Collection

Last weeks' Offertory Collection came to €1107. Thank you for your gift to God and His Church.

In the film adaption of the Narnia: The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe from the novels of CS Lewis, one of most insightful and thought provoking scenes for me, at least, is when Aslan, the lion speaks to Edmund, one of the children about his transgression. Edmund has betrayed his family by following a wicked witch. When he does come back to his family, we see Aslan, the majestic guardian of Narnia speak to Edmund but at a distance. We do not know what is being said, the matter is being dealt with quietly as it should be, minimising the embarrassment of the offender, who in this case is very much aware of his transgression and shame.

The Gospel today puts the responsibility on the offended party, on us, to go speak to those who have wronged us, to speak to them quietly, to point out how they have sinned against us, to offer them forgiveness and hence to put them back on the path to God. Before we decide to do this we must be clear in our intentions and be sure of whose needs we are filling – it cannot be our goal to cause embarrassment or to seek revenge. God calls us to put our needs to one side in this case and to seek redemption for our brother who has turned himself away from God's grace.

Jesus provides steps for doing this. After quietly speaking to your brother, if he will not listen bring witnesses who may convince him. This reminds us that if we are unsuccessful in our attempts we should not give up. If we have been unsuccessful in our attempts are there others who can help – again being mindful of whose needs need to be filled. Matthew closes this passage reassuringly telling us forgiveness belongs to that person where it has been agreed upon by others.

I am there among them. Matt 18:20*

Anxiety

*Lord, I am anxious about my future.
But your love will support me.
Do not disappoint me.*

Prayers of the Angel

"My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You! I ask pardon of You for all those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You!"

"Most Holy Trinity; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."

Thoughts on the Readings for the 19th Sunday August 16th 2026

Today in the Gospel, we have a continuation of last week's story about the feeding of thousands of people by Jesus in the desert. Immediately after the event, we are told that Jesus: ...made the disciples get into a boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. Was there reluctance on their part to go? Certainly there is the implication that the disciples were not too willing to leave the scene. They were enjoying the reflected glory of being part of Jesus' 'miracle' and the enthusiasm of the crowds for Jesus, 'their' Jesus. They were basking in the reputation of being partners with Jesus. Yet, it won't be very long before they will be hiding, even denying under oath, ever having had connection with him. Jesus himself, after having dismissed the crowds: ...went up the mountain by himself to pray. In John's version of this story he tells us that the people, after being fed by Jesus, actually wanted to make him their king. They, like the disciples, have totally missed the meaning of what has happened. Here indeed was a real source of temptation. Jesus could easily have convinced himself that here was a golden opportunity to get control of the crowds and 'save' them. They were so ready to follow him—it seemed. The world was at his feet. There is an echo here of one of the temptations in the desert after his baptism: ...the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their glory, and he said to him, "All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me."

Prayer for the love of Creation

Creator God,
 You show us what love is through the beauty of the earth
 and the gift of your Son.

For the love of animal and plant
 mountain and forest
 sea and city
 woman and man
 friend and family
 those who live far from us
 and those yet to be born.

Move us to live more simply,
 to protect the earth
 and to speak up for those in need.
 Amen.

 ensures we do not find the day has passed us by
 before we have fully lived it,
