

PARISH

of Aghagallon & Ballinderry

Annual Mass for the Dead Thursday 19th November 2026 at 7pm. During the Mass we will pray for loved ones who have died during the past year. Family members will be invited to remember each person in a special way. Refreshments will be available afterwards in the Community Centre. If you wish to include someone who died outside the parish this year, please leave their details with us before Sunday 8th November.

There will be no morning Mass or Liturgy on Thursday 19th November 2026.

Growing In Faith Together Programme We will welcome the Year 8's who have completed GIFT 1 to our 11am Mass on Sunday 11th October 2026. Last week they had great fun exploring their gifts and talents. To complete GIFT 1 we will be having a celebration night bowling.

G.I.F.T 2 for Year 9's will begin on Monday 9th November 2026 in Aghagallon Community Centre from 7.30-9pm.

Adoration We are blessed to Have Eucharistic Adoration in our Parish Every Wednesday from 10:30am (after Mass) till 10pm. We wish to thank all our current adorers for keeping their commitment to Jesus. We would like this devotion to continue to thrive in our community, but we can't do it without you, our parishioners; the heart and soul of our Parish! We are calling for new adorers to commit to 1 hour or 30 minutes of their time every week to spend in the presence of Jesus. We currently require cover between 6pm-7pm & 8pm-9pm. There is a sign in sheet in the porch for you to register your time.

Altar Servers We would like to welcome new members to our Altar Servers Club on Saturday 24th October 2026. This is for new and existing members. We will meet in the sacristy of the church at 4pm-7pm Mass, parents are welcome to attend 7pm Mass during which the new altar servers will be commissioned.

MINISTRY OF WELCOME

We welcome Baby Sénan into our Parish Family, who was baptised recently.

Booking Masses, Baptisms and Weddings As parish office opening hours have been reduced slightly, we are returning to our previous practice of booking Masses, baptisms and weddings in person, in the sacristy after Masses.

Masses can be booked well in advance to ensure your preferred dates are available.

Baptisms can only be booked by the child's parent or legal guardian. At least one month's notice is required. To book a baptism parents must present the child's long birth certificate, complete the baptism request form, meet with one of our Baptism team and attend weekly Mass during the month prior to the date of the Baptism

Weddings can be booked by the couple themselves. Couples are required to give at least six months' notice of marriage to ensure the preferred date is available and that there is adequate time to complete all Civil and Church paperwork.

CAUSEWAY FAMILY OF PARISHES

5th & 12th October 2026
27th & 28th Sunday of Ordinary Time

THE MONTH OF THE ROSARY

In this Sunday's second reading, St Paul urges us not to be anxious about anything, but to bring every need to God in prayer and leave it in his hands. Like a loving parent, the Lord knows best how and when to answer, and whatever his reply, he promises us a peace beyond understanding.

And one of the best ways to pray is with the rosary. October is the month of the rosary, a tradition dating back to Pope Pius V's call for prayer before the Battle of Lepanto in 1571. Why not pray at least a decade each day, ideally with our families, and join our candlelight rosary, which returns on Thursday. Prayer intentions may be left in the boxes at the back of the church and will be prayed for throughout this month.

If you need a priest in an emergency please contact Portstewart parish office on 028 7083 2534 or one of the other local parishes.

HOLY FACE NOVENA
The monthly novena to the Holy Face of Jesus takes place on Tuesday (5th) at 7pm.

OCTOBER - THE MONTH OF THE ROSARY
The month of October is dedicated to the Rosary, one of the Church’s favourite prayers when we meditate on the lives of Jesus and Mary. Families are encouraged to pray the rosary at home during the month, especially with young children.

Candlelight Rosary
We will pray the rosary together in the church by candlelight on Thursdays at 7pm over the next four weeks. This is a lovely chance to come together in a peaceful and meditative environment.

