Weekly Reflection.

'If only it was so easy!'

Occasionally the Gospel presents us with challenges that can appear outlandish. Today's passage from Matthew's Gospel is one such example.

Jesus suggests that each one of us has an obligation to point out faults to another, in the hope of achieving a reform of the alleged failing. This can be a dicey enterprise. We are not good at receiving reprimands. The garda telling us to slow down when he has pulled us for speeding is acceptable and indeed such a warning could indeed be preferable to points on the licence. But for others to give me a reprimand it could appear as an unwarranted act of self-righteousness on their behalf.

However, it can often be a tremendous act of true friendship when one's errors are pointed out. Indeed, it can be a kindness and a blessing and when well-received can be constructive. A priest friend occasionally asks me for constructive criticism. It requires great maturity to ask, and even greater sensitivity to respond to the request.

Let us pray today for such sensitive wisdom in all our relationships.

Fr Shane.

A Warm Welcome to Fr Jeremiah

It is with great joy and warm hearts that we welcome Fr Jeremiah Munyoki wa Kalekye to our parish team and to the communities of Muckno and Clontibret. Fr Jeremiah was ordained to the priesthood in 1999 and has many years of priestly experience. For the past four years, he has ministered in the Diocese of Clogher, most recently spending three very happy and fruitful years as curate in Bundoran, Co Donegal.

As Fr Jeremiah begins this new chapter of his priestly ministry among us, we hope that he will quickly feel at home and become very much a part of our parish family. We look forward to sharing with him the joys and challenges of parish life, and to welcoming him into our churches, our homes and our community.

Fr Jeremiah, we pray that your time among the people of Muckno and Clontibret will be filled with friendship, happiness and many memorable moments. May God bless you abundantly in your ministry among us, and may you find great joy and fulfilment in your years here.

From all of us in Muckno and Clontibret, a very warm and heartfelt welcome to you, Fr Jeremiah. We are delighted to have you with us!

Reflection on today's Gospel

In today's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that our faith is lived in relationship with others. When disagreements arise, He encourages us not to ignore them or speak about one another behind their backs, but to approach each other with honesty, patience and love.

Jesus also gives us the beautiful promise: "Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am there among them." Our parish community may be small or imperfect, but whenever we gather with faith, prayer and a sincere desire to follow Christ, He is truly present.

May we seek to build communities where forgiveness is stronger than resentment, reconciliation stronger than division, and Christ's love is at the heart of all we do.

Set amid exile and loss, the image of living water flowing from God's sanctuary reveals divine healing that renews land, water, biodiversity, and human responsibility towards the whole creation. Twenty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

The three readings today by chance deal with the same theme of neighbourly correction. This is a difficult art and can only be exercised through genuine love and the purest of motives. We have to learn to help and to heal each other. In this we have to avoid attitudes of prying, denunciation, jealousy and informing. The spirit of the Gospel which lays down a procedure must be our guide.

Creation

Creation is God's work. Before humanity was, the rest of creation came into being. The earth and her creatures – indeed the whole cosmos – have beauty, dignity and meaning before human presence. So to nurture awe at the wonder of creation is part of our calling. Look up into the skies, walk in the fields, stand at the ocean's edge. Everything belongs, everything has beauty! The garden is such an insightful model for our care of creation. Our call is to be good gardeners, thoughtful, alert and diligent, working with the soil and with the rhythm of the seasons, caring for the creatures who find home and shelter in the garden.

Points to Ponder

In many ways, we are keepers of our sisters and brothers. We have social responsibility in family and in neighbourhood. Jesus is saying something like that today. We have a responsibility for each other, for the common good. Parents may find this most difficult – to try to guide the family well and not lose them. We teach by example and by love. Even when children are young and making some mistakes, we hope they are not mistakes that last forever, like crime, alcoholism or an unplanned life-changing moment. We pray to God for help. This we do with others. We ask for guidance and find help in the community of the church and of others. That's where God is – two or three gathered is the community of God. Church is the gathered people. God wants the best for each of us. We can help each other to goodness, we can support each other, correct each other, and help each other on our way to God. Jesus promises guidance and his presence to his followers for all ages. If we gather in his name, he is with us. The 'in his name' is the relevant condition. That means openness to his word and the traditions faithfully handed on by his community of followers. It means openness to asking for wisdom and guidance and the humility to admit none of us has all the answers.

In Loving Memory of Father Jim Moore:

It is with profound sadness and a deep sense of loss that our Parish community learns of the passing of Father Jim Moore at the age of 59. Though his time ministering directly in our Parish was brief – serving us for two years immediately following his Ordination on 18th June 1995 – the impact of his ministry has spanned decades.

As a newly ordained priest, Fr. Jim brought a vibrant faith, energy, and a generous heart to our Parish. He was quickly loved in this place, and he remains very fondly remembered by all who had the privilege of crossing his path during those early years of his priesthood. He taught us, comforted us, and celebrated with us, leaving behind great memories and many stories to be told.

Fr. Jim's early days here were just the beginning of a lifetime defined by service. His deep care for both Parish life and the wider diocese was well known. He walked alongside countless families through their moments of greatest joy and deepest trial, always carrying the light of the Gospel with humility and grace. Leaving us far too young, his absence will be felt acutely across the entire Diocese of Clogher, especially in Irvinestown, Enniskillen, Fintona and Clones where he ministered.

