These envelopes shall be opened and the names shall be placed upon the Altar during all masses during the novena. (N.B.) Any monies included with the lists shall be forwarded to a charity dealing with poverty and hunger among children and adults. Envelopes should be placed in the box at the front of the altar before The Novena begins. Mass each evening will be at 7.30pm

Prayers of the Angel

"My God, I believe, I adore, I hope and I love You! I ask pardon of You for all those who do not believe, do not adore, do not hope and do not love You!"

"Most Holy Trinity; Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, I adore You profoundly, and I offer You the most precious Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ, present in all tabernacles of the world, in reparation for the outrages, sacrileges and indifferences with which He Himself is offended. And, through the infinite merits of His most Sacred Heart, and the Immaculate Heart of Mary, I beg of You the conversion of poor sinners."

All Saints

'What do you think?'

This question is often posed, but you would do well to gauge firstly as to whether the questioner wants a genuine viewpoint or some 'positive stroking.' We prefer flattery to leadership. Isn't that true! We prefer that which confirms our prejudices.

But Jesus didn't come to confirm our prejudices. He came to change us — to save us — to turn our world upside down.

We believe that the rich are blessed.
Jesus says: 'Blessed are the poor.'
We believe that those who have plenty are blessed.
Jesus says: 'Blessed are the hungry.'
We believe that those who laugh are blessed.
Jesus says: 'Blessed are those who mourn.'
We believe that people whom everyone likes are blessed.
Jesus says: 'Blessed are you when people hate you.'

Why would Jesus say such things? They don't make any sense. We want Jesus to use common sense.

Today Jesus might well say:
You are rich in the things that perish, but poor in the things of the spirit.
You are rich in gadgets, but poor in faith.
You are rich in goods, but poor in grace.
You are rich in know-how, but poor in deeds.

Those who mind don't matter, and those who matter don't mind.