Belfast Rosary Festival
Our Lady’s Rosary Festival will take place from 12th to 18th October. Join us for a week of events to honour Our Lady, ending with the annual Belfast Rosary Procession. The procession will leave St Malachy’s Church, Belfast City Centre, at 2.30pm on Sunday 18th October, and finish at St Peter's Cathedral. A full list of events can be found online at belfastrosaryfestival.com

PRAYER REQUESTS
During this month there is a chance to have your intentions prayed for. From this weekend there is a box at the back of the church to leave your prayer intentions. Write them down, leave them in the box (but if the prayers are for someone else don’t include their name for reasons of privacy). They will be prayed for throughout the month.

OLD & NEW@No.5
Our parish shop is a treasure trove of gifts. Visit us at 5 Gate End, Ballymoney, open Wednesday to Saturday, 10am - 4.30pm. To keep in touch with our offers and to see pictures of our stock don’t forget our Facebook page @oldandnewatno5

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION
Arrangements are being finalised for the celebration of First Confession, First Holy Communion, and Confirmation next year. Children attending St Brigid’s Primary School and Ballymoney Model Integrated Primary School are already enrolled for these sacraments and will undertake their preparation in school.

For children attending other schools who wish to receive their sacraments in 2026, participation in a sacramental preparation course is required. A joint course for our Family of Parishes will be held at St Malachy's Parish Centre in Coleraine, beginning in October.

A registration meeting for parents/guardians of children taking part in the sacramental preparation courses will take place in St Malachy's Parish Centre on Wednesday 7th October at 7pm.

The following children are eligible for the sacraments:
First Confession & First Communion
- children in P4 (or older) Confirmation - Children in P7 (or older).

For more information please contact Portstewart parish office on 028 7083 2534 during office hours.

HYMNS FOR MASS

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope
Where there is darkness, only light
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

O, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console
To be understood as to understand
To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned
In giving to all men that we receive
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Now thank we all our God with heart and hands and voices, who wondrous things has done,
in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms has blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts and blessed peace to cheer us, to keep us in his grace, and guide us when perplexed, and free us from all ills of this world in the next.

Mass to celebrate End of Season of Creation, St Peter's Cathedral, today Sunday Oct 4th at 11.00 am.

Weekly Collection 27th Sept. £1096

Hello children! In today's gospel Jesus talks to us about a man who has real trouble with the people who are looking after his vineyard.

Like the man who gave the vineyard to his tenants to look after, God has given us the earth and all that is in it. He wants us to be responsible for looking after the earth and all the animals, people and plants that are in it. This week, let's do our bit for our planet and give thanks to God for the earth and all the wonders in it Creator God, may we listen to your word. Teach us to care for each other and for all creation so that all people may have what they need. Amen.

Worksheets and the Kids Bulletin to support this week's Gospel are available in both churches. Pick up copies for your children/grandchildren.

Missio – Children Helping Children
Children's Day of Mission Prayer – 9th October 2026

Young people sharing hope and solidarity with the world's poorest children.

Children's Day of Mission Prayer is celebrated on the Second Friday of October each year. Its purpose is to enhance the prayer lives of children, encouraging them to pray for each other and for overseas missionaries on mission with children. This special day fosters an awareness of mission and the need to help and serve others. It is aimed at children on the whole island of Ireland, teaching professionals, priests, chaplains, religious congregations and all those who are in ministry with children.

As the Holy Father's official charity for overseas mission, Missio Ireland's Children Helping Children supports the physical, spiritual and emotional well being of children around the world. We encourage children to pray together, for each other and for children living in poverty and fear. We also encourage children to share whatever they can, no matter how little, to help with the material needs of their brothers and sisters. Thanks to young people living out our motto Children Helping Children, the Missio family can support millions of the world's poorest children every year. As a result, thousands of children's projects, led by missionaries are supported. These missionaries, who are living out their faith through action, know the value of every donation they receive as they try to help everyone they can regardless of their backgrounds or beliefs. Sunday 18th October 2026 is Mission Sunday

“When you say this prayer, with a contrite heart and with faith on behalf of some sinner, I will give him the grace of conversion.” Jesus to Saint Faustina

