Today is the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time: "You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: you must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also." (Matthew 22:40). This is the last sentence in today's Gospel. (Matthew 22:34-40). Jesus is speaking of the radical unity of two commandments that sum up the whole law. To love God with one's whole being and life energy is inseparable from an active love of our neighbour. The first reading (Exodus 22:20-26) spells out in vivid detail how the people of Israel are to act towards three marginal groups in their society; the stranger, the widow and the orphan. Pope Francis wrote an Apostolic Exhortation on 15 October 2023 to celebrate the 150th anniversary of the birth of St. Thérèse of Lisieux entitle "C'est la Confiance" The title of the letter comes from her writings. She wrote: "It is confidence and nothing but confidence that leads us to love" In the final part of his letter Pope Francis outlined the outstanding example of Thérèse for Christians today. She wanted to be "love in the heart of the Church" Francis summarised her witness in the final part of his exhortation.

- In an age that urges us to focus on our ourselves and our own interests, she shows us the beauty of making our lives a gift.
- At a time when the most superficial needs and desires are glorified, she testifies to the radicalism of the Gospel.
- In an age of individualism, she makes us discover the value of a love that becomes intercession for others.
- At a time when human beings are obsessed with grandeur and new forms of power, she points out to us the little way.
- In an age that casts aside so many of our brothers and sisters, she teaches us the beauty of concern and responsibility for one another.
- At a time of great complexity, she can help us rediscover the importance of simplicity, the absolute primacy of love, trust and abandonment, and thus move beyond a legalistic or moralistic mindset that would fill the Christian life with rules and regulations, and cause the joy of the Gospel to grow cold.
- In an age of indifference and self-absorption, Thérèse inspires us to be missionary disciples, captivated by the attractiveness of Jesus and the Gospel. (52)

30TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

25TH OCTOBER 2026

Readings: A (II) Psalter: Week II

The annual Mission Sunday collection last weekend amounted to £1,597.01. The annual collection is important, because 1,130 dioceses in mission territories cannot sustain themselves financially. Yet Mission Sunday is fundamentally spiritual, before it is financial. Recent popes have repeatedly emphasised that mission begins with prayer, witness and communion. On behalf of Missio Ireland, thank you for your support on Mission Sunday.
