Recent Bereavements: We pray for the happy repose of the soul of Leo Casey whose funeral took place in Legan last Monday. Sympathy to his family and relatives. We also pray for the happy repose of the soul of Emily Carlson late of the U.S. and Moor Ardagh. Funeral service on Thursday November 05th at 11:00am in St. Brigid's Church, Ardagh. Sympathy to her husband and daughter and all her relatives and friends. We pray too for the happy repose of the soul of Esther Casey (née Rehill) whose funeral took place in Kenagh recently. Sympathy to the Casey and Rehill families. May they all rest in peace. Amen.

Recent Baptism: Congratulations to baby Maeva Teresa Mary Morell who was christened in St. Brigid's Church, Ardagh last weekend. Every good blessing to Maeva, her family, godparents and grandparents in the future.

Ardagh Book: Congratulations to Úna Byrne and Mary Keegan-Hynes on the successful launch of their book entitled "Ardagh - Our Estate Village and Our Residents, 1860 – 2026". A great achievement and well done to all involved. The book is on sale in Lyons' shop, Ardagh.

Feast of All Saints – 01st November & the Month of Remembrance: From my own experience of having loved ones die, as well as what others have shared with me, I have found that usually, after a time, we sense that our deceased loved ones no longer need us to pray for them. Now they just want us to connect with them in remembrance of Holy Mass, visits to the cemeteries, and for any Holy Soul that may need our prayerful remembrance in November or any time of the year. Praying and remembering them gives us a lovely and comforting presence. Today's feast calls to mind women and men who are known to us perhaps, who really embody these ideals, and who are taught by the Spirit to learn from the wisdom of God. Many of our brothers and sisters are been killed because of the faith as Christians, like last week all the Catholic Christians that were murdered in the church in Jordan. These are saints who have witnessed to their belief and faith, and now it has been taken from them like so many in the past. They too, give us here in our parishes hope and courage, to be ambassadors for Jesus, for truth, goodness, and love. We often take for granted in the western world our freedom of religion etc., but not so in other parts of our world. God's presence and response is always to fill us with his blessing, giving us a share in the very life of the Blessed One, so that if we perserve in friendship with God, we might ourselves become Blessed, and join the company of the saints.

† November - Month of the Holy Souls †

The month of November is here again. It is that special month when we pray for the Holy Souls and for all those who passed away in the last year. This year 01st November falls on Sunday and Monday 02nd November is the Feast of All Souls Day. I will have the November lists and envelopes in all the churches for you to write out the names of your deceased loved ones and place them in the special box at the altar where I will be remembering them all in my Holy Masses between November 01 and Christmas. (You may donate a stipend if you wish with the list in the envelopes which is always very much appreciated, sincere thanks).

- Remembrance Mass in Ardagh Church for those who died from Ardagh and Moydow will be held on Wednesday 11th November at 7:30pm.
- Remembrance Mass in Legan Church for those who died from Legan & Ballycloghan will be held on Sunday 08th November at the 10am Parish Mass.
- November prayers will be prayed in Ardagh cemetery on Sunday 15th November following the 11:30am Mass, and in Moydow cemetery also on Sunday 15th November at 1:30pm.

The Roscommon Solstice Choir: Next Sunday 08th November the beautiful Roscommon Solstice Choir will sing the Holy Mass at 11:30am in St. Brigid's Church, Ardagh. Refreshments in the community Centre Ardagh following the Mass and all are welcome to attend. If you like to donate some baking, please contact Samantha Gavigan on 086-3621248. Many thanks.

Christmas Carol Service: A beautiful Christmas Carol Service will take place in the Church of the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, Legan on Friday 18th December at 6pm. Our adults and young people will be involved in the choir. All are welcome to attend.

November: Month of Remembrance

Each year, our church in its wisdom, sets aside the month of November as an opportune time when we are asked to remember and pray for our departed loved ones. It begins with our celebration of the Feast of All Saints on Sunday November 1st. This great feast is followed by All Souls Day on Monday 2nd.

