Reflection

We know that experience can get us through many aspects of life, through what's certain but also through the unknown. Experience is often hard earned. It might be a difficult job interview that didn't go well, the game we should have won but threw away, the decision we should have made but didn't. We spend our lives gathering experiences but they all do stand to us. What is our experience of God? For many people it is wide and varied. All our experiences of God are valid and important. The great lesson of life is to feel loved and cherished. This should be the goal of all our experiences especially that of God. Credit 2u.ie

CHURCH NOTICES

My Dear People,

My health is declining over the last few years and so I have decided to retire on the 31st October. It is the best for you, and for me to try to improve my health.

I want to take this opportunity to thank you all. It has been a great honour, privilege and joy to serve you as your Parish Priest for the last 11 years.

I also want to thank Fr Denis O'Mahony and all the other Priests who have helped out since I have been sick.

I ask you to keep me in your prayers as I always remember you in mine. May God bless you all.

Fr Fergal

October Mission Month

A Call to Prayer for Vocations in the Diocese of Kerry

Throughout October, Mission Month, the Diocese of Kerry invites us to unite in prayer, asking the Lord to inspire men to respond generously to His call to the diocesan priesthood. This week, as we continue to reflect on the life of St Brendan the Navigator, our focus is on gathering the crew. Just as St Brendan gathered companions to join him on his great missionary voyage, so too are we reminded that the journey of faith is not one we make alone.

We Are All Called

Our parishes are missionary communities, called to support and nurture each person in living out the vocation received at Baptism. We all have a part to play in building up the Church and sharing the Good News of Christ.

“Come, follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.”

— Matthew 4:19

These words of Jesus remind us that He continues to call people to follow Him in different ways. Among those called are men who may be discerning a vocation to the diocesan priesthood.

How Can We Help?

As a parish community, we can help to foster a culture of vocation by:

- Praying for those discerning God's call to priesthood and for an increase in vocations.
- Encouraging young people and men of all ages to be open to where God may be leading them.
- Supporting those who are exploring a possible vocation, offering them understanding, prayer and encouragement.
- Living our own baptismal calling with faith and generosity, inspiring others by our example.

Mission Month Online Talk

The Diocese of Kerry invites you to an online talk, One in Christ, United in Mission, with Fr Michael Kelly, Director of Missio Ireland, and Miriam Hanlon from Asdee, who volunteered in East Africa. Irish Synodal Pathway – Have Your Say

The Irish Synodal Pathway has published its working document, “Is This Not What God Asks of You?”, reflecting on the synodal journey since 2020 and proposing five pathways for the Irish Church. These proposals will be considered at the National Synodal Assembly in Gormanstown, Co. Meath, on 17th October. The Diocese of Kerry invites parishioners to prayerfully read the document and share their views with the Kerry delegation. All submissions will help inform the delegation’s participation at the Assembly. Please visit www.dioceseofkerry.ie to read the document & submit your response using the diocesan form online before 5pm on Tuesday, 13th October.

In this Sunday's Gospel Jesus compares the kingdom of God to a lavish wedding banquet where the king sends his servants out to call the invited guests, but they were not interested. Furious, the king sent his servants to the crossroads of the town to gather everyone they could find, good and bad alike and the wedding hall was filled with guests. What does this all mean for us? The rejection by the initially invited guests can be seen as a mirror to those in Isaiah's time and even our own, who often overlook or dismiss God due to distractions or worldly concerns. The feast in Isaiah represents the promise of salvation and eternal joy. However, many miss out on this divine opportunity. Similarly, the king's invitation in Matthew's Gospel, representing God's call, is ignored or treated with disdain, highlighting human tendencies to neglect spiritual wealth for fleeting worldly gains. But God's invitation remains constant. The challenge to us is to recognise, accept and prepare for these divine moments. May we hear Christ call us and may we accept His invitation with grateful hearts.

Do you know the purpose of Holy Mass?

The primary purpose of the Holy Mass is to worship God through participation in the representation of Jesus' passion, death and Resurrection. The Secondary purpose is to receive Jesus in Holy Communion and thirdly to unite as God's Church sharing Faith and Thanksgiving.

Thought for the Week: RSVP

Today, the gospel reminds us that it is not enough to simply turn up, we need to show up. In responding positively this invitation asks something of us too, that we be properly dressed- with the right wedding garment as it were. What is this garment? It is perfectly described by St Paul – we must be 'clothed with sincere compassion, in kindness and humility, gentleness and patience...over all these clothes, to keep them together and complete them, put on love'.

