Parish of the Holy Family Aughrim Street

Parish Bulletin
Feast of St Francis of Assisi
4 October 2026

This Sunday's Gospel is a warning to us. When we read the Gospel, we might consider the Kingdom of Heaven is on lease to us, that we have access to the Kingdom only on a temporary basis and that we must nurture that Kingdom, lest it be taken away from us and given to another.

We are asked, specifically, to love the Lord our God with all our hearts, and to announce the kingdom in all we do and are. If we fail to do this, then our life's work is left incomplete.

In each of us there is a God-given gift or seed of sanctity. We are called to help this seed grow and flourish. It must be nurtured and tended on a daily basis. Following the example of the vineyard growers, we must prepare the soil to assist the growth of our hearts and souls, and cut back the growth of negative influences to the point that it hurts. If we fail to give sufficient time and effort to this nurturing of our God-given gift, then the wonderful gift that God has given us to enter his dwelling place may not come to maturity, and we could be cast out from that Kingdom.

There is nothing worse than being without the presence of God. So let us work as hard as we can to develop the kingdom of God in our hearts, to prune back the ego and our hindering sense of self-importance, and to nurture the love of God which has as its heart true humility and peace.

Feast of Saint Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, Grant that I may not so much seek
To be consoled as to console;
To be understood, as to understand;

To be loved, as to love;

For it is in giving that we receive, It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
And it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.
Amen.

Carlo Acutis Novena

O God our Father,
we thank you for giving us Carlo, a model of life for young people, and a message of love for all. You made him fall in love with your son Jesus, making the Eucharist his “highway to heaven.” You gave him Mary as a beloved mother, and you made him, through the Rosary, a cantor of her tenderness.
Receive his prayer for us. Look above all upon the poor, whom he loved and assisted.
Grant me too, through his intercession, the grace that I need (mention your intention).
And make our joy full, raising Carlo among the saints of your Church, so that his smile shines again for us to the glory of your name.

HOLY CHILD NATIVITY PARISHES

Beaumont | Larkhill | Whitehall | Santry

The Vineyard and the Hidden Oratory by Deacon Damian Murray

Today's readings invite us to see the world through God's eyes. Isaiah sings of the vineyard lovingly planted and tended by God. Jesus tells us of the vineyard entrusted to tenants. Both readings remind us that creation itself is a gift, entrusted to our care so that it may bear good fruit.

Last week, some of our parishioners visited the Oratory of the Sacred Heart in Dún Laoghaire, a small yet remarkable place of prayer and reflection. Built as a memorial to peace after the devastation of war, it is easy to pass by without noticing. Yet once inside, one encounters a world transformed by beauty and faith. The walls are adorned with richly coloured Celtic Revival artwork painted by Sister Concepta Lynch, whose work draws the eye towards God through images of creation, saints and sacred symbolism.

Standing in that little oratory, one is reminded of a truth that the Celtic spiritual tradition understood deeply: the whole of creation is charged with the presence of God. Nothing is merely ordinary. Everything speaks of the Creator.

As we gathered there, we prayed: "Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord" (Canticle of Daniel 3: 52-90). We called upon the sun and moon, the stars of heaven, the seas and rivers, the birds of the air and all peoples of the earth to join in praise. It teaches us that creation is not simply a backdrop to our lives but a great choir proclaiming God's glory. Perhaps that is a fitting thought on this day when the feast of St Francis of Assisi quietly yields to the Sunday liturgy.

That insight sheds light on today's Gospel. The tragedy of the tenants is that they forgot they were caretakers. They ceased to receive the vineyard as a gift and began to treat it as a possession.

Saint Paul urges us to dwell on whatever is true, noble and good. When we see the world with grateful eyes, we bear the fruits God desires: compassion, justice, peace and love. Amen.

Oratory of the Sacred Heart Dún Laoghaire

UNDERSTANDING THE MASS (Part 17)

The Dismissal: "Go Forth, the Mass Is Ended"

What is Happening

The word Mass itself comes from the Latin Missa — derived from the dismissal formula "Ite, missa est" — meaning roughly "Go, you are sent." The entire celebration takes its name from its final moment. This is not accidental. The Church is telling us something: the point of everything we have just done is what happens next. The priest may choose from several dismissal forms, including the beautiful: "Go and announce the Gospel of the Lord" or "Go in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life." Each is a commission, not a conclusion.

