REMEMBRANCE SERVICE FOR THE DEAD ~ November is the month in which we traditionally pray for our dead - family, friends, neighbours. This year we will be having a service for the dead on Sunday 1st November at 7.00pm. It is open to all parishioners, but particularly to those parishioners who have lost a loved one during the last year. As well as those whose family members funeral service took place here in the church, we this year also invite any parishioner who in the last year, lost a close family member residing outside the parish, to take part. We are inviting you to send a photograph of your deceased loved one to Margaret in the office, either by post, email or in person - if you wish to have a photograph included in our slides for the service. Also please include their name and date deceased. The last date for submissions is Wednesday 28th October to allow for the creation of the slideshow.

ADORATION OF THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT takes place here in the Irish Martyrs every Wednesday from 10am to 9.00pm and also on the first Saturday of every month (for the protection of life) from 7.30pm to 9.30am on Sunday. We need more people to commit to spending an hour with the Lord during these times. If you can commit to an hour, please contact Robert for the Wednesday Adoration on 086 2285800 and Siobhan, for the first Saturday Adoration on 086 3748627. Alternatively, leave your name and number in the office and we will pass it along.
