Northern Ireland Hospice

Northern Ireland Hospice is seeking local people to help establish a new Hospice Fundraising Support Group in the West Belfast area.

Our volunteer support groups play a vital role in raising funds to help Northern Ireland Hospice continue providing specialist care and support to adults, children and families living with life-limiting illnesses across Northern Ireland.

We are looking for individuals who are passionate about their community and would be interested in helping organise occasional fundraising activities such as coffee mornings, quizzes, sponsored walks, golf days and other local events. No previous fundraising experience is required, just a willingness to get involved and support a very worthwhile cause.

If you would like to learn more about becoming part of the new West Belfast Support Group, or would simply like an informal conversation about what is involved, we would be delighted to hear from you.

The Energy of True Religion

'To love God and love your neighbour - this is one of the most attractive of the sayings of Jesus. It is an encouragement to live fully with what brings the greatest joy in life - true love of God and the neighbour. It is at the heart of good religion, and what attracts many to Jesus.

Bad religion puts law above love. Bad religion fights for the partial truth of religion. We risk being victims of bad religion, just as we can be victims of bad nationalism, bad psychology or any other bad way of living. Jesus' life was to propose good religion and to live by it. The religion of some of the Pharisees was bad, in that it was incomplete in its scope.

We admire those who give energy in love and service. We are proud of people we know whose lives make a great and good difference to others. We know that our family and neighbourhood, parish and school, workplace and leisure time have been enriched by the self-sacrificing love of many people, young and old.

'He gave it his all' - we say that of a good player at the end of a match. We say of parents that they "were always there for the children. May we give all we have in our lives, giving in love, knowing that all we give is itself a gift from God, the giver of all good gifts.
