ALL SAINTS' SUNDAY: On this beautiful Feast of All Saints, we give thanks to God for the countless men and women who have faithfully followed Christ and now share in the glory of heaven. Some are well-known saints whom the Church honours publicly; many others are ordinary people whose holiness was lived quietly in daily acts of faith, hope, and love.

The saints remind us that holiness is not reserved for a select few. Through baptism, each of us is called to become a saint and to reflect God's love in our families, workplaces, schools, and communities. Their lives encourage us to persevere in prayer, trust in God's mercy, and remain faithful in times of joy and difficulty.

As we celebrate this feast, let us thank God for the saints who inspire us and remember with gratitude those holy people who have influenced our lives and helped us grow in faith. May their example guide us on our own journey towards the fullness of life with God.

ALTAR LIST OF THE DEAD: The Altar List of the Dead is ready at the back of the Church. During the month of November at all the masses in the parish we remember those who have died. If you fill out the names of your deceased relatives and friends, these will be placed in the Sanctuary of the altar during the month of November. We will also continue to remember them in the coming year, especially at Mass on the first Fridays of the month.

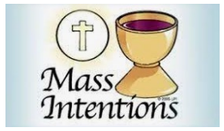

WEEKLY ENVELOPES: You can make a weekly contribution using the envelopes available at the back of the church or by scanning the QR code in the newsletter with your phone's camera. Envelopes may be placed in the porch safe or handed in at the parish office. If you contribute €250 or more a year, the parish can claim a tax rebate, which provides valuable additional support.

HOLY HOUR: Every Thursday evening in our parish at 7.00 pm: We have an hour of Eucharistic Adoration animated by Fr Marian or Fr Michel with guitar and music.

BUILDING AND MAINTENANCE (B&M) ENVELOPES: The B & M envelopes are available at the back of the Church for distribution, and we are looking for volunteers. If your name or the name of someone else is missing in the boxes, please contact the parish office at 8474123 as we are updating our list.

NOVEMBER – WHY BOTHER HAVING A FUNERAL MASS? WHY NOT JUST GO STRAIGHT TO THE CEMETERY AND LEAVE OUT THE FUNERAL MASS?

In times gone by every Catholic who died automatically came to the Church for their funeral. In the recent times some families bypass the Church and do not bring their dead to the Church for the Requiem or Funeral Mass. Instead they go straight to the cemetery or Crematorium. In doing so they leave Jesus out. They forget that we are not merely individuals, we are part of a community of friends of Jesus called the Church. It is sad to see people who loved the Mass and came to Mass regularly not being brought to the church and giving their friends and fellow Christians in the parish a chance to mark their passing with the greatest gift God has given us, the Mass.

WHY IS IT IMPORTANT TO HAVE A FUNERAL MASS?

Every Catholic is baptized into God's Holy Trinity, uniting themselves with Jesus and His Church. We are baptized into the Death and Resurrection of Jesus from the dead because Jesus has conquered death and opened for us the way to eternal life. So it does not make sense to leave Jesus out of the equation. Jesus is the whole reason for Baptism, and especially for the Mass. We expect to meet Jesus when we die. The funeral Mass is the heart of our funeral – Jesus gave us the Mass at the Last Supper just before He died on the Cross. The Mass only makes sense because Jesus conquered death and evil by rising from the dead on Easter Sunday. Remember the acclamation at the Solemn consecration of the Mass "Christ has died, Christ is risen, Christ will come again". In the funeral Mass we offer our dead to the Father as Jesus did for us on the Cross. The funeral Mass asks God to admit the dead Catholic to the Paschal fullness of the table of the Kingdom.

Through Baptism we become part of God's family – the parish community. It is by the Mass and Holy Communion that the community of the faithful, especially the family of the deceased, learn to live in communion with the one who "has fallen asleep in the Lord," by communicating in the Body of Christ of which he is a living member and, then, by praying for him and with him.

For Christians to forget about the church funeral for the dead is to leave out the main player, Jesus Christ, who is our Saviour. The greatest act of love you can do for your loved one who dies is to give them the gift of a Catholic Funeral with the complete rites of the Church in accord with God's wish for each and every member of His Church when they die.

