Weekly Reflection.

Saints in Disguise.

Fr John Cullen, a regular contributor to The Sacred Heart Messenger, writing in this month's issue under the heading Saints in Disguise, relates the following encounter he had with a homeless man.

I met a homeless man in a soup kitchen a few months ago. As we got talking, he showed me a crumpled bit of paper with a prayer written on it, which he recites every night: 'Keep watch, dear Lord, with those who watch or work or weep this night, and give your angels charge over those who sleep.' This prayer is attributed to St. Augustine (354-450). I was surprised by the homeless man, as he told me that he offers the prayer, not just for himself, but for all who are homeless. His prayer was not an expression of a privatised religion or an individualised spirituality. It was an encounter with the core value of the dignity of every human being.

As we celebrate the feast day of All Saints this weekend, let us remain open to the surprising encounter of grace that may come our way in the most unlikely of places and people. That is, those who reflect God's Beatitude as a blessing to the world. Blessed are those who are unseen, unrecognised and unnamed - who are known by God. Saints in Disguise!

All holy men and women, pray for us.

Fr. Owen Joe.

November: A Month of Prayer for the Faithful Departed.

During the month of November, We are invited to remember and pray for our faithful departed. It is a time to reflect with love and gratitude on the lives of those who have gone before us: our parents, grandparents, spouses, children, relatives, friends, and all those who have touched our lives.

May our prayers throughout this month bring comfort to our hearts, strengthen our hope, and bring peace to the souls of our beloved departed.

Remember me

To the living, I am gone;
To the sorrowful, I will never return,
To the angry, I was cheated;
But to the happy, I am at peace.
And to the faithful, I have never left.
I cannot speak, but I can listen,
I cannot be seen, but I can be heard.
So, as you stand upon the shore, gazing at the beautiful sea.... Remember Me
As you look in awe at a mighty forest and its grand majesty... Remember Me
As you kneel in front of the Altar of God... Remember Me
Remember me in your Prayers, in your hearts, in your thoughts, and in the memories of times we loved, the times we cried, the battles we fought and times we laughed. For if you always think of me... I will have never gone.
May the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God, rest in peace, Amen.

Solemnity of All Saints

Today we celebrate the community of faith, being in communion with all the saints, a day of both thanksgiving and vision. Thanksgiving because of the example and inspiration of the saints, who have come to maturity, to the measure to the full stature of Christ (Ep 4:13). Vision because our Gospel today describes the path we must take to make the same journey home to God. If we wish to join the saints both now and in eternity, we must make our own the "mission statement" of Jesus, which is the Sermon on the Mount and especially the opening invitation to true happiness.

Immaculate Conception Monea:

Sunday 8th November 10am Mass People of the parish

Lord God, whose days are without end
and whose mercies beyond counting, keep us mindful that life is short
and the hour of death unknown.
Let your Spirit guide our days on earth
in the ways of holiness and justice that we may serve you in union with the whole
Church, sure in faith, strong in hope, perfect in love.
And when our earthly journey is ended,
lead us rejoicing into your kingdom,
where you live for ever and ever. Amen

THIS WEEK'S BULLETIN IS SPONSORED ANONYMOUSLY.

From my own experience of having loved ones die, as well as from what others have shared with me, I have found that usually, after a time, we sense that our deceased loved ones no longer need us to pray for them. Now they just want us to connect with them. Prayer for the dead does that and even though our prayers might still have to be formulated as if we are praying for them we are now simply connecting with them and what was formerly a cold, cutting absence now becomes a warm, comforting presence.

Ron Rolheiser OMI

Annual Memorial Service: for all our dead will take place on Sunday 8th November at 3pm in St. Patrick's Church Derrygonnelly. All the dead will be remembered but in particular those who have died since November last year. All are welcome to attend. Light refreshments afterwards in the community centre to which everyone is invited.

Remembering our Dead: we traditionally remember the faithful departed during November, the month of the Holy Souls. A novena of nine masses will be offered for the repose of all our deceased – families, relatives, friends, the anonymous dead whom no one remembers in St. Patrick's. Lists are available at the back of each church, on which you can record the name of those whom you want remembered and prayed for. You are asked to put your lists in an envelope and place them in the basket provided on the sacred space at the front of the altar in St. Patrick's during mass times.

Memory Tree: During the month of November the memory tree will be in St Patrick's Church, where you can place the name of your loved one on a labels provided.

Norms for Indulgences at the Commemoration of All Souls

From 12 o'clock noon on 1st November until midnight on 2nd November, all who have confessed, received Holy Communion and prayed for the Pope's intentions (one Our Father and Hail Mary, or any other prayer of one's choice) can gain one Plenary Indulgence by visiting a church or oratory, and there reciting one Our Father and the Apostles' Creed. This indulgence is applicable only to the souls of the departed. Confession may be made at any time within the week preceding or the week following 1st November. Holy Communion may be received on any day from 1st November to 8th November. The faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a Plenary Indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls on the usual conditions once per day from 1st to 8th November. The conditions mentioned above apply also for this.

