Parish Draw: Congratulations to this month's winners!

1st Prize £500 Geraldine McKavanagh
2nd Prize £100 Geradette McVeigh
3rd Prize £50 Mary McCartan
Promoters Prize Marie Kelly

Our next draw will be on Wednesday 24th November 2025 at 10.30am. At this Draw we will be selling tickets for next year's draw. We will have Christmas Cards available for you to purchase a ticket as a present. The cost of a yearly ticket is £60. Or if you wish to buy a monthly ticket at £5 per month. Thank you to our promoters who continue to support the Draw. This is a great help with the running costs of the Parish.

Shoebox Appeal – Romania: The Missionaries of Charity help people on the margins of society as well as running residential units and supporting the homeless and families in the poorer villages surrounding Bucharest. Our Parish is collecting shoe boxes again this year, which will be sent to Romania to support the Missionaries in their work. Please pick up an information leaflet in the porch and return your shoebox to the porch of St Patrick's Church, Aghagallon before Monday 16th November 2026. This year we need 100 male shoeboxes. If you would prefer to make a cash donation, envelopes are available in the porch.

Sleeping Bag Appeal: At the request of parishioners, we are collecting sleeping bags for the Capuchin Day Centre for Homeless People in Dublin. If you want to donate a sleeping bag, please leave it in the church porch no later than Monday 16th November 2026. Or if you would like to donate £5 towards the cost of a sleeping bag please put it in the envelopes provided and leave in the collection basket during Mass. Thank you for your continued support.

Annual Mass for the Dead Thursday 19th November 2026 at 7pm. During the Mass we will pray for loved ones who have died during the past year. Family members will be invited to remember each person in a special way. Refreshments will be available afterwards in the Community Centre.

MINISTRY OF WELCOME
We welcome Baby Nainsi,
who was baptised recently into our Parish family

Booking Masses, Baptisms and Weddings As parish office opening hours have been reduced slightly, we are returning to our previous practice of booking Masses, baptisms and weddings in person, in the sacristy after Masses.
Masses can be booked well in advance to ensure your preferred dates are available.
Baptisms can only be booked by the child's parent or legal guardian. At least one month's notice is required. To book a baptism parents must present the child's long birth certificate, complete the baptism request form, meet with one of our Baptism team and attend weekly Mass during the month prior to the date of the Baptism Weddings can be booked by the couple themselves. Couples are required to give at least six months' notice of marriage to ensure the preferred date is available and that there is adequate time to complete all Civil and Church paperwork.

25th OCTOBER 2026
30th SUNDAY of the Year

Priest: Our Lord calls us to love God with all our heart and to love our neighbour as ourselves. Let us bring our prayers before him with confidence.

For the Church that we may faithfully proclaim the Gospel and bear witness to God's love in our care for the poor, the vulnerable and the forgotten.
Let us pray to the Lord

For the poor, the homeless and all those who struggle to provide the basic necessities of life. May we be inspired by Christ's teaching to share what we have, to offer our 'cloak' to those who have none, and to treat everyone with compassion, generosity and dignity.
Let us pray to the Lord

We pray for peace in the World. May hatred and distrust give way to understanding, that nations may work together to build a world where peace and justice prevail.
Let us pray to the Lord

We pray for the sick and elderly and those whose mobility or circumstances are limiting. May the Lord grant them healing, strength and patience. May their caregivers too be strengthened in their loving service to those who suffer.
Let us pray to the Lord

We pray for all those who are struggling with the demands and pressures of daily life, those who feel overwhelmed by worry, responsibility or uncertainty. May the Lord be their 'strength', their 'rock' and their 'stronghold'.
Let us pray to the Lord

For those who have died:
Recently Deceased: Teresa McErlain, Patrick McQuaid, Patricia Morton, Carmel O'Connor, Hugh Letters
1st Anniv: Zbigniew Tracz
All those named in the bulletin.
may they be welcomed into the joy of God's eternal kingdom, where they will know the fullness of his love and peace.
Let us pray to the Lord

Priest: Heavenly Father, you call us to love you with all our heart and to love our neighbour as ourselves. Hear the prayers we offer you today and help us to live according to your holy will. Amen.

Feast of All Saints
1st November 2026

A lot of people do not like large gatherings. They find big crowds exhausting. Today's feast, however, is precisely about crowds of people. The first reading expresses it well, 'a huge number, impossible to count…,
Today is the feast not just of a few chosen saints, but of all saints. Today we honour all the saints, those who are formally canonised and those who are not. If our vision of humanity is shaped exclusively by the media we might be tempted to think that there are a lot more villains out there than saints. It is reassuring to be reminded by today's feast that there exists a huge number of saints, impossible to count.
In the words of the letter to the Hebrews, we are surrounded by a 'great cloud of witnesses'. None of us can live as the Lord wants us to live purely on our own. We need the good example of others to inspire us and to show us what is possible.
Today's feast declares that we are surrounded by such a cloud of witnesses, if only we could recognise them. Some of these people have already passed beyond us and are now 'standing in front of the throne of the Lamb', in the words of today's first reading. Many of them, however, are our companions on the journey of life. They do not look at all like the statues in our churches. They are very ordinary, yet they are also very special. These are the people we are grateful to have met and to have around.
The feast of All Saints encourages us to believe that any one of us could be part of that huge number, impossible to count. In that sense, today's feast is about every one of us. John, in today's second reading, is speaking about all of us when he declares that 'We are already the children of God', and that, in the future, 'we shall be like' God. We are all destined for sainthood. God intends that all of us would be conformed to the image of God's Son.
For most of us, that will only come to pass fully beyond this life. Yet, because we are already sons and daughters of God through Baptism, we are called to grow now towards that wonderful transformation that awaits us.
The road to sainthood begins here, wherever we happen to find ourselves.
In today's gospel reading, Jesus shows us what that road to sainthood looks like. In the Beatitudes, Jesus painted a portrait of himself, the living saint par excellence. He was also painting a portrait of the person that we are all called to become. The Beatitudes give us different facets of the person of Jesus, while at the same time showing us different ways in which we might reflect the person of Jesu

Bible Study
Earlier this year, a short Bible study programme was delivered in the parish. It looked at the theme of 'Covenant' in the Old Testament and its place in the story of our Salvation. Part two of that programme will look at Jesus Christ as the 'New Covenant' and what this means for our lives. Fr Michael McGinnity will lead the programme. Three sessions will take place in the Parish Centre on Wednesday 4th, 11th and 18th November, 7-8.30pm. Everyone is welcome, even if you were unable to attend the first part of the programme earlier in the year.

