Gifted by God.

God distributes his gifts among us as he wills and entrusts each of us with a mission. He gives us what we need to produce fruits for the kingdom and expects us to use those gifts responsibly and diligently. We need to live before God and respond to him sincerely by using the talents he has given us to the maximum.

Pope Leo XVI on X: We wish to pray now for those who have recently lost a loved one, especially those whose loved ones have been torn from them by the senseless violence of war. May the tears of so many mothers, so many children, and so many elderly people touch the consciences of those who have the power to silence weapons!

Gluten free hosts are available from the Priest at Communion time.

Thought for the Day: To engage with today's readings, it might be helpful to go back in your own mind to someone in your life whom you regard as really wise. When did you become aware of it? Have you benefitted from it? If someone were to ask how would you recognise wisdom and what are its marks, what would you say? Have you learned from your encounters with wise people? Do you desire wisdom for yourself? Perhaps as parent or friend or family member or colleague. Do you nourish your hunger for the qualities and attitudes which we associate with people who have learned from life? Prayer: All-wise and loving God, the desire for you lies deep within us. Awaken us to the quest for true wisdom that by being true to ourselves we may come home to you, the source of all wisdom. Amen. (www.tarsus.ie)

An Mairtíreach: An tAthair Proinsias Ó Súilleabháin O.F.M. (1591-1653)
Beidh léacht dár teideal 'Bráthar Rua na Scairbe' á thabhairt ag an tAthair Billy Hoyne O.F.M. Tosnóidh an ócáid ag an scrín i Mainistir na bProinsiasach i gCill Áirne, Dé Luain, 9 Samhain, ar a 8.00in. Breis eolais ón Athair Tomás Ó Luanaigh 087-2213799. Fáilte roimh chách.

An Soiscéal (Matha 25:12-15)
Chugaibh an fear nuaphósta! Amach libh ina aircis! Tá teachtaireacht soiléir ag an parabal sa léacht seo – bheith réidh bualadh leis an Tiarna nuair a thagann sé. Tá an léacht roghnaithe go cuí agus sinn ag druidim le deireadh bhliain an liotúirge, agus an glaoch a ghabhann leis sin bheith ullamh le teagmháil leis an Tiarna ag deireadh ár saoil, a bheith ag faire de bhrí nach bhfuil a fhios againn an lá ná an uair.

Naomh Mártan (11 Samhain)
Rugadh Naomh Mártan san Úngáir sa bhliain 316. In aois a cúig déag bhí sé ina shaighdiúir in arm na Róimhe. Cuireadh a chathlán go dtí Amiens na Fraince (Gaul) agus is ansúd a thárla míorúilt na fallainge. Lá amháin agus é gar do gheataí na cathrach, chonaic sé bochtán caite ar thaobh na sráid agus é leata leis an bhfuacht. Dhein Mártan dhá leath dá fhallaing agus chuir sé timpeall ar an bhfear bocht é. An oíche san, thaibhsigh Críost é féin do Mhártan agus an leathfhallaing mórthimpeall air, chun a chur in iúl dó go raibh sé buíoch as ucht a chineáltais. Cúpla bliain ina dhiaidh sin baisteadh Mártan agus d'imigh sé leis go cathair eile agus sa bhliain 361 ceapadh é ina easpag ar Tours. Bhailigh daoine mórthimpeall air agus thóg sé mainistreacha cáiliúila sa cheantar san agus an ceann is tabhachtaí Marmoutier (An Mhainistir Mhór) in aice le Tours. Ó aimsear Phádraig tugadh ónóir mhór do Mhártan i gcónaí in Éirinn.