1st November 2026

All Saint. 'The ultimate object of veneration of the Saints is the glory of God and the sanctification of man by conforming one's life fully to the divine will and by imitating the virtue of those who were pre-eminent disciples of the Lord. Catechises and other forms of doctrinal instruction should therefore make known to the faithful that our relationship with the Saints must be seen in the light of the faith and should not obscure the "cultus latriae due to God the Father through Christ in the Holy Spirit, but intensify it"

Christ be near at either hand,

Christ with me where e'er I go,

Christ be in my heart and mind,
Christ within my soul enshrined,
Christ control my wayward heart; Christ abide and ne'er depart.

Christ my life and only way,

Christ my lantern night and day;
Christ be my unchanging friend,
Guide and shepherd to the end.

Recessional Hymn

Here I am Lord

I, the Lord of sea and sky,

I have heard my people cry,

All who dwell in dark and sin, my hand will save.

I who made the stars of night, I will make their darkness bright.

Who will bear my light to them? Whom shall I send?

Here I am Lord, is it I Lord. I have heard you calling in the night. I will go Lord, if you lead me. I will hold your people in my heart.

I the Lord of wind and flame. I will tend the poor and lame. I will set a feast for them. My hand will save. Finest bread I will provide, till their hearts be satisfied. I will live my life to them Whom shall I send? R

All Saints' Day[a] honours of all the saints of the Church.[7][8][9][10] In the 9th century, the Catholic Church set the date of November 1st for the commemoration of all saints.[11] All Saints' Day is a solemnity in Catholicism In the Western Christian practice, the liturgical celebration begins with its first vespers on the evening of October 31, All Hallows' Eve (All Saints' Eve or Hallowe'en), and ends at the compline of November 1. It is thus the day before All Souls' Day, which commemorates the faithful departed. In many traditions, All Saints' Day is part of the season of Allhallowtide, which includes the three days from October 31 to November 3 inclusive, In places where All Saints' Day is observed as a public holiday, cemetery and grave rituals such as offerings of flowers, candles and prayers or blessings for the graves of loved ones often take place on All Saints' Day (along with other days of Allsaintstide, especially on All Hallows Eve and All Souls Day).[18][19][20][21][22] The ceremonial use of candles symbolize the light of Christ and the use of lamps at the tombs of martyrs dates back to the early Christian period.

All Souls' Day, observed on November 2, is a significant day in the Catholic Church dedicated to remembering and praying for all the faithful departed, particularly those souls in purgatory. It is closely linked to the belief in the afterlife and the Church's doctrine on purgatory, emphasizing the mercy of God and the necessity of prayers for those undergoing purification before entering heaven.

Feast of All Saints

Today, the Feast of All Saints, we thank God for the countless people who in many different walks of life and countries across the world and across the centuries have consciously tried to live in accordance with the Gospel values of Jesus. In many ways today is a celebration of our faith that death is not the end, that Jesus, through his death and resurrection, has opened up an exciting new future for us.

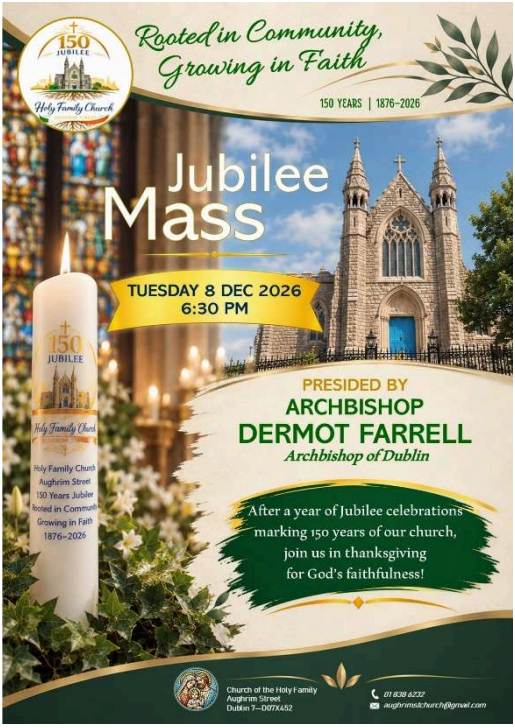

Children are invited to come dressed as their favourite saint. All welcome on 1 November at 10:30am

Let us embrace the good news of the mercy and love of God for each of us, a love which is faithful and constant, a love we cannot lose, a love beyond our imagining, an invitation to embrace and surrender to it. It is also an opportunity to thank God for some extraordinary human beings who have lived their giftedness fully and benefitted others greatly, some of whom we have known personally.

