The Inseparable Link Between Worship and Ethics:

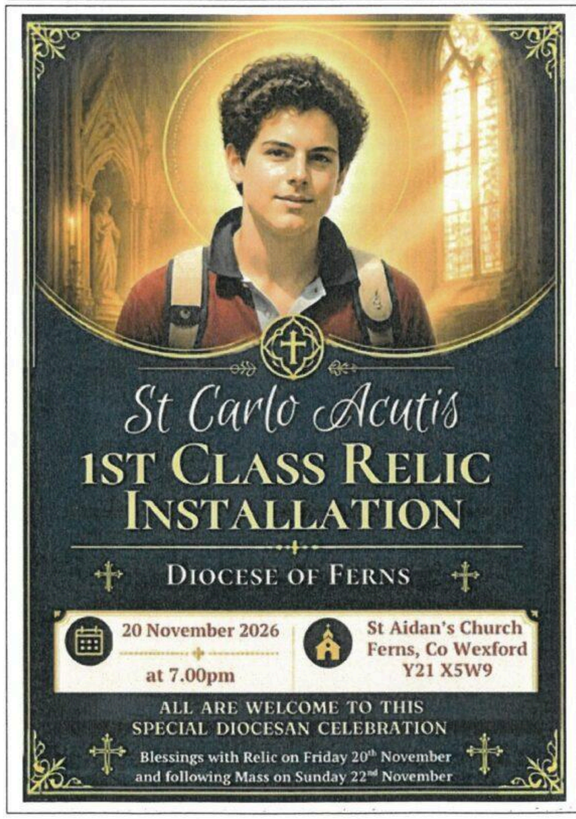

The first reading today speaks to us of our relationship with our worship and the ethics of how we live.

This passage (Exodus 22:20-26) is a core passage in the Covenant Code (Exodus 20–23) that links the worship of the one true God directly to social justice and the protection of society's most vulnerable members

You cannot claim to honour God while crushing the people made in His image. This passage directly anticipates Jesus' synthesis in the Gospels—where love of God and love of neighbour are bound together as one reality (Matthew 22:34–40)

Today's question for readers of God's Word is how we incorporate social justice into our daily lives.

Our parish community faces a challenge in welcoming strangers and caring for those in need as we strive to live the Gospel.

Service of Remembrance

The Clonard Parish Memorial Service will be held at 7pm on Sunday 1st November at Clonard Church. It will be a time to remember and pray for our Faithful Departed.

The Tree of Remembrance will be placed in the Sanctuary from Thursday 29th October. Families who have received memory cards from the office are kindly asked to place their completed memory cards received with their invitations on the tree. These cards will remain in the Sanctuary throughout November and we kindly request that you leave them there for the entire month.

The Service will be accessible on Parish Radio at 92.9 FM and on the Parish website www.clonardparish.ie

Saints Simon and Jude 29th of October

St Simon, Apostle

Simon is eleventh in the list of the twelve Apostles. He is known as Simon the Zealot, but nothing else is known about him. His other name of "Simon Cananaeus" simply adapts another Hebrew word for "zeal" and has nothing to do with the town of Cana.

St Jude, Apostle

Jude, also called Thaddaeus, is the apostle who at the Last Supper asked the Lord why he showed himself only to the disciples and not to the world. For many centuries he was scarcely venerated because people confused him with Judas Iscariot. He is the patron saint of lost and desperate causes.

Wexford General Hospital Annual Service of Remembrance

Wexford General Hospital is holding their annual Service of Remembrance at Clonard Church, Wexford on Thursday 12th November 2026 at 7.30pm – this is an annual event.
The Service of Remembrance is particularly intended for families and friends of those who died at Wexford General Hospital over the past year or who have a strong connection with the hospital. However, the service is also open to anyone who wishes to attend.
The purpose of the service is to provide an opportunity to remember, as a community, the people we loved and who have died - to reminisce and celebrate their lives and all they meant to us. This event is open to people of all faiths and of none. Tea and coffee will be served afterwards.
The Service is organised on an annual basis by the End-of-Life Care Committee at Wexford General Hospital. This committee is comprised of staff from all areas of the hospital. Their work includes organising the Service of Remembrance, implementing initiatives such as the writing and sending out of sympathy cards, refurbishment of the mortuary and family rooms, providing written bereavement information for relatives and developing education programmes for staff.
Wexford General Hospital would also like to inform people about the Bereavement Support Line which is available from 10am to 1pm, Monday to Friday on 1800 80 70 77. This is a national Freephone service that has been set up by the Irish Hospice Foundation, in partnership with the HSE, to provide connection, comfort and support for those grieving in these exceptional times. Any adult who has been impacted by bereavement may contact the support line. For more information visit www.hospicefoundation.ie. LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Exodus 22: 20 - 26