How We Should Respond

"Thanks be to God" — our final response — should carry the weight of everything that has occurred. We have heard God's Word, offered our gifts, received Christ himself, and been sent. Gratitude is the only adequate reply. Resist treating the final hymn as background noise for gathering coats. The procession out mirrors the procession in — the Mass began with intention and deserves to end the same way.

Living This at Mass

As you leave the church this Sunday, ask yourself one question: where is God sending me this week, and to whom? The doors opening before you are not an exit — they are a beginning. ✠

ST VINCENT DE PAUL OUTDOOR COLLECTION

The monthly outdoor collection will take place this weekend, 3rd & 4th October 2026

Reflection: True obedience isn't spoken but lived—God calls us to humble action, not empty promises, transforming words into faith.

We ask the Lord's blessings on all his creatures, great and small, in this month of October when we celebrate the Feast of St Francis of Assisi. Parishioners are invited to bring their pets to the grounds of the Church of the Nativity of Our Lord in Beaumont for the annual blessing of pets this Sunday, 4th of October, at 14.30pm

The Annual Collection for Elaine Bannon's Mission in Rombo Kenya will take place after all the Masses on 10th October and 11th October 2026 in the Church of the Nativity of Our Lord. Your support is very important and greatly appreciated. Elaine will be present to tell us how things are going in Kenya.

FIRST READING

Isaiah 5:1-7 Against the Lord's vineyard

Let me sing to my friend the song of his love for his vineyard.
My friend had a vineyard on a fertile hillside. He dug the soil, cleared it of stones and planted choice vines in it. In the middle he built a tower, he dug a press there too. He expected it to yield grapes, but sour grapes were all that it gave. And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, I ask you to judge between my vineyard and me. What could I have done for my vineyard that I have not done? I expected it to yield grapes. Why did it yield sour grapes instead? Very well, I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard: I will take away its hedge for it to be grazed on, and knock down its wall for it to be trampled on. I will lay it waste, unpruned, undug; overgrown by the briar and the thorn. I will command the clouds to rain no rain on it. Yes, the vineyard of the Lord of Hosts is the House of Israel, and the men of Judah that chosen plant. He expected justice, but found bloodshed, integrity, but only a cry of distress.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Psalm 24(25):4-9

R: The vineyard of the Lord is the house of Israel.

You brought a vine out of Egypt; to plant it you drove out the nations.
It stretched out its branches to the sea, to the Great

River it stretched out its shoots. R

Then why have you broken down its walls? It is plucked by all who pass by. It is ravaged by the boar of the forest, devoured by the beasts of the field. R

God of hosts, turn again, we implore, look down from heaven and see.

Visit this vine and protect it, the vine your right hand has planted. R

And we shall never forsake you again; give us life that we may call upon your name.
God of hosts, bring us back; let your face shine on us and we shall be saved. R

SECOND READING

Philippians 4:6-9

If there is anything you need, pray for it.

There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus. Finally, brothers, fill your minds with everything that is true, everything that is noble, everything that is good and pure, everything that we love and honour, and everything that can be thought virtuous or worthy of praise. Keep doing all the things that you learnt from me and have been taught by me and have heard or seen that I do. Then the God of peace will be with you.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
I call you friends, says the Lord, because I have made known to you everything I have learnt from my Father. Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Matthew 21:33-43

This is the landlord's heir: come, let us kill him

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, 'Listen to another parable. There was a man, a landowner, who planted a vineyard; he fenced it round, dug a winepress in it and built a tower; then he leased it to tenants and went abroad. When vintage time drew near he sent his servants to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his servants, thrashed one, killed another and stoned a third. Next he sent some more servants, this time a larger number, and they dealt with them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them. "They will respect my son" he said. But when the tenants saw the son, they said to each other, "This is the heir. Come on, let us kill him and take over his inheritance." So they seized him and threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?' They answered, 'He will bring those wretches to a wretched end and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will deliver the produce to him when the season arrives.' Jesus said to them, 'Have you never read in the scriptures:

It was the stone rejected by the builders that became the keystone. This was the Lord's doing and it is wonderful to see?' 'I tell you, then, that the kingdom of God will be taken from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit.'

