Notice to Parishioners
Due to the discontinuation of the publishing programme previously used to produce our Parish Newsletter, we have had to introduce a new layout. We hope you will find the updated format clear and easy to read as you continue to keep up to date with parish news, and announcements.

Needing to talk badly about others indicates low self-esteem. That means, 'I feel so low that instead of picking myself up, I have to cut others down.' Letting go of negative things quickly is healthy.

We welcome applications from all men and women and from members of all communities.

On the 15th November at 2pm in St Anne's Cathedral, Belfast we will be hosting one of our Saying Goodbye Services and as this is the most local service to you this year we wanted to share this information with you.
So, who is the service for?
Anyone who has either personally lost a baby at any stage of pregnancy, at birth, or in early years, or who has been affected by family members' or friends' loss. Whether the loss was recent or 80 years ago, everyone is welcome to attend. We have also extended the services, and gladly welcome anyone who is grieving the fact that they haven't had children. This may be due to circumstance, infertility, or for other reasons - but all are welcome. Babies and children are also invited to come with their families, as the Saying Goodbye service is truly a family event for all. We know that as 1 in 4 women suffer miscarriage and baby loss, you will have contact with a significant number of people who have either personally suffered baby loss, or who have a partner or family member that has, so we wanted to ask if you would help us in promoting the service.
To read more on the charity, please see the Saying Goodbye website, which you can find at: www.sayinggoodbye.org
