There is a second collection this weekend October 17 & 18 for Propogation of the Faith.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Karol Wojtyla, the first Polish pope, was also the first pontiff to come to Ireland, in 1979. He visited 103 other countries, and nearly every parish in Rome. Pope John Paul survived an assassination attempt on 13 May 1981, the feast of Our Lady of Fatima, who he believed protected him. A powerful communicator, he suffered from Parkinsons Disease at the end of his life, and carried a visible cross when his voice failed. In weakness and in strength he served the Lord: St John Paul II, supreme pastor from 1978 to 2005, pray for us (feast day 22 October).

18th October 2026 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time Vol. 5:7

Come to Leap this October

For the past four years, I've celebrated anointing services four times a year, on bank holidays. I've mainly held those services in Lisheen Church — because it's warm, compact, accessible and welcoming. But I've been reminded lately that I am the Co-PP of all five parishes, so maybe I should move the healing service around. And maybe people in each parish might move around with me!
Accordingly, the next service will be in Leap, on the October Bank Holiday (26 October). It will start at 11 am, which I hope will prove convenient. People with a day off might consider coming along, or bringing a neighbour or family member who might need a lift.
The format is a Mass with an anointing service as part of it. Priests will lay hands on each person seeking healing, as Jesus did. And when the oil of the sick is poured on people's foreheads and hands, it is Christ himself who anoints. We couldn't have a more powerful source.
Leap also hosts the Scarecrow Festival at the end of the month, from 19 October to 1 November. So come for the scarecrows, but stay for the healing!
See you there

Twenty Ninth Sunday In Ordinary Time
World Mission Sunday

The enemies of Jesus try to put him on the horns of a dilemma. Would he offend the Roman occupiers or the sensitive Jewish nationalism. Jesus rises above the situation by reminding them, that God is the supreme authority but yet we all have duties to the civic society in which we live.

The Family of Parishes of: Ballincollig | Ballinora | Kilmurry | Ovens and Farran

World Mission Sunday - "One in Christ, united in mission"

The Society for the Propagation of the Faith was founded in 1822 by a French laywoman, Pauline Jaricot. She wished to help not only French missions and missionaries but all missions and missionaries especially the poorest. In 1922 The Society for the Propagation of the Faith became the primary organisation of the Church for supporting the activity of the missionaries. Pope Pius X1 instituted Mission Sunday in 1926 and ordered that it be observed in all churches and oratories throughout the world as a day of prayer and material support for missionary activity.

It was Pauline who drew up the basic plan of the Society. It is one of prayer, offering up of suffering and making a financial contribution for the spread of the Faith. This year the theme chosen by Pope Leo is "One in Christ, united in mission"

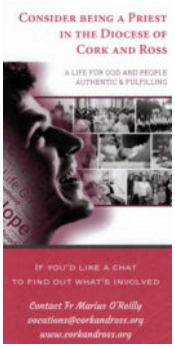

"Holiness and mission are inescapable aspects of the vocation of every Baptised person. The commitment to become more holy is clearly linked to that of spreading the message of salvation. Every member of the faithful is called to holiness and to mission."

Mission is not over. Many of the young churches evangelised are now producing missionaries to other young churches. Many of these Young Churches are rich in vocations but poor in financial resources. All financial contributions for Mission Sunday go directly to the Missions. It assists missionaries to" Make his face shine "before the millions who have never had the opportunity to hear about or see the face of Christ.

It is the one day in the year that Pope Leo asks for your extra generosity on this day, collections will be taken up throughout the world and used to help support missionaries who bring faith, hope and love to those who are suffering on this day, your generosity will ultimately help build churches, hospitals, schools and vocations in countries where the Church is too young or poor to support itself.

Thinking about being a Priest in the Diocese of Cork & Ross?

Recently I had the great honour of visiting your parish and speaking at all the weekend Masses about my own vocational journey to the priesthood and how important it is that we all pray for vocations to the priesthood in the Diocese of Cork and Ross.

It was the prayer of the people of God that gave me the clarity and strength I needed to pursue my own vocation. I remain deeply grateful for those prayers. The Lord Himself said, "The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; pray therefore the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest." (Mt 9, 37-38)

I wish to extend my deepest gratitude to everyone in Ballincollig Parish for such a warm and gracious welcome. May the Good Lord continue to bless you all.

Fr. Marius O'Reilly

O God, Shepherd and Ruler of all the faithful, look graciously, we pray, on your servant Leo XIV, whom you have set over us. Keep him safe in your care, uphold him by your power, and grant that, strengthened by you, he may lead the Church ever more effectively along the paths of salvation. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

DISCOVERY A faith study as part of the Cork and Ross Diocese faith development

Through Discovery you can deepen your daily life with God and learn a new awareness of just who you are, and how you can live. As the Evangelist John says in 10;10 'have life and have it all in its fullness'. 1 hour per week for 6 weeks. 2 small groups of 6 participants each. Wednesday (Men) Thursdays (Women)

Formation in Faith for Young Adults

The Diocese of Cork and Ross, in collaboration with UCC Chaplaincy and the Presentation Brothers LEAF Project, is delighted to offer a Formation in Faith programme for young adults (18–35 years). The programme begins on Wednesday, 30 September 2026, and will run for 9 weeks, from 5.45–8.00pm in Mardyke House, Cork (T12 W8RP). Participants can choose between two concurrent pathways:

a) Sycamore Formation Series: A video-based programme with guided group discussion on Catholic formation.
b) Foundations in Theology: A lecture-based introduction to Catholic theology.
c) Each session begins with food and refreshments, and provide participants with an opportunity to engage in meaningful discussion.