O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fount of Mercy for us, I trust in You.”
(St Faustina's Diary 187)

Women's Discernment Night – Thursday 22nd October, 7pm St Colmcille's Church, Ballyhackamore. Are you a young woman aged 18-40 discerning God's call? ? LIFE AFTER ALPHA ?
INVITATION TO CONTINUE THE JOURNEY
ChristLife 'FOLLOWING CHRIST' Course

When Jesus called his first Disciples he said, "Come Follow Me." He still makes that call to us today. The 'ChristLife' series is an opportunity for you to respond to that call and continue that journey you embarked upon with Alpha. FOLLOWING CHRIST is a 7-week course with a one day Retreat to help you grow as a disciple of Jesus. The course will commence on TUESDAY 15 SEPTEMBER 2026 at 7:00pm in HOLY ROSARY PARISH CENTRE, 503 Ormeau Road, BT7 3GR.

Each evening will follow a format similar to the Alpha Course and include a video presentation and small group discussions each evening. We will also have time for tea and coffee and a little something to eat! The evening should last no more than a couple of hours.

To register for 'FOLLOWING CHRIST' course, please send your full name, your e-mail address and preferably your mobile telephone number to stbrigids@downandconnor.org

A short information video can be found here:

St Bernadette's Third World Group - Lima Mission

Father Coney and staff members from St Bernadette's Children's Centres in Lima will be speaking at St Bernadette's Masses Sat 5th & Sunday 6th September. Their aim is to thank the Sponsors for their continued support over many years, and at the same time promote the sustainability of the projects. The Third World Group is collecting annual sponsorship payments after both Masses this weekend and also on 12th & 13th September. If you would like to sponsor a child within the Centres please speak to us after Mass. We will be happy to give further details. Many thanks to all sponsors for your continued support.

FÁILTE - WELCOME GROUP

There will be a get together of the group and new members in the coffee lounge (St Bernadette's parish centre) on the 13th September after 11am mass. We are blessed to have 16 members and would be delighted if more parishioners came along to join us. You will find it to be a very worthwhile and enriching ministry to be part of. INTRODUCTORY RITES

*Congregation standsEntrance Hymn or Entrance Antiphon*Ps. 129:3-4

All: If you, O Lord, should mark iniquities, Lord, who could stand?
But with you is found forgiveness,
O God of Israel.

GREETING

Priest: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen

Priest: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

All: And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

Priest: Brothers and sisters, let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

Priest: Lord Jesus, you came to reconcile us to one another and to the Father:
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Priest: Lord Jesus, you heal the wounds of sin and division:
Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.

Priest: Lord Jesus, you intercede for us with your Father:
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Priest: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins,
and bring us to everlasting life.

All: Amen

GLORIA

All: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

THE COLLECT

Priest: Let us pray.

Pause for silent prayer

Priest: May your grace, O Lord, we pray, at all times go before us and follow after and make us always determined to carry out good works.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

25:6-10

On this mountain,
the Lord of hosts will prepare for all people a banquet of rich food, a banquet of fine wines, of food rich and juicy, of fine strained wines.
On this mountain he will remove the mourning veil covering all peoples, and the shroud enwrapping all nations,
he will destroy Death for ever.
The Lord will wipe away
the tears from every cheek;
he will take away his people's shame everywhere on earth,
for the Lord has said so.
That day, it will be said: See, this is our God in whom we hoped for salvation;
the Lord is the one in whom we hoped.
We exult and we rejoice that he has saved us;
for the hand of the Lord rests on this mountain.

The word of the Lord
All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 22. R v.6

(R) In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever.

