Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time
8th November 2026

The door is closed against the bridesmaids who did not keep vigil nor trim their lamps. The concern of the Christian should be readiness for the call of the Lord, to seek the light of Christ in daily living, and to keep burning brightly the light received at baptism. It is true wisdom to be always eagerly longing for the Lord.

Entrance Hymn:

'Christ be near at either hand'

Christ be near at either hand,
Christ behind, before me stand,
Christ with me where e'er I go,

Christ around, above below.

Christ be in my heart and mind,
Christ within my soul enshrined,
Christ control my wayward heart; Christ abide and ne'er depart.

Christ my life and only way,

Christ my lantern night and day;
Christ be my unchanging friend,
Guide and shepherd to the end.

Recessional Hymn

Here I am Lord

I, the Lord of sea and sky,

I have heard my people cry,

All who dwell in dark and sin, my hand will save.

I who made the stars of night, I will make their darkness bright.

Who will bear my light to them? Whom shall I send?

Here I am Lord, is it I Lord. I have heard you calling in the night. I will go Lord, if you lead me. I will hold your people in my heart.

I the Lord of wind and flame. I will tend the poor and lame. I will set a feast for them. My hand will save. Finest bread I will provide, till their hearts be satisfied. I will live my life to them Whom shall I send? R

ST. LAURENCE O'TOOLE (b.1128 d.1180)

Lorcán Ó Tuathail

Laurence was born in Castledermot, Co. Kildare in 1128. He became Abbot of Glendalough in 1153 and Archbishop of Dublin in 1162. He died in Eu in Normandy on the 14th of November 1180 and was canonised in 1225. His eventful life can be summarised under eight headings.

HOSTAGE. Laurence's father was Maurice O'Toole, King of Hy Murray. When Laurence was 10 he was given as a hostage to Dermot McMurrough, King of Leinster, who treated him with great harshness. The boy was sent in chains to a remote area where he was ill housed, ill-clothed and ill-fed. For two years, the king's son learned what it was to experience real poverty and oppression.

2. MONK. After two years, Dermot was forced to release Laurence and send him to Glendalough monastery, where his father could reclaim him. When Maurice arrived, he found his son had fallen in love with the life of the monks and he gave him permission to join the community. Laurence was only 25 when he was elected Abbot, and he proved to be the greatest Abbot of Glendalough since St Kevin its founder. He encouraged learning, built new churches and renewed -monastic life by bringing in monks from the continent. He was unfailing in his care for the poor and sold the monastery treasures to feed famine victims.

3. ARCHBISHOP. In 1162 Laurence became the first Irish Archbishop of the Danish city of Dublin. Many of the citizens were no more than nominal Christians and he made it his duty to deepen their faith and reform their lives. He introduced Augustinian monks from France to Christ Church Cathedral to reform the liturgy and he became a member of their community. He continued his works of charity, especially towards homeless children, whom he led and housed in his own residence.

He was tall and graceful in figure.[2] He was well known as an ascetic, wore a hair shirt, never ate meat, and fasted every Friday on bread and water. In contrast to this, it is said that when he entertained, his guests lacked for nothing while he drank water coloured to look like wine so as not to spoil the feast.

He died 14th Nov 1180.

Parish Bulletin
8 November 2026

This weekend, as we remember all our relatives and friends who died in the last year, we offer you this reflection to remind us all that we journey in life with the help and companionship of many people forming a chain designed by God. We also offer the names of all our parishioners who died since 1876.

Suaimhneas Síoraí
Rest in Peace

Link in a chain (St John Henry Newman)

God has created me to do Him some definite service.
He has committed some work to me which He has not committed to another.
I have my mission.
I may never know it in this life, but I shall be told it in the next.
I am a link in a chain, a bond of connection between persons.
He has not created me for naught.
I shall do good; I shall do His work.
I shall be an angel of peace,
a preacher of truth in my own place,
while not intending it if I do but keep His commandments.
Therefore, I will trust Him,
whatever I am, I can never be thrown away.
If I am in sickness, my sickness may serve Him,
in perplexity, my perplexity may serve Him.
If I am in sorrow, my sorrow may serve Him.
He does nothing in vain.
He knows what He is about.
He may take away my friends.
He may throw me among strangers.
He may make me feel desolate, make my spirits sink, hide my future from me.
Still, He knows what He is about.