To sign-up or for more information, email Sheila at youthministry@corkandross.org

The Irish Cancer Society

The society is seeking compassionate volunteer drivers to join our pool of drivers. As a volunteer driver you would be bringing patients undergoing chemotherapy to the hospital and back home for their treatment. Gifting your time means that cancer patients will have comfortable (one on one) transport to attend appointments for their lifesaving treatment. If you can spare 2 days per month, have a valid driving licence, and a safe, reliable vehicle, you are the perfect candidate to make a significant difference. The Irish Cancer Society will provide you with training before you start as a driver for us. Your generosity not only eases the journey for many during a challenging time but also offers comfort and support when it's needed most. For more information and to become a volunteer driver, please contact Monica or Emily at volunteer@irishcancer.ie

October: The Month of the Holy Rosary

Rosary will be recited at the Grotto in Crookstown at 8pm every Tuesday night during the month of October. All are welcome

First Reading: Isaiah 45:1.4-6
The liberation of Jerusalem's exiles is a sovereign act of God through a human instrument. The prophet explicitly identifies Cyrus as the one to affect this liberation. Cyrus is called God's anointed even if the true God was to him an unknown God. Nevertheless, the Israelites saw the hand of God through Cyrus.

Second Reading: 1 Thess 1:1-15
For a young Church faced with persecution, the Thessalonians have given evidence of Christian living, which could be a model for every Christian Church: faith in action, expressed in charity, and enduring with hope. These fundamental virtues express the continuity of past-present-future in Christian life.

Gospel: Mt 22:15-21
Christian life is not divisible into the secular and the sacred, as if things we do for the State have nothing to do with God. Jesus is not thinking of God and Caesar as two powers, who can exact their rights from their subjects. Any system - political, economic, religious, social -as long as they are just reflect the values of the kingdom of God.

CUH Volunteer Opportunity

Become the Primary Handler (or second handler) for the Cork University Hospital Community Dog

CUH Volunteer Service is attempting to expand, and to offer our patients a visit from a community dog. To do this, we need volunteers to home the community dog, and if possible to volunteer in the hospital for a few hours 3-4 times weekly. Could you, or a person you know, provide a loving home for a specially trained community dog and help bring comfort to our patients? We are seeking expressions of interest from people who may be willing to:

- Provide a permanent home for a community dog trained by Irish Guide Dogs for the Blind. To become a primary handler for the community dog.
- Volunteer to accompany the dog into the hospital to visit patients for approx. 2 hours, 3–4 days per week
- Receive professional training from Irish Guide Dogs for the Blind on how to handle and work with the dog in a healthcare setting OR
- Volunteer as a second handler to accompany the dog into the hospital to visit patients for approx. 2 hours, 3–4 days per week. This person would not home the dog, but arrange to collect the dog, visit the designated wards in CUH and return the dog to the primary handler.
- Receive professional training from Irish Guide Dogs for the Blind on how to handle and work with the dog alongside the primary handler in a healthcare setting.

Vol. 35 No. 6 Sunday: October 18th, 2026 (World Mission Sunday)

Mary O'H submits.....

Every Christian is a Missionary

World Mission Sunday, which is celebrated on the second last Sunday of October each year, is the one Sunday of the year when the entire global Church comes together in support of mission. It is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue.

'Every Christian is a Missionary' and our Irish missionaries continue to bring the Good News to people throughout the world. World Missions Ireland, the working title of the four Pontifical Mission Societies (Missio Ireland), organises the Mission Sunday collection in all Churches this week end Saturday/Sunday 17th/18th.

A Prayer for a Missionary

Dear Lord, thank you for calling me to share your love and truth with others. As I serve in places that may be unfamiliar and challenging, help me trust you each step of the way. Give me courage when I feel afraid, strength when I grow weary, and wisdom as I minister to those you have placed before me. Help me reflect your love through my words, actions, and daily life.

Protect me from harm, provide for my needs, and guide me wherever you lead. When I miss home or feel discouraged, remind me that I am never alone and that your presence goes with me. Open hearts to receive your message and help me remain faithful to the work you have called me to do. May everything I do bring glory to your name.

Amen.

Team Hope Shoe Box Appeal 2026

Team Hope's Christmas Shoebox Appeal is an annual campaign that delivers gifts straight into the hands of children affected by poverty. Your Shoe Boxes will bring smiles laughter and hope to children who think the world has forgotten them.

A shoebox won't change the world, but it might just change the world for one child, it can do far more than we can imagine, by bringing Christmas to children who have never experienced anything like it before.

The project simply works by asking people to fill an average sized shoe box or plastic container, wrap the box and lid separately with Christmas paper.

What to include in your box:-

Write - Pencils, paper, copybooks, crayons, colouring books etc.
Wash - Soap, toothbrush, comb, facecloth etc.
Wear - Socks, hat, scarf, gloves, underwear, flip flops etc.
Wow - Doll, ball, cuddly toy, sweets, skipping rope, soft toy etc.
Do not include liquids (shampoo), food or chocolate, sharp or breakable items.

You choose whether you would like your box to go to a boy or girl and what age group, 2-4; 5-9; 10 -14. All boxes are opened by volunteers at the collection centres simply to check they are ok for contents and customs purposes. (Our boxes will go to a collection centre in Cork city or county for Eastern Europe & Africa) .

The boxes are then sealed, sent by truck or container and will only be opened again by the receiving child. Boxes are given to children based on need, regardless of religion, race or politics.
We are motivated to help others based on the beliefs of Christian tradition, which are compassion, social justice and dignity of all people.

If you would like to participate in this project contact Mary at the P.A.N. Centre (Parish Office) at 021 4885 062 for further information and special leaflet which must accompany each box.

Boxes must be returned to the P.A.N. Centre (Parish Office); Gala, Ballinhassig or national schools by November 8th, 2026.

I have been associated with the shoe box appeal for twenty four years and the generosity of adults and children never ceases to amaze me, it is greatly appreciated by the under privileged children who receive your gift filled shoe boxes.

Over the years we have always had hundreds of boxes donated from the parish.
Once again your continued support would be greatly appreciated. (Mary O'Halloran)

DIRECTOR OF VOCATIONS VISITS BANTRY PARISH

This weekend we welcome Fr Marius O'Reilly to Bantry. Fr Marius was appointed Director of Vocations by Bishop Fintan a few months ago. As part of his role, he is visiting parishes to promote vocations to the priesthood for our diocese. Fr Marius will celebrate the 6.15pm vigil Mass on Saturday evening. On Sunday he will concelebrate the 9.00am Mass in Bantry, celebrate the 10.30am Mass in Kealkill and the 12noon Mass in Bantry. Many of you may remember Fr Marius ministering in Bantry parish in 2014 when he was a Deacon. He will visit the other parishes in our Family of Parishes in due course.