PROFESSION OF FAITH

The Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

Let us pray:

Grant us, almighty God, that we may be refreshed and nourished by the Sacrament which we have received, so as to be transformed into what we consume. Through Christ our Lord. Amen

ALONE, the national organisation

supporting older people to age happily and securely at home, has launched its new Strategic Plan 2026 –2029, Delivering What Matters.

ALONE's new strategy acknowledges the scale and complexity of these challenges, but it is firmly focused on the future. It sets out a clear, ambitious vision for how Ireland can respond differently — by building a system that works around older people, rather than expecting older people and their families to navigate complex systems alone.

Together, we can ensure no older person feels alone.

The Homily: "Breaking

Open the Word" What the Priest Is Doing

The homily is not a speech, a lecture, or a personal reflection. It is an act of the liturgy the Church's official unpacking of the Scripture just proclaimed.

The priest's task is to build a bridge between the ancient Word and the living congregation before him, helping ordinary people hear what God is saying to them today, in their actual lives.

A good homily costs the priest something.

Preparation, prayer, honest self-examination. When it works, it is because the preacher has first allowed the Word to break him open before breaking it open for others.

How We Should Respond

Resist the temptation to evaluate the homily as a performance. Instead, listen receptively asking not "is he a good preacher?" but "what is God saying to me through these words?" Even an imperfect homily can carry a genuine word if we are genuinely listening.

Living This at Mass

Carry one sentence from the homily into your week. Write it down if necessary. A single idea, genuinely lived, is worth more than a brilliantly delivered homily forgotten by Sunday afternoon.

POPE LEO XIV

Europe as we know it, with its spiritual and moral heritage, is rooted in the lives and work of men and women who lived, preached, and shared the teachings of the Gospel. From this heritage, the moral foundations of the world in which we live have been handed down to us: principles such as the primacy of the person and the sacred and inviolable nature of human life; the protection of freedom; the primary importance of the family; care for the poor and those most in need; welcoming the stranger; and respect for the elderly.

Entrance Longing for light , we wait in darkness .Longing for truth we turn to you.

Make us your own, your holy people, Light for the world to see..

Christ be our light! Shine in our hearts . Shine through the darkness. Christ be our light! Shine in your church gathered today.

Longing for peace , our world is troubled. Longing for hope, many despair. Your word alone has power to save us. Make us your living voice.

Christ be our light! Shine in our hearts . Shine through the darkness. Christ be our light! Shine in your church gathered today.

Mission Sunday – Sunday 18th October 2026

October and World Mission Sunday is a time for the faithful of the world to show their appreciation towards the work of overseas missionaries. Please call Missio Ireland on (01) 497 2035 or go to www.missio.ie for further information.

"It is time to count on what unites us, rather than what divides us"

Through your support, we give missionaries the courage they need to go where others fear to tread so that they can keep loving, serving, and sharing God's peace with people who need their help.

Most of the donations we receive, including those for World Mission Sunday, become part of the Holy Father's Universal Solidarity Fund.

This Fund is a lifeline for some of the most marginalised communities and missionaries across the globe. It provides essential aid for mission dioceses, of which there are more than 1,100, mostly in Africa, Asia and Latin America. The Missio family was able to support more than 90,000 projects worldwide in the last year.

The Season of Creation 2026

Blessing of the Pets

Today - Sunday 4th October - Feast of St Francis of Assisi

Blessing of the Pets in front of the Church at 4 pm.

All pets and their owners welcome.

Today, the feast of St. Francis of Assisi, marks the end of the Season of Creation. Let us not forget though, that the wonders of Creation are to be seen and felt every day of our existence. Let us carry our experiences of this season through the year as we experience the wonder around us. Pope Francis said "We have inherited a Garden; we must not leave a desert to our children" We ask ourselves what can we do to preserve the wonderful world of Creation? During the Season we placed our prayers in Stones, Paper and Ribbons similar to the traditions attached to visiting Holy Wells. These prayers are now on the Altar.

Morning Prayer of St. Francis

Lord, help me to live this day, quietly, easily;

To lean on Your great strength, trustfully, restfully;

To wait for the unfolding of Your will, patiently, serenely;

To meet others, peacefully, joyfully;

To face tomorrow, confidently, courageously.