LOVE IN ACTION

In today's Gospel, Jesus is asked which commandment is the greatest. He gives two: love God with all your heart, and love your neighbour as yourself. The two belong together. Mother Teresa began each day in prayer before the Blessed Sacrament, then went out to care for the poor and dying of Calcutta. For her, loving God and loving others were one and the same. Our first reading reminds us that God cares deeply about how we treat those in need.

That love must be practical. Many of you quietly care for children, elderly relatives or the sick, and Jesus sees and blesses every sacrifice. We're also grateful to our St Vincent de Paul members for their generous service. This week, ask God what more he might be asking of you.

DO THIS IN MEMORY

We welcome the children who will make their First Holy Communion next spring and their families to our first Do This In Memory Mass this Sunday morning. After Mass we invite all primary school aged children and their parents to join us in the parish hall for craft activities (and a cup of coffee for the parents!)

Dates for the next couple of Do This In Memory Masses are:
Sunday 15th November
Sunday 13th December

CANDLELIGHT ROSARY

This Thursday at 7pm we have the last our candlelight rosary services to mark the month of October. At the end of the service we will go in procession to the grotto outside (weather permitting) for the final blessing.

ST VINCENT DE PAUL

Our parish SVP conference is here to support our local community, and we do this in the strictest confidence. If you are in need and would like our help please do not hesitate to get in touch on 07860 455 549.

MASS FOR THE SICK & ELDERLY

There will be a special Mass for sick and elderly parishioners on Saturday (31st) at 2pm. The Mass will include the anointing of the sick. If you know of someone who can't normally get out to Mass please invite them along and if you can offer them transport that would be a great help.

ALL SAINTS' TABLE QUIZ

A table quiz will take place in the Ballymoney parish hall next Sunday (1st) at 7pm. There are prize hampers for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place, and a not so great prize for the table that comes last. Free entry and light refreshments are provided, with any voluntary contributions being donated to our St Vincent De Paul conference. If you don't have a team, you are welcome to join one of the others.

PARKINSONS COFFEE MORNING

Parkinsons Dalriada Support Group are hosting a coffee morning on Saturday 31st from 10am-2pm at Ballymoney Football Club. All welcome to come along and support this good cause.

OLD & NEW@No.5

Our parish shop is a treasure trove of gifts in the run-up to Christmas. And there's good news for anyone who missed out on the large gilted lanterns and children's rocking chairs as more are on their way!

Some new stock has also arrived including lovely new stools, gilted rabbit book ends, floral wreaths and tabletop dressing mirrors so call in and have a look Visit us at 5 Gate End, Ballymoney, open Wednesday to Saturday, 10am - 4.30pm. To keep in touch with our offers and to see pictures of our stock don't forget our Facebook page @oldandnewatno5

November

The Month of the Holy Souls

Next week we begin the month of special prayer for the Holy Souls. There are a number of ways that we can pray together as a parish for our deceased loved ones this year.

November Dead Lists
Lists and envelopes are now available. Please take them home and write down the names of your deceased family and friends who you wish to pray for.

Envelopes can be left back in the church at Mass times or posted through the door of the parochial house. The names will be placed before the altar throughout the month of November and prayed for at all Masses and devotions. You may wish to include an offering in your envelope and these are very gratefully received.

Prayer & Reflection
There will be two short services of prayer and reflection on the theme of remembering the dead and the resurrection during the month. The first will be on Thursday 5th November at 7pm.

Parish Annual Requiem Mass
A requiem Mass for all deceased parishioners and priests will take place on Friday 13th November at 7pm.

November Pledge
Why not go off alcohol (or another treat) this month as a penance for the Holy Souls? Think of it as a little Lent in November (and a good preparation for Christmas too!). If you wish to make the pledge you can pray:

I promise, in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and with the help of the Blessed Virgin Mary, to abstain from all intoxicating substances until the end of November.

Please consider joining with others in prayer, sacrifice and support for those affected by addiction.

HYMNS FOR MASS

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love.
Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord
And where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace
Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope
Where there is darkness, only light
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

O, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console
To be understood as to understand
To be loved as to love with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned
In giving to all men that we receive
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Now thank we all our God
with heart and hands and voices,
who wondrous things has done,
in whom his world rejoices;
who from our mothers' arms
has blessed us on our way with countless gifts of love, and still is ours today.

O may this bounteous God through all our life be near us, with ever joyful hearts
and blessed peace to cheer us,
to keep us in his grace,
and guide us when perplexed,
and free us from all ills
of this world in the next.

Trócaire

Trócaire is looking for volunteers to help deliver school talks during our annual Lent Appeal during February and March 2027!

We are particularly interested in hearing from people with public speaking experience, especially retired teachers or those who have worked with young people. Volunteers will visit local schools during school hours to share stories of hope, justice and solidarity from communities around the world.

The role involves approximately 1-2 short talks per week during the four-month campaign period.

Full training, presentation materials and ongoing support will be provided. Please contact Fionnuala McGuinness on 028 9080 8033 or fionnuala.mcguinness@trocaire.org by the first week of December if you are interested!

St Comgall's Men's Friendship Group

We had a great response at the information meeting for the new Men's Group - 24 men attended plus 4 others are interested but couldn't be there due to various reasons.
The meeting was very positive. Going forward Wednesday mornings will be the preferred meeting day and we have agreed to meet again on the 18th of November. There is a very definite need for the Men's Friendship Group. It was heart-warming to see the level of very genuine interest in getting the group up and running.
So watch this space for more information!

