To the combined choirs of the Brendan Pastoral area who came together on different nights to share their talents. To everyone who made such a great effort in attending and spreading the word of the Novena. To everyone who helped to make our Novena such a success - Brian, for organising readers, Elaine for Eucharistic Ministers, Mary, Marie & Teresa for the hospitality, a word of thanks to the young adults from the JP II in St. Brendan's C.S. To the collectors, Eucharistic Ministers and readers. To the parish team (Fr. Arnold, Fr. Michael, Fr. Tom, Vonnie & Joan) for their work in preparing for the Novena. To Sharon in the parish office who looked after the administration and social media. To all of you for your support with your attendance & your prayers. Mí na Samhna

Tá mí na Samhna buailte linn agus cuirimis fáilte roimhe. Bhíodh ceithre fhéile mhóra ag na Ceiltigh. Ceiliúradh a bhí i ngach ceann acu bainteach le hobair fheirmeoireachta. Tráth na Samhna bhíodh na barraí uile bainte ag na Ceiltigh agus dóthain bia bailithe acu don gheimhreadh fada, fuar. Bhíodh féasta acu le ceiliúradh a dhéanamh tar éis na hoibre ar fad. I ndiaidh teacht na gCríostaíochta go hÉirinn, rinne na Críostaithe a bhféilte féin a cheiliúradh ag an am céanna le féilte na gCeilteach.Sin an fáth a dtiteann Lá na Naomh Uile ar an 1 Samhain agus Lá na Marbh ar an 2 Samhain. Bhí siad araon ag gabháil buíochais as fómhar torthúil. De réir a chéile ghlac na Ceiltigh leis an gCríostaíocht Ceiliúradh bua atá i bhFéile na Naomh Uile. Déanaimid gairdeas leis na milliúin atá imithe romhainn ar neamh, roinnt mhaith díobh aitheanta ach na milliúin eile nach bhfuil. Bíonn an Eaglais de shíor ag guí ar son na marbh. Tá an mhí áirithe seo ceaptha aici mar chuimhneacháin na bhFíréan uile atá marbh.
Suaimhneas síoraí tabhair dóibh a Thiarna agus go lonra solas suthain orthu. Go bhfaighe anamacha na bhfíréan go léir trócaire ó Dhia agus cónaí faoi shuaimhneas. Áiméan.

The Month of November

November is here and we welcome it. The Celts had four major feasts. They were farmers and each feast related to farming. At Samhain the Celts had harvested the crops and they had sufficient food for the long, cold Winter. They held a great feast to celebrate after their hard work. With the spread of Christianity in Ireland the Christians celebrated their feasts the same time as the Celts. This is the reason why the feast of All Saints was celebrated on the November 1 and All Souls on November 2. Each understood the importance of giving thanks for a rich harvest. Gradually the Celts embraced Christianity.
The Feast of All Saints is a celebration. We rejoice with the millions who have gone before us to heaven, some recognised saints and many others who are not. The Church always prays for the Dead. This month is devoted to the faithful departed.
Eternal rest grant to them O Lord and let perpetual light shine upon them. May they rest in peace.Amen

Reflection

On Passing a Graveyard
May perpetual light shine upon
The faces of all who rest here.
May the lives they lived
Unfold further in spirit.
May all their past travails
Find ease in the kindness of clay.
May the remembering earth
Mind every memory they brought
May the rains from the heavens
Fall gently upon them.
May the wildflowers and grasses
Whisper their wishes into light.
May we reverence the village of presence
In the stillness of this silent field. John O'Donohue

Weekly Reflection

I know a lot of saints, I do! So let me mention just a few. I know someone who runs a team and teaches kids to play and dream, who stands in cold and wind and rain on days they play and nights they train; someone who says, 'Just do your best', When I am scared to take a test;

A friend who takes the time to show; how things were done so long ago; a teacher who just always knows where that comma always goes;

And others who are kind and good who try to act as Jesus would, who show God's love in all they do. I know a lot of saints, don't you?

November Prayer

Lord God, whose days are without end and whose mercies beyond counting,
Keep us mindful that life is short and the hour of death unknown.
Let your Spirit guide our days on earth in the ways of holiness and justice.
That we may serve you in union with the whole Church
Sure in faith, strong in hope, perfect in love.
And when our earthly dwelling is ended, lead us rejoicing into your kingdom where you live for ever and ever. Amen.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon
Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in hour of all the Saints, at whose festival the angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord
C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.
C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

A reading from the book of Apocalypse Apoc 7:2-4. 9-14

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, "Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel.

After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, "Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words: "Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen

One of the elders then spoke, and asked me, "Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from?" I answered him, "You can tell me, my Lord." Then he said, "These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb."

