SAINT OF THE WEEK

Friday next is September 25th, feast of St Finbarr. Friday 13 weeks is Christmas Day.

St Finbarr tells us each
September what day of the week
Christmas falls on. Born in Templemartin, baptised in Kilmurry, Finbarr prayed in Gougane Barra and founded his monastery in Cork — its first bishop. Patron of the city, the university and the Diocese of Cork: St Finbarr pray for us, as we make the journey from your feast to Christmas.

Points to Ponder

Everything you do now is for your future.
Be careful with your words. Once they are said they can only be forgiven, not forgotten.

Without water, we die

It's said the Eskimos have over 100 words for snow.

We Irish have as many terms for rain. Six months of precipitation from January to June 2026 turned into a glorious summer, leading to a hosepipe ban, and drought, and then, inevitably, more rain. We get weary of rain, and yet, without it, we die, and so do our plants and shrubs and animals. Water means life, which is why we use it to baptise and to bless.

'Living Water' is the theme for Creationtide this year, which runs from September 1st to October 4th. Its themes include water conservation, ecosystem renewal and community action. You can mark Creationtide practically:

- Switch to green energy; reduce your environmental impact.
- Conduct a water audit, sort out leaks and reduce waste.
- Keep our rivers clean and free from rubbish and farm pollution.
- Thank God for water: without it we wouldn't exist.
- PRAY LIKE THIS: *"Lord, help us remember how essential water is for all life, for creatures, for the earth, for balance in creation.
Inspire us to play our part, to build a new and better world where God's creation is valued and our common home preserved for future generations."*

Sunday 20-September-2026

Twenty Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Our human horizons are so limited! So often we calculate the cost of our generosity – giving only to the DESERVING – afraid that our 'goodness' may be wasted. Our God is not limited. He takes the risk of his love being wasted and it is only because of such love that we can have hope.

The Family of Parishes of: Ballincollig | Ballinora | Kilmurry | Ovens and Farran

The Generosity of God

This morning's gospel from Matthew is preceded by a great bold question asked by Peter; "What about us, we have left everything and followed you. What are we to have then?" Jesus said to him, "I tell you solemnly, Everyone who has left father, mother, brother, sister for the sake of my name will receive a hundred times over and also inherit eternal life."

"Many who are first will be last, and the last, first."

Christ goes on then to tell the parable of the Landowner, the workers and the vineyard. This great parable tells us in a dramatic way about the generosity of God. Peter and his companions took a very courageous step in life; they left the familiar life of boats, fishing, companions and many familiar places to search for a new life with the Christ, the Messiah. The new life brought happiness, fulfilment and many challenges. However from time to time there were niggling doubts and questions hence the question, "what about us, we have left everything."

The first lesson from the word of God today is that it is important to put words on our questions. Raising questions provides opportunities for us to learn and in today's gospel Peter's question provides the context for the great teaching on the generosity of God.

The culture and society of the 21st century continually reinforces the correctness of asking the question "what about us, we have left everything". The culture of the day goes even further and ask "What about me, what is my reward going to be". The world of achievement and success finds it difficult to accommodate the generosity of God. Help us to realise that I do not have to earn or deserve the generosity of God's love in my life, thankfully it is freely available to me twenty four seven.

"Rejoice with me I have found my sheep that was lost."

DOES GOD EXIST OR NOT?

The answer to this and many other questions
Are you carrying regrets? Feeling Lonely?
No matter where you've been or what you have faced you are invited to listen to answers that will change your life for the better.

ST. MARK'S CENTRE BALLINCOLLIG

Continuing every Sunday and Wednesday
From 7.30pm. to 8.30pm.

YOU WON'T BE DISAPPOINTED

Ballincollig - Volunteers for Church Ministries.

We would be very grateful if on reflection you might like to help out in our churches in any of the following areas. Over time we lose some of our Ministers, so we are appealing to all who feel able to think about and see if you could commit. We are appealing in particular to Secondary School students to become Ministers of the Word. We have seen many of you, wonderful readers read for various occasions but very few commit to reading at weekend Masses. It would help you become a more confident public speaker and also good for your CV's in later years. There is a rota system so it would not be every Sunday. Also for students in transition or above if you are a regular Mass goer, you might consider becoming a Minister of the Eucharist. Training will be provided for both.