PRAYERS AT HOLY COMMUNION

Spiritual Holy Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.
I love you above all things and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot now receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you have already come,
and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.
composed by Saint Alphonsus Liguori

ANIMA CHRISTI
Prayer to the Most Holy Redeemer

Soul of Christ, sanctify me.
Body of Christ, save me.
Blood of Christ, embolden me.
Water from the side of Christ, wash me.
Passion of Christ, strengthen me.
O good Jesus, hear me.
Within your wounds hide me.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
From the evil enemy defend me.
At the hour of my death call me
and bid me to come to you, that with your Saints I may praise you for age upon age. Amen

November Short-Term Pledge

The month of November offers a special opportunity to make a small sacrifice in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We invite parishioners and friends to consider taking a Short-Term Pledge throughout November. Pioneer Offering: "I promise, in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and with the help of the Blessed Virgin Mary, to abstain from all intoxicating substances until the end of November." Please consider joining with others in prayer, sacrifice and support for those affected by addiction.

Indulgences at the Commemoration of All Souls

(1) From 12noon on 1st November until midnight on 2nd November, all who have gone to Confession, received Holy Communion and prayed for the Pope's intentions (one Our Father and Hail Mary, or any other prayer of one's choice) can gain one plenary indulgence by visiting a church or oratory, and there reciting one Our Father and the Apostle's Creed. This indulgence is applicable only to the souls of the departed. Confession may be made at any time within the week preceding or the week following 1st November. Holy Communion may be received on any day from 1st to 8th November.
(2) The faithful who visit a cemetery and pray for the dead may gain a plenary indulgence applicable only to the Holy Souls on the usual conditions once per day from 1st to 8th November. The conditions mentioned above apply also for this.

What are indulgences? "Indulgences are the remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven. The faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains the indulgence under prescribed conditions for either him/herself or the departed. Indulgences are granted through the ministry of the Church which, as the the dispenser of the grace of redemption, distributes the treasury of the merits of Christ and the Saints" (Compendium of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, 312).

Entrance Hymn

Be thou my vision,
O Lord of my heart,
Naught be all else to me
save that thou art;
Thou my best thought
in the day and the night
Waking or sleeping,
thy presence my light.

Be though my wisdom,
be thou my true word,
I ever with thee
and thou with me, Lord;
Thou my great Father,
and I thy true heir;
Thou in me dwelling,
and I in thy care.

Be though my breastplate,
my sword for the fight,
Be though my armour
and be though my might,
Though my soul'shelter,
and thou my high tow'r Raise though my heav'nward, o Pow'r of my pow'r.

Preparation of the Gifts

God is love: his the care,
Tending each, ev'rywhere.
God is love, all is there!
Jesus came to show him,
That we all might know him!

Sing aloud, loud, loud!
Sing aloud, loud, loud!
God is good! God is truth!
God is beauty! Praise him!

None can see God above;
We can share life and love;
Thus may we Godward move,
Seek him creation,
Holding ev'ry nation.

Recessional Hymn

Seek ye first the Kingdom of God,
and his righteousness,
all these things shall be added unto you;
allelu, alleluia.

Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, allelu, alleluia

Ask and it shall be given unto you,
seek and ye shall find;
Knock, and it shall be opened unto you;
allelu, alleluia.

Alleluia, Alleluia,
Alleluia, allelu, alleluia

Praying for the Dead

In November we remember and pray for the dead. The November Dead Lists are in the church here at Holy Cross so that you may inscribe the names of your loved ones. Their names will be included in the prayers of our daily Mass during this month. We remember them fondly but also pray for them because we recognise that every person who has died is in need of God's mercy. It is a relationship of love that we have with them; we love them on earth and therefore wish for them to now enter heaven to enjoy God's mercy.

The concept of time beyond the grave is difficult to comprehend. However, the Catholic practice of praying for the dead is to ask for God's mercy in their lives, to purify them so that they may see God face to face. We can think of praying for the dead in terms of the relationship that God has had with a person in life, which continues in death. Our prayers and the celebration of the Mass can help them to know God's mercy and be carried up into the embrace of God. The prayer 'Eternal rest grant unto them O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them, may they rest in peace, Amen' summarises our prayer. It is an invitation to the gift of God's mercy so that the person may know peace and joy in the company of the saints in heaven.

The Church has always urged us to pray for the dead. She invites believers to regard the mystery of death not as the final word on human fate but as a journey towards eternal life. It is an important duty of ours to pray for the dead because, although they may have died in grace and in friendship with God, they may still be in need of a final purification in order to enter into the joy of heaven. We are all one body in Christ; we are part of the communion of saints - a belief which we express whenever we recite the Apostles Creed. Because of their closeness to God, the saints in heaven can intercede with Him for both the living and the dead, especially those who have died and are still in purgatory. St John Vianney said, "We can assist the dead through our prayers, our good works and, above all, the holy sacrifice of the Mass." As the Scriptures state, "Whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40).

Purgatory is not a place but a process of purification for souls who die in God's grace but are not yet perfectly holy. Pope Benedict XVI stated, "Purgatory essentially means that God can put the pieces back together again. That he can cleanse us in such a way that we are able to be with him and can stand there in the fullness of life. Purgatory strips off from one person what is unbearable and from another the inability to bear certain things, so that in each of them a pure heart is revealed, and we can see that we all belong together in one enormous symphony of being." It is important to remember however the Mercy of God. One of the most repeated sentences in the Scriptures is the words: MERCY OF GOD ENDURES FOREVER. It is said twenty-six times in Psalm 136 and can also be found in Jeremiah 33:11 "Give thanks to Yahweh Sabaoth, for Yahweh is good, for his mercy is everlasting". The word for mercy, "chesedh", is used one hundred and fifty times in the Old Testament. For example from Numbers 14:19 we find Moses praying: "In the abundance of your mercy forgive the sins of your people". Father Charles C.P.

The Mass for all those who celebrated a Funeral in Holy Cross from Oct 2025 -October 2026 will take place on Monday 2nd November, Feast of All Souls at 7pm. Eternal Rest, grant to them O lord and let perpetual light shine upon them, may they rest in peace Amen.

COME AND SING WITH US!

St. Bernadette's Parish Choir is looking for new members! We return to our musical duties on Sunday 6th September, singing each week at the 11.00am Sunday Mass, with a rehearsal beforehand.
There are no auditions, and you don't need to be an experienced singer - just someone who enjoys singing and would like to be part of our choir. We warmly welcome singers of all ages, so if you've ever thought about joining us, now is the perfect time to give it a try!
For more information, speak to Marty Lavery, our organist and choir director, or to any member of the choir.

