ST. EUNAN'S CATHEDRAL LETTERKENNY NEWSLETTER

Sunday 16th August 2026

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

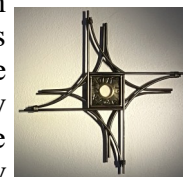

THANK YOU

Thank you, to all who prepared for Mass at the Mass Rock, Rodger's Burn. A particular word of thanks to the Mullen Family for allowing access to the field; to those who erected the scaffolding for the temporary bridge across the burn; to the local Residents' Association and Tidy Towns Volunteers who look after the area and who helped prepare the field and Mass Rock; to the Members of the Pastoral Council who prepared the Mass Rock and the refreshments after Mass and to the Knights of St. Columbanus who helped with the carrying of the statue of Our Lady for the procession from the Cathedral and for stewarding.

ST. PIUS X ADORATION CHAPEL

Eucharistic Adoration is a devotion whereby members of a parish unite in making continuous adoration before the exposed Blessed Sacrament, for as many hours as may be possible, based on the number of people who pledge to do a weekly holy hour. Eucharistic Adoration is silent and contemplative in nature.

We in this parish are very blessed that St. Pius X Adoration Chapel (located in the grounds of Loreto Secondary School) is open from Sunday 1 pm – Friday 8 pm and that we have enough people willing to commit an hour each week. Many people, who are committed to weekly adoration, experience extra graces and blessings. People who spend time in weekly adoration are powerful witnesses in their community to the real Presence of Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Are you willing to be that witness?

THE FOLLOWING HOURS ARE IN NEED OF ADORERS:

Tuesday: 10 pm - 11 pm; Wednesday: 12 noon - 1 pm; 1 pm - 2 pm; 2 pm - 3 pm; Thursday: 7 pm - 8 pm. If you are interested in committing to one of these hours or an hour of your choice - please contact Mary on 086-0870446.

“Devotion to the Eucharist is the most noble, because it has God as its object; it is the most profitable for salvation, because it gives us the Author of Grace; it is the sweetest, because the Lord is Sweetness itself.” Pope Pius X

(Feast of St. Pius X - Friday 21st August)

The NATIONAL NOVENA TO OUR LADY OF KNOCK continues until Friday 21st August. To participate in this Novena, please visit: <https://www.knockshrine.ie/watch-live/>

The DONEGAL PRO LIFE CHURCH GATE COLLECTION takes place this weekend, 15th and 16th August. Your support would be appreciated.

The Letterkenny Community Heritage Group is holding a DEDICATION CEREMONY OF THE WORLD WAR 1 MEMORIAL at Cathedral Square, on Wednesday 19th August at 7.30 pm. The memorial is in remembrance of all from the Letterkenny area who went to fight in the First World War. A short talk will be given on the idea and siting of the memorial in this location, followed by some music and an ecumenical blessing of the site. The last post will then be played. Refreshments will then be available in Conwal Parish Hall. The Community Heritage Group would like to send an open invitation to the local community to attend this event and help remember those who never returned.

DO YOU WANT TO KNOW MORE about what it means to be a son or daughter of God? How to live from that identity? How to come into deeper intimacy with God? and Church teaching? What it means to be priest, prophet and king in Christ Jesus? How to do the greater works that Jesus said believers would do? Then this COURSE is for you! Beginning in September until the end of May on Thursdays from 6.30 pm to 9 pm at All Saints Church, Newtowncunningham. For more information on the course or to register go to <https://encounterschool.org/donegal/> or email donegal@encounterschool.org

The annual DOWN SYNDROME IRELAND (Donegal Branch) Church Gate Collection will be held on the 29th and 30th August. Every contribution helps provide vital support, services, and opportunities for individuals with Down Syndrome and their families in Donegal. Your support would be appreciated.

The DONEGAL HALF MARATHON will take place on Sunday 30th August starting at 9 am on Conwal Straight on the R250 coming in to Ballymacool, along Pearse Road, out Port Road, in Neil T. Blaney Road and Paddy Harte Road, onto Pearse Road over Oldtown Bridge along Crieve Road through New Mills on to Rashedoge junction turning right at Foxhall Junction and returning to Letterkenny along the main Churchill Road on the R250 and finishing at the Aura Letterkenny Leisure Complex. The initial loop of the town should be finished by 9.50 am. Traffic management will be in place between the hours of 8.30 am and 12.00 pm around the Town Centre and Newmills/Conwal so please plan for some delays.