Ministers of the Word and Eucharistic Ministers are needed in both churches. Would you like to help out with church cleaning, Collectors in both churches and flowers in St. Mary & St. John (speak to the Sacristan re details). Please give your names to the Parish Office with your contact details for all volunteers by Wednesday 30th. September.

St. Padre Pio

The Church will celebrate the liturgical memorial of St. Pio of Pietrelcina, popularly known as Padre Pio, on next Wednesday September 23rd his 58th anniversary.

The date marks the anniversary of his death, or his "birth into heaven," on September 23rd, 1968.

St. Padre Pio will be remembered for his profound life of prayer, love for the Eucharist, ministry in the Sacrament of Reconciliation, and his witness of faithfully carrying Christ's Cross.

As his feast day approaches, may his life inspire us to deepen our prayer, trust in God, and pursue holiness.

St. Padre Pio of Pietrelcina, pray for us!

The Lord is close to all who call him.

Cantairí Mhúscraí is a mixed voice choir based here in Ballincollig and have a wide repertoire of music including church, classical, popular and showtunes. Apart from other performances we sing in St. Mary's & St. John's Church at the 6.00pm Mass on the 3rd Saturday of every month.

We welcome new members to all lines, without formal audition. Ability to read music is not essential, we just need singers who can hold a tune and blend into the overall sound. We rehearse every Wednesday night from 7.20 to 9.20pm at Ballincollig Community School.

Joining at this time of year is ideal as we begin to learn new music. See you there!

The Irish Cancer Society is seeking compassionate volunteer drivers to join our pool of drivers. As a volunteer driver you would be bringing patients undergoing chemotherapy to the hospital and back home for their treatment. Gifting your time means that cancer patients will have comfortable (one on one) transport to attend appointments for their lifesaving treatment.

If you can spare 2 days per month, have a valid driving licence, and a safe, reliable vehicle, you are the perfect candidate to make a significant difference. The Irish Cancer Society will provide you with training before you start as a driver for us. Your generosity not only eases the journey for many during a challenging time but also offers comfort and support when it's needed most.

For more information and to become a volunteer driver, please contact Monica or Emily at volunteer@irishcancer.ie

Envelope Collection

For funds which support seminarians and deacons

The annual collection for the Priesthood Education Fund will take place across the Diocese this weekend 19th/20th September.

This fund plays a vital role in supporting the formation and ongoing education of those serving in priestly and diaconal ministry. In addition the fund also supports the ongoing training and education of priests in the Diocese. We are deeply aware of the financial challenges many individuals and families face at this time. Nevertheless, we kindly ask you to support this important collection as generously as possible. Your continued support in promoting vocations is sincerely appreciated.

Reflection for Parents

How many times a day do our children point out that someone got more than they did? Enough, I'm sure, for us to know that today's Gospel illustrates a human response! But our human ways are not God's ways. God's generosity is sometimes beyond our understanding. But imagine what a world it would be if we rejoiced in generosity and good fortune of others.

Lord, you are close to the broken-hearted.

Be with me now in my grief and loneliness.

Give me the courage to face my loss and not to grieve in silence.

Be with me as I struggle

With many different and painful feelings.

Ease the hurt in my heart.

Encircle me in your love.

Help me to believe that one day

I will no longer have this deep sorrow.

May I find comfort in sharing my grief

With those who understand the strong bonds of love.

Stay with me, Lord, support me.

Help me to know that your power is at work within me

As I deal with my grief. Amen.

St Paul tries to put in words what Christ means to him.

Gospel: Matthew 20:1-16.

The vineyard owner hired five groups of labourers. Each subsequent group began work later in the day. When the owner hired the first group, they agreed on a fair wage. At the end of the day, he called in the workers and began paying them, the last ones first. Of course, the early morning crew saw the later ones getting a full day's wage and excitedly anticipated a bonus for themselves. When they were paid, they received only the negotiated amount. "It's not fair!" was their cry.

A Prayer for Our Earth

World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation was held on September 1st and prayers for the Season of Creation will run until October 4th.

A Prayer for Our Earth:-

All powerful God, you are present in the whole universe and in the smallest of your creatures.

You embrace with your tenderness all that exists.

Pour out upon us the power of your love,
that we may protect life and beauty.

Fill us with peace that we may live as brothers and sisters, harming no one.

O God of the poor,

help us to rescue the abandoned and forgotten of this earth,
so precious in your eyes.

bring healing to our lives,

that we may protect the world and not prey on it,
that we may sow beauty, not pollution and destruction.