Mí na Samhna
I gCóiré gach bliain, bíonn cuimhneachán don nduine atá caillte. Tiocfaidh an chlann go léir agus a mbaineann de ghaolta leis go dtí a thigh chun umhlú dá phictiúir agus béile a ithe ina chuimhne. Beidh col ochtair tagtha uair éigin den lá agus beidh comharsain ag cabhrú go fial sa chistin. Raghaidh duine céad míle ó bhaile chun a bheith ann do lá chuimhne a sheanathar a cailleadh sarar rugadh é féin. Tá a fhios agam féin uaigh atá i mbaile le dhá chéad bliain agus tá sí chomh glan le scilling an t-am go léir. Cailín aimsire a bhí inti i dtigh sa bhaile. Tugann muintir an tí sin fós aire dá huaigh. 'Idir Dhá Shaol' (An tAthair Pádraig Ó Murchú).

Féile 9 Samhain – Tiomnú Bhaisleac na Lataráine
Sa bhliain 324 ar an 9 Samhain, rinne an Pápa Sylvester baisleac Naomh Eoin Lataráine a choisreacan - Príomhbhaisleac an tSlánaitheora a tugadh air. Greanta ar na fallaí laistigh tá na focail seo, Máthair agus Ceann na dTeampaill Uile sa Chathair agus ar fud an domhain. Tugtar Teampall Eoin Baiste in Laterano air chomh maith. Chónaigh na pápaí gar don mbaisleac ón gceathrú aois go dtí gur imigh na pápaí go dtí Avignon na Fraince sa bhliain 1309. Is beannaithe Tigh Dé, is beannaímid féin dó, mar a bhfuil sé leis an dá aspal déag…
Is beannaithe thú a theampaill an Spioraid Naoimh agus is beannaithe a eaglais na Tríonóide.

Lóistín ag Teastáil ar Shlí Chorca Dhuibhne
Tá cruinniú eolais á eagrú i Halla na Feothanaí, Dé Céadaoin, 25 Samhain ar a 7.00in., chun a mhíniú cad a bheadh i gceist dá mbeadh spéis ag daoine lóistín a chur ar fáil do dhaoine a dheineann Slí Chorca Dhuibhne. Cuir scéal go dtí waw@failteireland.ie chun d'áit a chur in áirithe, roimh Déardaoin, 19 Samhain.

Reflection: In the framing of today's parable, Jesus is referring to early Palestinian Jewish marriage customs, which tell us that the waiting maidens are likely young family members of the bridegroom. In other words, they know him. They may have grown up with him. They have a relationship with him. Furthermore, a delay in his arrival is to be expected because the final marriage contract needs to be negotiated before the celebration can take place. The maidens who love the bridegroom dearly—the wise ones—are excited enough in their anticipation of this event to prepare. Their focus is on their love for him and the celebration (the party) that will commence upon his arrival.

The "foolish" virgins on the other hand—and notice the word is "foolish," not forgetful—don't bother to prepare. They, like the wise, also know the groom, but their focus is not on him or his important day. The celebration these maidens know will be coming isn't enough of a priority to pull them away from their foolish pursuits to prepare themselves.

The foolish virgins love for him is not the same as that of the wise. We know this because what we love always guides our actions and choices, always guides how we spend our time.

Prayer on Lighting a Candle during November: As you hold this candle in your hand, recall the memory of your loved one. Pray God's peace and rest on their soul. Pray also for yourself that God in His infinite love for you will give you peace of mind and heart at this time of brokenness and loss in your life. May the Souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace. O Sacred Heart of Jesus grant them a place of peace and joy in your Kingdom. Amen

The Light of Christ.

Even though there may be times when we struggle to keep the flame of faith alive in our hearts, that flame never fully goes out. The light of faith, the flame of faith, that burns deep within us, can never be fully extinguished because it is from the Lord. The Lord stands ready to fan into a living flame that gift he has given us. Today's readings call on us to be open to the light of Lord's faithful presence. ~ Fr Gerard.

Gifted by God.

God distributes his gifts among us as he wills and entrusts each of us with a mission. He gives us what we need to produce fruits for the kingdom and expects us to use those gifts responsibly and diligently. We need to live before God and respond to him sincerely by using the talents he has given us to the maximum.

A Candle of Hope!