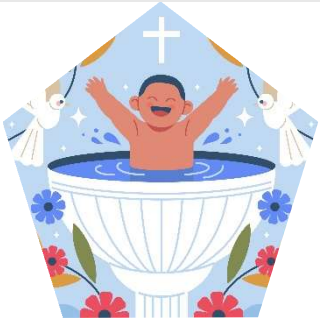

Throughout the month of November we remember family and friends who have returned home to heaven. We also pray for those who have no one to pray for them.

Please return your November List of the Dead to the Parish Office, as we pray that God will give eternal rest to all those who have died.

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Pastors Desk Jesus always new

The lamp is the light of love and hope, and at its centre is the light of Christ. The light is given to us in many ways in our lives - it shines within as an eternal joy, and outwards to many others. Jesus often advises, 'keep your lamps burning' and 'Let you lights shine.

Like when the bulb goes out when the electricity fails, the lamp can go out without oil. The people of the gospel felt foolish that they had not brought oil with them to light their way. The oil is prayer in our relationship with Jesus. This is the essence of the Christian life. Our Christian life is following a real, loving person: it is an invitation to get to know Jesus, and to find ourselves drawn from our hearts to follow him. Without this living relationship with Christ, words sound empty. We sometimes hear someone speaking of their Christian faith and cannot help wondering if it comes from the inside or is just a list of things to be believed and read.

Ignatius of Loyola's famous prayer is the prayer of the follower of Jesus; 'Lord, teach me to know you more, love you more and serve you more faithfully in my life.' (Spiritual Exercises). The more indicates that this is never a finished product: like love and friendship it grows in our lives. It is exciting that Jesus is never gone from us.: risen from the dead he is always alive, always new. Our reading of the gospel, our sharing at Mass and the sacraments and our personal prayer keep this relationship always alive, always new.

Thinking of a bright lamp, or imagining one, ask for an ever-brightening light of Christ in your life. Lord, teach me to know, love and serve you more faithfully every day. ~ Fr Donal Neary, S.J

Reflection by Fr Laurence Freeman

The Thirst for Knowledge goes deep in us. If we pursue it, it will take us to that depth where we find God. We want to know what we are like, we want to know who we are, we want to know what is going to happen tomorrow. Bernard Lonergan said that the hunger for knowledge is the human being's deepest need. But what is the knowledge that we are seeking and so hungry for? Is it just knowledge about some thing? Or is it knowing itself? Do We want to know about wisdom or do we want to know wisdom? Christ as wisdom personified, shows that knowledge is personal and wisdom is not an idea. It is not conceptual, not a hidden knowledge . It is the knowledge of the personal God.

In the still, in the quiet you will find him.
He is there in the silence of your heart.
No words are needed in the stillness, in the silence
He is there and he loves the person that you are.

CELINE BYRNE SPEAKS

"What's your middle name and what do you think of it?
My name is Celine Mary Brigid and I love my middle names because I'm a woman of faith. The middle names mean a lot to me because not only are they the names given to me, but they also fully represent my personality.

What do you expect when you die?
I'm going straight to heaven. I try to be a good person. I try to do my best. I do as much as i can for charity and for other people and i believe that I"ll go to heaven. I'm not here to convince anybody. If I grew up a Buddhist, I'm sure I'd be telling you something different, but I grew up a Catholic, and I definitely think having God and Jesus in my life has helped me. It's a wonderful feeling to wake up every morning and to know that somebody's there, always and loves you unconditionally.