We extend our heartfelt prayers and deepest condolences to his loving family who mourn this immense loss. We hold in our hearts his mother, Winnie, and his siblings, Ethena, Marina, Niamh, Barry and Christopher. May they find comfort in their treasured memories and in the knowledge of how deeply Fr. Jim was cherished by the people he served.

Grant unto him eternal rest, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May his soul rest in peace.

Ar dheis Dé go raibh a anam.

Church re- opening Fr Martin & Fr. Michael welcomes back our parishioners to the weekday & Sunday Masses. It's great having a live congregation back in the church after the long lockdown. All those attending are reminded that face covering are a necessary part of life still if we are to ensure the safety and health of each other while in the church and in the grounds. It is most important that people who are vulnerable or unwell, and especially those with any symptoms that might suggest Covid-19 infection, should stay at home and, if possible, participate, via webcam. The same applies to those who have been in recent contact with someone who has the virus, in accordance with public health advice. We look forward to welcoming you back.

The challenge that awaits us now, is to communicate by encountering people, where they are and as they are.'

Many thanks for your continuous generosity.

The Diocese is carrying out a Census, this normally takes place every five years. It is a survey of the population of the Diocese, Catholic and non-Catholic. The census helps the Diocese improve pastoral care and plan for the future. I would be grateful if you would help compile this census. Without approaching anyone, can you provide: (a) The number of Catholic families in your townland/estate (b)the number of non-Catholic families in your townland/estate (c) the number of Catholics in your townland/estate and (d) the number of non-Catholics in your townland/estate. Please leave this information into the Parish office. Much appreciated.

Lay led Liturgy: Over the past number of years, we have witnessed significant growth in lay participation in the church's ministerial life. In the 1960s, lay readers or Ministers of the Word were introduced. This was followed in the 1980s by the introduction of the office of the Ministers of the Eucharist. We now have a new ministry to add to these. It is the Liturgy of the Word with Holy Communion. It is a Lay-Led Liturgy. We here in Aghalurcher Parish have been blessed with a team of 20 volunteers who provide us with this opportunity each week, and we should be very grateful to them for stepping up to the mark. As we move forward as a Church, we need to prepare for a time when, even if priests are not available, each parish will be ready to arrange moments of public prayer for various occasions. No Parish should find itself in a position where it is not prepared for such a possibility, but it needs support and that's what I'm inviting you to do. We are also blessed to have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament within our Parish; the Eucharist is so essential to the spiritual life of any Catholic, and prayer before the Blessed Sacrament is such a gift. Exposition will begin again this coming Friday 4th September at 5.30pm, followed by our lay led liturgy, and on Monday morning in Holy Cross at 10am. Please support your fellow Parishioners.

A Family Tree Mass will be celebrated in St Mary's Church Arney on Friday 11th September, at 7.30 pm. Celebrant will be Fr Gerry Campbell.

Thank you to those who organised the farewell events in Newtownbutler and Donagh and to all those who attended. It was great to have the chance to greet you all and say goodbye. Thank you to the Parish Staff and Volunteers for everything they have done for the parish, and for me personally, over the last 7 years. It's all appreciated more than I can put into words. Thank you to Fr. King for his friendship and for his many years of generous service to this parish.

I have had a wonderful experience of Priestly Ministry in the Parish of Galloon since 2019. Together, we have shared countless occasions of joy and happiness and also some tragedies and challenges. What stands out for me is that I have always met wonderful people along the way, received generous hospitality and always felt welcome. I treasure those experiences, those people, the moments of prayer, the celebration of the Sacraments, the lessons learned and the experience gained. In every situation, even in the darker times, I was able to recognise the Presence of God and the work of the Holy Spirit - that is a wonderful blessing!

I would like to encourage you all to persevere in the faith, persist in your commitment to the Vigil/Sunday Masses and continue to seek and recognise God on your journey through life. Treasure your two beautiful Churches and Adoration Chapels and sanctify them with your prayer and your presence. I wish Fr. Polycarp every blessing as he begins his ministry in Galloon Parish. May it be a fruitful experience for him and I trust that he will receive a warm and supportive welcome here, as I did. I leave you with a beautiful prayer that I came across recently:

Look at the problem - and be depressed.

Look at the self - and be oppressed.

Look at Jesus - and be at rest.

For He will lead you - to do what is best. Amen.

It reminds me of a saying of St. Carlo Acutis: "Sadness is looking at ourselves, happiness is looking towards God".

May God bless you and your families abundantly, Fr. Kevin Malcolmson.

We sometimes imagine that maturity means becoming completely independent: making our own decisions, standing on our own feet and taking responsibility for our own lives. But none of us becomes fully human alone. There are times when other people see us more clearly than we see ourselves. A husband or wife, a family member or a good friend may notice when something is going wrong long before we are ready to recognise it. That is why we need people who will walk beside us, encourage us and sometimes care enough to tell us something we would rather not hear. It works both ways. Loving another person sometimes means having the courage to speak when remaining silent would be easier. And maturity sometimes means having the humility to listen. We become responsible for our own lives partly by learning that we cannot live them entirely by ourselves. We belong to one another's journey. Learning to live that way is already to begin living the life of heaven.