Points to Ponder

Sometimes the Beatitudes seem like ideals which are just too hard, or we may think we know better. But today's feast calls to mind men and women – some who are known to us perhaps – who really embody these ideals, and who are taught by the Spirit to learn from the Wisdom of Christ.

This great multitude of Christians are strengthened each day to seek the face of Christ; strengthened by the Holy Spirit. Some do so despite persecution, and great tribulation.

Many of our brothers and sisters in various parts of the world are still being killed and unjustly treated for their faith. And the witness of these saints gives us hope, and courage.

But there are also the little sacrifices offered each day for Christ; for truth, goodness, and love. Think, for example, of how often you might have had to be a peacemaker, or be merciful at home, or at work.

The path to holiness begins with an acknowledgement that we are sinners, and a longing for God's mercy and salvation. But the path winds through our kitchens and gardens, across our cars and schools, by our offices and homes, and into our hearts.

For it is ordinarily in these places that we hunger and thirst for righteousness… that we can seek God with a pure and undivided heart. And God's response is always to fill us with his blessing, giving us a share in the very life of the Blessed One, so that – if we persevere in friendship with God – we might ourselves become Blessed, and join the company of his saints.

Lawrence Lew OP,

Popes Intention for November: For the proper use of wealth - Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

Bishops call on EU delegation to advocate for a just transition from fossil fuels at COP31 As the nations of the world prepare to gather for COP31 (Conference of Parties – 31st UN Climate Change Agreement to address climate change) in Antalya, Turkey, from 9 to 20 November 2026, THE Irish bishops call on the Government of Ireland, as leader of the EU delegation, and in the interest of care of creation inspired by Laudato Si' on Care for our Common Home, published by Pope Francis in 2015, to advocate for and commit to the just transition from fossil fuels to natural energy sources. These fossil fuels are causing global warming, while the cost of our reliance on fossil fuels is becoming increasingly prohibitive. Bishops ask of the EU delegation to advocate for a fossil fuel phase out; fossil fuel profit tax; clean energy investment and sufficiency; and, climate finance and social justice.

Parish Draw - Month 9

Will take place on Monday 2nd November Promoters please make your returns to the Upper Room at the Parish Shop between 7 - 8pm

urch re- opening Fr Martin & Fr. Michael welcomes back our parishioners to the weekday & Sunda sses. It's great having a live congregation back in the church after the long lockdown. All thos ending are reminded that face covering are a necessary part of life still if we are to ensure th ety and health of each other while in the church and in the grounds. It is most important that peopl o are vulnerable or unwell, and especially those with any symptoms that might suggest Covid-1 ection, should stay at home and, if possible, participate, via webcam. The same applies to those wh ve been in recent contact with someone who has the virus, in accordance with public health advice. look forward to welcoming you back.

Dust if you must. (Rose Milligan)

Dust if you must, but wouldn't it be better
To paint a picture or write a letter
Bake a cake or plant a seed
Ponder the difference between want and need.

Dust if you must, but there's not much time
With rivers to swim and mountains to climb
Music to hear and books to read
Friends to cherish and life to lead.

Dust if you must, but the worlds out there
With the sun in your eyes, the wind in your hair
A flutter of snow, a shower of rain.
This day will not come around again.

Dust if you must, but bear in mind
Old age will come and it's not kind.
And when you go – and go you must
You, yourself, will make more dust.

Reflection: All Saints: There Is Still More to Become
Our lives are always unfinished. There are hopes we have not fulfilled, mistakes we cannot undo, and experiences that have changed us in ways we never expected. Even a good and happy life leaves something still to be discovered and become. Today we celebrate the saints: people whose humanity has reached its fulfilment through the love of God. They remind us that we are created for more than this earthly life can contain. But that fulfilment does not begin only after death. Jesus shows us, especially in the Beatitudes, the goodness towards which we are called: mercy, gentleness, purity of heart and peacemaking. Whatever our past, the invitation remains. There are still people who need our love. There are still opportunities to respond to goodness. And through God's grace, even our smallest responses can enlarge our capacity to love. The saints remind us that there is still more to become. God has not finished with us yet.
Church of the Immaculate Conception 200th Anniversary: We will mark this significant milestone with a Celebration Mass on Sunday 6th December at 11.00am. We would appreciate if you had any old photos, memories or recollections to share. Photographs can be scanned and returned to the owner or copies can be forwarded to tempo@clogherparishes.ie