Of all the feast days we celebrate over the course of a year, these are the ones that resonate with each one of us, when we remember our own departed loved ones, whom we pray are now enjoying eternal rest. When we remember and pray for our loved ones, particularly in November, their personalities and stories live on. We all have our own individual ways of keeping their memories alive. For some it is visiting a family graveside to say a prayer or place fresh flowers. For others it will involve writing the names on a list of the dead and placing them in a box near the altar in each of our 4 churches. They are then prayed for at each mass that is celebrated. For others it may be lighting a candle placed in front of a photograph of their loved ones as they offer a silent prayer of thanksgiving.

In our parish church of St. Mary's, we have placed our Remembrance Tree in the sanctuary. It contains the names of the 47 people who have died in our parish over the past year. The highlight of our remembrance for them will culminate with the celebration of our special mass of remembrance on Friday 20th November at 8pm, in St. Mary's church, when we invite their families to come to honour and pray for them.

Pope Leo's Intention for the Month of November

Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

A Prayer for the Faithful Departed

Lord God, whose days are without end and whose mercies beyond counting, keep us mindful that life is short and the hour of death unknown.
Let your Spirit guide our days on earth in the ways of holiness and justice, that we may serve you in union with the whole Church, sure in faith, strong in hope, perfect in love.
And when our earthly journey is ended, lead us rejoicing into your kingdom, where you live for ever and ever. Amen.

We receive the grace of an Indulgence by visiting a cemetery for the first week of November and also by a visit to a church from 12 noon on All Souls Day (Nov 1st) to midnight on All Souls Day (Nov 2nd)

Into your hands, O Lord,
we humbly entrust our brothers and sisters.
In this life you embraced them with your tender love;
deliver them now from every evil and bid them eternal rest.
welcome them into paradise, where there will be no sorrow,
no weeping or pain,
but fullness of peace and joy with your Son and the Holy Spirit forever and ever. Amen.

I know a lot of Saints, I do! So let me mention just a few: I know someone who runs a team and teaches kids to play and dream, Who stands in cold and wind and rain on days they play and nights they train; Someone who's there when we are sad The best the gentlest friend we've had ,Someone who says, 'Just do your best', when I am scared to take a test; A friend who takes the time to show how things were done so long ago; ; A teacher who just always knows where that comma always goes; and others who are kind and good, Who try to act as Jesus would, Who show God's love in all they do. I know a lot of saints, don't you? Christy Kenneally

Sunday 1st November - All Saints Day The word saint comes from the Latin "Sanctus" and the Greek "hagios" meaning, 'holy', 'sacred', 'set apart'. We believe the saints to be united with God in heaven. "A saint is a sinner who keeps trying". (Nelson Mandela)

Fri. 6th November - Annual Service of Remembrance for our Dead Church of The Nativity of the B.V.M. Keadue at 7:30pm

[Families as well as the wider community are invited to attend and to take part in this evening of remembering.]

November - Month of Prayer for our Dead We receive the grace of an Indulgence by visiting a church and praying for our deceased brothers and sisters and for the Pope's intentions from 12 noon on All Saints Day (November 1st) to midnight on All Souls Day (November 2nd) and by visiting a cemetery during the first week of November. May the angels guide them into the fullness of God's presence. May the saints protect them. May Mary hold them in the light.