You are invited to join us for our community celebrations

All Souls' Day, 2 November, commemorates and prays for the souls of baptized Christians who have died. Throughout the month of November we remember family and friends who have returned home to heaven. We also pray for those who have no one to pray for them.

Please return your November List of the Dead to the Parish Office, as we pray that God will give eternal rest to all those who have died.

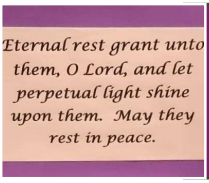

You are also invited to add the names of your ancestors from this parish who died in the last 150 years. These names will be included in the Mass of Remembrance on 7 November.

Please let your friends know about these and all our remaining Jubilee events. Everyone is welcome

All Saints Day - A

Pastors Desk

Today, November 1st, the feast of All Saints is a distinctive day in our Catholic list of feast days. The Church has a very precise process, called canonisation through which it feels confident to say that somebody has lived a life in tune with the will of God and has now reached the kingdom of heaven.

However the Church knows too that we can't limit the number of people who have reached eternal happiness in continuation of their holy Christian lives. They are people known to us – family, friends, colleagues and people like ourselves who have helped the thirsty, the hungry, those without clothes and shelter. The love of neighbour that, after our death leads to God's right hand. These were the gestures that carried weight with Jesus.

The feast of All Saints is a day of great hope and inspiration for us. As the Epistle to the Hebrews states "since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us." (Heb. 12:1)

Mass attendance

A holy elderly priest was once asked, "how many people attended the early morning Mass today"? He responded "There were three old ladies, the janitor, several thousand archangels, a large number of seraphim, and several million of the triumphant saints of God". But we always have room for one more! We should always keep in mind the great cloud of witnesses that surround us at every Mass.

So on this feast we remember the many good people gone before us whom we've met in life and without embarrassment pray to them to help us on our journey. May we join them one day in the communion of saints.

We will have our annual Mass for all those who died during the past year on Friday next 6th November at 7pm.

The families of those whose funeral Mass took place in our church during the year are most especially invited to attend this very special Mass to remember your loved ones.

Reflection on the Readings this Sunday 'Beloved: See what kind of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called children of God …' Today's feast is an occasion for great thanksgiving, honouring all the saints, who offer us memories and models of holiness. We, too, are called to holiness; to be saints. We can try to do this by following the message and example of Jesus, as shown in the Gospel. Jesus teaches the disciples God's law in a new way, summed up in the Beatitudes, are a map with of eight different paths. By following them, we align our lives with the heart of God and 'holiness'. The First Reading gives us a vision of heaven. Those who belong to the Lord are marked with a seal and kept safe, 'an innumerable number from every nation, from all tribes and peoples. In the Second Reading, John addresses us as 'beloved', reminding us that we are children of God. Although today's world may misunderstand God's Way, we are promised eternal life when we will see God as he is. The Psalmist sings of the created world and all dwelling in it. Those who seek the Lord's face with clean hands and a pure heart will receive his blessing. On this feast, let's pray for all those persecuted for their faith; for those suffering injustice; and for those affected by any form of violence

FROM DEACON DAMIAN MURRAY

Men and Women of the Beatitudes

This Sunday, we celebrate the Solemnity of All Saints, joining our hearts to the vast, uncountable multitude praised in the First Reading from the Apocalypse. In the light of the Church's timeless teaching on this great feast, we are reminded that All Saints' Day is not just a commemoration of historical figures, but a vibrant thanksgiving for the wonders God has accomplished in human history through ordinary lives.

We lift our eyes to heaven to honour not only the known, canonised saints, but also the anonymous, quiet saints: the mothers and fathers who built society through daily devotion to their families, the priests and religious who were consumed like candles in service, and the missionaries who left everything to bring Christ to the ends of the earth. This feast reminds us that holiness is a universal vocation—a beautiful, personal path that every baptised Christian is uniquely capable of walking.

The liturgy leads us up the Mount of the Beatitudes in the Gospel of Saint Matthew, where Jesus reveals the definitive blueprint for this journey. The Beatitudes are the "magna charta" of the Christian life. They turn worldly logic on its head, showing us that true happiness is found in meekness, purity of heart, mercy, and peacemaking. The saints are simply ordinary people who allowed themselves to become "men and women of the Beatitudes," allowing Christ's love to conquer human weakness.

As we enter into the Eucharistic prayer today, let us not be afraid to answer this call. Let us look to the saints as our older brothers and sisters who encourage us on our earthly pilgrimage.