Reflection on the Readings this Sunday

Behold the Bridegroom!

As we come to the end of the liturgical year, the readings are increasingly concerned with the end of time and the Second Coming of the Lord.

In the First Reading, Wisdom is personified as an attractive lady, who seeks to comfort and support those who love and seek her. She prepares us for the virgins in the Gospel who are looking out for the bridegroom.

Continuing the theme of watching, the Psalmist's main ambition is to find God. He will certainly be ready when the Lord comes.

Using apocalyptic language, Paul reminds the Thessalonians that whether dead or alive, the Lord will be with them, so they can comfort one another. (Second Reading)

In the well-known parable of the wise and foolish virgins, Matthew reminds his audience that the Lord will eventually come, but that we must not only exercise patience, but also be ready at all times to welcome him. (Gospel)

This week, we might pray particularly for all those who will be unprepared when the Lord comes, whether because they don't know him, or because they have given up waiting.

St. Vincent de Paul

The monthly collection for the St. Vincent de Paul Society will take place outside the Church after all Masses this weekend 7th/8th November.

Share Appeal Sunday takes place this weekend 7th/8th November, highlighting the important work that is funded by the weekly collection.

For the months of November, December and January the church will close at 3.00pm and 12noon on Saturday.

Pre Communion Mass

Next Sunday 15th November, we welcome the children and their families, preparing for First Holy Communion in 2027, to the 11am Mass. We ask you to keep them in your prayers throughout the year.

November Altar List of the Dead

The envelopes for our November Altar List of the Dead are available in the church. We ask that everyone takes one and one for a housebound neighbour. Envelopes can be returned to the Parish Office or Sacristy.
All those placed on the Altar List of the Dead will be remembered at Masses on the First Friday of every month during the year.

Diocese of Masaka, Uganda – Fr. Francis' Diocese

There will be an Outdoor Collection for the Diocese of Masaka, Uganda – Fr. Francis' Diocese next weekend 14th/15th November after all Masses. Light Refreshments in the Community Centre after the 11am Mass

Just a background to the forthcoming outdoor collection for Masaka Diocese. It is to support formation of the needy Seminarians who are orphans or whose parents are too poor to afford the tuition fees. The Bishop has a challenge of getting sponsors because of the increasing number of needy Seminarians.
Any Seminarian who fails to pay his tuition, his vocation is terminated and is sent back home for good. It is this painful experience that prompted the Bishop to appeal to the Parishioners for a possible support to save the vocation of the good Seminarians.
The donation will help many Seminarians to pay for their tuition fees and contribute to the increase of Priests in the Church.
Your support for this collection will be greatly appreciated.

Dublin Diocese has three job opportunities now:
1. Faith Development Co-ordinator for Youth and Young Adult Ministries – North Side.
2. Post Primary Diocesan Advisor.
3. Twin Pillar Strategy & Mission Lead. Full details on website www.dublindiocese.ie/vacancies. Applications to afitzpatrick@adarehrm.ie.

FROM DEACON DAMIAN MURRAY

Keeping Our Lamps Alight at Holy Child Nativity Parishes

We began November by celebrating the Communion of Saints (1st Nov) and praying tenderly for our faithful departed on All Souls' Day (2nd Nov). These twin feasts powerfully remind us of the final end of our Christian life: to be united forever with God in heaven.

This thread of eternal hope wound its way beautifully through the remembrance service we celebrated together in Whitehall church on Monday evening. It was deeply moving as we lit 163 candles, each representing a parishioner who passed away over the last year across our Holy Child and Nativity parishes. Watching those flames flicker in the sacred stillness was a profound moment of pastoral comfort, reminding us that our earthly pilgrimage is intimately connected to those who have gone before us.

This Sunday's readings pick up this theme, guiding our hearts toward eternity. In our First Reading, the Book of Wisdom tells us that divine wisdom is "resplendent and unfading." This wisdom is the spiritual sight we need to navigate our grief, keeping our eyes fixed firmly on heaven.