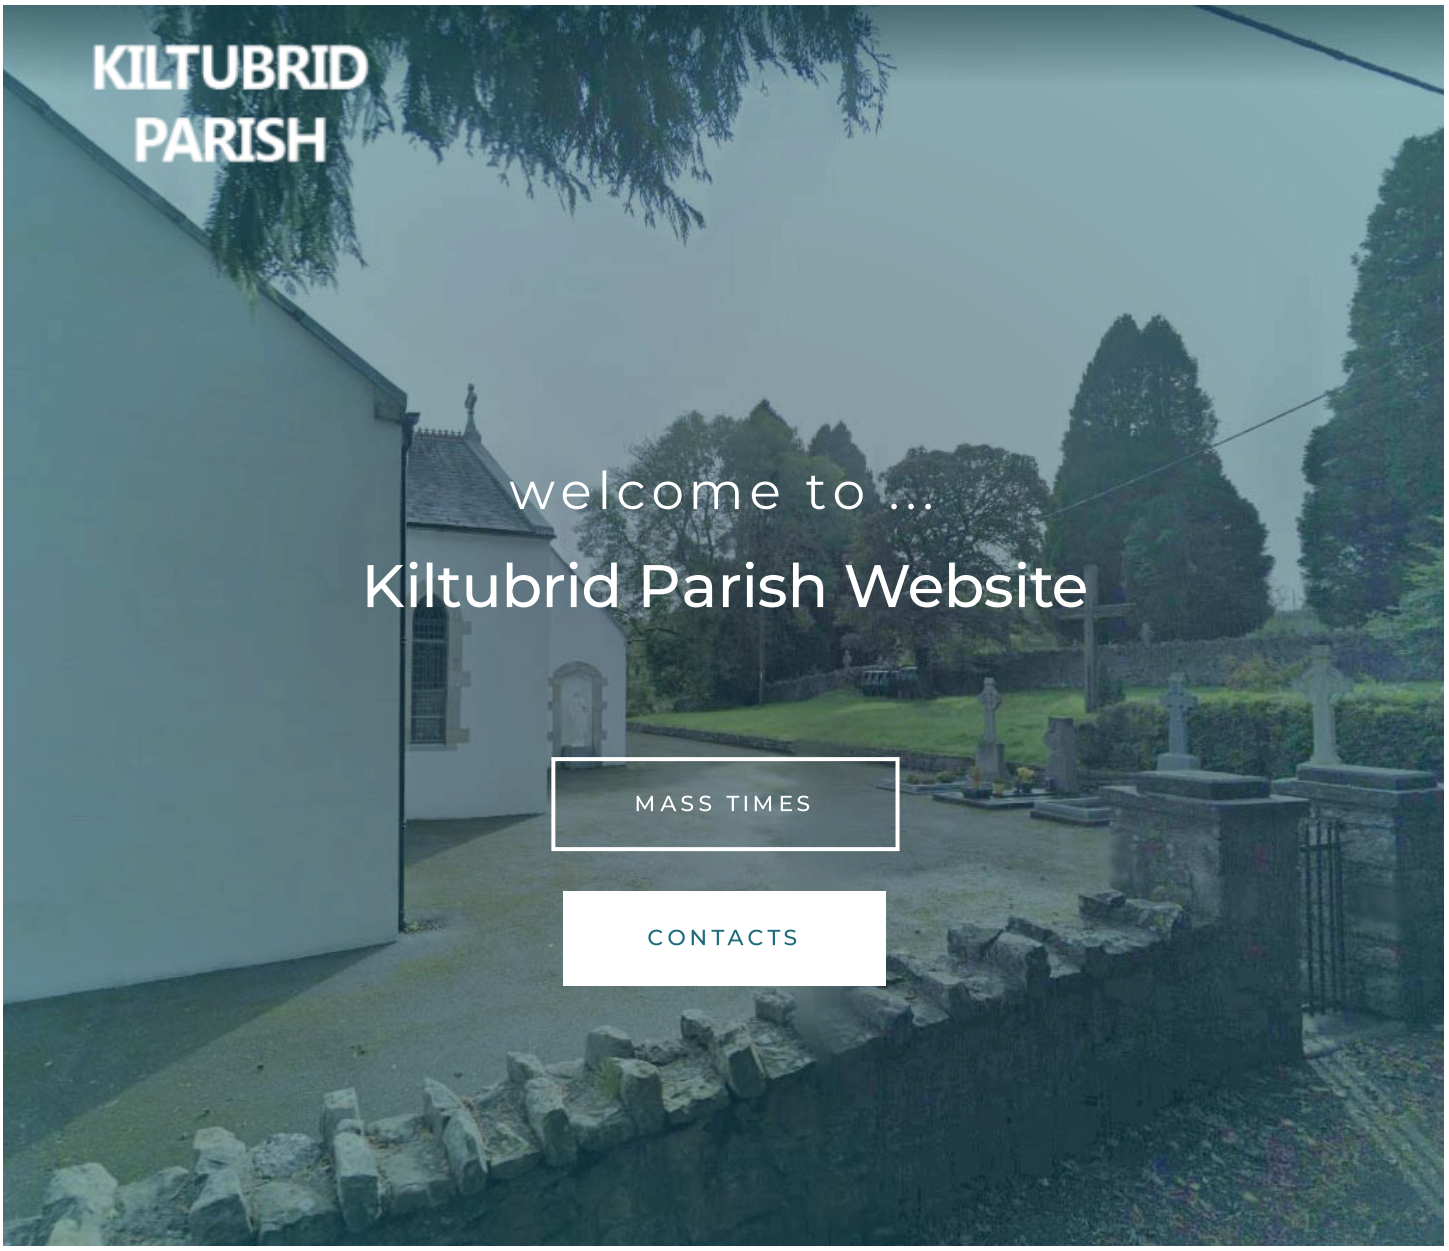

In Our Remembrance Service we pray for all whom we have laid to rest since last Nov.

