All Saints' Day: Called to Holiness

On November 1, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of All Saints - a joyful feast honouring all those who have entered the glory of heaven, including the many saints known only to God. The saints remind us that holiness is not reserved for a select few. Through God's grace, every Christian is called to become more like Christ in faith, hope, charity, and service.

Jesus gives us the pattern of holiness in the Beatitudes: humility, gentleness, hunger for righteousness, mercy, purity of heart, peacemaking, and perseverance amid suffering (Mt 5:3–12). These virtues express the self-giving love that leads us toward the Kingdom of Heaven.

The saints are not distant from us. They belong with us to the Communion of Saints, the one Mystical Body of Christ. Their example inspires us, and their prayers draw us closer to Christ, the source of every grace.2 As St. Paul teaches, "If one member suffers, all suffer together; if one member is honoured, all rejoice together" (1 Cor 12:26).

This feast also points us toward our eternal destiny. Heaven is the kingdom of love, joy, beauty, and communion - a universal family gathered around God and united in Christ. Let us ask the saints to pray for us and renew our commitment to holiness in the ordinary circumstances of daily life: at home, at work, in our parish, and through service to those in need.

All you holy men and women, pray for us!

Novena for the Dead

The Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls' Day)

On November 2, the Church remembers all the faithful departed and entrusts them to the loving mercy of God. We pray especially for those who have died in God's grace but still need purification before entering the fullness of heaven. The Catechism teaches that these souls are assured of eternal salvation, yet undergo purification "so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven" (CCC 1030).

Our prayers for the dead are an expression of faith in the Communion of Saints—the spiritual unity of the Church on earth, the souls being purified, and the saints in heaven. Scripture presents prayer and sacrifice for the dead as a holy and hopeful practice (2 Mac 12:41–46), and St. Paul prays that the Lord may show mercy to the deceased Onesiphorus "on that day" (2 Tim 1:16–18)

At every Mass, the Church prays for "our brothers & sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of the resurrection" and asks God to welcome them "into the light of [his] face." We can unite ourselves to this prayer by offering Masses, praying for our deceased loved ones, visiting their graves, and performing works of charity in their memory.

All Souls' Day is not a day without hope. Because Christ has conquered death, we believe that death does not have the final word. Jesus' promise is eternal life in the Kingdom of God - a communion of love, joy, & peace with God & all the redeemed.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May the souls of all the faithful departed,
through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen.