Down and Connor Cantor Training

Adults (18+) involved in parish music are invited to take part in Cantor Training at St Joseph's Parish Centre, Dunloy. ? LIFE AFTER ALPHA ?
INVITATION TO CONTINUE THE JOURNEY
ChristLife 'FOLLOWING CHRIST' Course

When Jesus called his first Disciples he said, "Come Follow Me." He still makes that call to us today. The 'ChristLife' series is an opportunity for you to respond to that call and continue that journey you embarked upon with Alpha. FOLLOWING CHRIST is a 7-week course with a one day Retreat to help you grow as a disciple of Jesus. The course will commence on TUESDAY 15 SEPTEMBER 2026 at 7:00pm in HOLY ROSARY PARISH CENTRE, 503 Ormeau Road, BT7 3GR.
Each evening will follow a format similar to the Alpha Course and include a video presentation and small group discussions each evening.
We will also have time for tea and coffee and a little something to eat!
The evening should last no more than a couple of hours.
To register for 'FOLLOWING CHRIST' course, please send your full name, your e-mail address and preferably your mobile telephone number to stbrigids@downandconnor.org
A short information video can be found here:

St Bernadette's Third World Group - Lima Mission

Father Coney and staff members from St Bernadette's Children's Centres in Lima will be speaking at St Bernadette's Masses Sat 5th & Sunday 6th September. Their aim is to thank the Sponsors for their continued support over many years, and at the same time promote the sustainability of the projects. The Third World Group is collecting annual sponsorship payments after both Masses this weekend and also on 12th &13th September. If you would like to sponsor a child within the Centres please speak to us after Mass. We will be happy to give further details.
Many thanks to all sponsors for your continued support.

FÁILTE - WELCOME GROUP

There will be a get together of the group and new members in the coffee lounge (St Bernadette's parish centre) on the 13th September after 11am mass. We are blessed to have 16 members and would be delighted if more parishioners came along to join us. You will find it to be a very worthwhile and enriching ministry to be part of. INTRODUCTORY RITES

Congregation stands

Entrance Hymn or Entrance Antiphon

All: Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honour of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

GREETING

Priest: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
All: Amen
Priest: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God,
and the communion of the Holy Spirit
be with you all.
All: And with your spirit.

PENITENTIAL ACT

Priest: Brothers and sisters, let us acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries.

Priest: You raise the dead to life in the Spirit:
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Priest: You bring pardon and peace to the sinner:
Christ, have mercy. Christ, have mercy.

Priest: You bring light to those in darkness:
Lord, have mercy. Lord, have mercy.

Priest: May almighty God have mercy on us,
forgive us our sins,
and bring us to everlasting life.
All: Amen

GLORIA

All: Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you,
we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King,
O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

THE COLLECT

Priest: Let us pray.

Pause for silent prayer

Priest: Almighty ever-living God, by whose gift we venerate in one celebration
the merits of all the Saints,
bestow on us, we pray,
through the prayers of so many intercessors,
an abundance of the reconciliation with you for which we earnestly long.
Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
All: Amen.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

Congregation Sits

FIRST READING

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse 7:2-4. 9-14

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, 'Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.' Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel.

After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, 'Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words: 'Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.'

One of the elders then spoke, and asked me, 'Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from?' I answered him, 'You can tell me, my Lord.' Then he said, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.'

The word of the Lord
All: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 23:1-6. R cf. v6

(R) Such are the men who seek your face, O Lord.

1. The Lord's is the earth and its fullness, the world and all its peoples.
It is he who set it on the seas; on the waters he made it firm. (R)

2. Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things. (R)

3. He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the men who seek him,
seek the face of the God of Jacob. (R)

SECOND READING

A reading from the first letter of St John 3:1-3

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us,
by letting us be called God's children;
and that is what we are.
Because the world refused to acknowledge him,
therefore it does not acknowledge us.
My dear people, we are already the children of God
but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed;
all we know is, that when it is revealed

we shall be like him
because we shall see him as he really is.
Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify himself, must try to be as pure as Christ.

The word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God.

Congregation stands

ACCLAMATION Mt 11:28

All: Alleluia, alleluia!
Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest, says the Lord.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.
Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew 5:1-12
All: Glory to you, O Lord.

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

'How happy are the poor in spirit;
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy the gentle:
they shall have the earth for their heritage.
Happy those who mourn:
they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:
they shall be satisfied.
Happy the merciful:
they shall have mercy shown them.
Happy the pure in heart:
they shall see God.
Happy the peacemakers:
they shall be called sons of God.
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
All: Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

THE CREED

All: I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven,

(bow your head up to the words 'and became man') and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

Congregation sits

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

Offertory Procession
The gifts of bread and wine which will become the Lord's body and blood are brought to the altar.
The celebrant raises the host on the paten saying:

Priest: Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation,
for through your goodness we have received
the bread we offer you:
fruit of the earth and work of human hands,
it will become for us the bread of life.

All: Blessed be God for ever.

The celebrant pours wine and a little water into the chalice, saying quietly:

Priest: By the mystery of this water and wine
may we come to share in the divinity of Christ who humbled himself to share in our humanity.

The celebrant then raises the chalice above the altar and says:

Blessed are you, Lord God of all creation,
for through your goodness we have received
the wine we offer you:
fruit of the vine and work of human hands,
it will become our spiritual drink.

All: Blessed be God for ever.

Bowing, the celebrant says quietly:

Priest: With humble spirit and contrite heart
may we be accepted by you, O Lord, and may our sacrifice in your sight this day be pleasing to you, Lord God.

Then the celebrant washes his hands, saying quietly:

Wash me, O Lord, from my iniquity and cleanse me from my sin.

Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours may be acceptable to God, the almighty Father.

All: May the Lord accept the sacrifice at your hands for the praise and glory of his name, for our good and the good of all his holy Church.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Priest: May these offerings we bring in honour of all the Saints be pleasing to you, O Lord, and grant that, just as we believe the Saints to be already assured of immortality, so we may experience their concern for our salvation.
Through Christ our Lord.
All: Amen

EUCHARISTIC PRAYER III

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: Lift up your hearts.
All: We lift them up to the Lord.

Priest: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
All: It is right and just.

PREFACE (The glory of Jerusalem, our mother)

Priest: It is truly right and just, our duty and our salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks,
Lord, holy Father, almighty and eternal God.