TO PONDER THIS WEEK

The saints were ordinary people who let Christ's love conquer their weakness. Which Beatitude is Jesus inviting me to live out more fully this week?

The Word of the Lord

Readings for the Solemnity of All Saints

FIRST READING — Apocalypse 7:2-4,9-14

I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, 'Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.' Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel.

After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, 'Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words, 'Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.'

One of the elders then spoke, and asked me, 'Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from?' I answered him, 'You can tell me, my lord.' Then he said, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM — Psalm 23(24)

℟: Such are the men who seek your face, O Lord.

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness,
the world and all its peoples.
It is he who set it on the seas; on the waters he made it firm. ℟

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord? Who shall stand in his holy place? The man with clean hands and pure heart, who desires not worthless things. ℟

He shall receive blessings from the Lordand reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the men who seek him, seek the face of the God of Jacob. ℟

SECOND READING — 1 John 3:1-3

We shall be like God because we shall see him as he really is

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us.
My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is.
Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify himself, must try to be as pure as Christ.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened and I will give you rest, says the Lord.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL — Matthew 5:1-12a

How happy are the poor in spirit

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

How happy are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage.
Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied.
Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them.
Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God.
Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God.
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

PROFESSION OF FAITH — The Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth, and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried; he descended into hell; on the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of God the Father almighty; from there he will come to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

Prayer after Communion

As we adore you, O God, who alone are holy and wonderful in all your Saints, we implore your grace, so that, coming to perfect holiness in the fullness of your love, we may pass from this pilgrim table to the banquet of our heavenly homeland. Through Christ our Lord. Amen

November Altar List of the Dead.

The month of November gives us the opportunity to remember our dear departed when we enter their names on the Altar List of the Dead, so that they may be prayed for at all Masses during November and on the first Friday of each month for the coming year. If you wish to have the names of your loved ones inscribed on the list, there are envelopes at the back of the Church.

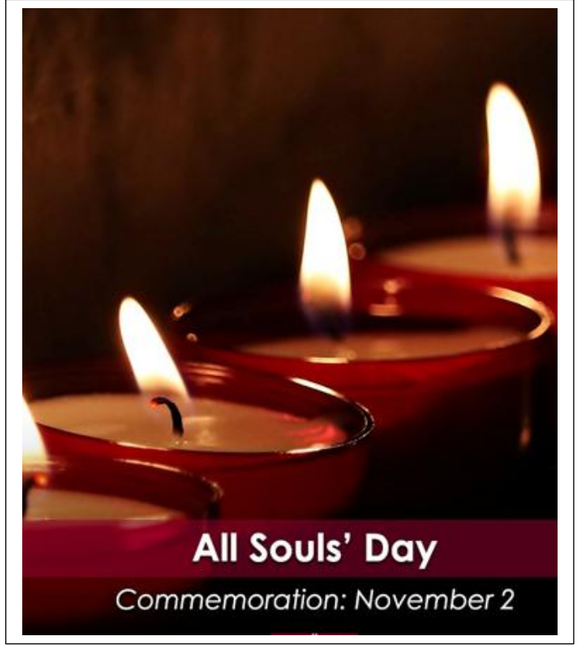

These can be returned in the collection baskets at Mass, or placed in the safe, or to the Parish Office. Contributions and donations for the November List of the Dead go directly to support your local parish clergy when they offer prayers and Masses.
We ask you to be as generous as possible in your contributions.

On All Saints' Day, the Church commemorates the communion of saints in a special way. The commemoration of All Saints' Day stems from a belief that there is a powerful spiritual bond between those in heaven, and the living. All Saints' Day celebrated the saints of the Church, both those that are well-known and those unknown. The day has been celebrated in some capacity since at least the 4th century.

On the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed or All Souls' Day, we pray for all those who have died. The month of November, especially All Saints Day and All Souls' Day, is a traditional time for visiting the graves of loved ones. We are called in a special way to pray for the souls of all the faithfully departed on this day. "O Lord, support us all the day long, until the shadows lengthen, and the evening comes, and the busy world is hushed, and the fever of life is over, and our work is done. Then in your mercy, grant us a safe lodging, and a holy rest, and peace at the last." - John Henry Newman Children's Corner; What do you remember from this weeks Gospel? Jesus tells us what kind of person he'd like us to be. He would like us to be kind and loving. Who do you know who lives like Jesus? Maybe people in your family or someone well known?