The word of the Lord

Responsorial Psalm
Response:
Such are the men who seek your face, O Lord.

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness,
the world and all its peoples.
It is he who set it on the seas;
on the waters he made it firm. R.

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things. R.

He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the men who seek him,
seek the face of the God of Jacob. R.

A reading from the first letter of St John 1 Jn 3:1-3

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are.
Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us.
My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is.
Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify himself, must try to be as pure as Christ.

The word of the Lord

Gospel Acclamation
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened,
And I will give you rest , says the Lord.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Mt 5:1-12

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:
'How happy are the poor in spirit;
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy the gentle:
they shall have the earth for their heritage.
Happy those who mourn:
they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:
they shall be satisfied.
Happy the merciful:
they shall have mercy shown them.
Happy the pure in heart:
they shall see God.
Happy the peacemakers:
they shall be called sons of God.
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day In accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.

Amen.

Communion Antiphon
Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God.
Blessed are the peacemakers,
For they shall be called children of God,
Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of Heaven.

Today's Gospel speaks to us about the greatest of the commandments. A doctor of the law questions Jesus about this and He responds with the "great commandment of love": "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind (…) and (…) your neighbour as yourself" (vv. 37.39). Love of God and neighbour are inseparable from each other. So, let us pause a bit to reflect on this.

The first: the fact that love for the Lord comes first reminds us that God always precedes us, he anticipates us with his infinite tenderness (cf. Jn 4:19), with his closeness, with his mercy, for He is always near, tender and merciful. A baby learns to love on their mommy's and daddy's knees, and we learn it in God's arms. The Psalm says, "Like a weaned child in the arms of its mother" (cf. 131:2). This is how we should feel in God's arms. And there, we absorb the Lord's affection; there, we encounter the love that impels us to give ourselves generously. Saint Paul recalls this when he says that the charity of Christ possesses a power that propels toward loving. And everything originates in Him. You cannot truly love others if you do not have this root, which is love of God, love for Jesus.

And now the second aspect that emerges from the commandment of love. It connects love for God to love for neighbour: it means that by loving our brothers and sisters, we reflect the Father's love like mirrors. To reflect God's love, this is the point – to love Him whom we do not see through the brother/sisters whom we do see (cf. 1 Jn 4:20). One day, Saint Teresa of Calcutta responded to a journalist who asked her if she had illusions about changing the world by which she was doing, " No, I never thought I could change the world! I only wanted to be a drop of clean water, through which God's love could shine" (Meeting with journalists after receiving the Nobel Peace Prize, Rome, 1979). This is how she, who was so little, was able to do so much good – by reflecting God's love like a drop. And if at times, looking at her and other saints, we might be moved to think that they are heroes that cannot be imitated, let us think again about that small drop: love is a drop that can change many things. And how can this be done? Taking the first step, always. Sometimes it is not easy to take the first step, to forget things…, to take the first step – let's do that. This is the drop – to take the first step.

So, dear brothers and sisters, thinking about God's love that always precedes us, we can ask ourselves: Am I grateful to the Lord that he loves me first? Do I feel God's love and am I grateful to him? And do I try to reflect His love? Do I strive to love my brothers and sisters, and take this second step?

Cathedral Update

Work has now commenced on the paving in front of the Cathedral. 20 days have been allocated for this work.

The new heating system is operational with some teething issues to b resolved. The remaining works on the ground are proceeding according to plan.

We apologise for the inconvenience it is causing but hopefully that all will be worthwhile.

The Cathedral and Parish Office remain open each day with four access points for the Cathedral and entrance to the Parish Office is by Station Road.

We thank the many people who are making contributions to the work. Such generosity is very much appreciated.

November Masses for the Holy Souls

The month of November dedicated to the Holy Souls is our annual reminder not to forget our loved ones and those who have gone before us. One of the great consolations of our Catholic faith is our belief in the Communion of Saints. That the link with those who have dies is not broken with death but takes on a whole new meaning with our belief that those who died are just gone ahead of us and our relationship continues in new ways.
Our November Masses for the Holy Souls' begin on All Souls Day, Monday 2nd November. Envelopes are now available.

Feast of All Saints

On Sunday 1st November, we celebrate the feast of All Saints', a day of special celebration honouring all our loved ones who were privileged to share life with us on this earth and who we believe now share in the eternal happiness of the company of God in heaven.

Mass of Remembrance

For all who have died in the Parish in the last year and for parishioners who have had a bereavement Mass will take place on Monday 2nd November, All Souls' Day at 7.30pm in the Cathedral.