A reading from the book of Exodus

The Lord said to Moses, 'Tell the sons of Israel this, "You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans.
'If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him.
"If you take another's cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in? If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity." '

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps. 17: 2-4, 47, 51

R. I love you, Lord, my strength.

1. I love you, Lord, my strength,
my rock, my fortress, my saviour.
My God is the rock where I take refuge;
my shield, my mighty help, my stronghold.
The Lord is worthy of all praise:
when I call I am saved from my foes.
[R]

2. Long life to the Lord, my rock!
Praised be the God who saves me.
He has given great victories to his king
and shown his love for his anointed.
[R]

SECOND READING

1 Thessalonians 1: 5 - 10
A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread - and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Open our heart, O Lord,
to accept the words of your Son.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL Matthew 22: 34 - 40

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: You must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

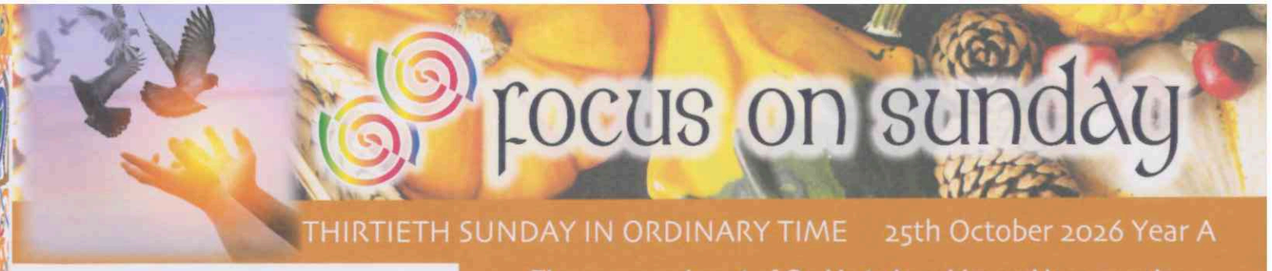

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
All bow for following three lines:
and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son
is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic
and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness
of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Pray brothers and sisters, ...
May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

Focus

Let's sit with this for a bit: It's incredibly good news, isn't it?! Essentially, all we have to do is fall in love: In love with each other – especially the marginalised, excluded, poor and troubled. Fall in love with the world – especially the natural, created beauty all around us, As Pope Leo puts it in Magnifica Humanitas "care for our common home and our responsibility toward the poor' and (delight of delight!) fall in love with ourselves! In fact, this news is possibly so good, we don't really believe it; do we just not trust it? Here, we are told here to relax and enjoy like a small child.
This invitation to fall in love is multi-faceted like an amazing crystal: Love yourself; love your neighbour, love your stranger, with all your heart – that is, love ourselves and others emotionally, feel it. Love with your mind – in your thoughts, our calculations, your understandings and love them, even more powerfully, with your soul! Now that's loving with abandon! Sounds a little dangerous, doesn't it? But Christ you can trust. He promises this is the way to joy and peace. and we could do with that in the world right now! Let go of the fear that feeds suspicion and hate of difference. Christ is telling us it is safe. Trust Him.
Psychology has now proven that our capacity to fall in love with another depends on our awareness of our own goodness, and that doing violence and harm to others and ourselves, is a defensive reaction for survival. Christ is telling us here that the way 'home' to ourselves and each other is trusting the fact that we are loveable, loved and not alone. Enjoy!

Jesus' Story

Fr. Liam Hickey

Good Pope John The 23rd liked to ask Confirmation students: 'Why did God make you?' They answered "God made us to know, love and serve Him in this life, and be happy with Him forever in Heaven." The Pope then said 'You have left out an important line which is,"and also to tell others about God's Love and Blessings for us.' When we were baptised, our parents promised to tell The Story of Jesus to us. We tell the Story with words, but more often with actions of caring, kindness and respect.

History Notes - Part 146:
THE MALT STORES
The main locations of the town's malt stores were the Quay and John Street in times past. These buildings were in effect huge bulk stores with timber floors supported by strong beams to bear the weight of drying grain. The grain was barley for which south Wexford and Kilkenny were famous. This grain was purchased by the local malting family, P.J. Roche & Sons for conversion to malt via a drying and baking process. The finished malt was shipped by schooner from the quays of town to Guinness brewery in Dublin for manufacture of its famous stout. Some names of these schooners spring to mind, including The De Wadden and the Harvest King. The loading of the malt into these schooners was by dockers who carried the open bags on their shoulders down the bouncing gang-plank to tip the contents into the ship's hold. This was a skilled job as a missed step on the gang-plank could send bag and carrier into the tide.