An Amazing week for Saints

All Saints – Sunday 1st Nov This Feast Day celebrates all those who are in Heaven, in the light of God's face – both those recognised by the Church as saints and those known only to the Lord. We ask for their intercession as we strive to follow their example, so that we too can fulfil our vocation to be saints.
All Souls Day - Monday 2nd November - The Church in it's pilgrim members, from the very earliest days of the Christian religion, has honoured with great respect the memory of the dead; and because it is a holy and a wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins.
St Malachy - 3rd November - he was born near Armagh in 1904. He founded the monastery of Mellifont, the first Cistercian house in Ireland.
St Martin de Porres - 5th November - became a Dominican lay brother, spending his nights in prayer and penance.
All the Saints of Ireland - 6th November - In their rich diversity they are refractions of the one pure light of the Holy Spirit.

Norms for Indulgences at the Commemoration of All Souls

1. From 12 o'clock noon on 1st November until midnight on 2nd November, all who have confessed, received Holy Communion and prayed for the Pope's intentions (one Our Father and Hail Mary, or any other prayer of one's choice) can gain one Plenary Indulgence by visiting a church or oratory, and there reciting one Our Father and the Apostles' Creed.
This indulgence is applicable only to the souls of the departed.
Confession may be made at any time within the week preceding or the week following 1st November. Holy Communion may be received on any day from 1st November to 8th November.
2. The faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a Plenary Indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls on the usual conditions once per day from 1st to 8th November. The conditions mentioned above apply also for this.

In November each year we take the opportunity, on Share Appeal Sunday,6/7 November, to remind ourselves about the second collection taken up at weekend Masses throughout the year. Share, the diocesan development fund, depends on the generosity of parishioners. It reflects, practically, our mission, service and solidarity, responding to needs felt in parishes across the Archdiocese.

Sunday 1st November – All Saints

Solemnity of All Saints – 1st November This is the great feast of those who have preceded us to our heavenly home. They accompany us on our earthly pilgrimage and encourage us forwards in the ways of faith, hope and love to join them in God the Father's house. Masses in our parish Church for this Solemnity will be celebrated on Saturday 31st October at 6pm and Sunday 1st November at 10am and 12 noon.

All Souls Day, Monday 2nd November Our annual Day of Prayer for the souls of all the faithful departed. Indulgences for the Faithful Departed: on All Souls' Day, we can help our beloved dead by our prayers. A plenary indulgence, applicable to the Holy Souls, is granted to those who visit any parish church or public oratory on 2nd November and there recite the Our Father and the Creed once. Every day from 1st to 8th November inclusive, a plenary indulgence, again applicable to the Holy Souls, is granted to those who visit a cemetery and pray for the departed. It would be lovely if even you go there and simply pray: "Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them and may they rest in peace. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen."

Share Appeal Sunday takes place next weekend, 7th and 8th November, highlighting the important work funded by you through this weekly collection in our Diocese. The 2026 Share Newsletter is available at www.dublindiocese.ie/wp-ontent/uploads/2026/10/Share2026Newsletter.pdf

MASS COUNT 2026

As promised, we publish this weekend the results of the recent Mass Count taken at the request of the Archdiocese. There was no substantial change from previous years. Our numbers continue to fluctuate depending on many factors, the weather, the amount of people coming to remember loved ones for Anniversaries, Months Minds,timing, and other variants. It is thus difficult enough to get a real appraisal of how many are coming to Mass on a regular basis. The highest number present for an individual Mass was 342, the lowest 94. The average Mass goers over the three weekends totalled 693. Our Church holds over 1,500 people. We are also conscious of our online community.

Many parishes in the Diocese have reduced their number of Masses in the last number of years. As mentioned before it is getting harder to get Mass cover when a priest is ill or away. We also have to keep in mind that the traditional individual parish is a thing of the past-we are all part of 'partnerships of parishes' and more is being asked of an aging priesthood. What we need to think about is not only the amount of Masses, but the quality of the Liturgies that are celebrated? Do we need four weekend Masses taking into account the above numbers? Are the times of the Masses suitable? Should we have an earlier Vigil Mass especially in the darker winter months? I welcome your counsel and suggestions. Fr Michael P.P.

I watch the sunrise lighting the sky, Casting its shadows near.

And on this morning bright though it be, I feel those shadows near me.

But you are always close to me Following all my ways.

