NOVEMBER – A COMMUNION OF LOVE AND HOPE

As November begins, the Church celebrates All Saints and All Souls, reminding us that our relationship with Christ and one another is stronger than death.

On All Saints' Day, we celebrate not only the great saints whose names we know, but countless ordinary people who allowed God's grace to transform their lives. Holiness is not about being perfect or self-sufficient, but about trusting Christ and allowing His love to work through our weakness.

On All Souls' Day, we remember our deceased relatives, friends and parishioners. We pray for them because we believe in the Communion of Saints. Those who die in God's friendship but still require purification are prepared for the fullness of heaven. Our prayers, especially the Holy Mass, express our continuing love for them.

From 1–8 November, the Church offers a plenary indulgence for the Holy Souls in Purgatory. This is the remission of temporal punishment remaining after sins have been forgiven, through the merits of Christ.

To obtain this indulgence, we are invited to:

1. Visit a cemetery and pray for the deceased.
2. Receive the Sacrament of Confession.
3. Receive Holy Communion.
4. Pray for the Pope's intentions.
5. Be sincerely detached from all sin, even venial sin.

The usual conditions also apply to a plenary indulgence available through visiting a church on All Souls' Day and praying the Our Father and Creed.

An indulgence is not something we earn, but a gift of Christ's mercy. It reminds us that we belong to one another in Him.