For today by your gift we celebrate the festival of your city, the heavenly Jerusalem, our mother, where the great array of our brothers and sisters already gives you eternal praise.

Towards her, we eagerly hasten, as pilgrims advancing by faith, rejoicing in the glory bestowed upon those exalted members of the Church through whom you give us, in our frailty, both strength and good example.

And so, we glorify you with the multitude of Saints and Angels,
as with one voice of praise we acclaim:

ACCLAMATION

All: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Congregation kneels

Priest: You are indeed Holy, O Lord, and all you have created rightly gives you praise,
for through your Son our Lord Jesus Christ,
by the power and working of the Holy Spirit,
you give life to all things and make them holy,
and you never cease to gather a people to yourself,
so that from the rising of the sun to its setting a pure sacrifice may be offered to your name.

Therefore, O Lord, we humbly implore you:
by the same Spirit graciously make holy these gifts we have brought to you for consecration, that they may become the Body and + Blood of your Son our Lord Jesus Christ,
at whose command we celebrate these mysteries.

For on the night he was betrayed
he himself took bread,
and, giving you thanks, he said the blessing,
broke the bread and gave it to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND EAT OF IT,
FOR THIS IS MY BODY
WHICH WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR YOU.

In a similar way, when supper was ended,
he took the chalice
and, giving you thanks, he said the blessing,
and gave the chalice to his disciples, saying:

TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND DRINK FROM IT,
FOR THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD,
THE BLOOD OF THE NEW AND ETERNAL COVENANT, WHICH WILL BE POURED OUT FOR YOU AND FOR MANY FOR THE FORGIVENESS OF SINS.

DO THIS IN MEMORY OF ME.

Priest: The mystery of faith.
All: Save us, Saviour of the world,
for by your Cross and Resurrection
you have set us free.

Priest: Therefore, O Lord, as we celebrate the memorial of the saving Passion of your Son, his wondrous Resurrection and Ascension into heaven, and as we look forward to his second coming, we offer you in thanksgiving this holy and living sacrifice.

Look, we pray, upon the oblation of your Church and, recognising the sacrificial Victim by whose death you willed to reconcile us to yourself, grant that we, who are nourished by the Body and Blood of your Son and filled with his Holy Spirit, may become one body, one spirit in Christ.

May he make of us an eternal offering to you,
so that we may obtain an inheritance with your elect, especially with the most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, with blessed Joseph, her spouse, with your blessed Apostles and glorious Martyrs with Saint Patrick and with all the Saints, on whose constant intercession in your presence we rely for unfailing help.

May this Sacrifice of our reconciliation, we pray, O Lord, advance the peace and salvation of all the world. Be pleased to confirm in faith and charity your pilgrim Church on earth, with your servant Leo our Pope and N our Bishop, the Order of Bishops, all the clergy, and the entire people you have gained for your own.

Listen graciously to the prayers of this family, whom you have summoned before you: in your compassion, O merciful Father, gather to yourself all your children scattered throughout the world.
To our departed brothers and sisters and to all who were pleasing to you at their passing from this life, give kind admittance to your kingdom.
There we hope to enjoy for ever the fullness of your glory through Christ our Lord, through whom you bestow on the world all that is good.

Priest: Through him, and with him, and in him,
O God, almighty Father,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honour is yours,
for ever and ever.
All: Amen.

THE COMMUNION RITE

Priest: At the Saviour's command and formed by divine teaching,
we dare to say:

All: Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

Priest: Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil, graciously grant peace in our days,
that, by the help of your mercy,
we may be always free from sin
and safe from all distress, as we await the blessed hope and the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.

All: For the kingdom, the power and the glory are yours now and for ever.

Priest: Lord Jesus Christ, who said to your Apostles:
Peace I leave you, my peace I give you,
look not on our sins, but on the faith of your Church,
and graciously grant her peace and unity in accordance with your will.
Who live and reign for ever and ever.
All: Amen.

Priest: The peace of the Lord be with you always.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: May this mingling of the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ bring eternal life to us who receive it.

All: Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.
Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, grant us peace.

Congregation kneels
The celebrant says quietly:
Lord Jesus Christ, Son of the living God, who, by the will of the Father and the work of the Holy Spirit,
through your Death gave life to the world,
free me by this, your most holy Body and Blood,
from all my sins and from every evil;
keep me always faithful to your commandments,
and never let me be parted from you.

INVITATION TO HOLY COMMUNION

Priest: Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.

All: Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word
and my soul shall be healed.

Priest: May the Body of Christ
keep me safe for eternal life.

Priest: May the Blood of Christ
keep me safe for eternal life.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON Mt 5:8-10

All: Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

Purifying the chalice the celebrant says quietly:
What has passed our lips as food, O Lord,
may we possess in purity of heart,
that what has been given to us in time
may be our healing for eternity.

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

Congregation kneels

Priest: Let us pray.
As we adore you, O God, who alone are holy and wonderful in all your Saints, we implore your grace, so that, coming to perfect holiness in the fullness of your love, we may pass from this pilgrim table
to the banquet of our heavenly homeland.
Through Christ our Lord.
All: Amen

THE CONCLUDING RITES

Priest: The Lord be with you.
All: And with your spirit.

Priest: May God, the glory and joy of the Saints, who has caused you to be strengthened by means of their outstanding prayers, bless you with unending blessings.
All: Amen

Priest: Freed through their intercession from present ills and formed by the example of their holy way of life, may you be ever devoted to serving God and your neighbour.
All: Amen

Priest: So that, together with all,
you may possess the joys of the homeland,
where Holy Church rejoices that her children are admitted in perpetual peace to the company of the citizens of heaven.
All: Amen

Priest: And may the blessing of almighty God,
the Father, and the Son, + and the Holy Spirit,
come down on you and remain with you for ever.
All: Amen

Then the celebrant, with hands joined and facing the people, says:

Priest: Go in peace.
All: Thanks be to God.

"Dear Lord,
Thank you for listening to me when there is no one else to turn to with my particular problem.
Thank you for understanding me when I cannot understand myself.
Thank you for all I have which I take so much for granted.
Help me to accept any troubles, problems, worries I may have,
and give me the strength to face up to them, with faith in your love and goodness.
Through Christ, our Lord. Amen."