November is a month when we remember those who have died, especially our family members, friends and neighbours who are no longer with us.
One of the simple ways we express that remembrance is by lighting a candle. A candle may be small, but it carries a beautiful message.
Its light reminds us that love does not end with death, that memories remain precious, and that the light of Christ continues to shine even in the darkness of loss.
When we light a candle for someone we love, it is also a prayer. We place that person in God's loving care and ask that they enjoy the peace and happiness of heaven.
During November, I invite you to light a candle in the church or at home for someone special who has died. As a little flame burns, may it bring comfort to our hearts and remind us that those we love are never forgotten.

This Sunday's Gospel leaves us with a very simple but important question: If Jesus came into our lives today, would He find our lamps burning?

Would He find us living with faith?

Would He find us forgiving those who have hurt us?

Would He find us caring for the poor, the lonely and the forgotten?

Would He find us making time for prayer and for the Eucharist?

Would He recognise in us the love and compassion that He taught us?

We do not know the day or the hour when the Lord will call us home. But we do know that He loves us, that He is waiting for us, and that He wants us to share in the eternal joy of His kingdom.

So let us not allow the oil of our faith to run dry.

And when the bridegroom comes, may He find us ready, with lamps burning brightly, hearts full of faith, and lives filled with love.

May we one day hear those wonderful words of welcome and enter into the everlasting wedding feast of heaven.

****

Do you know the purpose of Holy Mass?

****

The primary purpose of the Holy Mass is to worship God through participation in the re-presentation of Jesus' passion, death and Resurrection. The Secondary purpose is to receive Jesus in Holy Communion and thirdly to unite as God's Church sharing Faith and Thanksgiving.

Abide With Me
Abide with me, fast falls the eventide;
The darkness deepens; Lord, with me abide.
When other helpers fail and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, O abide with me.

Nearer My God to Thee
Nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee
E'en though it be a cross that raiseth me, still all my song shall be,
nearer, my God, to thee;
nearer, my God, to thee, nearer to thee

Living with Intention

The parable of the wise and foolish virgins calls us to live with intentionality. It encourages us to align our lives with the teachings of Christ, ensuring that our faith is not only professed but actively lived out. This preparation is an ongoing process, readying us for the moment when we encounter the bridegroom.

We are challenged to reflect on the depth of our faith and the constant need for spiritual preparation. It beckons us to live with a faith that goes beyond words, one that is active, intentional, and ever ready. As followers of Christ, let us heed the wisdom of the wise virgins, ensuring that our lamps are filled with the oil of a vibrant and enduring faith.

Thought for the Week: The light of Christ.

Even though there may be times when we struggle to keep the flame of faith alive in our hearts, that flame never fully goes out. The light of faith, the flame of faith, that burns deep within us, can never be fully extinguished because it is from the Lord. The Lord stands ready to fan into a living flame that gift he has given us. Todays readings call on us to be open to the light of Lord's faithful presence.

Seanfhocail: Is giorra cabhair Dé ná an doras.

Thought for the day: To engage with today's readings, it might be helpful to go back in your own mind to someone in your life whom you regard as really wise. When did you become aware of it? Have you benefitted from it? If someone were to ask how would you recognise wisdom and what are its marks, what would you say? Have you learned from your encounters with wise people? Do you desire wisdom for yourself? Perhaps as parent or friend or family member or colleague. Do you nourish your hunger for the qualities and attitudes which we associate with people who have learned from life? Prayer: All-wise and loving God, the desire for you lies deep within us. Awaken us to the quest for true wisdom that by being true to ourselves we may come home to you, the source of all wisdom. Amen. (www.tarsus.ie)

Pope Leo XVI on X: We wish to pray now for those who have recently lost a loved one, especially those whose loved ones have been torn from them by the senseless violence of war. May the tears of so many mothers, so many children, and so many elderly people touch the consciences of those who have the power to silence weapons!

Annual Mass of Remembrance

We warmly invite all parishioners, families and friends to join us for our Annual Mass of Remembrance, when we will gather in prayer to remember those who have died during the past twelve months.