MASS FOR EXPECTANT FAMILIES will be held on Tuesday 8th September in St. Eunan's Cathedral at 7 pm. Celebrant will be Bishop Niall Coll. All are welcome.

RSA'S CHECK IT FITS SERVICE - Did you know it's the law that all children under 150cms or 36kgs must use a child car seat appropriate to their weight and height. In Ireland as many as 54% of child car seats are incorrectly fitted which can lead to serious injury or even death in a collision. You are invited on Wednesday 26th August to have your car seat checked beside the Smyths Toy Store, Letterkenny Retail Park.

We might wonder why Jesus is so rude and dismissive to the woman in today's Gospel who comes and asks for his help. Does he really call the woman 'a dog'?! Many explanations have been given for Jesus' words with some suggesting that it was an attempt at a first century joke, that he was just 'teasing' (he didn't really mean it!) or that it was an opportunity to test the woman's faith. The disciples also clearly want her sent away.

What happens just before this incident is important. Jesus has just left Gennesaret where the Pharisees have continued to be extremely hostile towards him. Jesus' mission to 'the lost sheep of the House of Israel' is not going so well. So, Jesus 'leaves that place' and goes somewhere that is unfamiliar. What happens in this unfamiliar place is certainly life giving for the woman and for Jesus also. It might be considered a place of new beginnings as Jesus' mission is opened up to those who would have been considered 'unworthy', such as a woman who is also a foreigner. The food rejected by the religious leaders of the time is ending up in unexpected places. It is here that the kingdom grows.

You have to admire the woman's persistence. She is a reminder of people we encounter who have great faith and make a deep impression on us.

We might ask ourselves today: when have experiences of rejection in our own lives led to new possibilities? Where are the unfamiliar places that we must go in order to grow, to embrace new life and new experiences?

Lay a firm foundation with the bricks that others throw at you.

ST. ANTHONY'S BLESSING

May the Lord bless you and take you into His keeping; may He show you His countenance and take pity on you; may He turn His eyes towards you and give you His Peace:

Prayers of the Angel

"My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and love You! I ask pardon of You for all those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You!"

"Most Holy Trinity; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."

16Ú LÚNUSA 2026 - AN FICHIÚ DOMHNACH - A

Reflection

Today's gospel recounts an unusual exchange between Jesus and the unnamed Canaanite woman who challenges him. She has seen what Jesus can do, she has faith, and she is advocating for her daughter. She is persistent, shouting out to Jesus and apparently also badgering the disciples, to the point where they plead with Jesus to 'give her what she wants.' Jesus' rebuke seems shockingly unkind: 'It is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the house-dogs'.

But the woman doesn't give up. It is a matter of justice for her, as is evident in her witty response about the dogs getting the scraps from the master's table.

It's a strange story, with Jesus at first appearing cold in his response to the woman. But as we know, he has a tendency to test his followers. His disciples, who know him well and have seen lots of miracles, often fall short. But this woman passes with flying colours. Jesus can see that she is a person of strong faith, clever and determined. She is not easily dismissed. In allowing her to state her case, Jesus also presents a challenge to the religious and social status quo. This pagan woman (Jesus' reference to 'house-dogs' tells us a lot about her status) exhibits more faith than his own disciples.

Jesus does not want us to be silent, compliant or complacent. He rejoices in those who are brave and persistent, and eager to challenge the injustices they see around them – those who have the gift of changing minds and hearts. We might call it the gift of prophecy.

Donegal Pro Life Church Gate Collection

Donegal Pro Life Church Gate Collection will take place this weekend 15th and 16th August. All support is greatly appreciated.

Last month, Dail Eireann voted by 86 votes to 70 to advance a Bill that would remove the three-day or 72-hour waiting period between a mother seeing her GP and proceeding with an abortion. This waiting period creates a small but vital space for the mother to reconsider her decision and thereby save the life of her unborn child. We know that the waiting period has saved lives, because between 2019 and 2024 more than 10,000 expectant mothers did not proceed with an abortion. That number, having contacted their GP and begun the abortion process, did not return after the three-day period had elapsed. Two of the 86 TDs who voted to remove the three-day waiting period are from our constituency. We voted for them. You and I must now persuade them to change their minds before the Bill returns to the Dail in the Autumn for the final vote. It is the least that mothers and their unborn children deserve.