Touch the hearts of those who look only for gain

at the expense of the poor and the earth.

Teach us to discover the worth of each thing,

to be filled with awe and contemplation, to recognise that we are profoundly united with every creature

as we journey towards your infinite light.

We thank you for being with us each day.

Encourage us, we pray, in our struggle for justice, love and peace.

The main message of the Gospel for the 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time is that God's grace and mercy are unconditional gifts, not wages to be earned.

- God operates on love, not transactional logic: Human systems are built on merit, where your reward matches your hours logged. God, however, does not use a spiritual timecard. The landowner pays the workers who arrived at the final hour the exact same daily wage (a denarius) as those who slaved all day in the heat. This shows that salvation and divine love are granted out of pure generosity, not based on our personal achievements or how long we have been "pious".
- Radical equality in the eyes of God: The parable directly challenges our human instincts about fairness. The early workers grumble, expecting more because they did more. By treating everyone equally, Jesus flips human hierarchy upside down, concluding with the definitive phrase: The last will be first, and the first will be last. In God's Kingdom, those who enter the faith late in life are just as valued as those who have served God since childhood.
- A cure for spiritual envy: When the landowner asks the resentful workers, "Are you envious because I am generous?", Jesus exposes a deep flaw in human nature. The Gospel warns us against comparing our spiritual journey to others or resenting someone else's blessings. Instead, it invites us to rejoice in God's mercy whenever and to whomever it is given.

When Jesus speaks to us, a reminder about the poor and needy is always included. We are reminded not to abuse or cheat in any way those who are poor. Jesus speaks about social justice and taking responsibility for our actions.

“The Lord is just in all his ways and loving in all his deeds.”

Prayer by St. Ignatius

Dearest Jesus, teach me to be generous;
Teach me to love & serve you as you deserve
To give and not to count the cost
To fight and not to heed the wounds
To toil and not to seek for rest
To labour and and to look for no reward
Save that of knowing that I do your holy will.

The Kingdom of Heaven

The vineyard parable in today's gospel is about the Kingdom of Heaven. The vineyard owner is God. The labourers are all the people who get an opportunity to hear the word of God and live by it. The agreed daily wage is God's agreement with any of his believers that once they listen to the word of God and put it into action in their daily life then they will get their reward which is life in the Kingdom of Heaven. The work day in this parable represents a person's life on earth.

Jesus used this parable to explain that whether you hear the word of God and put it into action as a young child or whether you only hear about the word of God and put it into action later in life the reward is exactly the same, eternal life in the Kingdom of Heaven.

You put the word of God into action when you avoid anything in your everyday life that is unworthy of the gospel of Christ.

Car Parking

Since the consolidation of Weekend Masses, carparking remains an issue, especially in keeping the carpark entrances and exits clear, for the unhindered access of emergency vehicles. We again ask for your patience and cooperation with the following:

- Please do not park in the reserved spaces for resident and visiting Priests.
- Please do not park in any of the clear ways marked out by yellow lines. These areas are essential to allow unrestricted access to emergency services at all times. They also allow for the safe two-way flow of traffic.
- Please do not move traffic cones, they are there for a reason.
- It is inevitable that double parking will be required. If you have to double park, we would respectfully ask that you return to your car as quickly as possible, so as not to impede other vehicles.

Thank You on behalf of the Parish Assembly

The highpoint of all pilgrimages to Lourdes is the celebration of Mass at the Grotto which for the Cork and Ross pilgrimage will be on Tuesday of this week at 7.30am (Irish time).

The Grotto Mass and the other ceremonies e.g. Blessed Sacrament Procession, Torchlight Procession can be viewed on the Lourdes TV website and updates will also be posted on the diocesan website.

Please keep in your prayers all those who are travelling on the pilgrimage, especially the sick and assisted pilgrims, as we will pray and light candles for those who have asked us to remember them during our time in Lourdes.

Priesthood Education Fund

This annual collection takes place in parishes across the diocese this weekend. This fund plays a vital role in supporting the formation and ongoing education of those serving in priestly and diaconal ministry.

We are deeply aware of the financial challenges that many individuals and families face at this time.

Nevertheless, we kindly ask you to support this collection with your usual generosity. Your continued support in encouraging and promoting vocations here in this diocese through your <http://glounthauneparish.ie/> financial contributions and your prayers is very much appreciated.

Priesthood in Cork and Ross

If you are between the ages of 18 and 40 and feel there is a possibility that God may be calling you to be a diocesan priest, then our monthly discernment group meetings may be a good way to help you discern this call.