Conversations in Families of Parishes – Building on the Year of Prayer, Listening and Discernment: The diocese is holding a series of meetings over the next few weeks. The meeting for our Family of Parishes will take place on Thursday 29th October at 7.30pm in The Sacristy of Bantry Church. The session will last no more than two hours and will involve prayer, conversation and discernment of next steps together. It will be led by Lorraine Buckley who will be assisted by Jim Deeds. Each parish in our family is requested to send representatives. If you are interested in attending the meeting, please contact Bantry Parish Office on 027 56398 or email bantryparishoffice@gmail.com before 21st October.

HOLY SOULS NOVENA OF MASSES

The novena for the Holy Souls will take place from Monday 2nd November to Tuesday 10th November. The Novena envelopes are available in our Churches from this weekend. There is a slip of paper in the envelope to write the names of loved ones to be included in the novena. Return the completed list of names in the envelope along with your offering. The clergy open the envelopes, the list is included in the novena of Masses and the offerings go towards the income of the five priests.

Parish Sacramental Preparation –

This weekend we welcome all the First Holy Communion children and their families as they commence the parish element of their preparation for the Sacraments of First Confession in March and their First Holy Communion in April/ May next year. The 'Do This in Memory' parish programme works alongside the school-based 'Grow in Love' programme and family support. This has gone very well in recent years. Children and families feel welcome and at home here in the church and parish. Parents and grandparents often remark on the importance of this experience and welcome. The First Communion celebrations then become a very natural gathering where everyone feels comfortable. That also makes the ceremonies much more prayerful as the year unfolds. As a parish community, we pray for the children and their families. Parents in particular need our prayerful support as they navigate a very complex and challenging parenting world with enormous responsibilities. May the Lord bless the children, their parents, their schools and our parish for the year ahead.
St. Michael, pray for us. - Fr. Michael

First Friday Visits – please let us know if a family member or neighbour is unable to attend Mass and would appreciate a visit to receive Holy Communion in their home.

November Novena for the Dead: Monday 2nd - Tuesday 10th November. There will be Mass each weekday @ 9.30am during the Novena.

Blessing of the Graves – in St. Michael's Cemetery on Sunday 8th November @ 3pm.

November Novena Envelopes - available from the church from this weekend.

Family of Parishes Meeting - Wednesday 28th October @ 7pm in Blackrock Parish Centre. Representatives from the four parishes in our Family of Parishes will meet to further deepen the strong working relationship between the parishes.

Mission Sunday Second Collection - This Mission Sunday collection goes to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith and is used to support the young churches throughout the world in the establishment of parishes, dioceses, training of catechists and building of seminaries, etc.

A brief introduction on Sunday's readings

• First Reading — Isaiah 45:1, 4–6:
God calls King Cyrus of Persia—a pagan ruler who does not even know the Lord—by name and uses him to free the exiled Israelites. This shows that all earthly powers and political leaders ultimately operate under God's supreme authority.
• Second Reading — 1 Thessalonians 1:1–5b:
St. Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy greet the young Christian community in Thessalonica, praising their active faith, labor of love, and steadfast hope in Jesus Christ.
• Gospel — Matthew 22:15–21:
Pharisees and Herodians try to trap Jesus with a political question about whether it is lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar. Looking at a coin bearing Caesar's image, Jesus gives his famous reply: "Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God".

They have gone no further than to God and God is very near.

Reflections

1. The story sees a mixture of religion and politics, a potentially explosive combination. Jesus does not ask us to avoid politics, but that our involvement in the affairs of the world be informed by the perspective of the Reign of God. How does the gospel give you a vision of how your involvement in society should be?
2. Pharisees and Herodians were not natural allies but a shared dislike of Jesus brought them together in an attempt to discredit him. Perhaps you experience the same opposition in society today when you profess to being a Christian or a Catholic. Jesus did not get into an argument with them but simply professed his belief in the priority of God in his life. What have you found helpful in bearing witness to the fact that you are still a believing Christian or still go to church?
3. Jesus recognises that we can be faced with conflicting claims for attention. He does not tell us how to solve that dilemma, but challenges us to make sure that our allegiance to God takes priority. When have you been faced with a conflict of loyalties? What helped you to get your priorities right?

PRAYER
O God, whose image we bear and whose name we carry, yours is the world and all it contains. Recall us to our true allegiance, so that above the power and rulers of this world you alone may claim our fullest loyalty and love. We make our prayer through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

Gentle reminder!!
For those attending with young children, if required, there is a Family Room available at the top left inside the church. Thanks.

This is a free event. The grief cafe is a space where bereaved parents can come together, to talk, listen and to remember the child they lost. The aim our grief cafe in West Cork is to supplement our existing meetings and increasing access to as many people as possible, This event is free and open to all bereaved parents regardless of the age of their child, the circumstances of their death, or how recent their death was. 01 4045378 or email info@anamcara.ie

Thought for the day

The relationship between religious faith and public life is perplexing. In some societies, even today, there is virtually no difference between the two. In other, more secular societies, any expression of religious conviction is unacceptable in public. It is true of course that there is an appropriate distinction and even separation to be made, as indeed Jesus does make today in the Gospel. But on at least two issues, there is bound to be some crossover. Religious faith informs our values and in society today policies and laws must be grounded, not in a particular faith certainly, but in values nevertheless.
Prayer
Lord, we need your wisdom to tell what belongs to God and what belongs to Caesar. Send your Holy Spirit into the heart of all believers that we may be true to ourselves and tolerant towards people with whom we disagree.

Kieran O'Mahony OSA

ENTRANCE –
Hail Queen of Heaven

Hail, Queen of heav'n, the ocean Star:
Guide of the wand'rer here below,
Thrown on life's surge, we claim thy care;
Save us from peril and from woe.
Mother of Christ, Star of the Sea,
Pray for the wand'rer, pray for me.

O gentle, chaste, and spotless Maid,
We sinners make our prayers through thee;
Remind thy Son that He has paid
The price of our iniquity.
Virgin most pure, Star of the sea,
Pray for the sinner, pray for me.

