First Holy Communion: At this weekend's Masses in Bohola and Straide, we have a very special welcome for the children who will receive their First Holy Communion next May. We also welcome their parents, grandparents and other family members. They begin this significant journey with their Enrolment Mass as they commit to the 'Grow in Love' programme where home, school and parish work together to help them grow in faith and deepen their relationship with God. May God bless them in the months ahead.

Straide Rosary for Peace continues before the 11am Mass on each Sunday of October, beginning at 10.40am.

This Sunday is World Mission Sunday: The theme for this year's celebration of Mission Sunday is: "One in Christ, United in Mission". World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. Mission Sunday collections are held in every single parish where the Church is present. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church plays their part in supporting each other.
All offerings and donations made for World Mission Sunday become part of the Holy Father's Universal Solidarity Fund. This fund is a lifeline for struggling missionaries and the communities they serve across Africa, Asia and Latin America, where over 1,100 mission dioceses are found. As these dioceses form and grow, so do their needs. On top of this, mission dioceses are often in remote areas devastated by war and natural disasters, or where suppressed communities are just opening up to the life-saving message of Jesus Christ. This is why World Mission Sunday is so important. It offers young dioceses the financial and spiritual assistance they need to help their men, women, and children to survive and thrive. To donate, use the envelope in your offertory collection box, the special envelopes available in church or donate through the missio.ie website.

Straide Harvest Mass of Thanksgiving: Sincere thanks to the Pastoral Council and to all who helped organise, and make all the preparations for last Sunday's Harvest Mass. Thanks also to all who participated – choir, the children who brought up gifts, led the prayers and served, readers and Communion Minister – and made it such a prayerful celebration. Special thanks also to those who provided and donated the goodies to go with the welcome cup/s of tea and coffee in the Parochial House afterwards.

We remember especially missionaries and Christian communities who witness with courage amid poverty, conflict, isolation and persecution. Our prayer and generosity help sustain local churches, form catechists and seminarians, support schools and clinics, and bring practical care to people in need.

PRAY for Catrrina Houlihan, 14 Sliabh Cairn, whose funeral took place this Saturday.

29th SUNDAY: World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. It always falls on the second last Sunday in October, and like the Good Friday collection for the Holy Land and Peter's Pence, it is one of three yearly universal Church collections. World Mission Sunday collections take place in every single parish where the Church is present including in poorer parishes in developing countries. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church family, regardless of location or background, play their part in supporting each other. This is what makes it such a special celebration. All offerings and donations made become part of the Holy Father's Universal Solidarity Fund. This fund is a lifeline for struggling missionaries and the communities they serve across Africa, Asia and Latin America, where over 1,100 mission dioceses are found. As these dioceses form and grow, so do their needs. On top of this, mission dioceses are often in remote areas devastated by war and natural disasters, or where suppressed communities are just opening up to the life-saving message of Jesus Christ. This is why World Mission Sunday is so important. It offers young dioceses the financial and spiritual assistance they need to help their men, women, and children to survive and thrive.

THU 22: St John Paul 11 was Pope for over twenty-six years, from 22 October 1978 until his death on 2 April 2005. Ordained bishop of Krakow in 1958, he took a significant part in the Second Vatican Council. CHILDREN'S CORNER: (Loyola Press) Do you cheer a favourite sports team? The question the religious leaders asked Jesus was whether the Israelites should or should not pay taxes to Caesar (the ruler of Rome who controls Israel). A trick question wanting to force Jesus to pick a team: Was Jesus cheering for Rome or the Israelites? Read today's Gospel Mt 22: 15 – 21. Jesus points out that Caesar's image and name are on the money and says "Give to Caesar what is Caesar's and give to God what is God's." In other words, Jesus was telling the Pharisees that the image they wear is the team they are on – and the image we all wear is the image of God. The Pharisees tried to stop Jesus because they forgot what team they were actually on. We learn from Jesus what it means to be on God's team, we learn how to share with others the same love, forgiveness, and healing that Jesus offered to those around him. The more we do those same things as Jesus did, the more we help others know they belong to God's team, too. Dear God, Thank you for Jesus, who reminds us that each of us belong to you and then shows us how to share your love with others. Thank you and Amen