CONTINUOUS PRAYER FOR MARRIAGE & FAMILY LIFE

During this month of November we are asked to pray for all our beloved dead.

PRAYING WITH POPE LEO XIV

During the month of November, Pope Leo invites us to join with him in prayer for the following intention:
-Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity with those who have less.

PLEASE NOTE:

This Wednesday 4th November, Mass in St Patrick's will take place in the evening time at 7pm.
No morning Mass at 9.30am

PRAYING FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

Anniversaries:

INDULGENCES FOR THE HOLY SOULS

During the month of November the Church urges us to pray fervently for the Holy Souls in Purgatory. The motivation behind our prayer is to free the deceased of the effects of their sins so that the Lord will welcome them to the happiness of heaven. Through our prayer, we can also gain Plenary Indulgences for the Holy Souls, that is the remission of temporal punishment due to sin, for sins already forgiven.

1st-8th November -by those who visit a cemetery, praying for the Holy Souls and praying for the intentions of the Holy Father, including the Our Father and the Apostle's Creed.

2nd November-Feast of All Souls-by those who make a visit to the Blessed Sacrament in the Church and there pray for the Holy Souls including prayer for the Holy Father's intentions, including the Our Father and the Apostle's Creed.

In order to obtain the plenary indulgence for the Holy Souls, we need to be in the state of grace, that is, we must have attended the Sacrament of Confession, and received Holy Communion recently.

SUPPORTING THE WORK OF THE CHURCH

This weekend are two collections, the Weekly Offering in support of the parish and the Monthly Offering in support of the priests of the diocese. Thanks to those who contributed so generously to the collections of last weekend. The Weekly Offering came to £1308. Donations to the Family Fast Box for Aid to the Church in Need came to £128.

RELICS OF THE APOSTLES & MARTYRS

The parish of Newtownards & Comber has the privilege of being the custodian of relics of the Holy Apostles, Martrys of the 2nd & 3rd centuries, in addition to other relics on temporary loan to the parish. The relics will be on display for the Feast of All Saints this weekend 31st October/1st November. Those attending Mass are invited to venerate the relics after Mass. We ask for the prayers of the apostles and martyrs and all the saints.

FRIENDSHIP CLUB

The club meets in St Patrick's Parish Centre, Newtownards every Wednesday 2pm-4pm. Do come along to form and renew friendships. The club provides many opportunities for company, conversation and activities with many events organised throughout the year. Please spread the word-invite friends along too!

IN SUPPORT OF HUMAN LIFE

During this week we are asked to pray for the protection of life:
-let us pray for all those approaching the end of their lives. May they be granted a peaceful, natural death with dignity and the appropriate palliative care

A WORD OF THANKS!!!

A sincere word of thanks to all who took part in the 'tidy-up Saturday on 17th October at St Patrick's. There was a wonderful turnout, and a great atmosphere. All who turned up worked really hard and were treated by the ladies of the hospitality team. Thanks to one and all.
For those who would like to participate in a 'follow-up', on Saturday 21st November 10am-12noon, you will be most welcome! Do come along for the final 'tidy-up' before winter!

THE MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

November Dead Lists are available after Mass this weekend. Please take a list home to record the names of your deceased loved ones, family, friends, neighbours and particularly those who have no living relatives to pray for them. Please return to the 'November Dead box' in either Church. Upon return, the envelopes will be opened, read, and place near the altar for the celebration of Masses during November. The offerings enclosed are used to support the priests of the diocese.

In addition to the November Dead Lists placed near the altar, parishioners may like to consider displaying memoriam cards of loved ones on the display boards in the churches. The display is an expression of our love for the deceased, helping others to remember them, and encourages prayer for the happy repose of their souls.

FEAST OF THE HOLY SOULS

Feast of the Holy Souls-a special day of prayer and suffrage for the deceased. Mass will be celebrated in St Patrick's at 9.30am, and in Our Lady of the Visitation, Comber at 7.30pm.

ANNUAL MASSES FOR THE DEAD

On the weekend of 7th/8th November we will include in the Masses those whose funerals have taken place in the churches of the parish over the last twelve months. We will also welcome their family members and pray God's consolation for them.

On Wednesday 4th November at 7pm in St Patrick's Church, Mass will be offered in memory of ALL our deceased children. As in previous years, their names will be placed discreetly in front of the Altar. The Parish Bereavement Care Team invite those who have suffered the tragic loss of a child, regardless of age, to contact them in confidence on 07563195580, or to speak to Bronagh or Aine, if they would like their child's name to be included.

SHORT-TERM PLEDGE FOR THE HOLY SOULS

The month of November offers a special opportunity to make a small sacrifice in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We invite parishioners and friends to consider taking a Short-Term Pledge throughout November. Pioneer Offering –
"I promise, in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and with the help of the Blessed Virgin Mary, to abstain from all intoxicating substances until the end of November."
Please consider joining with others in prayer, sacrifice and support for those affected by addiction.

CONTINUOUS PRAYER FOR MARRIAGE & FAMILY LIFE

This coming Saturday, 7th November, we will celebrate our Parish Prayer Day from midnight to midnight. You are invited to spend time in prayer for the particular intention for this month: We pray for our beloved dead.
We will celebrate an hour of silent Eucharistic Adoration on the Saturday evening in St Patrick's Church 5.30am-6.25pm. Do come along and pray for the faithful departed.

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL

~A Spiritual Communion~

Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Most Blessed Sacrament. I love You above all things, andI desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot now receive You Sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart, I embrace You as if you are already there, and I unite myself wholly to You.

The Lord asks of you only this, that you act justly, love tenderly and walk humbly with your God. (Micah 6:8)

During November masses are offered for those whose names are included in our November Dead Lists. Stationery is available at the exit doors of the church. Please return your lists along with the customary offering to the box at the entrance door at mass times.

Foodbank Team

This time of year is the busiest for the foodbank. Winter and the extra demands of Christmas are approaching.

Please remember the Foodbank can only accept non-perishable foods. Also, they do not accept presents. Leaflets are available in the Church porch with full details.

Sadly it is often a time when stocks are at their lowest. As always thank you for your generous support. We would like to ask those who do not presently donate, to consider joining us. Every little helps.

