THE SUNDAY READINGS

First Reading: Apoc. 7:2-4, 9-14
In commemorating all the saints in heaven, we give thanks to God for the inspiration which their witness continues to give us. Though not known to us by name, these are the women and men who showed perseverance and trust in their pilgrim journey of faith. Far from fleeing in the face of challenge, they faced difficulty with confidence and hope and now rejoice in God's presence forever.

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-3
John reminds us of our identity as children of a God who is lavish with his gifts. We are asked to hold fast to the hope contained in God's promise to us. As we journey together towards our heavenly home, we are strengthened in the knowledge that he is with us guiding us, perfecting us, preparing us for a destiny which is beyond our wildest imaginings.

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12
The first three words in today's Gospel passage provide us with the key to understanding why Jesus climbed the hill and began to teach: seeing the crowds ...' In the Scriptures, the image of sight is often used to describe not just the physical act of looking at and recognizing someone or something but also — and at a more profound level — 'seeing' describes spiritual insight. When Jesus looks at us, he sees as God sees. He recognizes our need. He speaks words of life to us. He enlivens our hearts with hope and he helps us to see that the poor, humble, little ones of the earth are those who will inherit the kingdom of heaven.

Muskerry Local History Society

Ballincollig & Carrigrohane Castles

Who built these castles? What was it like to live in them? What were Ballincollig and Carrigrohane like in medieval times? These and other questions will be answered by Paul MacCotter in his illustrated lecture on Ballincollig and Carrigrohane Castles, organised by Muskerry Local History Society. The lecture will be held in Ballincollig Rugby Club P31 DA38 on Mon, 2nd Nov. at 7.00 pm.

Thought for Today

The Beatitudes show us that God knows about all the suffering and pain in the world. They also show us how God wants us to respond to it: with mercy, with peacemaking, with a hunger and thirst for holiness (right living and justice). The Beatitudes give us a hint of what we pray for when we pray "Your kingdom come." The Beatitudes are not just for the saints of long ago. They are for us today.
