Thoughts on the Gospel for All Saints Day November 1st 2026

Today the Church commemorates all those persons who lived in friendship with God on their earthly journey and entered through it into his glory. Some saints are raised to the altars as models of virtue and love for God. But many others left an imprint of sanctity day after day that perhaps passed unnoticed to human eyes, but that never escaped the attentive and loving eyes of God. As Monsignor Fernando Ocáriz, Prelate of Opus Dei, said: "All Saints Day is the feast of that quiet and simple sanctity—sanctity without any human splendor—which seems to leave no trace in history, but shines forth before God. It leaves behind in the world a sowing of Love from which nothing is lost."For the Gospel of today's Mass, the liturgy chose the passage of the beatitudes according to Saint Matthew. Thus it underlines the fact that these are the equivalent of sanctity, both of the sanctity that makes some people famous, so to speak, and the sanctity that is only fully revealed in heaven.

Annual Bazaar Next Friday November 6th: We will begin our very first Draw with a €100 cash + 2 or 3 other prizes and the first of 10 lambs will go in the 2nd Draw. So come early please!! Before Mass of the 31st of October

The October Quiz held in honour of the late John Gallagher raised €2355 which will go a long way on furnishing a new kitchen for the preparation of meals for the the 2 parish Primary Schools and the Creche in Glenfinn. Annjie Gallagher and the Gallagher family wish to thank people who attended and also donors who supported either by sponsoring prizes or by giving donations.

There won't be any Quiz in November as a mark of respect on John Gallagher's death.