Amen.

CROSSCARE - Diocesan Social Support Agency

Renewal of Eucharistic Adoration in Howth

Since the renewal of Eucharistic Adoration in Howth in June, there has been a significant increase in the numbers making this weekly hour of silent prayer before the Blessed Sacrament. Here are the scheduled hours for Adoration:

- Tuesdays from 11am to 12 noon and from 3 pm to 4pm.
- Wednesdays from 12 noon to 1pm; from 1pm to 2pm and from 7pm to 8pm.

If anyone wishes to join one of these hours (or a part thereof) on an occasional basis, they will be most welcome. Adoration is held at the Sacred Heart Altar.

VOLUNTEER DRIVERS

The Irish Cancer Society is seeking compassionate volunteer drivers in our community. Your time can help to continue the vital service of providing transport for patients attending cancer treatment appointments. If you have a few hours to spare, a valid driving licence and a safe, reliable vehicle, you're the perfect candidate to make a significant difference. Your generosity can ease the journey for many during a challenging time, offering comfort and support when it's needed most.

For more information and to become a volunteer driver please contact Monica or Emily at volunteer@irishcancer.ie

BATTER MY HEART, THREE-PERSON'D GOD

By John Donne (1572-1631)

Batter my heart, three-person'd God, for you
As yet but knock, breathe, shine, and seek to mend;
That I may rise and stand, o'erthrow me, and bend
Your force to break, blow, burn, and make me new.

I, like an usurp'd town to another due,
Labor to admit you, but oh, to no end;
Reason, your viceroy in me, me should defend,
But is captiv'd, and proves weak or untrue.

Yet dearly I love you, and would be lov'd fain,
But am betroth'd unto your enemy;
Divorce me, untie or break that knot again,
Take me to you, imprison me, for I,
Except you enthrall me, never shall be free,
Nor ever chaste, except you ravish me.

We would like to send our condolences to the

St. Vincent de Paul Contact InformationDublin Office: 01-8550022 www.svp.ieParish Stewardship Survey Results

We are grateful to everyone who took part in the recent Parish Stewardship Survey across the partnership of Lucan, Lucan South and Esker.

The survey received 433 local responses. The findings show a committed community that is ready for simpler ways to participate, volunteer and give to parish life. Key findings included:

87% of respondents said they give more or would be willing to give more to support parish life and mission.

77% said they would be willing to volunteer.

44% said they would be willing to give using non-cash methods, while the wider findings show that 73% already give or are open to non-cash giving.

Cash remains the most common preferred giving method locally, while standing order, tap-and-go and online giving together account for a significant and growing share of parishioner preferences. The survey also shows a broad age profile.

The results demonstrate that our parish community remains deeply committed to supporting the Church and is ready for simpler ways to participate, volunteer and give to parish life.

As part of this pilot initiative, clergy and parish leaders from across the Parish Partnership will now work with the Diocesan Core Working Group to move from findings to practical next steps. The priorities are to follow up personally with those open to volunteering, explore how more weekly giving can be retained locally and linked visibly to parish needs, make standing orders, tap-to-donate and online Parish Family Offering easier to access, improve recording and transparency, and explain more clearly what collections fund locally and across the wider diocesan mission.

Thank you once again for your support, generosity and commitment to our parish community.

Twenty Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

4th October 2026

Thought for the day

Today's parable is a powerful message about God's patience, our responsibility, and the consequences of rejecting Him. God Entrusts Us with His Blessings: Just as the landowner provided everything for the vineyard to thrive, God has given us all we need — His Word, His Spirit, and His grace. He calls us to be faithful stewards of His blessings. Are we using what God has given us for His glory? Do we honour Him with our time, talents, and resources?

Prayer:

God our Father, thank you for all the blessings you have given us. May our lives show our deep gratitude every day. Amen.

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to the back of Church – Thank You.

Eucharistic Adoration:

Eucharistic Adoration will continue each Monday after the 10.00 a.m. Mass except on Bank Holidays.

THIS SUNDAY'S GOSPEL

Matthew 21:33–43

"This is the heir. let us kill him"

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells the parable of the vineyard—a story that begins with generosity. The landowner provides everything needed for life to flourish: a well-prepared vineyard, protection, and purpose. Yet when the time comes to give an account, the tenants refuse. They grasp, they resist, and ultimately they reject even the son who comes in peace.

