Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Israel, God's first chosen people, did not produce the fruit expected of them. God found fault with them and the promised inheritance passed from them. The Church today must prove itself worthy of God's call by bringing forth the fruit of love and good works.

PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF THE ROSARY

Our Lady of the Rosary!

With all my heart I adore You and the wonderful prayer of the Rosary which You commanded all the faithful to recite.

Know that love for You and Your Son will burn forever in my heart.

I am begging you, surround me with your care.

Queen of the Holy Rosary!

Please fill me with all your faith, hope and love.

Let the prayer of the rosary bring true peace into my life, straighten my paths, and help me solve difficult matters.

I am begging you, let the rosary, prayed humbly and devoutly, bring me God's blessing and protect me from every evil.

Amen.

The month of October is traditionally dedicated to the Rosary. Pope Leo XIV has asked Catholics to pray the rosary each day in October for peace.

Morning Reflection Prayer for Self-Confidence

Heavenly Father,

Thank You for the gift of a new day.

As I begin this morning, help me to remember that my worth is found in You and not in the opinions of others or in my own doubts. Fill my heart with confidence, not pride, but the quiet assurance that I am created with purpose and loved without condition. Help me to recognise the gifts You have placed within me and give me the courage to use them wisely.

When fear or insecurity tries to take hold, remind me that I do not walk alone. Strengthen my mind, guide my words, and help me face each challenge with faith rather than worry.

Teach me to believe in the person You are shaping me to become. May I carry myself with kindness, speak with confidence, and trust that Your plans for me are good.

Today, let me walk with peace, knowing that I am enough because I am Yours. Amen.

Points to Ponder

Today's parable is a powerful message about God's patience, our responsibility, and the consequences of rejecting Him.

1. God Entrusts Us with His Blessings: Just as the landowner provided everything for the vineyard to thrive, God has given us all we need – His Word, His Spirit, and His grace. He calls us to be faithful stewards of His blessings. Are we using what God has given us for His glory? Do we honour Him with our time, talents, and resources?

2. God Is Patient, But There Are Consequences for Rejection: God's patience is great, but it is not limitless. When people continuously turn away from Him, they face the consequences of their choices. Jesus warned that the kingdom would be taken from those who rejected Him and given to those who bear its fruit.

3. Jesus, the Cornerstone We Must Build Our Lives On: We must ask ourselves: Is Jesus the cornerstone of our lives? Do we build our decisions, actions, and purpose on Him? Or are we trying to build on our own understanding? Only when Christ is our foundation can we truly bear fruit for God's kingdom.

4. A Call to Repentance and Fruitfulness: The religious leaders understood that Jesus was speaking about them, but instead of repenting, they sought to kill Him. God desires that we bear fruit, that is, to live lives filled with faith, love, and obedience. He calls us to humility and repentance, turning from self-centeredness to Him.

May we embrace Christ as our foundation, live faithfully, and bear the fruit that glorifies God. Peoplaid.com

'Being Christian is not the result of an ethical choice or a lofty idea, but the encounter with an event, a person, which gives life a new horizon and a decisive direction.' Pope Benedict XVI (DCE 1)

'It is no use walking somewhere to preach unless our walking is our preaching.' Saint Francis of Assisi

An evangeliser must never look like someone who has just come back from a funeral. 'Pope Francis

Church re- opening Fr Martin & Fr. Michael welcomes back our parishioners to the weekday & Sunday Masses. It's great having a live congregation back in the church after the long lockdown. All those attending are reminded that face covering are a necessary part of life still if we are to ensure the safety and health of each other while in the church and in the grounds. It is most important that people who are vulnerable or unwell, and especially those with any symptoms that might suggest Covid-19 infection, should stay at home and, if possible, participate, via webcam. The same applies to those who have been in recent contact with someone who has the virus, in accordance with public health advice. We look forward to welcoming you back.

Anniversary Masses

People are encouraged to have these Masses on a Friday evening as well as the Sunday Mass. This will ensure that there is no overcrowding in the church during any Mass Meeting of Ushers. After the Wednesday evening Mass there will be a short meeting to organise ushers over the next few months. Present ushers and new members are invited to attend.

Church cleaning Thanks to all those that have helped in keeping the inside of the church and the grounds clean and tidy. The work of both groups is greatly appreciated.

WORLD COMMUNICATIONS DAY is celebrated throughout the Catholic Church. The theme this year is "Come and See" (Jn 1:46). Communicating by Encountering People Where and as They Are. Pope Francis tells us that 'the Gospel comes alive in our own day, whenever we accept the compelling witness of people whose lives have been changed by their encounter with Jesus... The challenge that awaits us now, is to communicate by encountering people, where they are and as they are.'

NATIONAL SYNOD FOR THE CATHOLIC CHURCH IN IRELAND. A new Synodal Pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland leading to the holding of a National Synodal Assembly within the next five years has been announced. Submissions are invited as to what methods/models to adopt in these coming years of conversations. You are invited to offer feedback (300 words max) to the following question: What would be your preferred option for engagement in a conversation process about the future of the Church? The responses will be considered by the task group to be put in place by the bishops this summer to plan and oversee the first steps along the synodal pathway. Submissions should be made via the new Synodal Pathway webpage: www.catholicbishops.ie/synod.

"The Rosary is my favourite prayer" "Years ago, I read a little spiritual gem called The Secret of The Rosary by St Louis de Montfort and learned about the abundant graces and even miracles that have been attributed to the Rosary. Many saints who are devotees of the Rosary attested to this, as well. Even on our modern day, Our Lady and Jesus are knocking on the doors of human hearts through this beautiful prayer. I have a few friends who were adamantly anti-Catholic yet converted to the Church after being introduced to the Rosary. We must never underestimate the showers of graces we receive when praying it". St John Paul II