Thoughts on the Readings for the 19th Sunday August 16th 2026

Today in the Gospel, we have a continuation of last week's story about the feeding of thousands of people by Jesus in the desert. Immediately after the event, we are told that Jesus: ...made the disciples get into a boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. Was there reluctance on their part to go? Certainly there is the implication that the disciples were not too willing to leave the scene. They were enjoying the reflected glory of being part of Jesus' 'miracle' and the enthusiasm of the crowds for Jesus, 'their' Jesus. They were basking in the reputation of being partners with Jesus. Yet, it won't be very long before they will be hiding, even denying under oath, ever having had connection with him. Jesus himself, after having dismissed the crowds: ...went up the mountain by himself to pray. In John's version of this story he tells us that the people, after being fed by Jesus, actually wanted to make him their king. They, like the disciples, have totally missed the meaning of what has happened. Here indeed was a real source of temptation. Jesus could easily have convinced himself that here was a golden opportunity to get control of the crowds and 'save' them. They were so ready to follow him—it seemed. The world was at his feet. There is an echo here of one of the temptations in the desert after his baptism: ...the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory, and he said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me."

AN CHÉAD LÉACHT

Sliocht as leabhar Isáia fáidh.

56:1, 6-7.

Seo mar a deir an Tiarna: Coinnigí an ceart, cleachtaigí an fhíréanacht, óir tá mó shlánú ar tí teacht agus m'fhíréantacht ar tí a léiriú.

Na stráinséirí a chloigh leis an Tiarna chun freastal dó, chun grá a thabhairt d'ainm an Tiarna agus chun a bheith ina seirbhísigh aige, iad sin uilig a choinníonn an tSabóid agus a chloíonn le mo chonradh, déanfaidh mé iad a chomóradh go dtí mo shliabh naofa. Bhéarfaidh mé aoibhneas daofa i mo theach urnaí. Glacfar ar m'altóir lena dtabhartais agus lena n-íobairtí, óir bhéarfai ar mo theachsa teach urnaí na gcíníocha go léir.

Briathar an Tiarna. FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

FREAGRA AN tSAILM

Go mola na ciníocha thú, a Dhia;
go mola na ciníocha go léir thú.

AN DARA LÉACHT

Sliocht as litir Naomh Pól chuig na Rómhánaigh.

11:13-15, 29-32.

A phágánaigh! Lig domh seo a insint daoibh: Sa mhéid gurb aspal na bpágánach mé, is é mo dhulgias éad a chur ar mo chine féin agus iad a spreagadh chun iomaíochta libhse agus ar an dóigh sin cuid acu a shlánú. Mar, má tugadh an domhan chun athmhuintearais le Dia trína gcaitheamh amach, cad a thiocfaidh dá nglacadh ar ais iad ach mar a bheadh aiséirí ó mhairbh ann? Ní cúis aithreachas ar bith do Dhia a choíche a thíolaicí ná an rogha a bhíonn déanta aige. Ionann is mar bhí sibhse easumhal do Dhia san am a chuaigh thart agus go ndearnadh trócaire oraibh siocar easumhlaíochta na nGiúdaich, is mar a gcéanna acu siúd é; tá siadsan easumhal anois nuair atá trócaire déanta oraibhse, ach déanfar trócaire orthu féin ar deireadh thiar thall. Mar chuir Dia an uile dhuine i ngéibheann san easumhlaíocht d'fhonn trócaire a dhéanamh orthu uilig.

Briathar an Tiarna. FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

ALLELUIA

Alleluia, alleluia!

Is fírinne do bhriathar, a Thiarna.

Déan sinn a naomhú san fhírinne.

Alleluia!

AN SOISCÉAL

Sliocht as an Soiscéal naofa de réir Naomh Maitiú.

15:21-28.

San am sin chuaigh Íosa go dtí ceantar Tuíre agus Síodón. Tháinig bean as Canán amach as na críocha

NET MINISTRIES My name is Thomas O'Donoghue, from Inver Parish. I will be starting a mission year in Ireland in August 2026 with a young Catholic organisation called NET Ministries. NET's mission is to encourage and support young people to encounter Jesus and embrace the life of the Church. They do this through road teams and through parish teams, organising different clubs and retreats. I'm looking for support in the mission by people financially contributing to it, as we solely rely on the generosity of others for the mission. You can donate on, https://netireland.org/missionary/thomas-o-donoghue or contact me on 087 708 0884 or NET Ministries directly at College Court, Main Street, Ballybofey, Co. Donegal, F93 HYE0.