Thought for the day: In the parables of Jesus, wedding feasts are mentioned from time to time. The original parable may have ended with the words "invite everyone you can find to the wedding." The detail of the troops, highly unlikely as an actual part of a wedding invitation, realistically portrays the later destruction of Jerusalem, which Christians did indeed look back upon as punishment precisely for that rejection. The final verse is difficult for us today on a spiritual level. However, it is meant to provoke (re)conversion in a possibly complacent church. Prayer: Lord, we know that you love us and invite us to the wedding feast of the Lamb. Help us to respond to your love that we may be followers of your Son not only in name but also in fact. (www.tarsus.ie)

Volunteer Drivers needed in Kerry

The Irish Cancer Society is seeking compassionate volunteer drivers to join our Transport Team. We are currently looking for drivers in Kerry, particularly those who can drive to hospitals in Limerick. As a volunteer driver, you will bring patients attending chemotherapy appointments to hospital and safely home again. By giving your time, you can help make travelling for treatment a little easier for people affected by cancer.

If you can spare 2 days per month, have a valid driving licence, and a safe, reliable vehicle, you are the perfect candidate to make a difference. The Irish Cancer Society provides training and support before you begin volunteering.

Your time can make a meaningful difference, providing practical support and reassurance to patients when they need it most.

A NOTE FROM FR. JIM.....

During the week, our prayer meeting included the first episode of a six-part series called My Father's Father, focusing on God the Father. The programme explored how our relationship with our earthly father can deeply affect our ability to trust in God, whom Jesus reveals as Abba, Daddy, a loving and trustworthy Father. Startling statistics from America reveal that 17% of children conceived do not survive because of abortion, 39% are born into uncommitted family relationships, and over 25% experience the absence of a parent, mainly the father. Statistics also suggest that children spend only five minutes a day in meaningful conversation with their father, yet spend countless hours in front of screens. In such a world, it is understandable why many struggle to believe in a loving Father. In this weekend's gospel, the King, representing God the Father, invites everyone to a wedding feast, symbolising family bonds, intimacy, and abundant blessings. Yet the invitations are rejected. I genuinely believe that the greatest difficulty in faith is not loving God, but accepting God the Father's love for us. Through disappointments in love, we become hard-hearted and fearful of trusting again. God's love seems too good to be true. I encourage everyone to join this six-week programme and discover the path that leads to the Father's loving heart. Interested? Text your name and number to 087 108 1588. Episode One is available on the Glenflesk Parish Facebook page.

SYNOD ASSEMBLY:

In conjunction with the worldwide ecclesial gathering in Rome in October 2028, there is a Synodal Assembly of representatives of Irish dioceses and other church bodies on Saturday October 17th this year in a hotel north of Dublin. We pray that it may give guidance and direction to the Irish Church for the years ahead.

Have Your Say

To assist the Kerry delegation in its work, the Diocese is asking parishioners to prayerfully read the working document and make submissions to the Kerry delegation, the working document and submission form are available on www.dioceseofkerry.ie

All submissions will be read by the delegation and will help guide their participation in the Assembly. Please make submissions before 5pm on Tuesday 13th October.

as you've heard it spoken to you.
Go the Mass is ended,
go and tell the world, the Lord is good,
the Lord is kind, and he loves everyone.

Go, the Mass is ended,
Take His love to all
Gladden all who meet you fill their hearts with hope and courage.
Go, the Mass is ended,
fill the world with love,
And give to all what you've received the peace and joy of Christ.

Mission Sunday will be held on October 18th when a special second collection will be taken up. The Mission Sunday Collection is vital to financing missionary work worldwide. The mission projects worldwide are coordinated by Missio Head Office in Rome and the money goes direct from Ireland to specific projects worldwide. Your generous support of Mission Sunday is much appreciated.

Reflection

Prayer for Vocations – Heavenly Father, You call each of us by name and invite us to follow Your Son with generous hearts. Pour out Your Holy Spirit upon our Diocese of Kerry, that young people may encounter Christ and have the courage to answer Your call. Raise up holy priests to proclaim Your Word, celebrate the Eucharist with joy, and serve Your people with humble love. Strengthen those already called to be faithful witnesses to the Gospel. Through the prayers of Mary, Mother of the Church and St. Brendan, our Patron Saint, bless our Diocese with joyful and generous vocations to the priesthood, for the glory of Your name and the life of the world. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Community Notices

The Irish Cancer Society is seeking compassionate volunteer drivers to join our Transport Team. We are currently looking for drivers in Kerry, particularly those who can drive to hospitals in Limerick. As a volunteer driver, you will bring patients attending chemotherapy appointments to hospital and safely home again. By giving your time, you can help make travelling for treatment a little easier for people affected by cancer. If you can spare 2 days per month, have a valid driving licence, and a safe, reliable vehicle, you are the perfect candidate to make a difference. The Irish Cancer Society provides training and support before you begin volunteering. For more information on how to become a volunteer driver, please contact Monica or Emily at volunteer@irishcancer.ie
