Matthew 25:1-13

Jesus told this parable to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven will be like this: Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were sensible: the foolish ones did take their lamps, but they brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps. The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. But at midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is here! Go out and meet him." At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, "Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out." But they replied, "There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves." They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed. The other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said "open the door for us." But he replied, "I tell you solemnly, I do not know you." So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.'

Responsorial Psalm 62(63):2-8

For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

Remembering the dead

"If anyone serves me, they must follow me, and where I am, there will my servant be also" (Jn 12:26). These words of Jesus speak directly to our hearts, calling us to follow him along the path that he himself has walked: the path to glory through the cross. Along this journey — on which trials and sufferings are not spared us — we are guided and sustained by a promise: that of a communion over which death has no power. Indeed, whoever follows Christ becomes his servant and will always be where he is, precisely because they have followed his path. Hence Saint Paul affirms: "If we have died with him, we will also live with him" (2 Tim 2:11). Pope Leo XIV 5/11/2026

November – Month of the Holy Souls

November - The Month of the Holy Souls: During November, we are encouraged to remember our dead, to those who have gone before us in faith. Masses will be offered for those whose names are included on the November dead lists.

November Prayers in the Cemeteries: Sunday 9th Templecurraheen Cemetery 3pm

Indulgence for the Holy Souls: 'the faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a plenary indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls on the usual condition once per day from 1st to 8th November. Conditions for gaining the indulgence: Confession, Holy Communion, within the week, praying for the Pope, Praying the Our Father and Apostles Creed.

November Lists: There are available lists and envelopes at Church doors or in the Parish Box of Building Fund envelopes. Each priest offers 12 Masses during the Year for those on the November Lists.

Masses for the bereaved and remembrance of those who died in the past year – Friday 20th November at 7.30pm. All are invited to light candles for their deceased loved ones.

Volunteer to drop leaflets: The Parish is looking for volunteers to assist with distributing to local estates/areas Leaflet and Calendars during these couple of weeks - please contact the Parish Office if you are able to assist - 021 4533806 or carrigtwohillmasses@gmail.com

Christian Meditation Cork - A Morning of Talks and Meditation with Fr. Donagh O'Shea O.P. Saturday 21st November - Sacred Heart Missionaries Hall, Western Road, Cork - Registration at 9.30am beginning at 10am with Mass at 1pm. Donation: €10 - Tea & Coffee provided at 11am - All newcomers to Meditation welcome.

Social and Family Services will take place on November 15 & 16th in the second envelope. This annual collection goes towards other contributions from the Diocese to various social and family agencies. These include ACCORD and the Regional Marriage Tribunal. Support for these agencies is one very practical way of supporting family and life in the present culture.

World Youth Day 2027: In August 2027, a 26-person pilgrimage group from the Diocese of Cloyne will attend World Youth Day in Seoul, South Korea. The group comprises 22 young adults, aged between 18 and 30, together with a four-person leadership team. Fr Eamon Roche and Fr Tiernan Burke will be the accompanying clergy. World Youth Day 2027, which Pope Leo is expected to attend, is a wonderful opportunity for these young men and women from our diocese to deepen their love for Christ and His Church. The following parishes are represented in the pilgrimage group: Aghada (1 pilgrim), Carrigtwohill (1), Castlelyons (3), Fermoy (4), Inniscarra (1), Meelin-Rockchapel (2), Midleton (3), Mitchelstown (2), Rathcormac (1) and Youghal (4). The pilgrimage will cost €2,500 per person, covering all expenses. This is a considerable sum, and the pilgrims intend to undertake fundraising activities between now and August 2027 to help meet the cost.

City of God by Dan Schutte
Awake from your slumber
Arise from your sleep
A new day is dawning
For all those who weep
The people in darkness
Have seen a great light
The Lord of our longing
Has conquered the night

Let us build the city of God
May our tears be turned into dancing
For the Lord, our light and our love
Has turned the night into day

Holy God
Holy God, we praise thy name!
Lord of all, we bow before thee!
All on Earth thy sceptre claim,
All in Heaven above adore thee;
Infinite thy vast domain,
Everlasting is thy reign.

Hark! the loud celestial hymn
Angel choirs above are raising!
Cherubim and seraphim,
In unceasing chorus praising,
Fill the heaven with sweet accord;
Holy, holy, holy, Lord!

Spare thy people, Lord, we pray,
By a thousand snares surrounded;
Keep us without sin today;
Never let us be confounded!
Lo! I put my trust in thee;
Never, Lord, abandon me.

Wait for the Lord
Wait for the Lord, whose day is near
Wait for the Lord, be strong, take heart.