Confessions will be heard after all Masses during the weekSt Peregrine

A blessing with the relic of St Peregrine can be obtained after Mass every Friday at 10am.
This kindly Saint, born in Italy in 1260, is the Patron Saint of cancer patients.

People are often unreasonable and self-centered. Forgive them anyway.
If you are kind, people may accuse you of ulterior motives. Be kind anyway.
If you are honest, people may cheat you. Be honest anyway.
If you find happiness, people may be jealous. Be happy anyway.
The good you do today may be forgotten tomorrow. Do good anyway.
Give the world the best you have and it may never be enough. Give your best anyway.
For you see, in the end, it is between you and God.
It was never between you and them anyway.

Feast of the Assumption of Our Lady

Saturday 15th August: Mass at 10am in the Church

A Thought on the Feast of the Assumption of Mary

For the disciples,
with Mary's body literally gone
and no burial site to visit,
there was no physical reminder of Mary,
only memories and, at times,
an unexplainable presence.

Many of us have met or know of persons who have experienced the loss of a loved one as a result of war, accident, drowning, violence or unknown circumstances and the body is never located.

The feast of Mary's Assumption gives hope and consolation to them as they grieve and mourn the loss of their loved one,
believing that the person is not lost or annihilated,
but enjoys eternal life
with their God who loves unconditionally.

Congratulations to St Catherine's Band, Killybegs,

who were crowned All Ireland Champions once again at Fleadh Cheoil na hÉireann in Belfast last weekend.

Gluten-free Communion is available at all Masses.

To avoid cross contamination, those taking gluten-free hosts may help themselves from the small pyx.

Entrance Hymn: Colours of Day

Colours of day dawn into the mind,
The sun has come up the night is behind.
Go down to the city, into the street,
And let's give the message
to the people we meet.

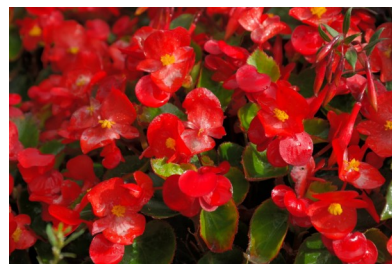

Chorus: *So light up the fire and let the flame burn,
Open the door, let Jesus return,
Take seeds of his Spirit, let the fruit grow,
ell the people of Jesus, let his love show.*

Open your eyes, look into the sky,
The darkness has come,
The sun came to die.
The evening draws on, the sun disappears,
But Jesus is living, and his Spirit is near. (Chorus)

The Begonia by Rosaleen Carry

*The Begonia Mary gave me in the front room
It looks very beautiful now it's in full bloom.
Sitting on my window sill for all the world to see
While Lotto seems quite comfortable sitting on my knee.*

*On my birthday Mary gave it to me,
Everyday I see it, fills my heart with glee.
Thank you for the Begonia, it means a lot to me.
God will help you carry your cross,
You just wait and see.*

Rosaleen wrote this poem for Mary Dorrian during her illness. Mary died 24th May 2026. R.I.P.

Biodiversity Project

The Irish Catholic Bishops announced in March 2023, that they would like to see 30% of church grounds returned to nature. This was inspired by Pope Francis. A free webinar "Supporting biodiversity on Faith Grounds" will be held on 17th August at 7:30- 8.45 pm.

Parish Choir Practice Monday 7.15pmFinal Hymn: Hail Queen of Heaven

Hail, Queen of heav'n, the ocean star,
Guide of the wanderer here below;
Thrown on life's surge, we claim thy care:
Save us from peril and from woe.
Mother of Christ, star of the sea,
Pray for the wanderer, pray for me.

O gentle chaste and spotless maid,
We sinners make our prayers through thee;
Remind thy son that he has paid
The price of our iniquity.
Virgin most pure, star of the sea,
Pray for the sinner, pray for me.

STEP BY STEP THROUGH THE MASSThe Liturgy of the Eucharist (Part 6)

We have seen how the mingling of the water into the wine in the chalice evokes for us the union we should have, and should aspire to ever increasingly have, with Jesus. It can be an important moment for us to once again examine our conscience: “The Water and the Wine are now in an inseparable union in that chalice. Are my heart and mind, is my soul, in an equally inseparable union with Christ Jesus as I participate in this Mass? Additionally, if the Wine in the Chalice represents Christ’s offering of himself; and the water represents my human offering, what am I bringing to this Mass today? Obviously, Christ’s prayer is greater than mine; His praise of the Heavenly Father more perfect than mine; his love for God and Neighbour (shown by the outpouring of his Blood on the Cross) greater than my love. But what I do offer, meagre as it is, I offer through Jesus, with Jesus and in Jesus.