This parable is not meant to condemn but to awaken. Jesus invites us to recognise how easily we can become possessive of what was never ours to begin with—our gifts, our time, our relationships, even our faith. All is entrusted to us. All is meant to bear fruit.

The striking message of the Gospel is that God never stops seeking a response from us. Even when His invitations are ignored, He continues to reach out, offering new chances to grow, to change, and to return to Him with honesty of heart.

The "vineyard" entrusted to each of us—our daily life, our responsibilities, our opportunities for kindness—can bear rich fruit when we welcome Christ, the Son, and allow His presence to shape our choices.

Entered Eternal Life

September 28 2026

It is with great sadness that we announce the death of Fr. Aidan O'Kane, C.P. following a fall in Medjugorje. May his good soul rest in peace.

Fr. Aidan O’Kane, C.P., R.I.P.

Fr. Aidan O’Kane C.P., died on Monday, 28th September, following a serious accident that occurred while he was on pilgrimage in Medjugorje, a place he loved dearly. This unexpected news has deeply shocked and saddened us all, and it has been difficult to process what has happened over the last few days.

Fr. Seamus Aidan O’Kane was born on 13th January 1962 and hailed from Carnlough, Co. Antrim, but spent most of his life working in London, living in Kilburn. He entered the Passionist Novitiate at Holy Cross, Ardoyne, Belfast, in September 2015, made his First Profession of Vows the following year, and then moved to Ealing, London, to complete his studies. In 2018-2019, Fr Aidan became a member of the community here at Mount Argus and undertook studies in Clinical Pastoral Education at the Mater Hospital.

He made his Final Profession of Vows in September 2019, at Mount Argus, and was ordained to the Diaconate here in November of the same year. Throughout the COVID pandemic, he ministered here as a Deacon before his subsequent Ordination to the priesthood at Holy Cross Ardoyne in September 2020. After his ordination, he was appointed Vicar to Tobar Mhuire, Crossgar, and then as Vice Novice Master to our students, Cian and Martin Dominic, while also managing the Houben Centre in Ardoyne. In October 2025, following the Provincial Chapter, he returned to Mount Argus as Parish Priest, Vicar, and Student Director.

Fr. Aidan’s passing will deeply affect many, including the community here at Mount Argus and the parish community.

We also extend our sympathies and prayers to Fr. Aidan’s family during this time of mourning.

-----oooooOOOoooo-----

Funeral Arrangements for Fr. Aidan:

First of all, thank you very much for all the messages of goodwill phoned and given in to the monastery. Your continued prayerful support is very much appreciated.

At time of going to press – midday Saturday – we are still unclear as to the details of the funeral of Fr. Aidan. His remains will be repatriated on Tuesday, and we expect there will be a mass here, probably on Thursday. Where his remains will be laid to rest is still awaiting decision, but at present it looks like it will possibly be in Ardoyne, in Belfast. We will do our best to keep you updated, especially through announcements at masses over the next few days.

Brief reflection on Gospel:

An interesting – and key – aspect of our gospel passage this Sunday – the story of the landlord who equipped his vineyard with every mod-con and leased it out to a number of tenants, who refused subsequently to pay their rent – is that at no stage does Jesus mention any particular tenant. He refers to them as ‘they’ and they refer to themselves as ‘us’. This is not accidental – it is our gospels once again driving home Jesus’ message that following Him is not about simply being an individual on one’s own personal faith-journey, but becoming part of a people, taking corporate responsibility for one another. That caring for and about one another should be clearly seen in His followers. Being a Parish is about praying and working together – using the talents and gifts of all and taking responsibility together for making our parish a truly fruitful vineyard of the Lord. And we do that best, when we combine the rich treasure-house of talents that make up our parish, and work together to make, not just our parish, but our world, a better place.

Bereaved Parents’ Support Evening:

Anam Cara, the organisation that supports bereaved parents, will hold its monthly Parent Support Evening on Monday 12th October at 7.30pm in the Maldron Hotel, Whitestown Way, Tallaght.