RECESSIONAL -
How Great Thou Art

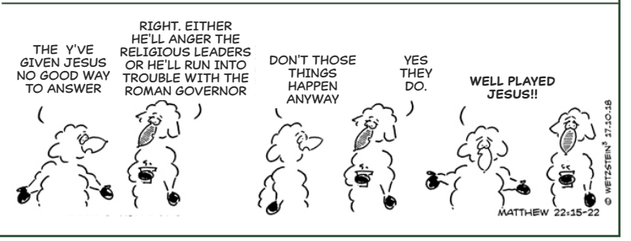

Oh Lord, my God, when I in awesome wonder consider all the worlds Thy hands have made
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder, thy power throughout the universe displayed.

CHORUS: Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee:
How great Thou art, how great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, my Saviour God to thee:
How great Thou art, how great Thou art.

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
and take me home, what joy shall fill my heart;
Then I shall bow, in humble adoration,
And then proclaim, my God, how great Thou art.

🚗 The Irish Cancer Society: Is seeking compassionate volunteer drivers to join our pool of drivers. As a volunteer driver you would be bringing patients undergoing chemotherapy to the hospital and back home for their treatment. If you can spare 2 days per month, have a valid driving licence, and a safe, reliable vehicle, you are the perfect candidate to make a significant difference. The Irish Cancer Society will provide you with training before you start as a driver for us. Your generosity not only eases the journey for many during a challenging time but also offers comfort and support when it's needed most. For more information please contact Monica or Emily at volunteer@irishcancer.ie 🍔 Ballinlough Meals on Wheels: AGM Thursday 22nd October at 11:00 am in Ballinlough Community Centre. All are welcome.

🎊 OLA (Our Lady of Apostles) Ardfoyle: Pope Leo XIV has appointed Sister Mary Teresa Barron OLA (Ardfoyle) as Adjunct Secretary of the Dicastery for Evangelization and President of the Pontifical Mission Societies. She is the first woman to hold this senior leadership position in the Vatican's global missionary network. She serves as the Congregational Leader of the Missionary Sisters of Our Lady of the Apostles (OLA) and has previously served as President of the International Union of Superiors General.

🌎 Synodality - A Missionary Resource:
Synodality is not an end in itself. It exists so that the Church may proclaim the Gospel more effectively and serve the men and women of our time more faithfully.
We live in a world marked by profound transformations. Wars and violence continue to wound entire peoples. Social inequalities are increasing. Migration is reshaping the face of our societies. New technologies are changing the way we communicate, learn and even understand ourselves. Many people are searching for meaning, hope and authentic relationships. Many look to the church for a credible witness to the Gospel.
Faced with these challenges, synodality appears ever more clearly as a missionary resource. It helps the church to listen more attentively to the questions of humanity, to recognize the signs of the times, to value the gifts of all and to discern together the steps to be taken. In this way, the implementation phase becomes a new stage in the reception of the Second Vatican Council and in the missionary renewal of the Church within the concrete realities of ecclesial life.
This is the responsibility that the Holy Father, Pope Leo XIV, encourages us to embrace together: not merely to preserve an inheritance we have received, but to make it bear fruit in the life of the churches and in the mission entrusted to the church in our time. (Cardinal Mario Grech, Secretary General of the Synod of Bishops, at the extraordinary consistory of bishops, convened at the Vatican 26-27 June 2026).

🙏 Thought for the Day: Our Mission, Send me, Lord, out into the world that begins at my front door. May my every word flow from your heart and my actions be of love and peace that everything I do or say reflects your great mercy to all. Help me witness to your truth no less in my silence than in my words and show me, Lord, the way I should go. Help me to see that my solemn duty to spread your Gospel to everyone in the world is second only to their right to hear and respond to it. Open my eyes to your presence in others and my ears to recognise your voice especially in the poor and oppressed. Amen.

A Prayer for Pope Leo XIV

We keep Pope Leo in our thoughts and prayers following his recent cancer diagnosis and surgery.
In a message to a Vatican conference, the Holy Father entrusted those gathered to the protection of the Holy Family of Nazareth and asked them to pray for him, saying:

"Entrusting each of you to the protection of the Holy Family of Nazareth, I ask you please to pray for me, as I pray for you."

Let us respond to his request by praying for his strength, healing and a full recovery. May the Lord guide those caring for him, and may Jesus, Mary and Joseph surround him with their loving protection, bringing him comfort, peace and renewed health during this difficult time.

At this time, we are also mindful of the many people in our own families and communities facing similar challenges — those preparing for or recovering from surgery, awaiting tests or difficult results, undergoing cancer treatment, or anxiously waiting for treatment to begin. We hold them all in our prayers.

Lord, hear our prayer

Crosshaven Parish

Mass times:
Sat. Vigil Mass at 6.00om. Sun. Mass at 10.00am.
Daily Masses on Tues. and Fri. at 10.00am.

This week's Gospel centres on the question of the coin and the taxes. The religious leaders thought they had cornered Jesus with a political question.
" Is it lawful to pay census tax to Caesar or not?"
If Jesus said "Yes" he would seem to be endorsing the Roman oppressors and if he said "No" he would be guilty of sedition against Rome.
Jesus asked to see a Roman coin. It bore the head of Caesar.
He replied "Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and repay to God what belongs to God".
A coin bears Caesar's image and it returns to him.
Humans, however are made in the image and likeness of God.
Thus, our identity, our whole lives belong to God.

First Year students from Coláiste Muire marked the beginning of their secondary school journey recently with a beautiful Mass celebrated in prayer and song. We wish them every blessing during their years in Coláiste Muire.

Cleaning our Church

Our church like any building, needs regular cleaning and it has been the tradition in this Parish that volunteers clean the church weekly. We are grateful to all those who, over many years have generously given of their time to meet this ministry. We appeal each year for volunteers, (Male and female) but it is a challenge to find parishioners eager to serve this ministry. The church cleaning task takes one hour on a Saturday morning. We currently have 2 teams which means each team does one hour every 2 weeks. If you can help, please contact the parish office. Thank you.

Thursday Coffee Mornings are back after 10:00am Mass. All welcome.

Choir: Our church choir has returned and we welcome them back. As always, new members are very welcome. Practice is on Tuesday nights from 7:30 – 9:00pm. No auditions!