These monthly meetings offer an opportunity for prayer, conversation, fellowship and accompaniment. The first meeting takes place on Saturday next, 26th September.

To find out more, have a chat, or to register your interest, please email Fr. Marius at vocations@corkandross.org

The Priest must live only to become a saint

A book titled: 'The Priests we need to save the Church' is a cri-de-cour by the author for real priests, holy men, to lead once again the Church of God - and to offer solace and sure support to the flock of Christ that is lost and bleeding. The writer, Kevin Wells, demands much from the priest who will minister today. He says "for far too long too many wayward churchmen have profaned, insulted, and trampled upon a sacred heritage that generations of hardworking, sincere Catholics priests built their lives around. "We need faithful priests - not the lazy, repressed, social justice types with inauthentic vocations who have packed the seminaries, dominated the headlines, and sullied the reputation of the holy priesthood over the past several decades. Until the parish priest lives only to become a saint, there will be no healing in the Church. Until the parish priest embraces poverty and pours himself out without counting the cost, the Church's sickness will worsen. Until the parish priest decides to die for his flock, the Church will remain on life support. "We need real men today; bold proclaimers of God's Word who are unafraid to preach the Catholic faith as the blazing furnace of Truth that it is. We need priests who are willing to preach tough homilies, hear daily confessions, commit to daily Holy Hours, and remain magnanimous of heart through long, sometimes thankless 16-hour days. We need priests to offer up their lives now so that the laity will gain a restored sense of fatherhood. Such priests will become the story of our time. They will bring about massive conversions and restore our Church and our culture."

Priesthood Education Collection (19th & 20th September)

The annual Priesthood Education collection takes place at all Masses this weekend. The proceeds of the collection go to the Diocesan Education Fund which meets the cost of seminarians' fees at St. Patrick's College, Maynooth, and also contributes to post-graduate studies of priests of the diocese.

Building Fund Collection (26th & 27th September)

The end-of-month building fund collection will take place at all Masses next weekend. The debt for the replacement of the roof is still ongoing. We ask for your continued support for the renovation project.

Artificial Intelligence and risk of dehumanization

The head of the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church said in an interview that "it is essential that artificial intelligence not replace human beings, nor be used against human dignity." Major Archbishop Sviatoslav Shevchuk warned that "it is imperative that human beings not become slaves to the fruits of their own culture, to what they themselves have created." "What artificial intelligence will never be able to do is to love," he added. "We must still become 'human' with a capital 'H.' And this happens when we contemplate the face of God or speak with Him. For we are made in the image of God."

Stations The tradition of hosting a Station Mass has existed in Ireland for many years, with its roots in Penal times, when Mass was forbidden - it was the Mass that was important, not where it was celebrated. On the occasion of a Station Mass, a family opens their home for Mass to be celebrated for a townland or group of townlands. Many of us have memories of having the stations in our homes in the past – it is a beautiful tradition. If anyone would like to host a Station at any stage during the year, please contact Fr Pontianus.

New Parish Assembly Nomination forms for the next session of our Parish Assembly are available in the church now. Nominations should be returned by next Sunday, 20th September in the boxes in the church porches. Nominations can also be submitted online through the Parish Assembly website.

Notices for bulletin can be emailed to assembly@kilbrittainparish.ie, submitted through the website, or passed to the sacristy by Thursday, 6pm

St. John the Baptist & The Carmelite Friary

No. 4. Vol 28.
Twenty Fifth Sunday of Ordinary Time
20th September 2026

Please read this poem slowly and pause frequently to let the points sink in:

Pray don't find fault with the person who limps
Or stumbles along the road.

Unless, you have worn the shoes they wear
Or struggled beneath their load.

There may be tacks in their shoes that hurt
Though hidden away from view
Or the burden they bear placed on your back
Might cause you to stumble too.

Don't smear the person who is down today
Unless you have felt the blow
That caused their fall, or felt their shame
That only the fallen know.

You may be strong, but still the blows
That were theirs, if dealt to you
In the self-same way, at the self-same time
Might cause you to stagger too.

Don't be too harsh with the person who sins
Or pelt them with words or stones
Unless you are sure – yes doubly sure
That you have no sins of your own.

For you know, perhaps, if the tempters voice
Should whisper as soft to you,
As it did to them when they went astray
'Twould cause you to falter too.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

19th October 2025

Gospel Reflection: Be persistent... and patient...

