Service of Remembrance

The Clonard Parish Memorial Service will take place in Clonard Church at 7pm this Sunday the 1st of November, to remember and pray for our Faithful Departed.

We invite families of the Faithful Departed to place their completed memory cards which they received with their invitation on the tree of remembrance. We ask you to leave the memory card on the tree for the month of November

The Service will be accessible on Parish Radio at 92.9 FM and on the Parish website www.clonardparish.ie

As November begins, we honour the remarkable feats of All Saints. Throughout the month, we will remember and pray for our beloved ones who have passed away, remembering also those who have no one to pray for them. On Sunday evening, November 1st, we will gather as a community of faith to remember all those who have departed from our parish in the past year.

As the days grow shorter and autumn leaves fall, nature mirrors the passage of life, urging us to confront the mystery of death not as an end but as a doorway to eternal life.

Love is stronger than death. Remembering our deceased loved ones through candlelight, storytelling, visiting graves or quiet prayer affirms our enduring bond with them, transcending the boundaries of death.

We hold them at the centre of our hearts and pray for them as they pray for us from the depths of God's love.

The Hook of Faith

The Feast of All Saints falls this year on Sunday. It gives us the opportunity to see how we are connected to a great army of witnesses to Christianity for whose example we are grateful and are inspired. In the year in which we celebrate the 800th anniversary of the death of St Francis of Assisi, we reflect on the mystery of our mortality for the month of November with an article called 'Sister Death' – a term used by Francis in his 'Canticle of the Creatures'. For his feast day on 4th November, we have an article on St Charles Borromeo and why he could be patron saint of the synodal process. We look back on the National Synodal Assembly on 17th October and include the first homily of Bishop Stephen Wang as Bishop of Arundel and Brighton. Check out these and other resources available at www.thehookoffaith.com

Pope Leo's Intention for November
For the proper use of wealth. Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity with those who have little.

When you lose someone you love,
Your life becomes strange,
The ground beneath you becomes fragile,
Your thoughts make your eyes unsure;
And some dead echo drags your voice down
Where words have no confidence
Your heart has grown heavy with loss;
And though this loss has wounded others too,
No one knows what has been taken from you
When the silence of absence deepens.

Flickers of guilt kindle regret
For all that was left unsaid or undone.

There are days when you wake up happy;
Again inside the fullness of life,
Until the moment breaks
And you are thrown back Onto the black tide of loss.

Days when you have your heart back

You are able to function well,
Until in the middle of work or encounter
Suddenly with no warning,
You are ambushed by grief

It becomes hard to trust yourself.
All you can depend on now is that
Sorrow will remain faithful to itself.
More than you, it knows its way
And will find the right time
To pull and pull the rope of grief
Until that coiled hill of tears
Has reduced to its last drop.

Gradually, you will learn acquaintance
With the invisible form of your departed;
And when the work of grief is done,
The wound of loss will heal
And you will have learned
To wean your eyes

From that gap in the air
And be able to enter the hearth
In your soul where your loved one
Has awaited your return
All the time

Feast of All Saints —1st November 2026

As we enter the winter, we come to the Sabbath time of year, when nature rests. In our anxiety to go places and do things in our busy lives, we miss things in the world about us and lose opportunities for grace. A sense of Sabbath, a commitment to taking time and space out of our busy lives and giving it to the sacred, can restore our openness to grace and make us alive to the miracles around us. (Sr Stanislaus Kennedy, Gardening the Soul)

Reflection on the Gospel for the Feast of All Saints
In today's Gospel, Jesus invites us to follow the challenging yet life-giving Way of the Beatitudes. He calls us to choose humility, compassion, justice, and peace over wealth, power, and popularity. This way of life asks us to look beyond ourselves, show mercy, and stand with those who are struggling. The Beatitudes are more than words to admire—they are an invitation to shape our choices each day. How can we live them more fully and bring God's love and hope to those around us?

Get Your Candles This Weekend
Let a candle carry your love and remembrance to those who have gone before us. Candles and LED candles are available at St Mary's Church, Kilmore, this weekend and for the next two weeks. Call in to get yours and remember your loved ones in this special way. They are available at the top of the church with a donation of two euros per candle.
All are warmly invited to the Memorial Prayer Service at St Mary's Church on Monday, November 2, at 7.00 pm. After the service, we will walk together in a candlelit procession to the graveyard, where we will pray for our departed loved ones and place our lights on their graves.

ALL THOSE WHO HAVE LOST A LOVED ONE IN THE PAST YEAR ARE INVITED TO LEAD THE PROCESSION.