A prayer for November

God be in my head and in my understanding
God be in my eyes and in my looking
God be in my mouth and in my speaking
God be in my heart and in my thinking
God be at my end and my departing.

October - Safeguarding Month

Safeguarding KILLALOE

Safeguarding is more than policies and procedures - it is about respecting the dignity, wellbeing, and rights of every person. As a parish community, let us continue to be vigilant, caring and supportive of one another. By working together, we can help ensure that everyone who comes through our doors feels safe, valued and welcome.

Congratulations

To the Banner GAA Club who were crowned Intermediate Football Champions last Saturday.

To Eire Óg who were crowned Senior Football Champions for the third year in a row.

A special word of gratitude to all who do great work for our young people in both Clubs.

All Saints

I know a lot of saints, I do!
So let me mention just a few:
I know someone who runs a team
And teaches kids to play and dream,
Who stands in cold and wind and rain
On days they play and nights they train;
Someone who says, 'Just do your best',
When I am scared to take a test;
A friend who takes the time to show
How things were done so long ago;
A teacher who just always knows
Where that comma always goes;
And others who are kind and good
Who try to act as Jesus would,
Who show God's love in all they do;
I know a lot of saints, don't you?

Christy Kenneally.

Today's Scripture Readings

Entrance Antiphon
Let the hearts that seek the Lord rejoice; turn to the Lord and his strength; constantly seek his face.

PENITENTIAL RITE

P. Have mercy on us, O Lord
C. For we have sinned against you.

P. Show us, O Lord, your mercy.
C. And grant us your salvation.

P. May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.
C. Amen.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will. We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you, we give you thanks for your great glory, Lord God, heavenly King, God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world,
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world,
receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

A reading from the book of Exodus
Ex 22:20-26

The Lord said to Moses, 'Tell the sons of Israel this', "You must not molest the stranger or oppress him, for you lived as strangers in the land of Egypt. You must not be harsh with the widow, or with the orphan; if you are harsh with them, they will surely cry out to me, and be sure I shall hear their cry; my anger will flare and I shall kill you with the sword, your own wives will be widows, your own children orphans".

"If you lend money to any of my people, to any poor man among you, you must not play the usurer with him: you must not demand interest from him".

"If you take another's cloak as a pledge, you must give it back to him before sunset. It is all the covering he has; it is the cloak he wraps his body in; what else would he sleep in?
If he cries to me, I will listen, for I am full of pity."'

The word of the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm
Response: I love you, Lord, my strength

I love you, Lord, my strength,
My rock, my fortress, my saviour.
My God is the rock where I take refuge;
My shield, my mighty help,
my stronghold.
The Lord is worthy of all praise:
When I call I am saved from my foes.
R.

Long life to the Lord, my rock!
Praised be the God who saves me.
He has given great victories to his king and shown his love for his anointed.
R.

A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Thessalonians.
1 Th 1:5-10

You observed the sort of life we lived when we were with you, which was for your instruction, and you were led to become imitators of us, and of the Lord; and it was with the joy of the Holy Spirit that you took to the gospel, in spite of the great opposition all round you. This has made you the great example to all believers in Macedonia and Achaia since it was from you that the word of the Lord started to spread - and not only throughout Macedonia and Achaia, for the news of your faith in God has spread everywhere. We do not need to tell other people about it: other people tell us how we started the work among you, how you broke with idolatry when you were converted to God and became servants of the real, living God; and how you are now waiting for Jesus, his Son, whom he raised from the dead, to come from heaven to save us from the retribution which is coming.

The word of the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation
Alleluia, alleluia!
Open our hearts, O Lord,
To accept the words of your Son.
Alleluia!

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.
Mt 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees they got together and, to disconcert him, one of them put a question, 'Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?' Jesus said, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second resembles it: You must love your neighbour as yourself. On these two commandments hang the whole Law, and the Prophets also.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day In accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Communion Antiphon
We will ring out our joy
at your saving help
and exult in the name of our God.

Survey for Columbarium Wall

The parish pastoral council, along with the parish finance and the graveyard committees are exploring whether there is sufficient interest in installing columbarium walls in Burrane Graveyard and Knockerra Graveyard.
A columbarium wall is a permanent, freestanding structure. Each wall contains recessed compartments called niches (instead of a plot), designed to respectfully hold 2+ cremation urns. Many parishes install them to provide families with a dignified, long-term resting place for loved ones who choose cremation and as an alternative to burial.
Survey can be accessed by below link or QR code. It will be available on Facebook page and social media as well as paper copies will be available at the back of the churches from this weekend.

