Collection

Last weeks' Offertory Collection came to €1107. Thank you for your gift to God and His Church.

In the film adaption of the Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe from the novels of CS Lewis, one of most insightful and thought provoking scenes for me, at least, is when Aslan, the lion speaks to Edmund, one of the children about his transgression. Edmund has betrayed his family by following a wicked witch. When he does come back to his family, we see Aslan, the majestic guardian of Narnia speak to Edmund but at a distance. We do not know what is being said, the matter is being dealt with quietly as it should be, minimising the embarrassment of the offender, who in this case is very much aware of his transgression and shame.

The Gospel today puts the responsibility on the offended party, on us, to go speak to those who have wronged us, to speak to them quietly, to point out how they have sinned against us, to offer them forgiveness and hence to put them back on the path to God. Before we decide to do this we must be clear in our intentions and be sure of whose needs we are filling – it cannot be our goal to cause embarrassment or to seek revenge. God calls us to put our needs to one side in this case and to seek redemption for our brother who has turned himself away from God's grace.

Jesus provides steps for doing this. After quietly speaking to your brother, if he will not listen bring witnesses who may convince him. This reminds us that if we are unsuccessful in our attempts we should not give up. If we have been unsuccessful in our attempts are there others who can help – again being mindful of whose needs need to be filled. Matthew closes this passage reassuringly telling us forgiveness belongs to that person where it has been agreed upon by others.

I am there among them. Matt 18:20*

Anxiety

*Lord, I am anxious about my future.
But your love will support me.
Do not disappoint me.*

Prayers of the Angel

"My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You! I ask pardon of You for all those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You!"

"Most Holy Trinity; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."

6Ú MEÁN FÓMHAIR 2026 - AN TRÍÚ DOMHNACH FICHEAD - A

Reflection

Today's gospel and first reading are at odds with the commonly held view that we should mind our own business, and let other people mind theirs; we are only responsible for our own behaviour. It is, of course, true that each of us is responsible for his or her own behaviour. But the Scripture readings today remind us that we have a responsibility for others, one that may, at times, include correction.

Often what inhibits us from speaking the truth in love to a brother or sister is our fear of rejection and conflict. We don't want to take the risk of endangering our relationship with those we love. But a relationship built on the avoidance of all conflict rather than on truth is on a very shaky foundation indeed. There is a healthy conflict that leads to growth just as there is an unhealthy peace that is really another word for indifference. So, instead of tolerating all sorts of unchristian and destructive behaviour, today's gospel challenges us to correct one another in love and with respect, so that the entire Christian community, all members of the Church of Christ, may glorify the wonder and the beauty of God who has made each one of us in his image and who calls us to live as his children.

The Nativity of The Blessed Virgin Mary

Tuesday 8th September

Dearest Mother Mary, your conception was immaculate and your birth glorious. You were conceived without sin, born without sin, and remained sinless throughout your life. In Heaven, you radiate the beauty and splendor of God and will do so for all eternity.

Please pray for me, that I will more fully imitate your many virtues, so that I can be a fitting instrument of your divine Son in the world. Mother Mary, pray for me. Jesus, I trust in You. Amen.

Thoughts on the Readings for the 19th Sunday August 16th 2026

Today in the Gospel, we have a continuation of last week's story about the feeding of thousands of people by Jesus in the desert. Immediately after the event, we are told that Jesus: ...made the disciples get into a boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. Was there reluctance on their part to go? Certainly there is the implication that the disciples were not too willing to leave the scene. They were enjoying the reflected glory of being part of Jesus' 'miracle' and the enthusiasm of the crowds for Jesus, 'their' Jesus. They were basking in the reputation of being partners with Jesus. Yet, it won't be very long before they will be hiding, even denying under oath, ever having had connection with him. Jesus himself, after having dismissed the crowds: ...went up the mountain by himself to pray. In John's version of this story he tells us that the people, after being fed by Jesus, actually wanted to make him their king. They, like the disciples, have totally missed the meaning of what has happened. Here indeed was a real source of temptation. Jesus could easily have convinced himself that here was a golden opportunity to get control of the crowds and 'save' them. They were so ready to follow him—it seemed. The world was at his feet. There is an echo here of one of the temptations in the desert after his baptism: ...the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory, and he said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me."

AN CHÉAD LÉACHT

Sliocht as leabhar Isáia fáidh.

56:1, 6-7.