1. The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me, to revive my drooping spirit. (R)
2. He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort. (R)
3. You have prepared a banquet for me in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing. (R)
4. Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell for ever and ever. (R)

SECOND READING

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians
4:12-14. 19-20

I know how to be poor and I know how to be rich too. I have been through my initiation and now I am ready for anything anywhere: full stomach or empty stomach, poverty or plenty. There is nothing I cannot master with the help of the One who gives me strength. All the same, it was good of you to share with me in my hardships. In return my God will fulfil all your needs, in Christ Jesus, as lavishly as only God can. Glory to God, our Father, for ever and ever. Amen.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

ACCLAMATION

Jn 1:12. 14

All: Alleluia, alleluia!
The Word was made flesh and lived among us;
to all who did accept him
he gave power to become children of God.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you.

All: And with your spirit.

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

22:1-14

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

Jesus said to the chief priests and elders of the people: 'The kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who gave a feast for his son's wedding. He sent his servants to call those who had been invited, but they would not come. Next he sent some more servants. "Tell those who have been invited" he said "that I have my banquet all prepared, my oxen and fattened cattle have been slaughtered, everything is ready. Come to the wedding." But they were not interested: one went off to his farm, another to his business, and the rest seized his servants, maltreated them and killed them. The king was furious. He dispatched his troops, destroyed those murderers and burnt their town. Then he said to his servants, "The wedding is ready; but as those who were invited proved to be unworthy, go to the crossroads in the town and invite everyone you can find to the wedding." So these servants went out on to the roads and collected together everyone they could find, bad and good alike; and the wedding hall was filled with guests.

When the king came in to look at the guests he noticed one man who was not wearing a wedding garment, and said to him, "How did you get in here, my friend, without a wedding garment?" And the man was silent. Then the king said to the attendants, "Bind him hand and foot and throw him out into the dark, where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth." For many are called, but few are chosen.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

THE CREED

All: I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow your head up to the words 'and became man') and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Procession

The gifts of bread and wine which will become the Lord's body and blood are brought to the altar.

The celebrant raises the host on the paten saying:

Priest: Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation, for through your goodness we have received the bread we offer you:
fruit of the earth and work of human hands,
it will become for us the bread of life.

All: Blessed be God for ever.

The celebrant pours wine and a little water into the chalice, saying quietly:

Priest: By the mystery of this water and wine may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity.

The celebrant then raises the chalice above the altar and says:

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation,
for through your goodness we have received the wine we offer you:

fruit of the vine and work of human hands,
it will become our spiritual drink.

All: Blessed be God for ever.

Bowing, the celebrant says quietly:

Priest: With humble spirit and contrite heart may we be accepted by you, O Lord, and may our sacrifice in your sight this day be pleasing to you, Lord God.

Then the celebrant washes his hands, saying quietly:

Wash me, O Lord, from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

All: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Priest: Accept, O Lord, the prayers of your faithful with these sacrificial offerings, that, through these acts of devotedness,
we may pass over to the glory of heaven.
Through Christ our Lord.

All: Amen

EUCCHARISTIC PRAYER II

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.
All: We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All: It is right and just.

PREFACE (III in Ordinary Time)

Priest: It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks,
Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

For we know it belongs to your boundless glory, that you came to the aid of mortal beings with your divinity and even fashioned for us a remedy out of mortality itself, that the cause of our downfall might become the means of our salvation, through Christ our Lord.

Through him the host of Angels adores your majesty and rejoices in your presence for ever.
May our voices, we pray, join with theirs in one chorus of exultant praise, as we acclaim:

ACCLAMATION

All: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Priest: You are indeed Holy, O Lord, the fount of all holiness.

Make holy, therefore, these gifts, we pray, by sending down your Spirit upon them like the dewfall, so that they may become for us the Body and + Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ.

At the time he was betrayed and entered willingly into his Passion, he took bread and, giving thanks, broke it,
and gave it to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND EAT OF IT,
FOR THIS IS MY BODY
WHICH WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR YOU.

In a similar way, when supper was ended, he took the chalice and,
once more giving thanks,
he gave it to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND DRINK FROM IT,
FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD,
THE BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL COVENANT, WHICH WILL BE POURED OUT FOR YOU AND FOR MANY FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.

DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

Priest: The mystery of faith.