This event is free and open to all bereaved parents regardless of the age the child died, the circumstances of their death, or how recent their death was. You do not need to register in advance.

We commend to your prayers:

We pray for the sick and housebound of our Parish –; we remember those who have died recently: Fr. Aidan O’Kane C.P.; and those whose anniversaries occur at this time: Rosaleen & Des Clegg, Al Griffin, John Lysaght, Tom Boyle (Month’s mind), Ian Hazley, Hazel Dowling, Bernie Winters, Anna Dowd, Margaret Moloney, Sr. Ann Thomas, L.S.A .

TWENTY SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

4th October 2026

The graces and gifts which God gives to us are both signs to us of his love and his care, and also his expectation that they will bear fruit in our lives.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

PENITENTIAL ACT

Have mercy on us, O Lord.

For we have sinned against you.

Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

And grant us your salvation.

May almighty God have mercy on us... Amen

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

THE GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,

we give you thanks for your great glory,

Lord God, heavenly King,

O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,

you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;

you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One,

you alone are the Lord,

you alone are the Most High,

Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit,

in the glory of God the Father. Amen

OPENING PRAYER

Almighty ever-living God, who in the abundance of your kindness surpass the merits and the desires of those who entreat you, pour out your mercy upon us to pardon what conscience dreads and to give what prayer does not dare to ask.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ,

✠ LITURGY OF THE WORD ✠

FIRST READING

Isaiah 5: 1 - 7

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

Let me sing to my friend
the song of his love for his vineyard.

My friend had a vineyard
on a fertile hillside.

He dug the soil, cleared it of stones,
and planted choice vines in it.

In the middle he built a tower,
he dug a press there too.

He expected it to yield grapes,
but sour grapes were all that it gave.

And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, I ask you to judge between my vineyard and me.

What could I have done for my vineyard that I have not done?

I expected it to yield grapes.

Why did it yield sour grapes instead?

Very well, I will tell you what I am going to do to my vineyard:

I will take away its hedge for it to be grazed on,
and knock down its wall for it to be trampled on.

I will lay it waste, unpruned, undug;
overgrown by the briar and the thorn.

I will command the clouds
to rain no rain on it.

Yes, the vineyard of the Lord of hosts
is the House of Israel,

and the men on Judah that chosen plant.

He expected justice, but found bloodshed,
integrity, but only a cry of distress.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps. 79:9.12-16.19-20

R. The vineyard of the Lord is the House of Israel.

1. You brought a vine out of Egypt;
to plant it you drove out the nations.
It stretched out its branches to the sea,
to the Great River it stretched out its shoots. (R)
2. Then why have you broken down its walls?
It is plucked by all who pass by.
It is ravaged by the boar of the forest,
devoured by the beasts of the field. (R)
3. God of hosts, turn again, we implore, look down from heaven and see.
Visit this vine and protect it,

A PRAYER BEFORE HOLY COMMUNION

O Lord, my God, I am not worthy that You should come into my soul, but I am glad that You have come to me because in Your loving kindness
you desire to dwell in me.

You ask me to open the door of my soul, which You alone have created, so that You may enter into it with Your loving kindness and dispel the darkness of my mind.

I believe that You will do this for You did not turn away Mary Magdalene
when she approached You in tears.
Neither did You withhold forgiveness from the tax collector who repented of his sins or from the good thief who asked to be received into Your kingdom.

Indeed, you numbered as Your friends all who came to You with repentant hearts.
O God, You alone are blessed always,
now, and forever. Amen

POPE LEO IN LOURDES:
'PRAY THE ROSARY
IN OCTOBER FOR PEACE'

At the concluding Mass in Lourdes, on the third day of his Apostolic Journey to France, Pope Leo XIV launched an appeal that he said was "particularly close to my heart, here in this place." Just as the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to St. Bernadette in the Grotto of Lourdes with a Rosary and guided her in prayer, the Pope said he hopes all Christians will pray the Rosary especially during the month of October. He called for them to pray the Rosary "with the particular intention that wars may cease and that peace may be established among peoples in conflict." Pope Leo said: "Let us accompany this prayer with concrete acts of penance and mercy, committing ourselves always to fostering dialogue and reconciliation".

Make Jesus Christ known and loved, authentically, passionately, again and again."

