THE FEAST OF ALL SAINTS

On the Feast of All Saints, we celebrate the countless men and women who have gone before us in faith and now share in the joy of heaven. Some are well-known saints whose names we recognise, while countless others lived quiet, ordinary lives of extraordinary love and faithfulness.

This beautiful feast reminds us that holiness is not reserved for a chosen few, but is the calling of every one of us. The saints were not perfect people, but people who allowed God's grace to transform their lives.

As we celebrate their example and ask for their prayers, may we be encouraged to follow in their footsteps, remembering that we too are called to become saints.

PLENARY INDULGENCES FOR THE SOULS IN PURGATORY EXPLAINED

"The doctrine and practice of indulgences in the Church are closely linked to the effects of the sacrament of Penance" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1471).

"An indulgence is a remission before God of the temporal punishment due to sins whose guilt has already been forgiven, which the faithful Christian who is duly disposed gains under certain prescribed conditions through the action of the Church which, as the minister of redemption, dispenses and applies with authority the treasury of the satisfactions of Christ and the saints" (Code of Canon Law, canon 992).

Indulgences are understood as a gift from God, through His Church, to help us in our desire for eternal salvation. While our sins are absolved in the sacrament of Penance, we are called to atonement for our sins, an aspect of our human nature. "While patiently bearing sufferings and trials of all kinds and, when the day comes, serenely facing death, the Christian must strive to accept this temporal punishment of sin as a grace. He should strive by works of mercy and charity, as well as by prayer and the various practices of penance, to put off completely the 'old man' and to put on the 'new man'" (CCC, no. 1473).

The Church sets forth the following conditions for a plenary indulgence to be granted (Indulgentiarum doctrina, norm 7):

1. Be in a state of grace when the indulgenced work is completed;
2. Have the interior disposition of complete detachment from sin, even venial sin;
3. Have sacramentally confessed one's sins;
4. Receive the Holy Eucharist;
5. Pray for the intentions of the Pope.

The Church also adds some extra clarification to some of these conditions:

- A plenary indulgence can only be acquired once per day (ID, norm 6).
- One may make a sacramental Confession and receive Holy Communion "within several days before or after the prescribed work" (ID, norm 8).
- One sacramental Confession can satisfy the requirement for several plenary indulgences, but separate receptions of Holy Communion and prayers for the Holy Father are required for each plenary indulgence (ID, norm 9).
- An Our Father and a Hail Mary are suggested prayers for the Pope's intentions (ID, norm 10).
- Indulgences can either be applied to oneself or to the souls of the deceased, but not to other living persons (ID, norm 3). It is worth noting that some indulgences can only be applied to the souls of the faithful departed, like the ones offered by the Church in early November for the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed (All Souls).

November Lists of Deceased.

List of deceased and envelopes are available at the church doors. Please take a list home and fill it in with he names of deceased loved ones, and place in the envelope provided, and place in the box at the sanctuary. Box available during masses and removed afterwards. Donations are optional.

These envelopes will be opened and the sheets placed on the altar and the names therein remembered at all masses during the month of December.

"Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord. And let perpetual light shine upon them.

May their souls and those of the faithful departed rest in peace"

Food Bank

As always we had a great collection of food and donations of £506. We sent 2 Tescos orders to the food bank with multiples of the following items: Long life milk, juice, coffee, oats, tins of stewing steak, beef casserole, chicken in white sauce, tinned vegetables, tinned fruit, biscuits, shampoo, shower gel, toothpaste, washing detergent.

Thank you so much for your unwavering support ever month.