May I be always close to you Following all your ways, Lord.

I watch the sunset fading away, Lighting the clouds with sleep. And as the evening closes its eyes, I feel your presence near me.

For you are always close to me Following all my ways. May I be always close to you Following all your ways, Lord.

The Our Father: "Dare We Call God Father"

What is Happening

After the Eucharistic Prayer, the priest introduces the Our Father with a striking phrase we dare to say... dare is ancient and deliberate. Calling the Creator of the universe "Our Father" is an audacity made possible only by Christ, who invited us into his own filial relationship with God

The Our Father sits here at Mass with perfect logic. We have offered, consecrated, and given thanks. Now, immediately before receiving Communion, we pray as a family — because that is what we are about to demonstrate at the altar rail: one Body, one family, one table.

How We Should Respond Pray it slowly. These are Christ's own words, given to us as a gift when the disciples asked him how to pray. Every line repays a lifetime of reflection - thy kingdom come, forgive us as we forgive, deliver us from evil. None of it is casual. Notice too that every petition is plural. Not my daily bread - our daily bread. The Our Father cannot be prayed selfishly.

Living This at Mass. This Sunday, pray the Our Father at Mass as though for the first time. Let one petition land differently than it usually does.

All Saints' Day Prayer. Dear holy saints of God, we join our prayers of praise to yours this day. With you, we sing of God's goodness, rejoice in God's mercy, and celebrate God's incredible love. Teach us to live as you lived – always thinking of others, always recognizing your weaknesses, always rejoicing in God's gifts, always following Jesus. Blessed are you, happy are you, all holy saints of God. Pray for us that we, too, may someday be among God's holy ones. Amen

Parish Mission Statement

We, as members of St Benedict's & St Monica's Parishes, strive to be a community united in our Catholic Faith, and strengthened by prayer, worship and service. We accept our call to live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ, working to serve all with justice, peace and love, in the name of one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit

Pastors Desk All Saints

Today, November 1st, the feast of All Saints is a distinctive day in our Catholic list of feast days. The Church has a very precise process, called canonisation through which it feels confident to say that somebody has lived a life in tune with the will of God and has now reached the kingdom of heaven.

However, the Church knows too that we can't limit the number of people who have reached eternal happiness in continuation of their holy Christian lives. They are people known to us – family, friends, colleagues and people like ourselves who have helped the thirsty, the hungry, those without clothes and shelter. The love of neighbour that, after our death leads to God's right hand. These were the gestures that carried weight with Jesus.

The feast of All Saints is a day of great hope and inspiration for us. As the Epistle to the Hebrews states "since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us rid ourselves of every burden and sin that clings to us and persevere in running the race that lies before us." (Heb. 12:1)

Mass attendance A holy elderly priest was once asked, "how many people attended the early morning Mass today"? He responded, "There were three old ladies, the janitor, several thousand archangels, a large number of seraphim, and several million of the triumphant saints of God". But we always have room for one more! We should always keep in mind the great cloud of witnesses that surround us at every Mass. So, on this feast we remember the many good people gone before us whom we've met in life and without embarrassment pray to them to help us on our journey.

May we join them one day in the communion of saints.

GRACE
by Hafiz (1325–1390)

Now is the time to know
That all that you do is sacred.

Now, why not consider
A lasting truce with yourself and God.
Now is the time to understand
That all your ideas of right and wrong
Were just a child's training wheels
To be laid aside

When you can finally live
With veracity
And love.
Hafiz is a divine envoy
Whom the Beloved
Has written a holy message upon.
My dear, please tell me,
Why do you still
Throw sticks at your heart
And God?
What is it in that sweet voice inside
That incites you to fear?
Now is the time for the world to know
That every thought and action is sacred.

This is the time
For you to deeply compute the impossibility
That there is anything
But Grace.
Now is the season to know
That everything you do
Is sacred.

Feast of All Saints 1st November 2026

Thought for the day

In the Catholic Church November is traditionally known as the month of the holy souls. A time when we remember family and friends who have gone before us. The Church sets aside this month, beginning with All Saints' and All Souls' Days, to remember all the faithful departed.

Praying for the dead is a spiritual work of mercy as well as an act of love offered for them. It acknowledges our belief in Purgatory, a state of final purification for those who die in God's grace but are not yet perfectly cleansed. Our presence and our prayers, especially at Mass, assist souls on this journey towards the ultimate Christian vision of seeing God face to face where there is complete happiness and lasting peace.