All: My Lord and my God.

Priest: Therefore, as we celebrate the memorial of his Death and Resurrection, we offer you, Lord,
the Bread of life and the Chalice of salvation, giving thanks that you have held us worthy to be in your presence and minister to you.

Humbly we pray that, partaking of the Body and Blood of Christ, we may be gathered into one by the Holy Spirit.

Remember, Lord, your Church, spread throughout the world,
and bring her to the fullness of charity, together with Leo our Pope and N. our Bishop and all the clergy.

Remember also our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection, and all who have died in your mercy:
welcome them into the light of your face.
Have mercy on us all, we pray, that with the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with blessed Joseph, her spouse,
with the blessed Apostles, and all the Saints who have pleased you throughout the ages,
we may merit to be coheirs to eternal life,
and may praise and glorify you through your Son, Jesus Christ.

Priest: Through him, and with him, and in him,
O God, almighty Father,

in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honour is yours,
for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

THE COMMUNION RITE

Priest: At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching, we dare to say:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Priest: Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days,
that, by the help of your mercy, we may be always free from sin and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

All: For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

Priest: Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your Apostles:
Peace I leave you, my peace I give you, look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church, and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will.
Who live and reign for ever and ever.

All: Amen.

Priest: The peace of the Lord be with you always.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it.

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Congregation kneels

The celebrant says quietly:

May the receiving of your Body and Blood,
Lord Jesus Christ,
not bring me to judgment and condemnation, but through your loving mercy be for me protection in mind and body and a healing remedy.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

All: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof,

but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Priest: May the Body of Christ
keep me safe for eternal life.

Priest: May the Blood of Christ
keep me safe for eternal life.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

Cf. Ps 33:11

All: The rich suffer want and go hungry, but those who seek the Lord lack no blessing.

Purifying the chalice the celebrant says quietly:

What has passed our lips as food, O Lord,
may we possess in purity of heart, that what has been given to us in time may be our healing for eternity.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Congregation kneels

Priest: Let us pray.
We entreat your majesty most humbly, O Lord, that, as you feed us with the nourishment which comes from the most holy Body and Blood of your Son, so you may make us sharers of his divine nature.
Who lives and reigns for ever and ever.

All: Amen

THE CONCLUDING RITES

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: May the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

All: Amen

Priest: And may the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, + and the Holy Spirit, come down on you and remain with you for ever.

All: Amen

Then the celebrant, with hands joined and facing the people, says:

Priest: Go forth, the Mass is ended.
All: Thanks be to God.

NOVEMBER – THE MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

The November Dead Lists (envelopes provided) are available in church porches.

Returned lists and donations should be placed in envelope and returned to the safe in right hand side alcove of the church, beside confession box. All Masses will be celebrated during the month of November for all names included on lists. Since all believers are bound together by the love of Christ, the dead are not beyond our love. We are linked to the dead, just as when they were alive; and so our motivation to pray for them is love. We include in our prayers those forgotten who have no one to pray for them.

PLEASE RETURN ALL LISTS BEFORE THE BEGINNING OF NOVEMBER. THANK YOU.

OUR LADY'S ROSARY FESTIVAL will take place from 12th to 18th October 2026. Join us for a week of events to honour

Our Blessed Lady, ending with the annual Belfast Rosary Procession. The procession will leave

St Malachy's Church, Belfast City Centre, at 2.30pm on Sunday 18th October, and finish at St Peter's Cathedral.

A full list of events can be found on the poster at the back of the Church and online at belfastrosaryfestival.com

PRISONS WEEK 2026 11–17 OCTOBER, WITH THE THEME “ALL ARE INVITED,” INSPIRED BY MATTHEW 22:1–14.

The week begins with Prisoners’ Sunday on 11 October and focuses on prayer and action for victims of crime, offenders, families, and all working in the criminal justice system. Prisons week raises awareness and generates prayer. It motivates volunteers to step forward and give their time and gifts, in prisons and in their own communities. It provides an annual focus and reason for Christians to work together, building capacity and motivation to make a difference for people who are out of sight and often out of mind.