Praying for the Dead in November
In November, beginning with the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls, the Church invites us to pause and remember those who have died. In a world that moves quickly and often leaves little space for reflection, taking time to pray for our loved ones is a meaningful act of love. It keeps their memory close and expresses our faith in the Communion of Saints—that we remain united in God's love, even in death. In all our churches, you can pick up a November altar list of the Dead and write out the names of all your loved ones and place them in the special place reserved for them at the top of the church.
As Pope Leo reminds us, reflecting on death can help us recognise what truly matters and choose how we want to live. Remembering those who have gone before us can inspire us to cherish the people beside us, live with greater kindness, and place our hope in God.

Jesus himself commonly points to things like the red sky, a hen, lilies, the fig tree, a donkey caught in a pit, the birds of the air, the grass in the field, the temple animals that he released from their cages, and on and on. He was clearly looking at the seemingly "nonreligious" world, ordinary things all around him, and appeared to do most of his teaching outside.

Imagine how different the world would be if we just obeyed that one commandment to love our neighbour as we love ourselves. (Richard Rohr)

LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING Apocalypse 7:2-4. 9 - 14

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse.

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, 'Wait before you do any damage on land or sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.' Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel. After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, 'Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words: 'Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.'

One of the elders then spoke, and asked me, 'Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from? ' I answered him, 'You can tell me, my Lord.' Then he said, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps. 23:1-6

R. Such are the men who seek your face, O Lord.

1. The Lord's is the earth and its fullness, the world and all its peoples.
   It is he who set it on the seas;
   on the waters he made it firm. (R)
2. Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
   Who shall stand in his holy place?
   The man with clean hands and pure heart, who desires not worthless things.
   (R)
3. He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.
   Such are the men who seek him,
   seek the face of the God of Jacob.
   (R)

SECOND READING 1 John 3:1-3 ,

A reading from the first letter of St John

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children;
and that is what we are.
Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us.
My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is.
Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify himself, must try to be as pure as Christ.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened,
and I will give you rest, says the Lord.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL Matthew 5:1-12

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

How happy are the poor in spirit:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy the gentle:
they shall have the earth for their heritage.
Happy those who mourn:
they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:
they shall be satisfied.
Happy the merciful: t hey shall have mercy shown them.
Happy the pure in heart:
they shall see God.
Happy the peacemakers:
they shall be called sons of God.
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,
All bow for following three lines:
and by the Holy Spirit
was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified
under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord,
the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Pray brothers and sisters, ……
May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

May these offerings we bring in honour of all the Saints be pleasing to you, O Lord, and grant that, just as we believe the Saints to be already assured of immortality, so we may experience their concern for our salvation.
Through Christ our Lord.

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER

The Lord be with you.
And with your spirit.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right and just.

SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.....

AFTER THE CONSECRATION

The mystery of faith.
When we eat this Bread and drink this Cup, we proclaim your Death, O Lord, until you come again.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Behold the Lamb of God, ……..
Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God.
Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

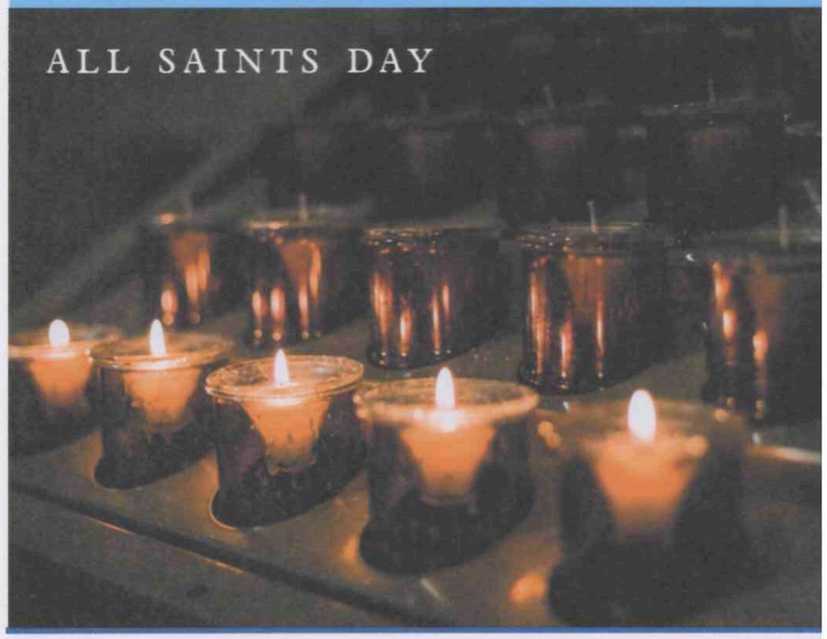

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

As we adore you, O God, who alone are holy and wonderful in all your Saints, we implore your grace,
so that, coming to perfect holiness in the fullness of your love, we may pass from this pilgrim table to the banquet of our heavenly homeland.
Through Christ our Lord.