This Mass, which takes place on Friday 13th November in St Finian's Church, is a special opportunity to give thanks to God for the precious gift of the lives of our loved ones. While we mourn their passing and feel deeply their absence, we also recognise that the gift of their lives does not end with death. Their love which touched lives continue to flow into the hearts of their families and dear friends. In so many ways, something of them lives on in us.

As a parish community, we are mindful that many among us are carrying the pain of grief and the sadness of losing someone dear. We want all who are bereaved to know that you are remembered with great affection and held in our thoughts, our prayers and our Masses. May you find comfort in the love and support of family, friends and our parish community, and strength in the hope that our faith offers.

In the words of St Paul:
"Neither death nor life... will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord." (Romans 8:38–39)

As we come together, we entrust our loved ones to God's loving care, give thanks for the blessing of their lives and pray that all who grieve may be comforted by the promise of eternal life. May the Lord who walks with us in our sorrow fill our hearts with peace, hope and consolation. All are most welcome.

Gifted by God.

God distributes his gifts among us as he wills and entrusts each of us with a mission. He gives us what we need to produce fruits for the kingdom and expects us to use those gifts responsibly and diligently. We need to live before God and respond to him sincerely by using the talents he has given us to the maximum.

REFLECTION

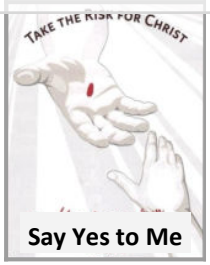

A peacocks feathers are very colourful;
they are worn more for show than for warmth.
The Pharisees wore their virtue for show;
they wanted to be seen and praised by others.
They were more concerned with appearing good than with really being good.
Today there is great emphasis on appearances.
The image is more important than the reality.
We may deceive others but we cannot deceive God.
But then it would be foolish to even try.
We don't have to put on an outward show,
or pretend to be what we are not.
All we have to do is try to be true to what we are - God's sons and daughters.
Lord, help us to shun all falsity and pretence,
and to live a life of genuine goodness.
Then our deeds will flow from what we are,
as naturally as good fruit from a good tree.

FINAL BLESSING

Lord, grant us what we have said with our lips,
we may believe with our hearts,
and practise with our lives.
Through the same Christ our Lord.

God Bless, Fr. Noel 087-2935969

A Candle
Often we light candles as a sign of remembering and as we light the candle we say a prayer for that person that they may be enjoying the marvellous light of heaven. The candle light reminds us that we too have the opportunity to share the light of hope, that we carry, with others.
When you are in a dark place, the warmth of a smile or a kind word can mean a lot.

It may feel that our own light is very small and insignificant in times of much darkness but each time it is shared, it is not halved but doubled. Together we really can make a difference. Dr Lynn Bassett

The Pope's Monthly Intention November
For the proper use of wealth – Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not uccumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

November
At this time of year, our deceased relatives and friends are often in our minds. Our faith tells us that we needn't grieve over them like people with no hope. We remember them with love, and entrust them to God's care.
Penitential Rite
As we begin to celebrate God's enduring mercy, let us call to mind our moments of unfaithfulness: (pause)
Lord Jesus, you raise us to new life:
Lord, have mercy.
Lord Jesus, you forgive us our sins:
Christ, have mercy.
Lord Jesus, you feed us with your body and blood: Lord, have mercy.
Prayer
Brighten your Church, O God, with the promise of your kingdom
and waken our hearts to its light.
Bid us hasten with faith undimmed to greet the bridegroom's return and to enter the wedding feast.
We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
God for ever and ever.
Introduction to the Scripture Readings
Wisdom 6:12-16 — Wisdom is a gift freely given to those who seek it. Wisdom never disappoints.
1 Thessalonians 4:13-18 — We're assured that we needn't grieve over the dead like people with no hope.
Matthew 25: 1-13 — A warning against complacency: we need to be ready, to 'stay awake.'