Today's Gospel contains a simple message: "the kingdom of God will be given to a people who will produce its fruit." These are certainly need many gifts in our church today. Saint John Henry Newman, who will be proclaimed a Doctor of the Church by Pope Leo on All saints Day November 1st, wrote a famous poem called Lead Kindly Light:

"Lead, Kindly Light, amid the encircling gloom, lead Thou me on. The night is dark, and I am far from home. Lead Thou me on. Keep Thou my feet, I do not ask to see the distant scene, one step enough for me".

At times in our lives when the way ahead on our journey of faith can seem to be unclear, these words of Newman may be a source of inspiration and encouragement. Certainly, in our church today, at a time much change and the headwinds of society often against us, it helpful to realise that many good Christian people had these challenges before us and prevailed to a lesser or greater extent. It is at times like this that we can echo the words of the apostles to "increase our faith." And the best way to increase our faith may be to allow additional time in the presence of God. This may be few minutes of quiet prayer at the beginning or end of the day or perhaps to attend mass whether in person or online depending on our circumstances. It may also be possible for us to enjoy an autumn walk and to appreciate the beautiful colours of this time of the year. The poet John Keats described autumn as the "season of mists and mellow fruitfulness". Autumn is the time for the harvest, the gathering of crops into barns as preparations are made for the coming winter. In some churches there is a celebration of the harvest festival as we thank God for the gift of the food that we eat. Speaking in Lourdes last week Pope Leo said: "To renew hope and give fresh impetus to the church's mission in France, which I earnestly desire, there is only one 'road map,' which is always the same: to make Jesus Christ known and loved, authentically, passionately, again and again." He added: "The church has every right to be heard in the public square. By its nature, it possesses a prophetic authority. Even if it is not always understood, her voice is nonetheless needed." Finally, these words of Pope Leo resonate with me as we are currently assisting six adults who are part of our Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) programme: "I too believe that the time is ripe for many in our society who are waiting to hear the hope-filled message of the Gospel and see the light of the risen Christ shine before their eyes." Let us all reflect on how best we can increase our own faith in the circumstances of our own lives. This is a good time to look forward to a future that is certainly going to involve creative thinking and innovative ideas. When I think of previous generations in our parish, I can say that what distinguished them was there faith and hope in the Risen Lord. Let us ask them all to inspire us from their place in the house of the Father as we step into their shoes and rise to face the challenges of our times.

Parish Partnership name

Throughout the diocese parishes are being called to come together in new forms. Grouping, cluster, amalgamation of parishes are the way ahead for the diocese that is reduced in priests to service local areas. We are privileged that the parish of Saggart, Rathcoole, Brittas and the parish of Newcastle have been working together for many years. A shared Parish Pastoral Council and Finance Committee has been in place for a number of years showing a shared interest and cooperation between the 'four districts'. We have been invited to discern a common name that has a resonance throughout the area. A number of matters are considered to be significant in relation to parish partnership patron names.

Generally, a parish partnership name should:

1. have a unifying character, avoiding the name of any one parish/church in the partnership;
2. be appropriate to the partnership mission or connect with a tradition of faith in the area e.g. a local saint's name or the name of a local monastery or well;
3. be discerned appropriately by people of all of the parishes in the partnership;
4. not be already in use by another parish partnership in the Archdiocese.

One suggestion raised recently was "Mo Sacra" a saint from the 7th century who set up a monastery in what is currently Saggart cemetery. St Brigid's Well in Rathcoole, St. Finian's Well in Newcastle are other names.

Have you any thoughts or suggestions on a name that could be used.

Newman University Church

Our annual Newman Lecture will be Thursday, 5th November, at 7pm in Newman University Church. Father Murray is an Irish Dominican, theologian, and poet from County Down. Author of many books, before retirement he taught the literature of the mystical tradition at the Angelicum University in Rome.

Saint John Henry Newman's (the founder and builder of University Church) feast day is the 9th of October. One way we will be celebrating as a parish community is praying a novena for the 9 days preceding his feast. You can pick up a card with the novena prayer in church.

Saint John Henry Newman's feast day is the 9th of October but we will celebrate as a church community on the 11th of October. Join us for either Mass that Sunday as we sing hymns inspired by his writings and tea & biscuits following Mass! All are welcome.