THE PRISONS WEEK PRAYER

Lord, you offer freedom to all people. We pray for those in prison.

Break the bonds of fear and isolation that exist.

Support with your love prisoners and their families and friends, prison staff and all who care.

Heal those who have been wounded by the activities of others, especially the victims of crime.

Help us to forgive one another.

To act justly, love mercy and walk humbly together with Christ in His strength and in His Spirit, now and every day. Amen.

PATHWAYS TO THE FUTURE are pleased to invite you to a Zoom training evening introducing the Sycamore Advent programme. This session will provide an overview of the programme, explain how it can be used in parish communities during Advent, and offer practical guidance and resources to help you lead sessions. There will also be an opportunity to ask questions and share ideas with other parish leaders.

Date: Tuesday 20th October 2026 Time: 7pm – 8.30pm Venue: Zoom

The training is intended for lay parish leaders and anyone involved in evangelisation, catechesis, small groups or parish formation. No previous experience with Sycamore is required. Please confirm your attendance by completing the booking link by 15th October. <https://forms.cloud.microsoft/e/f7S5ycvmn2>

OCTOBER IS THE MONTH OF THE HOLY ROSARY

through meditation on His life, death, and resurrection. Catholics ask Mary to pray for us, not because she is worshipped, but because she is the Mother of Jesus and is believed to intercede for us.

Praying the Rosary can bring peace and help us slow down, especially during busy or difficult days. It gives us a way to place our worries and intentions before God, strengthens our faith and perseverance, and encourages virtues such as patience, compassion, humility, forgiveness, and hope.

The repeated prayers provide a simple rhythm that helps us focus on God and reflect on the Gospel. Even when we are distracted or don't know what to say, the Rosary gives us a way to continue praying and entrusting our lives to God.

Ultimately, the Rosary is not about simply repeating words, it is about spending time with God, contemplating Jesus, and allowing prayer to gradually transform our daily lives

Sunday Message

TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE WORD

Year A • 4 October 2026 • Colour: Green • Psalter Week 3

THE GIFT OF PATIENCE

MT 21:33-43

St Matthew uses the parable in today's Gospel to summarise the story of God's relationship with God's people. The characters in the story are symbolic. The landlord represents God, the tenants are the people of Israel, and the servants are the prophets, whom God has continually sent to Israel to remind the people of their true destiny. All of them were rejected and despised.

Finally, God sends his son Jesus, who, like the son in the parable, will be murdered by those to whom he came. The landlord will punish the tenants by leasing the vineyard to new tenants. This is Matthew's way of telling his readers that the Kingdom of God will be given to the Gentiles, the outsiders, as it were, those who weren't part of the original story. Since the Son has been rejected by the people he came for, he must go to others instead.

The parable is also a reminder of God's patience. In the Old Testament, the people of Israel kept turning their backs on God. But God never gives up on them, never abandons them. Over and over again, God makes allowances for them and forgives them. This is what distinguished the God of Abraham from other gods of antiquity, who were indifferent, capricious, and casually cruel. Israel's God is the God of endless patience, of infinite second chances, always ready to welcome the prodigal home. In the end, God even sent his Son among us to save us, to lead us home.

Jesus displayed similar patience. People resisted his message; many opposed him; even his closest friends misunderstood him. He must have been desperately frustrated and disappointed with them, but Jesus never gave up on them. Even after Peter denied him three times, Jesus welcomed him back.

God shows that same patience towards each one of us. Even when we keep letting God down and turning our backs on God, even when we disappoint and exasperate him, God is always ready to forgive and forget, to accept us with open arms. ■

DO

Try to be more patient with people at home, at work, and on the roads this week.

SAY

"Lord, I thank you for your patience with me. Help me to draw closer to you every day. Amen."

PRAY

In today's fast-paced, super-competitive world, practising patience has never been more challenging. Pray for the virtue of patience, if you need it.