Seeing Your Life Though The Lens Of The Gospel Mt 25:1-13
1 While the parable has clear end-of-time applications it can also be applied to any moment of grace. It reminds us that moments of grace come unexpectedly, and we need to be awake to receive them. Recall times when you were alert for such a moment. What were the consequences for you?
2 Grace can also be disturbing. We can be coasting along in life and suddenly an opportunity or a graced moment arrives and we are shaken out of our routine in order to respond. Perhaps you can recall both moments when you were unprepared, and moments when you were able to respond. What lessons have you learned from such experiences?
3 We may be tempted to judge the wise virgins as being selfish for not sharing with the others, but perhaps Jesus is teaching us that there are some things that other people cannot provide for us. We have to acquire them ourselves. What qualities in life do you see as the essential oil that you must provide for yourself?

Remembering Our Dead
November Masses & Evening prayer

A NOTE FROM FR. JIM.....

You'll notice that all our daily and Sunday Gospels at this time of year are very apocalyptic. The theme is "Be Ready!!!" This weekend's Gospel uses a very familiar analogy for a first-century Jew: bridesmaids awaiting the coming of the bridegroom to accompany him and his bride to a hall to celebrate the wedding feast. Of course, Jesus is the Bridegroom who, as Scripture tells us, wants to marry His people. The bridesmaids represent all of us. We too can be either wise or foolish. All the bridesmaids look very similar. All are invited, all have lamps, all are waiting, and indeed, all fall asleep! This is a reminder that we're all similar in the sense that we all have the capacity to be saints and sinners. We can be strong and we can be weak. But what makes us wise or foolish depends on whether or not we are prepared for our eternal union with God and have done what we can to accept His invitation to Heaven when the time comes. Some of us have an eternal perspective; others have a here-and-now perspective. Some have oil in their flasks; others don't. And this oil represents our spiritual readiness to meet Christ — a living faith, nourished by daily prayer, God's grace, good works and a personal relationship with Him. I've always wondered, especially from a Christian perspective, why didn't the wise bridesmaids share their oil with the foolish ones? The answer is that there are certain things we cannot share, certain things we cannot borrow from another person. You cannot borrow someone else's character. You cannot borrow someone else's relationship with God. You cannot borrow someone else's spiritual preparation. And finally, then, come some of the most frightening words in the whole Bible. When the foolish bridesmaids eventually arrive, they find the door closed. They cry out, "Lord, Lord, open to us." But the bridegroom replies, "Truly, I say to you, I do not know you." Their failure was not a lack of intention, but a lack of preparation. There is a great difference between intending to live a Christian life and actually living one. We can spend years saying: "When I have more time, I'll pray." "When things settle down, I'll return to Mass." "One of these days, I'll go to Confession." "Someday, I'll make peace with that person." But the Gospel reminds us that someday is not a date on the calendar! So, ask yourself the question: God forbid, if we died today, would you have oil in your lamp? Have you prepared?

The 6.15pm Mass on Monday Evenings is Concelebrated Mass with the Office of the Dead, for all those on the Holy Souls List. It is also a special opportunity for the bereaved to be consoled and supported spiritually. We particularly welcome those who have been bereaved in the past year.

NOVEMBER REMEMBRANCE LISTS

This is our opportunity for us to pray for our loved ones who have died. In the month associated with the Holy Souls, we will have special Masses in November to remember those whose names have been handed in to us. You might return your November List and Offering at Masses, at the Parish Office, or at the box at the sacred space in the Cathedral. The names of all those who passed away over the past 12 months will be in this sacred space.

40 HOURS ADORATION to bring peace to the world, the priesthood and for vocations to the priesthood in the Church of the Resurrection from 6pm Friday 13th Nov ending Sunday 15th November 10am before the 11am Mass. You can sign in to cover some hours on the register at the door of St Bridget's chapel or call 0876884124 to be allocated some hours. You can also feel free to drop in at any time bringing your own private intentions.