REFLECTION FOR THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

Today, the Church celebrates the SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS - not only the famous saints we know by name, but also the countless men and women from every nation, language, and race who lived quiet, faithful lives and now enjoy the presence of God. Think of our great-grandparents who may have lived very good lives but were not canonised as Saints by the Church. The vision in the Book of Revelation in our first reading (Apocalypse 7: 2-4,9-14) reminds us that heaven is not empty; it is filled with a great multitude who have washed their robes in the blood of the Lamb. In other words, holiness is not a dream reserved for a few special people. It is the calling of every Christian.

The second reading from (1 John 3:1-3) tells us something even more beautiful: "We are already children of God." This means holiness begins now. It is not something we wait for until after death. It starts in our daily choices, in the way we speak, forgive, work, pray, and relate with others. To be a saint is simply to belong to God and to allow His grace to shape our lives. Do you want to be a Saint? Don't wait till tomorrow, begin today to do good and strive towards holiness of life.

The Gospel (Matthew 5:1-12) on the Beatitudes gives us the path to attain this holiness. Jesus says that the poor in spirit, the gentle, the merciful, the pure in heart, the peacemakers, and those who hunger for justice are blessed. These are not just beautiful words; they are practical lessons for daily life. Holiness is lived when we choose honesty over lies, humility over pride, forgiveness over revenge, prayer over despair, and peace over conflict.

The saints teach us that holiness is possible in ordinary life. It is possible in the home, in the workplace, in the classroom, in illness, in old age, and even in suffering. The saints were not perfect people; they were people who kept returning to God. They failed, repented, trusted, and persevered.

Today, let us ask for the grace to live like the saints: to be f l things, generous in love, patient in trials, and hopeful in God's y this feast renew our desire for heaven and remind us that the r s walked one day, one decision, and one act of love at a time.

All Saints, pray for us.

RESPONSE: Such are the men who seek your face, O Lord

GOSPEL READING: Matthew 5: 1-2

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples.
Then he began to speak, this is what he taught then
'How happy are the poor in spirit; theirs is the king
Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for thei
Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is righ
Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown t
Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God.
Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons o
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of rig heaven.
Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account.
Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven; this is how they persecuted the prophets before you.'

The Gospel of the Lord . Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Reasons why we honour the saints: 1- The saints lived heroic lives of Faith. St. Paul asks us to serve and honour such noble souls. He advises Christians to welcome, serve, and honour those who have put their trust in Jesus. The saints enjoy Heavenly bliss as a reward for their Faith in Jesus. Hence, they deserve our veneration.

2- The saints are our role models. They teach us by their lives that Christ's holy life of love, mercy and forgiveness can, with the grace of God, be lived by ordinary people from all walks of life and at all times.

3- The saints are our Heavenly mediators who intercede for us before Jesus, the only mediator between God and us.

4- The saints are the instruments that God uses to work miracles in the present.

On the feast of All Saints, the Church invites and challenges us to walk the walk of the Saints, not just talk the talk: "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the Kingdom of Heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father in Heaven" (Mt 7:21). 2) The feast gives us an occasion to thank God for having invited so many of our ancestors to join the company of the Saints. May our reflection on the heroic lives of the Saints, with our imitation of their lifestyle, enable us to hear from our Lord the words of grand welcome to eternal bliss: "Well done, good and faithful servant! Enter into the joys of your Master" (Mt 25:21).

We need to pray to the Saints, both the canonized and the uncanonized, asking them to pray on our behalf that we may live our lives in faithfulness like theirs, and so receive the same reward they are enjoying.

November Intentions: Those who wish to have their deceased remembered in Masses during November, please fill in the form available at each entrance & drop into the box provided in front of the altar.