Thank you

THE FEAST OF ALL SAINTS

On the Feast of All Saints, we celebrate the countless men and women who have gone before us in faith and now share in the joy of heaven. Some are well-known saints whose names we recognise, while countless others lived quiet, ordinary lives of extraordinary love and faithfulness.

This beautiful feast reminds us that holiness is not reserved for a chosen few, but is the calling of every one of us. The saints were not perfect people, but people who allowed God's grace to transform their lives.

As we celebrate their example and ask for their prayers, may we be encouraged to follow in their footsteps, remembering that we too are called to become saints.

PLENARY INDULGENCES FOR THE SOULS IN PURGATORY EXPLAINED

"The doctrine and practice of indulgences in the Church are closely linked to the effects of the sacrament of Penance" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1471).

"An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints" (Code of Canon Law, canon 992).

Indulgences are understood as a gift from God, through His Church, to help us in our desire for eternal salvation. While our sins are absolved in the sacrament of Penance, we are called to atonement for our sins, an aspect of our human nature. "While patiently bearing sufferings and trials of all kinds and, when the day comes, serenely facing death, the Christian must strive to accept this temporal punishment of sin as a grace. He should strive by works of mercy and charity, as well as by prayer and the various practices of penance, to put off completely the 'old man' and to put on the 'new man'" (CCC, no. 1473).

The Church sets forth the following conditions for a plenary indulgence to be granted (Indulgentiarum doctrina, norm 7):

1. Be in a state of grace when the indulgenced work is completed;
2. Have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin;
3. Have sacramentally confessed one's sins;
4. Receive the Holy Eucharist;
5. Pray for the intentions of the Pope.

The Church also adds some extra clarification to some of these conditions:

- A plenary indulgence can only be acquired once per day (ID, norm 6).
- One may make a sacramental Confession and receive Holy Communion "within several days before or after the prescribed work" (ID, norm 8).
- One sacramental Confession can satisfy the requirement for several plenary indulgences, but separate receptions of Holy Communion and prayers for the Holy Father are required for each plenary indulgence (ID, norm 9).
- An Our Father and a Hail Mary are suggested prayers for the Pope's intentions (ID, norm 10).
- Indulgences can either be applied to oneself or to the souls of the deceased, but not to other living persons (ID, norm 3). It is worth noting that some indulgences can only be applied to the souls of the faithful departed, like the ones offered by the Church in early November for the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed (All Souls).

November Lists of Deceased.

List of deceased and envelopes are available at the church doors. Please take a list home and fill it in with he names of deceased loved ones, and place in the envelope provided, and place in the box at the sanctuary. Box available during masses and removed afterwards. Donations are optional.

These envelopes will be opened and the sheets placed on the altar and the names therein remembered at all masses during the month of December.

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them.

May their souls and those of the faithful departed rest in peace"

Food Bank

As always we had a great collection of food and donations of £506. We sent 2 Tescos orders to the food bank with multiples of the following items: Long life milk, juice, coffee, oats, tins of stewing steak, beef casserole, chicken in white sauce, tinned vegetables, tinned fruit, biscuits, shampoo, shower gel, toothpaste, washing detergent.

Annual Mass for the deceased members of Kilclief Ben Dearg GAC will be held in the Clubrooms on Wednesday 11th November 2026 at 7.30pm.

Kilclief Cemetery

Many of you will be aware of the problem we have with rock, which is a lot more extensive that we first hoped.
We will dig out 2 rows of graves each year and fill them with soil so that the digging will be so much easier when they are required.
We spent £4,000 during the summer and as a result the Finance Committee agreed with me that to recoup this money being spent we are keeping the price of graves for Parishioners (those who live within the Parish boundaries or those who live outside the Parish boundaries that contribute via weekly envelope or standing order) at £300 but increasing the price for those living outside the Parish to £1,000 in line with many of our neighbouring Parishes.
Thank you for your continued support.

Fr Aidan

In addition to the Masses offered during the month of November for our deceased relatives and friends, special Masses will be celebrated for all Parishioners who have died in the past year (those residing in our Parish at the time of death, or those interred in our Parish cemeteries). A candle will be lit for each person by a family representative. An additional candle will be lit for family and friends from outside our Parish who have died. Please contact the Parish office to ensure your loved ones name is included on the intentions list for these Masses.
St Patrick's, Saul – Friday 13th November at 7pm
Stella Maris, Strangford – Monday 16th November at 7.30pm

Strangford and District Men's Shed will hold their Annual General Meeting at Glebe House on Monday 2nd November at 8pm. The meeting is open to all men over 18 who may like to find out what we do at the Men's Shed. A cuppa will be served and hopefully some cookies!

As we approach the month of November, the Church invites us to remember in a special way those who have gone before us in faith. Praying for our deceased loved ones is one of the beautiful traditions of our Catholic faith, reminding us that the bonds of love are not broken by death.As in previous years, I invite you to write the names of your deceased family members and friends on the November Dead Lists and place them in the envelopes provided at the front of the church. Throughout November, at every Mass, we will remember all those whose names have been entrusted to our prayers. Each envelope will be opened, the names read and placed upon the altar, a beautiful reminder that those we love are never forgotten, either by us or by God.

On another note, it was a real joy to host a Diocesan Women's Discernment Evening here in St Colmcille's on Thursday evening. Twenty young women gathered to reflect and pray about what God might be calling them to, particularly the possibility of religious life. It was wonderful to see such openness and generosity of spirit. Please keep these young women in your prayers as they continue to listen for the Lord's voice in their lives.

In the Gospel, Jesus reminds us of the two great commandments: to love God with all our heart and to love our neighbour as ourselves. In many ways, both of these invitations are reflected in what we do as a parish. We show our love for God by being open to his call, and our love for one another through our prayers, our care and our remembrance of those who have gone before us.

Whether we are discerning what God wants of us, praying for someone we love, or simply offering a little kindness to another person, we are living out those two great commandments.

May November be a month of prayer, remembrance and renewed trust in God's love.

SENSORY-FRIENDLY MASS INVITATION

St Colmcille's Parish (Ballyhackamore Belfast BT4 3JB) warmly invites you to our monthly Sensory Mass on Saturday, 31st October at 12:00 noon. This special Mass is designed to be inclusive and welcoming for individuals and families who may benefit from a quieter, more relaxed worship environment. The short Mass will feature: Gentle lighting and sound; A calm and supportive atmosphere; Space to move around if needed; Sensory items to aid regulation;
A warm welcome for all ages and abilities.
Whether you or a loved one experience sensory sensitivities, or you simply wish to attend a short peaceful and reflective service, we would love to see you there. Refreshments after Mass.