A Message from Deacon Linus*:*

Sunday (8th November) marks the first anniversary of my ordination as Deacon. On behalf of my wife, children, mother, and myself, I would like to thank everyone in the parish for the kindness, support, and encouragement you have shown me throughout this past year.

To all who attended my ordination, and to everyone who sent cards, good wishes, and prayers, the generosity and goodwill shown to me and my family will always be remembered.

It is often said that a vocation is nurtured within a community, and I know that to be true. I have been blessed by the support, friendship, and faith of the people of this parish.

A special word of thanks to the Deacons and Priests of our Pastoral Area for their guidance, friendship, and unwavering support during my training and throughout this first year of ministry.

With every blessing,
Deacon Linus.

Second Collection this weekend 7th & 8th November: Irish Church Commissions & Bishop Agencies: This collection supports the work of the Irish Bishops' Conference and its agencies in areas such as marriage and family life, Catholic education, catechetics, liturgy, and the sacraments. It helps dioceses work together and supports the Church's mission at a national level.

INTRODUCTION TO THE READINGS THIS WEEKEND

First Reading
We desire many things, and this reading encourages us to foster a desire for the wisdom that comes from God, through his word. This wisdom is ours for the desiring!

Second Reading
St. Paul does not preach a gospel of easy certainties, but he wants his people to be absolutely certain that those who have died in faith are called to share in the life of God for eternity.

Gospel
Jesus' parable makes it plain that a faith that does not impact on life, a faith that does not shed light, is as impractical and worthless as a lantern without oil. Faith is to be lived out, not merely spoken about.

Gifted by God.

God distributes his gifts among us as he wills and entrusts each of us with a mission. He gives us what we need to produce fruits for the kingdom and expects us to use those gifts responsibly and diligently. We need to live before God and respond to him sincerely by using the talents he has given us to the maximum.

Prayer for our Deceased

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the souls of all the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Lord God,
whose days are without end
and whose mercies beyond counting, keep us mindful
that life is short and the hour of death unknown.
Let your Spirit guide our days on earth
in the ways of holiness and justice, that we may serve you
in union with the whole Church,
sure in faith, strong in hope, perfect in love.
And when our earthly journey is ended,
lead us rejoicing into your kingdom,
where you live for ever and ever. Amen.

Parish of Tuosist Newsletter
15th November 2026
33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Remembering our loved ones - we always remember our loved ones gone before us, but especially in November. You might like to return your own November List with the Mass offering in a November envelope - these are in your box of parish envelopes, and there should be spare envelopes at the newsletter table. If not, you are welcome to return the names in a normal page and envelope marked 'Tuosist Parish'. We will pray for them in all our Masses in November.

Mass for all those who have died during the year since 1st November 2025 will be celebrated at 10 a.m. on Sunday 15th November in Lauragh Church. There will be a candle on the altar for each person who has died in the parish or elsewhere. A relative or friend who is able to attend can come up and place the lighted candle on the altar. Please contact Ina O'Shea – 0877730742 - and spread the word to families living away, as we pray for those who died, and for those who are grieving.

Sunday 15th November '26 is also World Day of Remembrance for Road Traffic Victims - Kerry County Council, An Garda Síochána Kerry, the Road Safety Authority and other road safety stakeholders invite the community, churches and church-goers to join us in remembering those who have been seriously injured or killed on our roads.

The AGM of Lauragh Community Centre will be held on Monday 16th November at 7 p.m. Everybody welcome!

A Candle of Hope!

November is a month when we remember those who have died, especially our family members, friends and neighbours who are no longer with us.

One of the simple ways we express that remembrance is by lighting a candle. A candle may be small, but it carries a beautiful message.

Its light reminds us that love does not end with death, that memories remain precious, and that the light of Christ continues to shine even in the darkness of loss.

When we light a candle for someone we love, it is also a prayer. We place that person in God's loving care and ask that they enjoy the peace and happiness of heaven.

During November, I invite you to light a candle in the church or at home for someone special who has died. As a little flame burns, may it bring comfort to our hearts and remind us that those we love are never forgotten.