Thirty Second Sunday In Ordinary Time

Thought for the Day

Ready for Action

'It's a terrible thing, I think, in life to wait until you're ready. I have this feeling now that actually no one is ever ready to do anything. There is almost no such thing as ready. There is only now. And you may as well do it now. Generally speaking, now is as good a time as any.' Hugh Laurie

I'm not ready – we all think it or say it from time to time. It could be as simple as not being able to find your shoes to leave the house, or a more serious situation like being under-prepared for a work presentation. It can also refer to our emotional state – we might not be ready to talk about an experience, to change a habit, to enter into a relationship, or to let go of a loved one. No one else can tell us if we are ready for a situation or not. It is something only we know. But there is some wisdom in the quote above, in that sometimes we need to push ourselves, to just dive in.

The parable in today's gospel pits two groups in stark contrast – the foolish bridesmaids who failed to prepare, and the sensible ones who were ready with their lamps and oil. Both groups fell asleep on the job, but only one group had laid the groundwork and so were ready for action. Jesus tells us we need to be watchful and ready. As well as having the light of faith, we need the fuel – the actions – to keep it lit so we are ready when the Lord comes.

Some Light Humour – "Being a bridesmaid is an honour, an emotional journey, and a financial contribution to a colour palette you didn't choose."

The Pope's Monthly Intention - For the proper use of wealth – Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

A Lighted Candle - Often, we light candles as a sign of remembering and as we light the candle, we say a prayer for that person that they may be enjoying the marvellous light of heaven. The candle light reminds us that we too have the opportunity to share the light of hope, that we carry, with others.

When you are in a dark place, the warmth of a smile or a kind word can mean a lot. It may feel that our own light is very small and insignificant in times of much darkness but each time it is shared, it is not halved but doubled. Together we really can make a difference.

Prayer to St Martin de Porres for Pets and Animals - Feast 5th November

Gentle St Martin, you loved the animals God gives to us in the wonders of creation. Watch over the animals Our Loving Father has provided for our use and welfare. Bless also our pets. Intercede that all disease and harm may be averted since on them so much of our livelihood and joy depends. Help us never to be cruel to them or neglectful of them. May we always, following your example, attend our daily tasks with gratitude and with ever growing love for God and for one another. And may we know the joy of animals and pets kept safe by your powerful intercession. We make this and all our prayers through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

Why Sunday Matters

From the very beginning, the early Christian communities realised the importance of Sunday. It is the day of Jesus' Resurrection, a day of joy and rest, as well as charity. Sunday is the Lord's Day, the day when we are called to remember what God has done and continues to do for us. This, then, is the day the Lord's people are called to keep holy, together. The observance begins with the evening of the preceding day. Early Christians did what Jesus had asked them to do; they gathered and celebrated the meal Jesus had shared with them, the Eucharist. We also know this as the Mass. This gathering of the community on a Sunday to celebrate the Eucharist gave rise to a basic principle of the Church: There can be no Sunday without the Eucharist and no Eucharist without an assembly of the faithful. This principle endures to this day. It led Voltaire to declare, 'If you want to kill Christianity, you must abolish Sunday.' As members of the Christian community, we are each called to gather with the rest of our faith community on a Sunday to celebrate the Eucharist. The Sunday Mass is the place where we gather as a parish, as a community, as the People of God. This is at the heart of the life of the Church. It is the highpoint of our Christian life, where God nourishes us to go out and live as Christians. catholicbishops.ie

Arranging of Flowers in the Parish Church - We are always grateful to those who arrange the flowers in our parish church. If you would like to get involved and help create a welcoming and beautiful space for our celebrations, new volunteers would be most welcome. No previous experience is needed—just a willingness to be part of a team.

Plenary Indulgence

The Church offers a Plenary Indulgence during these days for those who have died and who are awaiting purification – we refer to these as Souls in Purgatory.

A Plenary indulgence is a remission of the punishment due to sins and is gained by our prayers for the dead.

It may be gained in two ways:

1. Once by visiting a church between midday November 1st and midnight November 2nd and there say one Our Father and the Apostles Creed and also pray for the Pope's intentions.
2. Once each day by visiting a cemetery from midday November 1st to November 8th and praying for the dead.

Both these indulgences require that the Sacraments of Holy Communion and Reconciliation be received within twenty days.

Cemetery Prayers

Sunday 8th November - Prayers will be offered in the Presentation Convent Cemetery immediately after the 11.30am Mass and in Marshalstown Cemetery at 2.30pm.

Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways,
of happy times and laughing times and bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve, to dry before the sun;
of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

St. Fanahan's Well - The Novena to St. Fanahan, our local Saint begins on Monday 16th November. The Novena is for 9 days before St Fanahan's day and 9 days after. The Well path will be lit every night and for a time each morning of the Novena.

- ❖ Rosary on Sunday 22nd November at 3pm at the Well.
- ❖ Rosary on St. Fanahan's Day 25th November at 3pm at the Well.
- ❖ Mass at 7.30pm on St. Fanahan's Night in the Parish Church.

Those we love don't go away,
they walk beside us every day.
Unseen, unheard but always near,
still loved, still missed
and held so dear.