St Paul echoes this comfort to the Thessalonians, assuring us that death does not have the final word. Because Christ rose, we live in the certain hope of the resurrection. Our final destiny is to be reunited with the Lord and with those 163 beautiful souls we remembered so deeply this week.

Reaching this heavenly goal, however, requires active preparation. In the Gospel, Jesus warns us through the Parable of the Ten Virgins to keep our lamps lit. The oil of faith, prayer, and quiet charity must be nurtured daily in our hearts. May we keep our lamps trimmed, trusting that the love we shared on Monday evening is just a foretaste of our eternal home.

The Word of the Lord

Readings for the 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

FIRST READING — Wisdom 6:12-16

Wisdom is found by those who look for her

Wisdom is bright, and does not grow dim. By those who love her she is readily seen, and found by those who look for her.
Quick to anticipate those who desire her, she makes herself known to them.
Watch for her early and you will have no trouble; you will find her sitting at your gates. Even to think about her is understanding fully grown;
be on the alert for her and anxiety will quickly leave you.
She herself walks about looking for those who are worthy of her and graciously shows herself to them as they go, in every thought of theirs coming to meet them.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM — Psalm 62(63)

℟ :For you my soul is thirsting, O God, my God.

O God, you are my God, for you I long;
for you my soul is thirsting.
My body pines for you
like a dry, weary land without water. ℟

So I gaze on you in the sanctuary to see your strength and your glory.
For your love is better than life,
my lips will speak your praise. ℟

So I will bless you all my life,
in your name I will lift up my hands.
My soul shall be filled as with a banquet,
my mouth shall praise you with joy. ℟

On my bed I remember you.
On you I muse through the night
for you have been my help;
in the shadow of your wings I rejoice. ℟

SECOND READING — 1 Thessalonians 4:13-18

Do not grieve about those who have died in Jesus

We want you to be quite certain, brothers, about those who have died, to make sure that you do not grieve about them, like the other people who have no hope. We believe that Jesus died and rose again, and that it will be the same for those who have died in Jesus: God will bring them with him. We can tell you this from the Lord's own teaching, that any of us who are left alive until the Lord's coming will not have any advantage over those who have died. At the trumpet of God, the voice of the archangel will call out the command and the Lord himself will come down from heaven; those who have died in Christ will be the first to rise, and then those of us who are still alive will be taken up in the clouds, together with them; to meet the Lord in the air. So we shall stay with the Lord for ever. With such thoughts as these you should comfort one another.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Alleluia, alleluia!
Stay awake and stand ready,
because you do not know the hour
when the Son of Man is coming.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL — Matthew 25:1-13

The wise and foolish virgins

Jesus told this parable to his disciples:
'The kingdom of heaven will be like this: Ten bridesmaids took their lamps and went to meet the bridegroom. Five of them were foolish and five were sensible: the foolish ones did take their lamps, but they brought no oil, whereas the sensible ones took flasks of oil as well as their lamps. The bridegroom was late, and they all grew drowsy and fell asleep. But at midnight there was a cry, "The bridegroom is here! Go out and meet him." At this, all those bridesmaids woke up and trimmed their lamps, and the foolish ones said to the sensible ones, "Give us some of your oil: our lamps are going out." But they replied, "There may not be enough for us and for you; you had better go to those who sell it and buy some for yourselves." They had gone off to buy it when the bridegroom arrived. Those who were ready went in with him to the wedding hall and the door was closed. The other bridesmaids arrived later. "Lord, Lord," they said "open the door for us." But he replied, "I tell you solemnly, I do not know you." So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour.'