October: Talks on Faith

The Best Kept Secrets of our Catholic Faith

Following on from the talks by Fr. Kevin OGorman SMA entitled ' a wholesome faith for today' and '"Jesus and his teaching on the kingdom of God" there will be two more talks on Thursday 22nd and 29th of October covering;

22nd October: Fr. Sylvester on the theme of " Hope for November" and on29th October Fr. Kevin on "Pope Leo XIV recent encyclical on Catholic Social Teaching, and our human dignity"

The talks will start at 7.30pm in the parish meeting room. There will be time for a cup of tea and discussion after. All are welcome.

Reflection:

Lord, make my heart a haven where the lonely may find friendship,
where the weary may find shelter,
where the helpless may find refuge,
where the hopeless may find hope,
where all those who seek someone who cares,
may enter and find You waiting there.

The Working Document for the Irish National Synodal Assembly, taking place in Gormanston, Co Meath, on 17 October, brings together the fruits of five years of prayer, listening and discernment and will guide delegates as they consider and vote on suggested actions to be presented to the bishops of Ireland. While the Assembly marks an important moment in the journey, the Synodal Pathway is now moving towards a new phase of implementation. Everyone is invited to read, pray with, and reflect on the Working Document and the question: "What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?" Please pray for all those taking part in the Assembly and for the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

Prayer: For the Church in Ireland as we journey towards the National Synodal Assembly on 17 October: May the Holy Spirit guide all those preparing for and taking part in the Assembly, giving them wisdom to listen, courage to discern and openness to God's call, so that together we may respond faithfully to what God is asking of the Church at this time. Lord, hear us.

Pope Leo's Prayer Intention Oct 2026

This month, Pope Leo XIV invites us to pray "that believers in different religious traditions might work together to defend and promote peace, justice and human fraternity." At a time marked by conflicts, the Holy Father recalls that religions must be "bridges and prophecy," and not "weapons or walls."

World Mission Sunday – Pray for Missionaries

The 100th World Mission Sunday message by Pope Leo XIV. reflecting on a century of global evangelization since the Day of Remembrance' was established by Pope Pius XI, in 1926

The Pope emphasizes that every baptized Christian shares a universal missionary call rooted in spiritual unity and love rather than isolated efforts. He urges all parishes to actively participate through prayer and financial support for today's collection. Christians who experience the joy of the Gospel are asked to share it with poorer struggling Churches in different parts of the world. This can be done firstly, by praying for the missionaries who go out from a local church to bring the message of the Gospel to others – and secondly, by financially supporting the work of mission in these places. Contributions are used to build simple mission churches, to educate and nurture future leaders of the Church. The Mission Sunday gift is also used for building health facilities for children and adults as well as for providing emergency aid in times of war or natural disaster or to assist missionaries in their efforts to care for refugees.

On Mission Sunday, in a special way, we celebrate the work of about thirteen hundred Irish born missionaries and all missionaries throughout the world. We thank God for them; and for all who support them in our own country.

Mission Sunday Collection this Weekend - 17th & 18th October

This weekend we will have a special collection at all Masses for World Mission Sunday, also known as Propagation of the Faith. This collection goes to Pope Leo in Rome and is used for the development of local Churches in the poorest places in the world. We plead with parishioners to be generous to this collection taken up after Holy Communion.

Building Fund Collection (Next Weekend) - 24th & 25th of October

The monthly Building Fund collection will take place at all Masses next weekend, 24th & 25th of October. The debt for the renovation is still ongoing and we thank you for your generosity each month to help us to repair our beautiful church.

November Mass of Remembrance for our Dead

The November Novena Envelope for the dead will also be distributed to homes over the next week. This will contain a Mass Intentions sheet for you to write the names of your dead on. This envelope along with your contributions can be returned to the Church. Masses each day from 2nd to 10th November (Novena) will be celebrated for all names listed before the Altar. Of course, the greatest gift you can give your dead is to be present while these Masses are celebrated.

'Day of Remembrance' for our Dead – 7th November @ 5.30pm

Mass for all parishioners who died over the past year will take place on Saturday, 7th November at 5.30pm. This special Mass will bring together families who have lost someone dear to them since November 2025. During the Mass a Candle will be brought by two persons representing each family who have lost a loved one. These Candles will be provided by the Church: After Mass they can be collected from the Altar and brought home.

NorthsideParishes.ie - A new website for our family of parishes

We are delighted to announce the launch of a new website for our family of parishes here on the north-side of Cork City. It provides essential information such as the times of Masses and other devotions, contact details for our parishes offices and the priests of our family of parishes, and information on how to book baptisms and weddings. People can also easily access resources or connect to the live stream of Mass from Ascension Church in Gurranabraher.

Annual Blessing of Graves

The Annual Blessing of Graves is as follows:

- St Mary's Cemetery – Curraghkippane: Sunday 1st November 2026 at 1.30 pm.
- St Catherine's Cemetery – Kilcully: Sunday 8th November 2026 at 3.00 pm.

(More dates of other Cemetries will follow when available)

Sunday Bingo at Gurranabraher Credit Union/Parochial Hall Arena

Looking for a great night out with friends and family on Sundays? Join us every week at Parochial Hall for a brilliant evening of fun and a chance to win cash prizes! Doors open at 8pm, with a single book costing €7 and a double book €10. With a friendly crowd and proceeds helping to keep this vital facility running, it is the perfect way to support your local community while having fun. See you there!

Mass Cards available for all occasions

Mass Cards are available at the Parish Office for all occasion, RIP, Exams, Get Well, Birthdays, Anniversaries, etc. – the intentions are included in Nine Masses (Novena) celebrated each month in the parish. Each card cost €3.

Gurranabraher Meals on Wheels

Gurranabraher Meals on Wheels has been providing nutritious meals to members of the parish for many decades. Should you know of someone (or yourself) who would benefit from this service, contact Eliz/Brid on (021) 430 1037.