Our Gospel today is about persistence... just as the widow in the story pesters the judge until he delivers a just decision we too are called to be persistent.

Persistence in prayer demonstrates that we are not afraid to show our dependence on God even though all around us society says we need be self-sufficient, to look after ourselves. To keep praying is equally looking after ourselves but also the needs of those around us and the needs of our world. The widow in the story is concerned about the delay in getting a response, however we must not only must persevere in prayer we must be patient, awaiting God's time for an answer and accepting the answer even though it may not be one we wanted! God will always give the right answer to our prayers, even if in the immediate moment it may not seem that way.

Take time to reflect on what have been the fruits of your own persistent prayer? When you have patiently waited for God's time and response...

Cork Cathedral Family of Parishes Launches Climate Justice Education Project

The Cork Cathedral Family of Parishes was delighted to officially launch its Climate Justice Education Project, bringing together members of our parishes, community organisations and invited guests for a morning of reflection, discussion and shared commitment to caring for our common home.

Introducing Lay Funeral Ministers

We still value having our funerals over several days, we appreciate the effort our neighbours make to come to the funeral home to sympathise, we look for a funeral Mass which acknowledges the personality of the deceased person and their relationships, not just a generic church service to pray for them.

To assist parishioners keep our funerals as we like to have them, our north-side parishes will introduce lay ministers as part of a funeral team with the clergy.

Initially these lay funeral ministers will lead the bereaved in prayer the night before the funeral Mass, usually in the funeral home, as priests used to do before Covid. Many of us have missed that moment of prayer with the priest and so we will re-introduce it with the lay ministers.

In time, the lay funeral ministers will be available to families to begin preparing the funeral Mass with the diocesan booklet of readings, prayers and hymns.

Later, they may be present at the funeral Mass and be of help there. We're not sure when priests will begin to be unavailable for all the burial services in the cemeteries, but it is worth preparing for that eventuality sooner rather than later.

A number of parishioners have already been approached to consider taking on this rewarding ministry. They will be trained over several weeks by the diocese and then begin working alongside the clergy of our parishes. We are all aware of the lay funeral ministers already operating in Farranree, around The Lough and Togher.

We know you will appreciate the ministry of lay funeral ministers alongside the ministry of the priests and deacons, representing the parish by leading mourners and their neighbours, family and friends, in prayer the night before the funeral Mass.

While we are beginning with the three northside parishes which have approximately 166 funerals of parishioners each year - the cathedral, Blackpool with the Glen and Ballyvolane, Sunday's Well - in time, we will extend this valuable ministry to the other parishes in our family of parishes. Please keep your fellow parishioners in prayer as they prepare to serve in our parishes. The initial meeting for those already approached to consider this ministry will be on Wednesday 30th September at 7pm in the Cathedral Visitor Centre. The diocesan training will be on three consecutive Wednesdays nights: 14th, 21st, and 28th October. Venue to be decided.

CATHEDRAL FAMILY OF PARISHES SYRO-MALABAR CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

ST. BRENDAN'S CHURCH

Our Syro-Malabar Catholic Church Community in Cork has been celebrating Holy Qurbana and conducting Catechism classes at SMA Wilton Church for many years.

We are pleased to announce that, through the kind consideration, vision and guidance of Bishop Fintan Gavin, we have now been granted permission to celebrate our Holy Qurbana at St. Brendan's Roman Catholic Church, The Glen, and to conduct our Catechism classes at the school located adjacent to the church.

Going forward, our regular Sunday schedule will be:

- 3:30 PM – Catechism Classes
- 5:00 PM – Holy Qurbana

We would like to express our sincere and heartfelt gratitude to Bishop Fintan Gavin for inviting and welcoming our community to St. Brendan's and for making this new arrangement possible.

We are also deeply grateful to Fr. John, who has provided us with valuable assistance and support throughout this process.

Our heartfelt thanks also go to all the parishioners of St. Brendan's Church of Blackpool, Glen, Ballyvolane Parish for their warm and gracious welcome to our community. We truly appreciate their kindness, generosity and support as we begin this new chapter together.

Thinking about being a Priest in the Diocese of Cork & Ross?