LEARN

God never stops giving us the chance to turn back towards him

God always sees the good in us, our potential; God never rejects anyone

God's message is intended for everyone

REFLECT

There's no doubt about it, practising patience has never been more difficult. We live in a culture of wanting things now, one of instant gratification. Waiting is a challenge. And not just the sort of anxiety-filled waiting we're obliged to do in an overcrowded A&E, but any kind of waiting. Many of us suffer from road rage, all for the sake of gaining a few extra minutes. Having to sit at a red light annoys us; being stuck in a barely moving queue frustrates us. If our internet connection is down or slow, we get angry. Regular broadband is no longer sufficient; we need high-speed broadband. We're intolerant of inconvenience and discomfort.

The letter 'I' in 'internet' stands not just for me, the individual, but also for instant

- instant access, instant news, instant communication, instant entertainment, instant titillation - available immediately, right now, this very second. As with instant messaging, instant coffee, and ready-made meals, we demand immediate results, and we want them now.

It can be the same with our relationships. If a relationship is in difficulty, we can be tempted to give up on it. Caring for sick or elderly loved ones can test our endurance, our tolerance. If things start to go wrong for us professionally - maybe there are problems at work, or a promotion isn't coming, or our ambitions are being frustrated - we can get angry or feel like quitting.

So also with our religion. Scandals in the church, impatience with the pace of reform, or disappointment with the clergy can leave us feeling fed up and inclined to walk away. When God is slow to answer our prayers or doesn't appear to answer them at all, we can be tempted to stop praying or even to abandon God altogether.

Our pilgrim journey requires patience. Despite our best efforts, we're not going to become saints overnight, become perfect in a flash, reach heaven unscathed. We are human; we are frail; we make mistakes; we flounder and founder. Knowing that God is always patiently with us, walking alongside us every step of the way, we learn to be patient with ourselves and patient with each other. ■

(This talk will explore the rich history of people, through the medium of genetic testing and family connections in Northern Ireland and further afield with reference to the N.I. Family History Societies extensive collection of local family history records. The evening will offer a unique and fascinating insight into researching your family's history. Genetic testing kits will also be available for those who would like to find out more about their families unique history)

Refreshments will be provided.

So back to that time of year! We have sourced many great prizes this year for our Christmas Ballot. Tickets will again be £5 each and we should have them very soon. Please support if you can.

St Oliver Plunkett Parish Mission

Monday 12th October - Sunday 18th October

Each day there will be prayer events planned to conclude with a Mission Mass at 7pm with an invited Guest Speaker. Our plan is to Celebrate Morning Prayer of the Church before the 10am Mass and after, to pray the Rosary.

Each afternoon we will celebrate Adoration between 2-4pm with the first hour guided by NET. At 3pm in the parish hall a Prayer Session will be led by the NET team.

At 6:30pm each night, before the 7pm mission mass we will celebrate Evening Prayer of the Church with a different speaker each evening.

Thank you to the people who agreed to host members of the NET team for the week. If you can offer to host please let us know asap.

4 October 2026, Twenty Seventh Sunday of Ordinary Time, Year A . (Mission Month).

Sunday Gospel God wants us to bear fruit, as in the second reading. He will give these fruits - and wants us to value them. We could say that in many countries child protection and care is better, we are more inclusive of people who differ from us and that the Church is open to the whole human family. In Ireland we have more peace than we had, but maybe not more justice, especially for our migrant people. These are some fruits. We miss out on some issues - the value of faith and community is low and sometimes in public or political life we go for the temporary or the illusory. The gap between rich and poor is wider than ever. We have had bad experiences of greed and financial abuse, even in the charities sector. Looking at the gospel vision, we can ask how the vineyard is nourished. We find that the cornerstone of the Christian way of life is love, and that love is a person in Jesus. He is the one who will invigorate the vine ... some will ignore him, some will follow. God sent his own Son into the vineyard of human life, not because life is perfect, but because his love is. (Fr D Neary).