Prayer

Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them. May their souls and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to the back of Church – Thank You.

DIOCESAN SHARE APPEAL
November 7th / 8th

This year's Share Appeal takes place on the weekend of November 7th/8th. Share is the Archdiocese's development fund, supporting parishes through financial assistance and practical services such as pastoral development, safeguarding, health and safety, and sustainability. It helps ensure that no parish is left behind and that communities can continue their mission effectively.

On this Share Appeal Sunday, we are invited to support this vital work through our generosity and ongoing commitment.

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Revelation 7:2-4,9-14 & Matthew 5:1-12a.

The Solemnity of All Saints invites us to lift our eyes beyond the struggles of daily life and remember the countless men and women who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith.

In the vision of the Book of Revelation, John beholds a vast multitude from every nation, race and language standing before the throne of God. They are ordinary people who remained faithful through trials and now share in the fullness of God's glory.

In the Gospel, Jesus presents the Beatitudes, a portrait of true holiness. The saints are not remembered because they were powerful, wealthy or successful by worldly standards. Rather, they were poor in spirit, merciful, peacemakers, and people who hungered for righteousness. They allowed God's grace to shape their lives.

This feast reminds us that holiness is not reserved for a select few. It is the calling of every Christian. As we honour the saints, we are encouraged to follow their example, trusting that God continues to lead us along the path that ends in the joy of heaven.

All You Need Is Love

First of all I want to say a sincere 'thank you' to all those who took the trouble this past week to respond to my invitation to share any suggestions you had with regard to the enhancing of our lives as a community here at Mount Argus. Let me assure you that all your suggestions are valued and are already forming part of our ongoing agenda in planning the way forward. Not surprisingly, there was considerable reference to things that were valued in the past, but because of covid, change of personnel, and other factors, were no longer in operation. Many of these were lay-led, and many related to helping people deepen their knowledge of their faith and their prayer life. Without in any way wishing to attempt to turn back the clock, as it were, there is still very much a need for such projects. It would be very much my hope that before Christmas – only two months away – we might have a general meeting to discuss the way forward.

As has been frequently pointed out in recent years, we cannot simply continue as if nothing has changed – either here, or in the wider church, or in the world in general. To take but a simple and obvious example – the vast majority of the liturgical celebrations in our church are led by men in their eighties. For the bulk of those celebrations we are attempting to light and heat an area that is less than one twentieth occupied – surely not in keeping with care for our planet. I, and I'm sure each of you, could list many other areas where present practise is not sustainable.

But I say all this, not in despair, but in the hope that we can muster together all the good will, all the talents, all the commitment that I know, without being in any way patronising, exist in our community – but we so often take for granted, and don't allow or encourage to flourish. And our gospel today is reminding us of the need to constantly be aware of the essentials at the heart of being a follower of Christ. It's that passage where again they are trying to catch Jesus out with what they think are tricky questions – this time it's "which is the greatest commandment of the law?" And you'll remember Jesus' reply – about loving God totally, and loving our neighbour as ourselves. "On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also."

And I think it's good to bring ourselves back to this passage frequently, especially at those times when we can easily get confused – what is the teaching of the Church about this or that; how do I apply the teaching of Christ to this situation? And the answer always is – Do the loving thing – are we showing our love for God, and for our neighbour, by behaving in this way? Jesus is reminding us that all He is asking of us is that we should do all those relatively routine and minor things in a loving and positive way. No need for us to do anything earth-shattering!

Our Parish

ALL SAINTS DAY-SUNDAY 1ST NOVEMBER 2026

All SAINTS OUR STRENGTH-By Sr. Niamh Galvin OP

"There appear to be many people who are not concerned about their souls, and indeed, how much thought do even those who believe give to life beyond this earthly existence? Yet the destiny of our souls matters: the peace we long for; the purpose, the meaningfulness and the 'why' of our existence, are fundamental. St. Paul asked; 'who can separate us from the love of God?'

During this month of November, in fact each day of our lives, we are invited to be saints; and the readings and prayers of the Mass for the Solemnity of All Saints, which is described as the 'festival of the Father's city, the heavenly Jerusalem' where the 'great array of our brothers and sisters already gives Him, eternal praise,' is filled with encouragement for us to strive after what we have been created for.

All saints are our strength for our pilgrim way: lights in these dark days of winter and sources of hope and confidence, interceding for us and praying that God will win our souls and unite us with them at last, where we will see Him as He really is.