If we do not worship God – we worship ourselves

In the scriptures the heavy thread of fidelity versus idolatry runs through it like blood in the veins - from the Fall to the Golden Calf, from Solomon's slide to Daniel's stand, from Peter's denial to Peter's restoration… "The history of Israel shows us the temptation of unbelief to which the people yielded more than once," wrote Pope Francis in Lumen Fidei, his encyclical on faith. "Here the opposite of faith is shown to be idolatry." And fidelity (fidelitas) is faithful devotion. Fidelity, it can be said, is the living out of faith in a spirit of worship and self-gift, demonstrated by inward disposition and outward moral uprightness.

Technology and modernity have not done away with idols; they may, in fact, have spawned countless new variations on the ancient themes. Idolatry "remains a constant temptation to faith" (CCC 2113), precisely because we are made to worship - that is, to declare, profess, and proclaim that God alone is worthy of our praise and adoration - and we will either worship God or something else. If there is no God, then you are a 'god' with your own law, your own rules, and, essentially, your own religion. And what do these numerous, autonomous little gods do? They use, they abuse, they lie, they indulge, they corrupt, and they destroy.

This deviant dynamic is captured well in Lumen Fidei: "Once man has lost the fundamental orientation which unifies his existence, he breaks down into the multiplicity of his desires; in refusing to await the time of promise, his life-story disintegrates into a myriad of unconnected instants. Idolatry, then, is always polytheism, an aimless passing from one lord to another." (par 13).

Church Cleaning Rota New rota is now available in the sacristy.

Second Collection today is for Mission Sunday. There are hundreds of Irish born missionaries working throughout the world. They continue to spread the Gospel through their work, their deep commitment to the people they serve and their Faith. In essence, they lead by example and have helped to change, for the better, millions of lives all over the globe. Mission belongs to the entire Church. Every baptized person is called to share God's love through prayer, generosity, and witness. Inspired by the dedication of missionaries around the world, we continue working together so that the message of Christ may reach every community, especially those most in need.

Young at Heart meet every Thursday at 2.30pm in the hall. The aim of the club is to arrange social events, educational options and activities which help members to remain active within their community. New members are always welcome.

Kilbrittain GAA News Lotto Draw 11/10/26 – Numbers drawn: 6, 17, 27, 28 – No winner. €30 spot prizes: Klaire Moloney for Michelle Carroll; Michael, Ciara & Sean Fehilly; Martin McCarthy; Teresa O'Driscoll; Clodagh Ahern. Next draw live on Facebook this weekend – Jackpot €7,100.

Bandon Family of Parishes OCIA program will shortly begin. The programme prepares adults wishing to become Catholic and those who have not received one or all of the Sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion, and Confirmation. A group of trained parishioners journey with candidates in preparation for the Sacraments. If you or someone you know would like to learn more please contact Esther on (087)1497094.

The Community Lip Sync group are holding a car wash and a coffee morning in the hall this Sunday morning 18 October at 1100 in aid of Oisin's Gym. We would appreciate your support. Everyone welcome.

Every November, we take time to remember specially our loved ones who have gone before us. During the month of the Holy Souls, we pause in reflection and remembrance of family and friends who are no longer with us and pray especially that they are at peace in their eternal rest in Heaven.

A Novena of Masses for the Holy Souls will take place from Monday 2nd to Tuesday, 10th November, with Masses each morning and evening for the duration. On Friday, 6th, we remember in a very special way those deceased since our last Novena, along with their families and friends. This year, we will pray for the following deceased (from our records) - if anyone would like to include a loved one in this list, please contact Fr Pontianus or the Parish Assembly: John Ahern, Sean Larkin. Sean Desmond, Dermot O'Connor, Sr. Mary Dineen, Fionnuala Quinlan Bennett, Jeremiah Hurley, Chrissie Ryan, Helen Lehane, Barry O'Mahony, Sr. Marie Therese O'Brien, Joseph Banedzem, Victoria Ihomon, Julia Vera Peek, Ena Domoney, Mary McCarthy, Danny McCarthy, Tommy Kiernan, John Joe Hurley.

Website Our new website is up and running! See www.kilbrittainparish.ie for up-to-date information about Mass times, readings, notices and the bulletin, as well as much more. You can subscribe to receive the bulletin directly to your email on kilbrittainparish.ie/subscribe. We're also working on adding a Donate facility – keep an eye on the website for updates. The website is still a work-in-progress, and we'd love to hear what you think, and what you'd like to see there. Use the Contact tab or let us know by email on assembly@kilbrittainparish.ie.

Notices for bulletin can be emailed to assembly@kilbrittainparish.ie, submitted through the website, or passed to the sacristy by Thursday, 6pm

Twenty Ninth Sunday of Ordinary Time
18th October 2026

World Mission Sunday – 18th October 2026

World Mission Sunday, which is celebrated on the 2nd last Sunday of October each year, is the one Sunday of the year when the entire global Church comes together in support of mission. It is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. Mission Sunday collections will take place in every single parish where the Church is present. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church family, regardless of location or background, plays their part in supporting each other.

All offerings and donations made on World Mission Sunday become part of the Holy Father's Universal Solidarity Fund. This fund is a lifeline for struggling missionaries and the communities they serve across Africa, Asia and Latin America, where over 1,100 mission dioceses are found. These dioceses are often in remote areas devastated by war and natural disasters or where suppressed communities are just opening up to the life-saving message of Jesus Christ. As these dioceses form and grow, so do their needs. The Mission Sunday collection offers young dioceses the financial and spiritual assistance they need to help their men, women and children survive and thrive.

The needs of overseas dioceses vary greatly. These needs can include the purchase of a motorbike so a priest can celebrate Mass in remote villages, or the building of a church so that people can gather and celebrate in safety.

In essence, Mission Sunday:

- provides Church-centred infrastructure by helping communities build churches, schools and clinics;
- prepares future leaders and carers of the Church by supporting the training of sisters, priests, religious brothers and catechists;
- supports missionary programmes that protect and care for children's well-being by offering safe shelter, healthcare, education and hope for the future.

MISSION SUNDAY COLLECTION

The Mission Sunday collection will be taken up at Masses this weekend (17th/18th October) and goes to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith to support the young churches throughout the world in the establishment of parishes, dioceses, training catechists, building of seminaries etc.

OBITUARY

Teresa Casserly, Catholic Walk, Kinsale.

The death took place in Riverstick Care Centre of Teresa Casserly on Friday 9th October 2026.