Perhaps I carry in my heart to this Mass some person or situation in my life that needs God’s grace or intervention. As I see the water added to the wine, I can remember that I place what is in and on my heart into and upon the Heart of Jesus now – my prayer mingles with his, my intentions he takes upon himself to present it all before the Face of the Heavenly Father. All of this, and more, can be set before our minds at this brief moment when the Water is mixed into the Wine.

Once the chalice has been offered (with the accompanying offertory prayer), the priest then bows low and quietly prays the following prayer on his behalf and on behalf of those participating at the Mass: “With humble spirit and contrite heart may we be accepted by you, O Lord, and may our sacrifice in your sight this day be pleasing to you, Lord God.” This brief prayer is an acknowledgment of his and our unworthiness and need for repentance as we spiritually and really approach the Heavenly Father in this Mass. The words “sacrifice in your sight” remind us that the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass gives us privileged and unparalleled access to God the Father. Which is why our ancestors, (who knew these truths, though perhaps they would not have been able to articulate them in theological terms), would move heaven and earth to be physically present at Mass – even if for generations during persecution their presence meant risking life and limb just to be at Mass. How sad it is then that so many, physically fit and healthy people, now cannot motivate themselves to get out of bed on any given Sunday to make their appointment with the Living God at Mass.

The 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time focuses on God's patience, mercy, and the growth of His kingdom. The readings show how God gives people time to change and how His kingdom grows in unexpected ways. Let us pray the following prayer this week:

Lord Jesus, plant your Word in our hearts and make it fruitful in our lives. Keep us free from sin and make us a fertile place where your love can grow. Let the Word which you have planted in our hearts not return to you void, but may it provide a rich harvest, a hundred, or fifty, or thirty-fold. Amen

What do we live for, if it is not to make life less difficult for each other?

Anytime we step out boldly to make changes, we take a chance that we might fail. But the only way to get better is to try.

NATIONAL GRANDPARENTS PILGRIMAGE will take place at Knock Shrine on Sunday 26 July celebrating the sixth World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly. For many Grandparents and elderly people, this pilgrimage is one of the most important and joyful days of the year – a day when they feel honoured, remembered, loved and welcomed.

The National Pilgrimage to Croagh Patrick 'REEK SUNDAY' takes place on Sunday 26 July. This pilgrimage has been carried out uninterrupted for over 1500 years. The Sacrament of Reconciliation will be available on the mountain from 7.30am and will conclude at 2.00pm. The first Mass on the summit will be celebrated at 8.00am and every half hour after that until the final Mass of the day at 2.00pm. Find full event schedules and safety advisories directly on the Westport Parish website or check updates via the Irish Catholic Bishops' Conference.

Are you feeling overwhelmed, have a query or simply want to discuss your caring role? Family Carers Ireland are running support clinics remotely every Tuesday for the months of July and August. These clinics offer you a space and time talk over the phone in the comfort of your own home. To Book Call/text 0868363842 or email Donegalcs@familycarers.ie

CONSECRATE YOURSELF TO THE EUCHARIST ON THE FEAST OF OUR LADY OF KNOCK:

Human Life International Ireland will be leading a 33 Day Consecration to the Eucharist online with videos uploaded each day. Starting: 19th July - 20th August, on the HLI Ireland YouTube Channel. You can participate by watching the videos, or get the book "How to Be His" by Fr. Jesse Maingot OP online at <https://blackwells.co.uk>

The Raphoe Diocesan Pilgrimage to Knock will take place on Saturday 15th of August 2026. The main celebrant is Bishop Niall Coll. For parishioners who cannot join the pilgrimage in person, all the Masses and talks of the Annual Knock Novena will be livestreamed on the Knock Shrine website or on YouTube: <https://www.youtube.com/@KnockShrineCeremonies/featured>

Encounter School of Ministry Donegal is launching in All Saints Church, Newtowncunningham in September. This course draws from the richness of our Catholic heritage as we seek to teach, equip, and activate disciples to demonstrate the love of God through the power of the Holy Spirit in their spheres of influence. If you would like to know more, we are hosting a Zoom Q&A session on Thursday 6th August from 8 - 9pm. If you wish to attend this session, please email donegal@encounterschool.org. You can also get more information on the course at www.encounterschool.org
