25Ú DEIREADH FÓMHAIR 2026 – AN TRÍOCHADÚ DOMHNACH – A

Reflection

If the Pharisee had his way the Tax Collector would not have been allowed into the temple at all.
Some people believe that sinners should never go to church.
They cry 'hypocrites' at those who do.
According to them, only saints should be admitted to church.
But that would result in a very small church,
and would make as little sense as a repair shop
that accepted only sound things;
or a hospital that accepted only healthy people.
We go to church not because we are worthy, but because we need to.
We are brave enough to admit our sinfulness,
but are willing to strive for something better.
We need the healing mercy of God, as well as the support of the community,
if our efforts at self-improvement are to bear fruit.
The tax collector stood some distance away, not daring even to raise his eyes to heaven; but he beat his breast and said, "God, be merciful to me, a sinner." This man, I tell you, went home again at rights with God; the other did not.
For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but the man who humbles himself will be exalted.' Lk. 18: 9-14