A Litany of Remembrance

In the rising of the sun and in its going down. We remember them. In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter. We remember them. In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer. We remember them. In the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn. We remember them. In the beginning of the year and when it ends. We remember them. When we are lost and sick at heart. We remember them. When we have joys, we yearn to share. We remember them. So long as we live, they too shall live. We will remember them.

All Saints' Day – A Call to Holiness

All Saints' Day reminds us that holiness is not reserved for a chosen few. The saints were ordinary people who lived with extraordinary faith, kindness and love. Their example inspires us to follow Christ in our everyday lives. This week, let us be inspired to bring a little more kindness, hope and love into our homes, our parish and our community. We are all called to holiness!

COMMEMORATION OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

As we remember our faithful departed, we give thanks for the lives of those we have loved and lost. Though they are no longer with us, their love and memories remain in our hearts. We warmly invite everyone to take a moment to remember loved ones, light a candle, say a prayer and entrust them to God's everlasting love. May they rest in peace.

Reflection

Saints are not only people we read about in books; they are also ordinary people who bring love, kindness and goodness into our lives. They are those who care, forgive, help others and share a little happiness along the way.
As we celebrate All Saints and remember our loved ones on All Souls' Day, may we give thanks for their lives and follow their example, bringing God's love to others through the little things we do each day.

REFLECTION:

I know a lot of saints, I do!
So let me mention just a few:
I know someone who runs a team
And teaches kids to play and dream,
Who stands in cold and wind and rain
On days they play and nights they train;
Someone who's there when we are sad,
The best and gentlest friend we've had,
Someone who says, 'Just do your best',
When I am scared to take a test;
A friend who takes the time to show
How things were done so long ago;
A teacher who just always knows
Where that comma always goes;
And others who are kind and good,
Who try to act as Jesus would,
Who show God's love in all they do.
I know a lot of saints, don't you?
Christy Kenneally

If you are interested in getting a personal alarm, please contact Mary on 087-6200219.

REFLECTION - ALL SAINTS

I know a lot of saints, I do!
So let me mention just a few:
I know someone who runs a team
And teaches kids to play and dream,
Who stands in cold and wind and rain
On days they play and nights they train;
Someone who's there when we are sad,
The best and gentlest friend we've had,
Someone who says, 'Just do your best',
When I am scared to take a test;
A friend who takes the time to show
How things were done so long ago;
A teacher who just always knows
Where that comma always goes;
And others who are kind and good,
Who try to act as Jesus would,
Who show God's love in all they do.
I know a lot of saints, don't you?

Our Nearness to Eternity

It has been traditional in Ireland to regard the dead as very close to us who are living. Peig Sayers, a traditional storyteller who lived on the Great Blasket island off the Kerry coast was once asked where heaven was. In reply she said it was just a few inches above the head of the tallest man on the island. Heaven and earth, like life and death were one in the traditional way of thinking. Whether or not Peig realized it, her belief about heaven's closeness to earth is very similar to the thinking of the great medieval mystic known as Meister Eckhart. When he was asked where does the soul go after death Eckhart said, 'No place. Where else would the soul be going, where else is the eternal world? It can be nowhere other than here.' We have somehow managed to lose that sense of the nearness of eternity and to forget that once the soul is free of the body, time and space, distance and separation are meaningless.

Blessed Dominic Collins SJ 1566—1602 - (31 October)

Blessed Dominic Collins was born in Youghal, Co. Cork. His family was one of the leading families in the town. Dominic left Ireland for France and had nine years in the military; he became a captain and a military Governor. He then went to Spain and met Fr. White, a Jesuit Priest. Fr. White inspired Dominic to become a Jesuit brother. It was as a Jesuit brother that he returned to Ireland in the Battle of Kinsale. Dominic was captured by the English army and imprisoned. He was threatened, cajoled and offered treasures if he would renounce his faith. His family was brought to him to persuade him to renounce his faith and to go against his conscience; even to 'pretend' to do so. Dominic refused and on the 31st October 1602 he was executed in his home town of Youghal. An English officer who witnessed his death said; "He is going to his death as eagerly as I would go to a banquet." Dominic, it is told replied; "For this cause I would be willing to die not once but a thousand deaths." He was Beatified by Pope John Paul II in 1997 .

A Prayer to Blessed Dominic Collins SJ

Almighty and ever living God, you gave Blessed Dominic Collins grace to overcome the suffering of martyrdom which he endured for being true to his conscience. He bore witness to his family in the times of trouble. Through his intercession we ask you to hear the prayer we offer you in faith and give us the courage to bear witness to our families and the strength to be true to our conscience. Let his prayer enable us to endure every trial for love of you and to make all haste on our way to you, in whom alone is life. We ask this in the name of Jesus the Lord. Amen.

Remember those this special time,

Who live with God in love.