Teresa grew up in Newmarket-on-Fergus, Co. Clare. She was the eldest daughter in a family of seven. She went to school locally where her mother was a teacher. When she finished school, Teresa went to study general nursing in London. She met the love of her life, John Casserly, in Lahinch. They moved to Australia. In 1979 they came to live in Kinsale. John served as a Department of Agriculture vet for West Cork. Sadly he died in December 2019. Teresa had a close circle of friends. She was a good friend and neighbour, and always looked for the good in every person. She was involved in the bridge club and was an avid reader. Teresa was a woman of strong faith, attending Mass every Sunday.

The funeral Mass was celebrated by Fr. Robert, accompanied by Fr. Kevin Hanley and Fr. Dave Twohig O.Carm. There followed a service at the Island Crematorium.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Teresa's sons John, Brian and David, daughter Alison, daughters-in-law, son-in-law, grandchildren, neighbours, relatives and friends.

May she rest in peace.

Mission Sunday Collection

The collection for World Mission Sunday takes place this weekend.

Altar List for the Dead

If you wish to have the names of your loved ones inscribed on the list, there are sheets and envelopes at the back of the Church. These can be placed in the metal collection boxes or returned to the Parish Office.

Liturgy of Remembrance

On Wednesday November 4th at 7 pm we will remember and pray for all our deceased loved ones in a special Candlelit Liturgy of Remembrance. This special liturgy is also open to all parishioners who would like to attend, and light a special votive candle in memory of their loved ones.

St. Vincent de Paul Collection

The Monthly collection for our SVP Conference will take place next weekend.

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK

Thank You to Fr Kevin

When Fr Kevin announced in May that he had been appointed by Archbishop Farrell to a new ministry in Wicklow, our church was about to close for essential refurbishment works. As a result, there was little opportunity for parishioners to express their thanks for his seven and a half years of devoted service to our parish.

The Parish Pastoral Council recently discussed how we might show our appreciation for Fr Kevin and agreed to organise a parish collection towards a gift from the community he served so faithfully. Special envelopes are available at the back of the church and may be placed in the collection boxes or returned to the Parish Office.

We also hope to welcome Fr Kevin back to Monkstown in the coming weeks for a gathering of parishioners, giving us an opportunity to thank him personally and wish him every blessing in his new ministry.

A Sad Farewell to Bruno

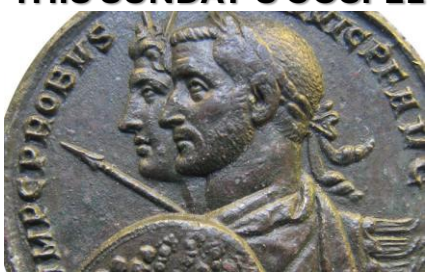

Many of you will remember Bruno, Fr Kevin's Bernese Mountain Dog, who was a familiar sight around the parish. After more than eleven and a half years as Fr Kevin's faithful companion, Bruno has sadly died.

Anyone who has loved and cared for a dog will understand how deep that bond can be. We know that Bruno's loss will be keenly felt and we remember Fr Kevin in our prayers at this sad time.

Deacon Eric

THIS SUNDAY'S GOSPEL

Giving to God What Belongs to God

Matthew 22:15-21

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus is confronted with a question designed to trap Him: should taxes be paid to Caesar? His response is both simple and profound: "Give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and to God what belongs to God."

Jesus acknowledges our responsibilities as citizens and members of society. We have duties towards the communities in which we live and work. Yet He reminds us that there is a deeper loyalty that comes before all others. While coins may bear the image of Caesar, each human person bears the image of God.

The Gospel challenges us to reflect on what belongs to God in our own lives. Our time, talents, relationships, compassion, and faith are gifts entrusted to us by the Lord. As we fulfil our earthly responsibilities, we are also called to offer ourselves wholeheartedly to God, allowing His values of justice, truth, mercy, and love to shape everything we do.

May we live as faithful citizens of the world, while never forgetting that we belong first to God.

Deacon Eric

Searching for Ancestors

In an effort to assist those who wish to trace ancestors from this parish, information from all headstones in St Martin's cemetery, Farnivane, is now available on www.findagrave.com. To access this information, click on the webpage, then click on the tab 'cemeteries', enter Farnivane under Cemetery Name and hit search. This gives a complete list of all those interred in St Martins.
Alternatively, enter the name of the deceased in the search area but be aware that the location of the cemetery is listed as Bandon.

Parish Phone Number

The parish phone number is 086 4426345.
The priest on duty for Murragh & Templemartin for the week will have access to this phone.

Murragh and Templemartin Parish – part of a Family of Parishes

Murragh and Templemartin is now part of a Family of Parishes which also includes Bandon, Enniskeane & Desertserges, Innishannon/Knockavilla and Kilbrittain
Murragh & Templemartin does not have a resident parish priest. The pastoral needs of the parish are covered by the other priests in our Family of Parishes. These priests reside outside of the parish of Murragh & Templemartin but minister across the whole family of parishes. Fr John Newman (Bandon) is the moderator.

Our Lady Crowned Church
St Joseph's Church & Holy Family Church

Gospel Reflection:
Be persistent… and patient…

Our Gospel today is about persistence… just as the widow in the story pesters the judge until he delivers a just decision we too are called to be persistent.

Persistence in prayer demonstrates that we are not afraid to show our dependence on God even though all around us society says we need be self-sufficient, to look after ourselves. To keep praying is equally looking after ourselves but also the needs of those around us and the needs of our world. The widow in the story is concerned about the delay in getting a response, however we must not only must persevere in prayer we must be patient, awaiting God's time for an answer and accepting the answer even though it may not be one we wanted! God will always give the right answer to our prayers, even if in the immediate moment it may not seem that way.

Take time to reflect on what have been the fruits of your own persistent prayer? When you have patiently waited for God's time and response…

Reflection
We are called to serve one another. At Emmaus Café, humble service, gentle listening, and care reveal Christ, reflecting the disciples' encounter with Him. "Serve one another humbly in love." (Galatians 5:13)

Bishop Antony Mar Silvanos Visits Bishop Fintan in Cork

Bishop Antony Mar Silvanos, Curia Bishop of the Syro-Malankara Catholic Church, visited Bishop Fintan Gavin at the Cork and Ross Diocesan Centre on 2 October.
He was accompanied by Fr Shinu Varghese, National Coordinator of the Syro-Malankara Catholic Church Ireland.
The visit provided an opportunity for a cordial meeting and fellowship.