ALL SAINTS 1st November 2026 Year A

All of us know good, holy people whose quiet lives were filled with the grace and kindness of God. We know people whose names are unremembered but who were instruments of God's care and peace for many. Today we celebrate their memory and their heavenly reward with thanks.

Focus

How many, men and women - whose names we do not know – honour our people, honour our Church because they are strong in carrying forward their lives, their work, their family, their faith – these our brothers and sisters are saints! Every day saints! Hidden saints among us! They have the gift of holiness in carrying on in their life's work as people, mother, father, brother, sister, relative, friend. citizen.

Today we are grateful for favourite canonised saints, and we thank the Lord for the Christians who are the hidden saints among us. With the same Spirit who encourages us, we think that if they can do this then why not me?

Each of us no matter what our age can be good and do good. Holiness is in the ordinary – kindness, looking after the poor, the family, the locality – we do the best for others as well as ourself. Holiness is not just for old age, as we recall some of the best known young saints: Carlo Acutis, Maria Goretti, Dominic Savio.

In many ways they dared to make a difference, as did our known and unknown saints. Pope Francis said to young people: *"Dare to be different [and] point to ideals other than those of this world, testifying to the beauty of generosity, service, purity, perseverance, forgiveness, fidelity to our personal vocation, prayer, the pursuit of justice and the common good, love for the poor, and social friendship. History Notes - Part 147:
GAMBLING FOR BUTTONS

As small boys, we regularly visited Jack Cahill, a tailor, in Michael Street. His real name was Broadway but wife's name was Cahill by which he was known. Our knock was answered by his wife who was deaf but most welcoming. She chatted away to us but never answered our questions.
Jack sometimes passed rude remarks to her for our amusement in the sure knowledge that she could not her him. We passed her through the hall and kitchen and into the back room where Jack sat on a table with his legs crossed surrounded by his work.
Jack produced a pack of cards and a handful of buttons for each of us from his button box. We gambled determinedly with our buttons which were then returned to the box. Mrs Cahill showed us the beautiful mock peacock butterfly on the kitchen wall near the ceiling. She assured us that it regularly flew around the kitchen but always returned to the same spot on the wall. Satisfied with our entertainment and viewing of the mysterious butterfly, we trotted off.

Wexford General Hospital is holding their Annual Service of Remembrance at Clonard Church, Wexford on Thursday 12th November 2026 at 7.30pm – this is an annual event.

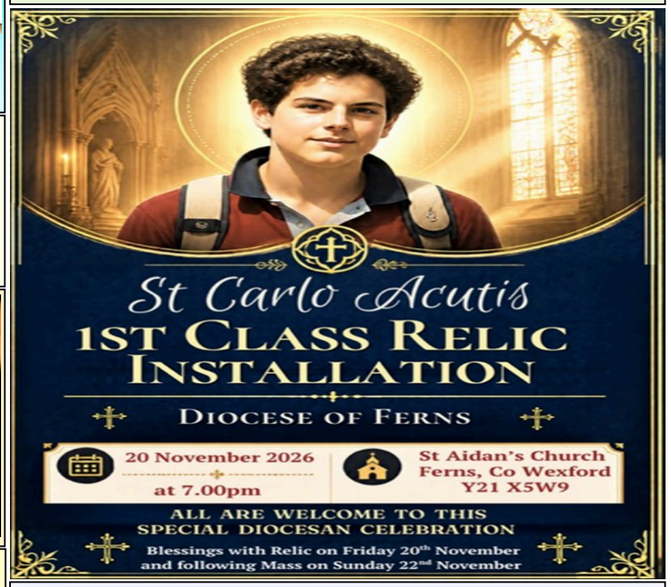

The Service of Remembrance is particularly intended for families and friends of those who died at Wexford General Hospital over the past year or who have a strong connection with the hospital. However, the service is also open to anyone who wishes to attend.

The purpose of the service is to provide an opportunity to remember, as a community, the people we loved and who have died - to reminisce and celebrate their lives and all they meant to us. This event is open to people of all faiths and of none. Tea and coffee will be served afterwards.

The Service is organised on an annual basis by the End-of-Life Care Committee at Wexford General Hospital. This committee is comprised of staff from all areas of the hospital. Their work includes organising the Service of Remembrance, implementing initiatives such as the writing and sending out of sympathy cards, refurbishment of the mortuary and family rooms, providing written bereavement information for relatives and developing education programmes for staff.

Wexford General Hospital would also like to inform people about the Bereavement Support Line which is available from 10am to 1pm, Monday to Friday on 1800 80 70 77.
