NATIONAL SYNODAL ASSEMBLY
The Working Document for the Irish National Synodal Assembly, taking place in Gormanston, Co Meath, on 17th October, brings together the fruits of five years of prayer, listening and discernment and will guide delegates as they consider and vote on suggested actions to be presented to the bishops of Ireland. While the Assembly marks an important moment in the journey, the Synodal Pathway is now moving towards a new phase of implementation. Everyone is invited to read, pray with, and reflect on the Working Document and the question: "What does God want from the Church in Ireland at this time?" Please pray for all those taking part in the Assembly and for the guidance of the Holy Spirit, and scan the QR code to access the Working Document and find out more, and see

THE UNITED DIOCESES OF CORK, CLOYNE AND ROSS
Congratulations to Bishop Andrew Orr on his appointment as Bishop of Cork, Cloyne and Ross. We wish Bishop Andrew his wife Dean Susan Green and their family best wishes on this occasion.

PRAYER TO GOD OUR FATHER
God, our Father, we are brothers and sisters in Jesus your Son, one family in the spirit of your love. Bless us with the joy of love. Make us patient and kind, gentle and generous, welcoming of those in need. Help us to live your forgiveness and peace. Protect all families with your loving care, especially those for whom we now pray. Increase our faith, strengthen or hope, keep us safe in your love, make us always grateful for the gift of life that we share.
We ask this through Christ our Lord, Amen

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY 18 OCTOBER 2026

World Mission Sunday, which is celebrated on the 2nd last Sunday of October each year, is the one Sunday of the year when the entire global Church comes together in support of mission. It is the Holy Father's annual appeal for spiritual and financial support so that the life giving work of overseas mission and missionaries can continue. Mission Sunday collections will take place in every single parish where the Church is present. It is a moment of universal solidarity when each member of the Church family, regardless of location or background, plays their part in supporting each other.

In Ireland, Missio Sunday is co-ordinated by Missio Ireland (Pontifical Mission Societies). They are the Holy Father's official charity for overseas mission, his chosen instrument for sharing the Gospel and building the Church throughout the world. Through the generosity of parishioners and donors, they can reach out to offer aid to struggling communities, helping them to grow and thrive by bringing hope to places where there is often turmoil, poverty and uncertainty. They can provide mission dioceses with the essential support they need to become self sufficient. Working through the local bishops, churches and missionary congregations, they ensure resources are distributed equitably and justly, based on need.
We thank people for their great generosity and kindness.

Twenty Eighth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Thought for the Day

The landowner had prepared for a large crowd. When he sent his servants out to personally remind the guests to come, some of the servants were mistreated, beaten and even killed by his prospective guests! Quite naturally, the king was enraged.

What does this Sunday's Gospel say to us? I doubt that we have had the experience this story speaks of. However, we all have been disappointed and upset at various times in our lives.

We may have been deeply hurt by someone or betrayed by another. Our natural human response is to be angry, hurt and disappointed – and rightly so. Hopefully, we haven't decided to kill anyone because of that!

In these situations, we need to take time to calm down and deal with the hurt, anger and disappointment. We need to acknowledge and feel the emotions. If we repress them, most likely the emotions will come back with a vengeance. But we can't stop there. We also need to honestly acknowledge what we are experiencing, but then with time to gradually 'let those feelings go' and forgive.

Most often this is the last thing that we want to do! It will take time, but it is an important step to take. If we nurse our anger and hurt, we are not hurting the individuals who disappointed us, we are hurting ourselves and those we love! If we are not able to forgive, we simply need to ask God to help us. May we have the grace to ask God to heal the anger and hurt – and to free us!

Sr Kristine Anne Harpenau OSB

Some Light Humour – Son to his father as they watch television: "Dad, tell me again how when you were a child, you had to walk all the way across the room to change the channel."

As the 250th Anniversary year of the foundation of the Presentation Sisters draws to a close, we celebrate the light that Nano Nagle brought to the people of Cork—a light of hope, compassion and possibility.
Through her care for people living in poverty and her dedication to education, Nano brought comfort and opportunity to those too often overlooked. Her lantern became a symbol of love in action, illuminating a path towards a brighter future.
For 250 years, the Presentation Sisters have carried that light throughout the world. Through education, service and a steadfast commitment to justice, they have touched countless lives, bringing hope and upholding the dignity of each person.
As this anniversary year concludes, we give thanks for Nano's courage and for the generations of Sisters who have continued her work. May her light inspire us all to reach out with kindness, stand alongside those in need and carry hope into the lives of others.

Saints Feast Days for the coming Week

Wednesday, 14th October – St. Callistus I: After a life of slavery and imprisonment for criminal offences, was freed and became a deacon in charge of catacombs that bear his name in Rome. He became pope in 217, opposed by Hippolytus. Died at the hands of a mob in 222.
Thursday, 15th October - St. Teresa of Avila (1515 - 82): She was deeply contemplative, highly active, and practical, established Carmelite convents under a reformed rule, and wrote much on prayer and the spiritual life. Patron of lace makers and headache suffers.
Friday, 16th October – St. Hedwig, 1174-1243, wife of the Duke of Silesia, mother of seven children, some of whom caused her trouble, devoted herself to charitable works.
Friday, 16th October - St. Gall, a devoted monk who journeyed with Columbanus and dedicated his life to the service of Your holy will. May his example of steadfast faith and commitment inspire us to follow the path of righteousness.
Friday, 16th October – St. Margaret Mary 1647-90, visionary and ascetic, revived devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus and was exemplary in her patience and trust.
Saturday, 17th October - St. Ignatius, the Bishop of Antioch, who gave his life as a martyr for the sake of Your Gospel. Grant us the strength to uphold unity within the Church and to cherish the Eucharist as a source of true communion with You.

St. Fanahan's Graveyard (Adjoining the Parish Church)

As you are aware, a survey was carried out on the adjoining cemetery over the past few years and we have a display board erected in the graveyard as a result of this survey. We are aware that there are gaps in the overall map. Following on from this, we have been trying to sort the plots that have no markings on them. To this end, we need your help in getting a clearer picture of the graveyard, as a mark of respect we owe this to our loved ones who are buried there, to have the details recorded correctly, especially for the generations coming behind us. If you have an unmarked plot or know someone who has one, can you please call into Tricia in the Parish Office, so that she can check the information you have with the details we have on file. Also, it has come to our attention that some people have sold plots to a third party and not informed the Church. This is causing problems, as the details we have on file are now incorrect, therefore making things difficult for people to use the plots. We must be informed if any plots have been transferred, as we need to update the records.
