Our Lady Crowned Church
St Joseph's Church & Holy Family Church

Sunday 1st November 2026
All Saints' Day 2026 ~ Year A

Gospel Reflection
Saints… who are they?

I'm sure you can think of many names in answer to that question: Mary, Joseph, Anthony, Carlos, Anne, Teresa, and many more. These are people whom the Church has declared saints: people whose example we can aspire to follow and through whose intercession we can pray to God.

But is there more to today's feast? I believe there is. Saints are more than those whose names we know and whose feast days we celebrate each year. We are all called to be saints. Yes, we are sinners, but, more importantly, we are sinners called to become saints.

How, you might ask? The answer is in today's Gospel. Jesus tells the people of his time that they are blessed in their poverty, their pain and grief, and their quest for peace. He calls them to offer that same generosity of spirit to those around them. Living by these words is what leads us towards sainthood.

We all know people who lived these ideals of Christian life every day and who now rest with God. They are saints who touched our lives, even without an official title.

So, as we celebrate all those who let the light of God shine through their lives into our world, let us pray that we, too, may become saints.
