1st November
Today we take time to remember those whom we've met on life's journey and who have now passed on to eternal life. We may be remembering someone very dear to us – a mother, father, brother or sister, a grandparent, a daughter or son, a dear friend or relation.....and we may also call to mind people who walked alongside us in life's journey for only a brief time, but who touched our lives deeply.....we remember those who have died during the past year, and all our loved ones who have died....

1 November – All Saints Day
All Saints' Day, also known as the Feast or Solemnity of All Saints, is celebrated every year on 1 November. On this day, which is a Holy Day of Obligation, we honour all of the Saints and ask them to pray for us. Mass on All Saints Day

2 November – All Souls' Day
All Souls' Day or more formally 'the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed' is a solemn celebration commemorating all of those who have died. An indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed. The indulgence is plenary each day from November 1-8; The plenary indulgence is earned under the usual conditions: Going to Confession, receiving Holy Communion and praying for the Pope's intentions (usually one Our Father and the Creed or Hail Mary).

Adoration in the Blessed Sacrament Chapel to pray for the Holy Souls will take place from the 1st Nov.—8th Nov from 10.30am to 12.30pm each day for eight days Sunday to Sunday. A chart is available behind the Tabernacle if you wish to cover and hour in Adoration during these times.
The Friday Adoration from 10.30 to 7pm will still be going ahead as usual.

Confessions
Confessions on Saturday evenings at 6.00pm. After Mass on the Thursday before the First Friday. A priest will be available after Mass on the weekdays if a parishioner wishes to celebrate the sacrament.

Prayers in the Graveyard
Prayers for all who are buried in our parish graveyards will take place next Sunday 8th of November beginning at St Mary's graveyard at 2.00pm, the Old Graveyard at 2.30pm and Reilig Íde Naofa at 3.00pm.
An opportunity to tidy up your graves before the winter.

They are not gone from us but gone before us.

Reflection

In the verses in the gospel preceding today's passage, the Sadducees - who deny the resurrection - approached Jesus and asked him a question about the afterlife not in order to seek an answer, not to learn, but to try to trip him up. Yet again, Jesus gave a masterful answer and silenced them.

Then, not to be outdone, the Pharisees approached him and they put their question. They weren't asking in order to learn either but to disconcert Jesus. In other translations, it is said they approached him with a question to test Jesus. The only other place St. Matthew uses this verb is when he applied it to the devil who approached Jesus after his forty days' fast in the desert, and the devil set out to test Jesus. Clearly, St. Matthew is saying that what the Pharisees were up to was reprehensible, nothing short of diabolical. Inspired by the devil they were treating Jesus - who is God - with utter contempt. This then contrasts - like black contrasts with white - when Jesus tells them that the first law is to love God and not treat him with contempt as they had.

To get back to their question for a moment. At first glance, it seems innocuous enough: "Master, which is the greatest commandment of the Law?" We would happily admit that there is a hierarchy of importance in laws. Some laws are more important than others. It seems obvious enough. But the rabbis of Jesus' day held that all the commandments - all six hundred and thirteen of them - being God's laws were all of equal importance and ranking them in terms of importance would be human presumption and an affront to God.

Then using their own commandment from Deuteronomy which read: "Hear, O Israel: the Lord your God is one Lord: and you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your might." Jesus instructed them that love of God is the first and most important law and then he went on to say that loving one's neighbour as oneself is the second and that the whole law is summed up in these two commandments. This is the key to interpreting all law. If one truly loves God and neighbour one has in fact kept all of God's laws.

Writing to the Romans, St. Paul put it this way: Love is the one thing that cannot hurt your neighbour; that is why it is the answer to every one of the commandments." (Rom. 13:10)

Let us continue to pray for those who are ill at this time, those who are preparing for and awaiting results of tests and those in hospital. Lord Jesus, you are the true friend of all those who suffer anguish and pain in spirit, mind or body. Please share with them now the gift of your consoling love.

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.
I love you above all things,
and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

Halloween... Comes from "All Hallows' Eve", where hallow means holy or saint.

In a world now dominated by such dark forces, and where society celebrate the darkness instead of light, on this Halloween, Saturday October 31st, the lights in the churches of St. Mary's and St. Nicholas will remain on through the night as a gentle and reassuring reminder that Jesus is the Light of the world and no darkness shall ever overpower him!

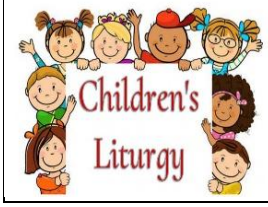

Feast Of All Souls - Monday 2nd November Mass
Mass at 10.00am in St Mary's Church

Annual Mass for the deceased
The month of November is traditionally the time of year when church liturgy invites us to pray for all those who have passed from this world. It is a particular duty in charity to remember our dear deceased family and friends at this time. Our Annual Mass for members of our parish community who have died during the past twelve months will be celebrated this Sunday 1st November at 10.00am in St Nicholas Church, and on Monday 2nd November at 7.00pm in St Mary's Church. The names of the deceased whose funerals were held in our parish will read out and a candle will be lit in remembrance and placed on the Altar. We will also light a candle for the deceased parishioners whose funerals were held outside of the parish.

Purgatorial Society Envelopes Throughout the month of November we remember in a special way those who have gone before us. Purgatorial Envelopes have been distributed throughout the parish and can be returned to the church with your list of deceased loved one's names enclosed. Your list of names will be placed in front of the Altar for the month of November, and they will be remembered at all our Masses.

Remembrance Service to honour each baby and pregnancy loss, by lighting a candle together. Service will be held in the Holy Rosary Church, Ennis Road on Sunday 8th November at 3.00pm. All welcome