Remembering Bishop Michael Murphy 30th Anniversary

The Cork Cathedral Family of Parishes remembers Bishop Michael Murphy, former Bishop of Cork and Ross, on the 30th anniversary of his death on 7 October 1996.
Bishop Murphy served as Bishop of Cork and Ross from 1980 until his passing in 1996, dedicating many years to the Church and the communities of the Diocese.
One of his lasting contributions was overseeing the major renovation and restoration of the Cathedral of St Mary and St Anne, commonly known as the North Cathedral, between 1994 and 1996.
The Cathedral was rededicated on 29 September 1996, with Bishop Murphy presiding over what would be his final public function, just eight days before his passing.
Thirty years on, we remember Bishop Murphy with gratitude for his years of service, his contribution to the Diocese of Cork and Ross, and his lasting connection to our Cathedral. Bishop Murphy also laid the foundation stone of St Oliver's Church in Ballyvolane in December 1991.
May he rest in peace.

CHRIST THE KING PARISH, TURNER'S CROSS

14th June, 2026

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Entrance Hymn: Holy God, we praise thy name

Holy God, we praise thy name;

Lord of all, we bow before thee.

All on earth thy sceptre own,

all in heav'n above adore thee.

Infinite thy vast domain,

everlasting is thy reign.

Hark, the loud celestial hymn,

Angel choirs above are raising;

Cherubim and seraphim,

In unceasing chorus praising,

Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord,

Holy, holy, holy Lord.

Reflection on Today's Gospel: What does the term 'apostle' mean?

It is someone who is sent. Jesus himself was sent by the Father to reveal God to the world and to redeem humanity. Jesus chose twelve of his followers and they acted as his core group of collaborators. Their closeness to Jesus over the time of his public ministry was a preparation for their mission in life. Just as Jesus had been sent by the Father, Jesus in turn sent out his twelve disciples to make him known, initially to the Jews and eventually to the whole world. In today's gospel he tells them: 'And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand' (Matthew 10:7). Later in that gospel we read the Great Commission, i.e. Jesus' final sending out of his apostles:

All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you. And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age (Mt 28:18-20)

This commission is now the responsibility of the whole Church, not just the successors of the apostles. Pope Francis proposed this extension of the apostolic mission to all Christians as synodality. Pope Leo has continued this emphasis on synodality from the beginning of his papacy.

What is Synodality?

The term ‘synodality’ owes its origin to two Greek words sun (with) and hé hodos (the road/journey): we journey on the one road together. The basis of synodality is the Incarnation: the Son of God became one of us and joined us on the journey of life with its joys and sorrows, until he met with a most brutal death. And he continues to journey with us: ‘And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age’ (Mt 28:20). We too need to journey together. Though we have different functions in the Church and different vocations, nonetheless, we are all travelling together. The term ‘synodality’ owes its origin to two Greek words sun (with) and hé hodos (the road/journey): we journey on the one road together. It is a constitutive dimension of the Church and always has been. Synodality is not a new pastoral experiment which gives a platform to the theologically articulate. Who’s Who? The members of the funeral team are as follows: Fiacra Bracken, Bernadette Hegarty, Maeve Kennedy, and Christine O’Neill. They lead the prayers at the reposing in the funeral home the day prior to the funeral Mass. This is a sensitive ministry, and they need our prayers.

Mass at St. Michael's Cemetery, Blackrock

Wednesday 24th June, at 7.30 pm.

Weekend Mass Collection Last weekend the amount received was €1,035

Trocaire Collection raised €1,454 this year.

Recent Deaths The death has occurred of Ann Dore, Greenhills Court; Brother Germanus (Ger) Noonan, Maiville Presentation Community. May they rest in peace. Sincere sympathy to their families and community.

Recessional Hymn: Praise to the Lord

Praise to the Lord, the Almighty, the King of creation! O my soul, praise him, for he is your health and salvation! Come, all who hear; now to his temple draw near, join me in glad adoration.	Praise to the Lord, let us offer our gifts at his altar: Let not our sins and transgressions now cause us to falter. Christ, the high priest, bids us all join in his feast, Victims with him on the altar.

World Mission Sunday

Sunday 18th October 2026

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ Year A

Gospel Reflection
In the image of God …

Today Jesus meets the Pharisees who question him, essentially to catch him out. However, Jesus rises to their challenge placing himself above the controversy they are creating. He acknowledges that taxes must be paid, by law. He then reminds them that each person carries another image with them, the image of God, in whose likeness they are made.

Each of us is called to abide by the laws of the state but also to put first in our minds that we owe our existence to God. This statement makes a clear distinction between the political and religious spheres of life.

So, on this Mission Sunday we are reminded in the Gospel of our own responsibility for the mission of Christ: to speak of God and to bear witness to Him to all whom we encounter. Every one of us, by Baptism, is called to be a living presence in society, inspiring it with the Gospel and with the lifeblood of the Holy Spirit. It is a question of committing ourselves with humility and courage, making our own contribution to the building of God's kingdom in our time and place. Are you ready to answer the call to mission in this community?

World Mission Sunday 1926-2026

World Mission Sunday is a powerful expression of our shared Catholic identity. Celebrated each year on the second-to-last Sunday of October, it unites Catholics around the world in supporting the Church where it faces the greatest challenges. Instituted by Pope Pius XI in 1926, this collection is unique: it directly supports 1,124 mission territories where the Church is young, vulnerable, or facing persecution.

On World Mission Sunday, Catholics everywhere are invited to support communities that cannot yet sustain themselves. Our prayers and donations help fund church construction, pastoral care, education, and healthcare. When your parish takes part, you join Catholics worldwide in supporting missionaries as they build churches, train seminarians, form catechists, and serve vulnerable communities. Together, we answer our baptismal call to share the Gospel and bring hope to all peoples as one Church.

Recent Deaths

We extend our sympathies to the families of:
