October at a glance - The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary. The Memorial of Our Lady of the Rosary is celebrated on October 7. October falls during the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, represented by the liturgical colour green. This symbol of hope is the colour of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection. Green vestments are worn in Masses of Ordinary Time.

The kingdom of God will be given to a people who will produce its fruit."
(Matthew 21:43)

Jesus reminds us that we are only caretakers of what God has entrusted to us. The tenants failed because they acted as owners of the vineyard and rejected the son. Like them, we can forget that our life, talents, and responsibilities belong to God.

"One in Christ, united in mission" - is the theme of World Mission Sunday 2026 which takes place on Sunday, October 18th. "Following the Jubilee Year, [2025] I wish to encourage the whole Church to continue its missionary journey with joy and zeal in the Holy Spirit. Mission belongs to the entire Church. Every baptized person is called to share God's love through prayer, generosity, and witness. Inspired by the dedication of missionaries, we continue working together so that the message of Christ may reach every community" (Pope Leo XIV). Missio Ireland envelopes are available in both churches if you wish to take one and return it on October 18th. Thank you.

St Francis of Assisi, whose feast day we celebrate on 4th Oct, was known by the many in his own day as the Poverello - the little poor man. Over the course of the last 800 years the ideal of poverty of St Francis has been much discussed and often misunderstood. The early friars did not go without – going without was not the understanding of poverty that St Francis held – what he wanted for his friars was to live without anything of their own, and what they needed they grew or tended themselves, or they worked, not for money, but for the actual things they needed. He had recognised that with ownership often came conflict, and that it was a strange idea that we human beings could own that which was created in relationship with us. We are in fact tenants, and our rent is love, trust, and a life lived together. We need to trust that God will provide for us both materially and spiritually, he will give us the grace we require to tend and keep His Garden, and how do we know this? Because He sent His Son. Just like the Landlord of the parable the Son was sent. Jesus was sent to us to remind us of the true nature of our life and the real relationship we have with God and Earth, and to fulfil the covenant God has made with the whole of Creation. Yes, it is true that human fear led to the Passion and Death of Jesus, but the Resurrection promises us that God is not going to take the Vineyard away from us and give it to someone else, but He is going to continue to offer his Gifts to us so that what we have harmed can be healed. We will be, if we are open, brought back into the Covenant between God – the Human Family – Earth, and live together in the fullness of life.

- Br. Ade Green OFM Cap, Ard Friary, Centre for the Care of Creation (excerpt)