From: Navan Road Community Council

Fingal Councillors approved the draft Dunsink Urban Plan, in a meeting which ran 4 days, with over 1,000 submissions from the public; with concerns of impact on surrounding areas, the environment and biodiversity. They approved reduction of density & heights, with a buffer area to remove it somewhat from established Finglas residential areas - resulting in a change from the proposed 17,500-18,400 units, to between 5,400 - 15,000. One Councilor's Motion was accepted, to prevent own-door & duplex homes from being sold in bulk to commercial investors. Extension of Luas to Tyrrelstown is part of the Draft, but NTA have indicated this is 'a post - 2042 project'. Uisce Éireann stated 'full development of Phases 2 & 3 of the draft will rely on delivery of WSP (Water supply project) and GDD (Greater Dublin Drainage) - noting that GDD has planning & could be operational by 2032, but WSP has no planning yet. The original draft showed 'gateway' Towers of 15+ storeys near the junction of Dunsink Lane and Ratoath Road. Concern was raised about heavy noisy construction traffic traversing surrounding roads over a number of years. The Council will take 3 weeks to decide if any changes made are legally, 'material' changes, if so, those changes will go back for public display and consultation.

"There is an unbroken chain of connection with our beloved dead, who continue to pray for us."

In November, we specially remember the faithful departed who have gone before us to God. It is often called the Month of the Holy Souls when we recall people we knew in this life and also those who may have no one to pray for them. Many people choose to commemorate their deceased family and friends by adding their names to the parish Altar List of the Dead. It's an important tradition to maintain every year as those whose names are on the Altar List of the Dead are remembered regularly at masses throughout the year. Our gospel today is the Beatitudes which can be described as a charter for Christian living which perfectly describe her life. Reading it today, it appears to be counter cultural as it turns many of today's values on their head. They go to the very centre of our lives as Christians and invite us to follow a way of life that may not come naturally to us. However, the very words that Jesus uses here "gentle", "merciful", "pure in heart", "peacemaker" are an appropriate description of Kay's good and generous life. Jesus also challenges us by referring to those who hunger and thirst for what is right". Pope Benedict tried to explain the meaning of life after death within the limitations of our language and understanding. I hope that their reflections below will offer some consolation especially to those amongst us who may have lost a friend or family member in the past year and are particularly feeling their absence around now. When speaking about the next life in 2012, Pope Benedict XVI said: "Death opens to life, to eternal life, which is not an infinite duplicate of the present time, but something completely new." In a beautiful reflection, Pope Benedict goes on to explain that: "Our hope, then, lies in the love of God that shines resplendent from the Cross of Christ who lets Jesus' words to the good thief: "Today you will be with me in Paradise" (Lk 23:43) resound in our heart."
Saint John Henry Newman in his poem "The Dream of Gerontius" describes the soul, approaching heaven, as it sees something of the divine vision: "A grand mysterious harmony: It floods me, like the deep and solemn sound of many waters." Pope John XXIII, now a Saint, was once asked if he prayed for the dead. He replied: "I often think of the departed, they keep me good company." There is an unbroken chain of connection with our beloved dead, who continue to pray for us in the presence of God, and ourselves as we continue to pray for them. We can be especially close to them during when we celebrate mass when our deceased relatives and friends are always remembered in the Eucharistic Prayer. May they rest in peace. Amen. Let us continue to pray for and remember our faithful departed during the month of November and be assured that they are praying for us as well. May we reflect on the lives of people who have inspired and helped us and are now enjoying the rewards of their goodness with the Risen Lord in heaven. Deacon Gerard.

Monday, 2nd November

Parish Partnership name

Throughout the diocese parishes are being called to come together in new forms. Grouping, cluster, amalgamation of parishes are the way ahead for the diocese that is reduced in priests to service local areas. We are privileged that the parish of Saggart, Rathcoole, Brittas and the parish of Newcastle have been working together for many years. A shared Parish Pastoral Council and Finance Committee has been in place for a number of years showing a shared interest and cooperation between the 'four districts'. We have been invited to discern a common name that has a resonance throughout the area.

One suggestion raised recently was "Mo Sacra" a saint from the 7th century who set up a monastery in what is currently Saggart cemetery. St Brigid's Well in Rathcoole, St. Finian's Well in Newcastle are other names. Have you any thoughts or suggestions on a name that could be used.