Seo mar a deir an Tiarna: Coinnigí an ceart, cleachtaigí an fhíréanacht, óir tá mó shlánú ar tí teacht agus m'fhíréantacht ar tí a léiriú.

Na stráinséirí a chloigh leis an Tiarna chun freastal dó, chun grá a thabhairt d'ainm an Tiarna agus chun a bheith ina seirbhísigh aige, iad sin uilig a choinníonn an tSabóid agus a chloíonn le mo chonradh, déanfaidh mé iad a chomóradh go dtí mo shliabh naofa. Bhéarfaidh mé aoibhneas daofa i mo theach urnaí. Glacfar ar m'altóir lena dtabhartais agus lena n-íobairtí, óir bhéarfai ar mo theachsa teach urnaí na gciníocha go léir.

Briathar an Tiarna. FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

FREAGRA AN tSAILM

Go mola na ciníocha thú, a Dhia;
go mola na ciníocha go léir thú.

AN DARA LÉACHT

Sliocht as litir Naomh Pól chuig na Rómhánaigh.

11:13-15, 29-32.

A phágánaigh! Lig domh seo a insint daoibh: Sa mhéid gurb aspal na bpágánach mé, is é mo dhulgias éad a chur ar mo chine féin agus iad a spreagadh chun iomaíochta libhse agus ar an dóigh sin cuid acu a shlánú. Mar, má tugadh an domhan chun athmhuintearais le Dia trína gcaitheamh amach, cad a thiocfaidh dá nglacadh ar ais iad ach mar a bheadh aiséirí ó mhairbh ann? Ní cúis aithreachas ar bith do Dhia a choíche a thíolaicí ná an rogha a bhíonn déanta aige. Ionann is mar bhí sibhse easumhal do Dhia san am a chuaigh thart agus go ndearnadh trócaire oraibh siocar easumhlaíochta na nGiúdaich, is mar a gcéanna acu siúd é; tá siadsan easumhal anois nuair atá trócaire déanta oraibhse, ach déanfar trócaire orthu féin ar deireadh thiar thall. Mar chuir Dia an uile dhuine i ngéibheann san easumhlaíocht d'fhonn trócaire a dhéanamh orthu uilig.

Briathar an Tiarna. FR. Buíochas do Dhia.

ALLELUIA

Alleluia, alleluia!

Is fírinne do bhriathar, a Thiarna.

Déan sinn a naomhú san fhírinne.

Alleluia!

AN SOISCÉAL

Sliocht as an Soiscéal naofa de réir Naomh Maitiú.

15:21-28.

San am sin chuaigh Íosa go dtí ceantar Tuíre agus Síodón. Tháinig bean as Canán amach as na críocha

There was a meeting held this week with the Church Renovation Committee regarding fundraising.

So much work has been carried out on the main body of St Carthas, with more work to do.

The gable of the Church has to be sealed, with emphasis on the bell tower, where dampness is occurring.

The sacristy needs similar attention & a store room & outside toilets are necessary. Fundraising will be done over a 3 year period. You will be well informed prior to any fundraising events.

Thank you for your generous donations towards this project.

Prayer for the love of Creation

Creator God,
 You show us what love is
 through the beauty of the earth
 and the gift of your Son.

For the love of animal and plant
 mountain and forest
 sea and city
 woman and man
 friend and family
 those who live far from us
 and those yet to be born.

Move us to live more simply,
 to protect the earth
 and to speak up for those in need.
 Amen.

Eucharistic Adoration – St. Patrick's

Following on from the recent meeting of those involved in Eucharistic Adoration, it was agreed to change the hours of adoration in St. Patrick. This will begin this Thursday 10th September. The new hours of adoration in St. Patrick's will now take place between:

2: 00 pm and 8: 00pm each week.

St. John Paul II said of adoration that, 'Jesus himself is calling you...'

All of us are encouraged to take part in Eucharistic Adoration to help us grow and strengthen our relationship and our closeness to God, the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. It's not a time that's wasted, but a time that nourishes us in our faith and a place where we gain a better awareness of the presence of God with us and his love for us. Spending time with God in adoration connects us with God, but also with one another, as we pray not only for our own needs but for others as well. It can also benefit us personally as it offers us peace, clarity and strength to help us through all we deal with each day in our lives. These are just some of the many blessings and gifts given through adoration. So please consider giving some time to Jesus in the Eucharist. "Deepen your prayer life as well. Spend time praying before the Eucharist in Eucharistic adoration... These practises help you to hear God's voice clearly." Pope Leo XIV