PROFESSION OF FAITH — The Creed

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, (all bow during the next three lines) and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Our Lady Immaculate Senior National School, Darndale - Annual Appeal

Dear parishioners,
As part of our social outreach programme, we in the Church of the Holy Name have twinned with Our Lady Immaculate Senior National School in Darndale.
This is the 6th year in our relationship and we are again asking for your assistance with the Annual Toy Appeal for the children of the National School which has the highest DEIS status.
This year we have given ourselves a target to raise €3,000 for this appeal to purchase toys e.g. footballs, arts &, crafts, sensory toys, board games, skipping ropes and squishy mallows. Donations of toys are also very welcome and we will circulate a list of what is appropriate.
As part of this Appeal, there will be a special collection after each Mass next weekend Saturday and Sunday the 14th and 15th November.
However, you can make a donation at any time through the Parish Office or by using the donate facility on the parish website.
There has always been a generous contribution in the past by you, the Parishioners, for which we wish to express our gratitude!
Many thanks,
Parish Pastoral Council

We extend a very warm welcome to the children from Lios na nOg and Scoil Bhride as they join us at our 9.30am Mass this Sunday. We ask for your prayers for the children, their parents, teachers and families as they continue their preparation for First Holy Communion.

Dear parishioners,

As the colder winter days arrive we are moving our Tuesday and Thursday 10.00am Masses and our First Friday Mass into the warmth and comfort of the sacristy—beginning this Tuesday 10th November. Tuesday and Saturday Eucharistic Adoration will also take place in the sacristy.

Gathering in a smaller space during the week allows us to be closer together in prayer while being responsible stewards of our parish resources. Heating our large church for a small daily congregation requires the use of a lot of energy; by heating only the sacristy we can significantly reduce our carbon footprint and save on gas and electricity costs.

Our Saturday evening Vigil Mass and our Sunday Masses will be celebrated in the church as normal.

Fr Paul.

In November we remember

The month of November gives us the opportunity to remember our dear departed when we enter their names on the Altar List of the Dead, so that they may be prayed for at Masses during November and on the First Friday of each month for the coming year. If you wish to the have the names of your loved ones on the list, there are envelopes at the back of the church. These can be returned in the collection bags at Mass or to the Parish Office or sacristy. Contributions and donations for the November List of the Dead go directly to support your local clergy when they offer prayers and Masses. Your generous support is very much appreciated.

November Altar List of the Dead.

The month of November gives us the opportunity to remember our dear departed when we enter their names on the Altar List of the Dead, so that they may be prayed for at all Masses during November and on the first Friday of each month for the coming year. These can be returned in the collection baskets at Mass, or placed in the safe, or to the Parish Office. Contributions and donations for the November List of the Dead go directly to support your local parish clergy when they offer prayers and Masses.

We ask you to be as generous as possible in your contributions.

SHARE APPEAL SUNDAY
November 7/8, 2026

A message from Archbishop Dermot Farrell

In November each year we take the opportunity, on Share Appeal Sunday, to remind ourselves about the second collection taken up at weekend Masses throughout the year. Share, the diocesan development fund, depends on the generosity of parishioners. It reflects, practically, our mission, service and solidarity, responding to needs felt in parishes across the Archdiocese

The Share collection has evolved over the years and continues to evolve. It is a significant source of funding and support across the Archdiocese. Importantly, Share provides much needed financial relief to disadvantaged parishes where alternative funding cannot be secured. This year, for example, numbers of parishes that could not fund compliance with all-important fire-safety regulations have been assisted by Share. Thank you in anticipation for giving what you can on this Share Appeal Sunday, and for your continued support for Share at the second collection every Sunday throughout the year.

St Vincent de Paul
Our outdoor monthly collection for St Brigid's will be taken up next weekend at both masses.
Thank you.

If you would like to order an advent wreath pack including candles (€15), please give your name in to the sacristy or the office before Saturday 14th Nov. The pack includes an oasis ring, candles and holders.
Thank you

Altar Cleaners

We are looking for 2 or 3 volunteers to help clean the altar once a month. It will take approx 45 mins, and any help would be greatly appreciated. If you are interested in helping, please leave your name in the sacristy or parish office. Thank you for your support.