If you are between the ages of 18 and 40 and feel there is a possibility that God may be calling you to be a diocesan priest, then our monthly Discernment Group Meetings may be a good way to help you to discern this call. The first meeting takes place on Saturday September 26th. To find more, have a chat, or to register your interest, please email Fr Marius at vocations@corkandross.org

Entrance Hymn: Holy God, we praise thy name

Holy God, we praise thy name; Hark, the loud celestial hymn,

Lord of all, we bow before thee.	Angel choirs above are raising;
-------------------------------------	------------------------------------

All on earth thy sceptre own, Cherubim and seraphim, all in heav'n above adore thee. In unceasing chorus praising,

Infinite thy vast domain, everlasting is thy reign.

Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord,

Holy, holy, holy Lord.

Family of Parishes Event

The usual evening of reflection for those involved in the parish will this year be open to the other parishes in our family of parishes, Douglas/Rochestown, Frankfield/Grange, Turner's Cross. It will take place in the parish centre in Frankfield on Thursday, 22nd October. More info later.

A parish of the people

Thankfully, Turner's Cross is very much a parish of the people. So many take responsibility to ensure we have a vibrant and faith-filled community. We acknowledge the contribution of people's time and effort. It is a ministry of service on which we invoke God's blessing. If you do not have an active responsibility in the parish feel free to propose what you would like to do. We definitely need more people to join the Baptism team and the Funeral team. These work very well during the year but it can be a strain during the holidays.

Historic Moment in our Parish

Looking back over the last 12 months the shock of needing a new boiler for the church stands out. We were 7 weeks without heat in the coldest part of the year. The challenge of financing the installation of a boiler was immense, the cost being €30,000. Within three months this amount was raised, mostly by large anonymous donations. At this stage these generous contributions, together with several more modest sums, deserve the most sincere and warm appreciation. You took responsibility for your church/parish and this made all the difference. Mile buiochas. May God reward you.

Thinking about being a Priest in the Diocese of Cork and Ross?

If you are between the ages of 18 and 40 and feel there is a possibility that God may be calling you to be a diocesan priest, then our monthly Discernment Group. Meetings may be a good way to help you to discern this call. It is a gentle non-committal first step in the process which takes the form of a monthly meeting with other men discerning their call. The monthly meetings offer an opportunity for prayer, conversation, fellowship and accompaniment. An experienced spiritual director will also be provided to help guide you along the path. The first meeting takes place on Saturday September 26th. To find more, have a chat, or to register your interest, please email Fr Marius at vocations@corkandross.org

Celebrating 40 Years

Holy Cross Church, Mahon is celebrating 40-years since the establishment of our church. To celebrate this milestone, we are delighted to host a Triduum, led by the Redemptorists on Monday 21st, Tuesday 22nd and Wednesday 23rd September 2026, beginning at 7.30pm each night.

A Gathering for Diocesan Alpha Teams will take place on Saturday, 26 September, from 10.00am to 3.00pm in Mardyke House. Existing Alpha teams are warmly invited, and we would also encourage parishes and Families of Parishes without a team to invite parishioners who may be interested in becoming involved.

Weekend Mass Collection Last weekend the amount received was €1025.00

Special collection for Priesthood Education: €525.00

Recessional Hymn: Now Thank we all our God

Now thank we all our God	O may this bounteous God
With heart and hands and voices,	Through all our life be near us,
Who wondrous things has done,	With ever joyful hearts
In whom his world rejoices;	And blessed peace to cheer us,
Who from our mothers' arms	To keep us in his grace,
Has blessed us on our way	And guide us when perplexed,
With countless gifts of love,	And free us from all ills
And still is ours today	Of this world and the next.

Sunday 20th September 2026
25th Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ Year A

Gospel Reflection

A new way of working ...

Have you ever been jealous of a sibling, a colleague at work, a team-mate? Have you ever felt that they were receiving better treatment than you, even though you put in more effort, more time, or did a better job than they did? If you are like me and answer honestly – I am sure we can all, say YES to these questions; and so, this parable is for each of us!

Our Gospel today offers a radical way of looking at life and work. Today Jesus upsets the expectations and the commonly held views of the status seeking and result-driven society. He makes it clear that the economy of the Kingdom of God is not based on individual merit, competition, success and achievement; rather it is predicated on the common good, justice, inclusion and equity for all people.

That is why he tells this parable where the vineyard owner gives as much to the last hired worker that day as he does to those hired first. It was hard to accept for the workers that day, just as it is hard for us to accept sometimes when we feel we are treated unfairly in comparison to others. Today offers us an invitation to reflect and to come to accept that the common good of all people is way of the Gospel.