MASS TO REMEMBER DECEASED MEMBERS OF THE PIONEER ASSOCIATION

A Mass to remember all deceased members of the Pioneer Association will take place on Friday 20 November in St Agnes' Church, Andersonstown Road, Belfast at 7 pm. Light refreshments afterwards. All Pioneers welcome.

NOVEMBER SHORT-TERM PLEDGE

The month of November offers a special opportunity to make a small sacrifice in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. We invite parishioners and friends to consider taking a Short-Term Pledge throughout November. Pioneer Offering - "I promise, in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, and with the help of the Blessed Virgin Mary, to abstain from all intoxicating substances until the end of November." Please consider joining with others in prayer, sacrifice and support for those affected by addiction.

HOLY COMMUNION AT MASS

Following the 'Listening Ear' feedback received by the PEG team last weekend, TWO Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion will attend parishioners, at the Saturday 5.30pm Mass, who are waiting to receive the Blessed Sacrament at their seat.
ONE EMHC will continue to bring the Blessed Sacrament to parishioners at their seat at the Sunday 9.30am and 11.30am Masses.
Parishioners must alert an EMHC by asking someone to inform them, or by telling one of the Ministers of Welcome about their need.
Parishioners waiting to receive at their seat should either stand to alert the EMHC as they approach, or get help to signal to the EMHC.

Manresa Jesuit Centre of Spirituality (426 Clontarf Road, D03 FP52) – Advent 2026 Retreat Offerings

- Advent Triduum Retreat

Mon-Fri, 30 Nov-4 Dec / Mon-Fri 14-18 Dec

This guided silent retreat offers an opportunity to step away from the busyness of the season and spend time with the themes of Advent – a time of waiting, watching and preparing for the mystery of Christ's coming.

- Advent Weekend Retreat

Fri-Sun, 4-6 Dec

Themed around the core themes of Advent, the weekend includes time for personal prayer and reflection, prayer with others, and the opportunity to meet with a spiritual director. It is a chance to step away from the many demands of the season and make space to notice where God's Spirit may be moving.

Recruitment: We are re-advertising the post of part-time Parish Support Officer - formerly called "Parish Secretary". This post will complete our Downpatrick Parish support team which currently comprises James Tumelty as assistant parish support officer and Fiona Connolly as Parish Finance Officer. It is a 16 hour/week, Monday to Thursday post. The link to the job specification and application is below.

Please don't be put off by the detail in that. At its core, what we are seeking is a person with a heart for the parish who has a warm presence on the phone, a strong instinct and respect for confidentiality, the capacity to listen with compassion, the ability to keep us organised so that we are better able to serve the people of the parish. The Parish Support Officer is the welcoming face of Downpatrick Parish and the link person between our groups, our schools, our families, our priests so that all we do together helps to build the Kingdom of God amongst us. It's not just a job, it's a vocation to serve with a smile.

Neither Fr Jim nor I will sit on the interview panel; that part will be in the care of the diocesan team. The time-line for applications is tight. Please consider this prayerfully and, if the challenge appeals to you: apply! We are convinced that the right person is out there waiting to say "yes"! Fr Eugene & Fr Jim Full details of the role, including the Role Profile and Employment Application Form, are available on the Diocesan website: www.downandconnor.org – select Job Vacancies.

Annual Bereavement Mass: Please see the list of the deceased in our Parish from Nov 1st 2025 to Oct 22nd 2026, Check your loved ones name, the spelling and contact us if there are any corrections required. Please note - corrections should be emailed to downpatrick@downandconnor.org The date of the Mass will be 11 November at 7:30pm in St. Patrick's

A lot of people do not like large gatherings. They find big crowds exhausting. Today's feast, however, is precisely about crowds of people. The first reading expresses it well, 'a huge number, impossible to count…,
Today is the feast not just of a few chosen saints, but of all saints. Today we honour all the saints, those who are formally canonised and those who are not. If our vision of humanity is shaped exclusively by the media we might be tempted to think that there are a lot more villains out there than saints. It is reassuring to be reminded by today's feast that there exists a huge number of saints, impossible to count.
In the words of the letter to the Hebrews, we are surrounded by a 'great cloud of witnesses'. None of us can live as the Lord wants us to live purely on our own. We need the good example of others to inspire us and to show us what is possible.
Today's feast declares that we are surrounded by such a cloud of witnesses, if only we could recognise them. Some of these people have already passed beyond us and are now 'standing in front of the throne of the Lamb', in the words of today's first reading. Many of them, however, are our companions on the journey of life. They do not look at all like the statues in our churches. They are very ordinary, yet they are also very special. These are the people we are grateful to have met and to have around.
The feast of All Saints encourages us to believe that any one of us could be part of that huge number, impossible to count. In that sense, today's feast is about every one of us. John, in today's second reading, is speaking about all of us when he declares that 'We are already the children of God', and that, in the future, 'we shall be like' God. We are all destined for sainthood. God intends that all of us would be conformed to the image of God's Son.
For most of us, that will only come to pass fully beyond this life. Yet, because we are already sons and daughters of God through Baptism, we are called to grow now towards that wonderful transformation that awaits us.
The road to sainthood begins here, wherever we happen to find ourselves.
In today's gospel reading, Jesus shows us what that road to sainthood looks like. In the Beatitudes, Jesus painted a portrait of himself, the living saint par excellence. He was also painting a portrait of the person that we are all called to become. The Beatitudes give us different facets of the person of Jesus, while at the same time showing us different ways in which we might reflect the person of Jesu

1 November 2026 Feast of All Saints, (Monday, Thirty First Week, Year A).

Sunday Gospel We remember the followers of Jesus who from every time and place made the values of the gospel their way of life. From the very beginning of the Church saints are called to mind for the work they did as members for our family, who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith. As we ask their intercession, we also pray for the grace to follow their example in faith, hope and love. All of life is a return to God, the saints have completed their pilgrimage of faith, and we are called to follow in their footsteps. (Fr S Crumptor).
