Family Mass

We plan to continue the Family Mass on the last Sunday of each month. A few of our younger readers and Eucharistic Ministers have now moved away to third-level education or to jobs elsewhere. So, we need new young volunteers to read or to do the Offertory procession etc. Anyone interested, please come and give your details to any PPC member or to the Parish Office.

The Revived Assisted-Suicide Bill

The revived assisted suicide Bill brought back by Lauren Edwards MP faces its second reading on Friday 11th September. The vote on this date can be won. Several MPs have already expressed reservations about bringing it back or forcing it through Parliament. The Prime Minister has now said the debate should wait until palliative and social care are properly funded. MPs from Northern Ireland will have the opportunity to vote on this Bill. If assisted suicide is legalised in England and Wales, this would again put pressure on NI to follow suit. One of the most effective