FAMILY PRAYER TIME: (Loyola Press) As your family gathers, make a list of the activities that your family spends time doing together, such as household tasks, jobs, academics, and recreational activities. Talk about the importance of each of these activities and what would happen if there were an imbalance by spending too much time on one activity at the expense of another. In today's Gospel Jesus speaks of the necessity of giving things their proper importance. Read Matt 22:15-21. The Herodians and Pharisees were giving too much importance to the issue of the payment of taxes. Jesus says to them that loving and honouring God is of greater importance. In family life we do many important things, but we remember that God is of the greatest importance in our lives. Pray that your family will learn to keep things in proper perspective, remembering to keep God first in your lives. Pray together today's psalm, Psalm 95.

MISSION MONTH: WORLD MISSION SUNDAY- OUR MISSION: Send me, Lord, out into the world that begins at my front door. May my every word flow from your heart and my actions be of love and peace that everything I do or say reflects your great mercy to all. Help me witness to your truth no less in my silence than in my words and show me, Lord, the way I should go. Help me to see that my solemn duty to spread your gospel to everyone in the world is second only to their right to hear and respond to it. Open my eyes to your presence in others and my ears to recognise your voice especially in the poor and oppressed. Amen. (Fr Joe Veneroso MM)

This Sunday is World Mission Sunday: The theme for this year's celebration of Mission Sunday is: "One in Christ, United in Mission". World Mission Sunday is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life-giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. Mission Sunday collections are held in every single parish where the Church is present. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church plays their part in supporting each other.
All offerings and donations made for World Mission Sunday become part of the Holy Father's Universal Solidarity Fund. This fund is a lifeline for struggling missionaries and the communities they serve across Africa, Asia and Latin America, where over 1,100 mission dioceses are found. As these dioceses form and grow, so do their needs. On top of this, mission dioceses are often in remote areas devastated by war and natural disasters, or where suppressed communities are just opening up to the life-saving message of Jesus Christ. This is why World Mission Sunday is so important. It offers young dioceses the financial and spiritual assistance they need to help their men, women, and children to survive and thrive. To donate, use the envelope in your offertory collection box, the special envelopes available in church or donate through the missio.ie website.

Straide Harvest Mass of Thanksgiving: Sincere thanks to the Pastoral Council and to all who helped organise, and make all the preparations for last Sunday's Harvest Mass. Special thanks also to those who provided and donated the goodies to go with the welcome cup/s of tea and coffee in the Parochial House afterwards.

First reading

Isaiah 45:1,4-6

I have taken Cyrus by his right hand to subdue nations before him

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus,

whom he has taken by his right hand
to subdue nations before him
and strip the loins of kings,
to force gateways before him
that their gates be closed no more:

'It is for the sake of my servant Jacob,
of Israel my chosen one,
that I have called you by your name,
conferring a title though you do not know me.
I am the Lord, unrivalled;
there is no other God besides me.
Though you do not know me, I arm you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that, apart from me, all is nothing.'

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 95(96):1,3-5,7-10

Give the Lord glory and power.

O sing a new song to the Lord,
sing to the Lord all the earth.
Tell among the nations his glory
and his wonders among all the peoples.

Give the Lord glory and power.

The Lord is great and worthy of praise,
to be feared above all gods;
the gods of the heathens are naught.
It was the Lord who made the heavens,

Give the Lord glory and power.

Give the Lord, you families of peoples,
give the Lord glory and power;
give the Lord the glory of his name.
Bring an offering and enter his courts.

Give the Lord glory and power.

Worship the Lord in his temple.
O earth, tremble before him.
Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.'
He will judge the peoples in fairness.

