Remembering –

As we move into the month of November, we will lovingly remember our loved ones who have died. 107 funeral Masses have been celebrated across St. Michael's and Holy Cross Churches since this time last year. 70 funeral Masses have been celebrated in St. Michael's and 37 in Holy Cross Church since the start of November last year. These details give us a sense of the strength of both parishes to prayerfully support one another at the most difficult of times. At each of these Masses, there is a deep sense of the consoling presence of God and trust in the ultimate power of the Risen Jesus who 'defeats death forever'. This sense runs very deep and is much more than just sharing our sympathies. It's our prayer to accompany those who have died into the eternal presence of God and back into arms of their own deceased family members and loved ones. So, when we gather during this coming week for the Remembrance Mass, we will be praying, consoling and strengthening the heartbroken. While this is a sad time, it's also a beautiful time and that is how we approach November, in hope and new life. May all those who have died now rest in the peace of the Lord and may we remember them lovingly. May they rest in peace. - Fr. Michael

A brief introduction on Sunday's readings

• First Reading (Revelation 7:2–4, 9–14)
John sees a vast, uncountable multitude from every nation, race, and tongue, robed in white and standing before the throne and the Lamb. These are the ones who have passed through trials and washed their robes clean in the blood of Christ.
• Second Reading (1 John 3:1–3)
St. John reminds believers of their present identity as children of God, noting that while what we shall be has not yet been fully revealed, we will be like Him when we see Him as He is.
• Gospel (Matthew 5:1–12a)
The Beatitudes from the Sermon on the Mount. Jesus proclaims true blessing not in worldly power, but in spiritual poverty, meekness, mourning, hunger for righteousness, mercy, purity of heart, peacemaking, and endurance of persecution.

Reflections

The blessings in the Beatitudes are primarily future blessings, but there can be an anticipation of the blessings in the present. At first reading some Beatitudes may seem to describe circumstances that you would like to avoid at all costs.
Read them slowly. Stay with each one for a while. Let yourself get a sense of the paradox involved in each one. Perhaps you have had an experience of a deeper and more authentic life, a blessing, when…

1. You were poor - you knew your need of God
2. You mourned – could feel for others
3. You were meek – not emotionally out of control
4. You hungered and thirsted for some cause
5. You were merciful rather than vengeful
6. You you were pure in heart – a person of integrity, whose actions and intentions correspond
7. You were a peacemaker
8. You were persecuted because you stood for something

PRAYER
All-holy God, you call your people to holiness. As we keep the festival of your saints, give us their meekness and poverty of spirit, a thirst for righteousness, and purity of heart.
May we share with them the richness of your kingdom and be clothed in the glory you bestow.

Family of Parishes Meeting – Blackrock Parish was well represented at this on last Wednesday 28th October in the Parish Centre. All four parishes in our Family of Parishes were represented. Thought for the day

Today we celebrate the community of faith, being in communion with all the saints, a day of both thanksgiving and vision. Thanksgiving because of the example and inspiration of the saints, who have come to maturity, to the measure of the full stature of Christ. (Eph 4:13). Vision because our Gospel today describes the path we must take to make the same journey home to God. If we wish to join the saints both now and into eternity, we must make our own the "mission statement" of Jesus, which is the Sermon on the Mount and especially the opening invitation to true happiness.
Prayer
Jesus you are our teacher within and today we ask your help. Just as you have brought our brothers and sisters to full maturity in you, so also guide us and be with us as we walk your Way. By your grace, may we too be counted among saints in the present moment and in the life to come.

ENTRANCE –
Amazing Grace
Amazing grace how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now I'm found
Was blind but now I see

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed

Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come
This grace that brought me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home

RECESSIONAL –
Christ be beside me
Christ be beside me, Christ be before me,
Christ be behind me, King of my heart.
Christ be within me, Christ be below me,
Christ be above me, never to part.

Christ on my right hand, Christ on my left hand,
Christ all around me, shield in the strife.
Christ in my sleeping, Christ in my sitting,
Christ in my rising, light of my heart.

Christ be in all hearts thinking about me,
Christ be on all tongues telling of me.
Christ be the vision in eyes that see me,
In ears that hear me Christ ever be
