 And in Jesus' name I come to you,
 To share his power as he told me to. (Chorus)

Traditional Prayer to Our Lady of Sorrows

Memorial:

Tuesday 15th September

O Mother of Sorrows, most afflicted of all mothers!
 I look to you with confidence and love.
 As I meditate upon the swords of sorrow that pierced your Immaculate Heart, obtain for me the grace of true repentance and the courage to bear my own sufferings with patience.
 Holy Mary, stand by me in my trials, care for me in my many needs, and pray for me now and at the hour of my death.
 Amen.

Thank You Christine & Joe Smith would like to thank everyone for their cards, gifts and good wishes on their 60th Wedding Anniversary.
 Thanks also to Fr Colm.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to the recent Donegal Down Syndrome Church Gate Collection. €920 was raised.

How Great Thou Art

O Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder,
 Consider all the works thy hand has made,
 I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
 Thy pow'r throughout the universe displayed.
*Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to Thee;
 How great Thou art, how great Thou art.
 Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to Thee:
 How great Thou art, how great Thou art.*

And when I think: that God his Son not sparing
 Sent him to die - I scarce can take it in:
 That on the cross my burden gladly bearing,
 He bled and died, to take away my sin (Chorus)

Reading the Bible

This Autumn in

Ards Friary 087 635 5602

with Br. Jeremy

Monday nights 7:30 to 9:00

(starting 28th September 2026)

This year we will be reading the Prophet Isaiah, the second longest book in the Bible, and one of the most influential Old Testament books in the history of the Church.

Each night we begin with a short time of prayer before reading and discussion. During the week we read a little in preparation for the following week's meeting.

This group is non-academic and we will be prayerfully reading the Bible in the Catholic tradition.

If you have a Bible please bring it.