Give the Lord glory and power.

Second reading

1 Thessalonians 1:1-5

We constantly remember your faith, your love and your hope

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ.

We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.

Gospel Acclamation

Jn17:17

Alleluia, alleluia!
Your word is truth, O Lord:
consecrate us in the truth.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 22:15-21

Give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. Tell us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius, and he said, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar – and to God what belongs to God.'

If your toddler won't sit still, please still come to church.

If your baby needs to eat, please still come to church.

If your child asks questions at the least convenient time, please still come to church.

If someone cries, drops a toy, needs a snack, or has to make their third trip to the bathroom, please still come to church.

If your child doesn't know all the words, all the prayers, or exactly when to sit and stand, please still come to church

If you feel like you spent the entire mass managing your children and heard approximately 12% of the sermon, please still come to church.

If Sunday morning feels messy instead of peaceful, please still come to church

If you're worried about, if you're worried your children are distracting the people around you, please still come to church.

Because children do not learn how to be part of the church by staying home until they can sit quietly.

They learn by being here.

They learn the singing by hearing us sing.

They learn the prayers by hearing us pray.

They learn to worship by watching us worship.

They learn that church is home because we make room for them here.

The wiggles, whispers, dropped crayons, crying babies, and little voices are not interruptions to the life of the church.

They are evidence that the church is alive.

So bring the babies, bring the toddlers, bring the big kids, come late, sit at the back, sit in the front, step out where you need to. and come right back in.

Just come.

Children are not simply the future of the church, they are part of the church right now. If we don't make room for the next generation in the church, we risk becoming a generation that leaves behind empty churches. The children in our pews today are the church leaders, worshippers, and servants of tomorrow.

And in our parish churches, there is a place for everyone.

Synod

What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time? Since 2021, people across Ireland have listened, prayed, and shared their hopes for the Church. From these voices seven priorities emerged: Belonging. Healing, Shared Responsibility, Family, Faith Formation, the role of Women, and Young People. These priorities come from YOU, the people of God in Ireland. Discover more in "Baptised and Sent". Discover more at www.synod.ie

The Catholic Steps

Introducing The Catholic Steps (www.catholicsteps.com) — a free online fellowship for Catholics who are working through a twelve-step program rooted in the sacraments. The site offers a structured workspace where members work through all twelve steps with reflection questions drawn from Scripture and Catholic tradition. Each member is paired with a sponsor — a fellow Catholic who has completed the steps — who guides them privately through the process. Members can also connect with a daily prayer wall and access resources. It is open to any Catholic who recognises an attachment — whether to a substance, a behaviour, or a pattern of thought — that is keeping them from God. It offers a structured, sacramentally grounded path for parishioners who need more than a weekly meeting but are not yet ready for formal counselling.

Tubbercurry Cloonacool parish bulletin

A PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

Lord, watch over our parish, encouraging us to watch with one another as we seek to know your will.
Make us gentle in word,
kind in spirit,
strong in hope
and guide us,
ever gently
along that road of peace
that leads to your door;
a door that will always open
to the knock of faithful people.
Amen.

TO SING IS TO PRAY TWICE ……

It's an old saying but a true one! We all love to hear people sing as it is a sign that there is joy in the room and room in the heart to share that joy.

At parish level, we try as best we can to include music and song in our celebrations. Thankfully, people join in that singing and we are lucky to have that. We are also lucky to have choirs in both our churches. Sincere and repeated thanks to all who are involved.

There is always room for new members and, with that in mind, if you have a song in you, a tune in you, would you consider volunteering to be a member of the choir?

We will talk about this in more detail but it would be wonderful to have some additional members to accompany those who lead us in music and song, especially in the Senior Choir in Tubbercurry. We made an effort last year to develop a Youth Choir and, though we had some interest, it did not quite work out last year. That is not to say, there isn't this year!

Sing …. Pray twice!
