Sunday 13th September 2026 – Twenty Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

In this Sunday's Gospel, Peter asks a question many of us have asked: "How often must I forgive?" Jesus' answer invites us to stop keeping score and to live instead from mercy. In the parable of the unforgiving servant, he shows that we have received far more forgiveness from God than we could ever earn. This week we reflect on the link between forgiveness and freedom. Forgiveness does not excuse wrongdoing, but it prevents resentment taking root in our hearts. Holding onto bitterness can imprison us more than the person who hurt us. The Lord invites us to let go of old grievances and allow his grace to heal our wounds. True forgiveness is not weakness, but an act of freedom born of God's mercy.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

In today's gospel Jesus teaches a powerful lesson on forgiveness. We pray for the men called to priesthood that, as they celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation with their people, they will help them to know and experience the Lord who "...is compassion and love, slow to anger, and rich in mercy." (Responsorial Psalm).