Please note that the Irish Catholic newspaper price has risen by 30cents to €3.80. Please put the money in the Shrine Box.

CHILDREN'S CORNER.... IN THE GOSPEL TODAY....

Five bridesmaids are wise - they are well prepared. They have spare oil to keep their lamps burning and lead the bridegroom to his bride. But five bridesmaids are foolish – they have run out of oil and so miss the party!

I am wise
We can get our hearts ready for Jesus by loving other people. How will you share God's love with your family and friends today?

Be Ready
When we do anything, we need to be prepared beforehand. Circle three items you need to bring to school so that you are ready to learn.

BE WISE!

A Prayer to Say:
Dear Jesus I want to be ready to welcome you. Help me to prepare my heart by being loving and kind to everyone I meet. Amen

Our Parish Prayer Group: The Prayer Group
Welcome Rev Des Bair as guest speaker on Tuesday 10th November At 8pm in the Jubilee Room. All are welcome.

'Trust in the resurrection enables us to realise that a communion between believers is not interrupted by death. In simplicity of heart, we can ask those we love and have gone before us into the life of eternity: "Pray for me; pray with me." During their life on earth, their love, their care, their prayer supported us. After their death, why would they stop? And how could we stop relying on them?'
(based on a reflection by Br. Roger of Taizé)

NOVEMBER – TIME OF REMEMBRANCE

In the Church's liturgical Calendar, November is the month in which we remember our loved ones who have died. When we survey nature all around us at this time of year we are reminded of our fragility and vulnerability. Like the trees letting go of their colourful leaves, we too will have our letting go of this life. A poet once said, "Life is a lesson in the art of letting go." When loss comes our way it brings huge change: our lives are interrupted. "Letting go" as an experience is with us every day. Loss in whatever form it comes always takes someone or something from us. Loss changes our lives irrevocably. The "letting go" of a loved one which death requires is probably the hardest experience of our lives. The grief that comes with the loss of a loved one casts a long shadow over our lives, leaving us in disbelief, sorrow, depression, anxiety and uncertainty. There is nothing small about the loss of a loved one, irrespective of age. Grief is a journey and we each make that journey differently, going through a myriad of emotions and feelings. Gradually we learn to accept the loss of a loved one but we do not forget them. Grief comes in and out of our lives and it's difficult and painful to navigate our way forward.

Elizabeth Gilbert writes: "Deep grief sometimes is almost like a specific location, a coordinate on a map of time. When you are standing in that forest of sorrow, you cannot imagine that you could ever find a way to a better place." Isn't this so true for most of us in grief? We feel lost in a forest without pathways, without light. It's good for us to give words to our grief, either with close, trusted friends, family members or even with a bereavement counsellor. Grief can be like a heavy boulder crushing us to the ground. Let us reach out when necessary and share our sorrow. While we remember our departed loved ones and forever commend them to God's love and mercy, we trust too that God will bless all who grieve and bring inner peace and healing to them. William Shakespeare said, "To weep is to make less of grief." When we share our grief with others, the intensity is indeed lessened. But we also have a faith which assures us that God is with us in the loss and grief, in the darkness and the light, in the journey of life. Speaking through the prophet Isaiah God said: "I have called you by name, you are precious to me: I am your God: I will be with you: I will hold you in the palm of my hand." In these days of November remembering may we be consoled by these hope-filled words from Isaiah.

Feast Days This Week

Wed 4th November – St. Charles Borromeo

Born on October 2, 1538, in Arona, Italy, he was a member of a noble family and displayed a profound religious inclination from a young age. Borromeo's ecclesiastical career began early, and he became a cardinal and the archbishop of Milan, where he played a crucial role in the Catholic Counter-Reformation and the Council of Trent. Known for his reformative efforts, he worked diligently to enhance clerical education, establish seminaries, and improve the spiritual life of the laity.

St. Charles Borromeo is celebrated for his commitment to the Church's teachings and his selfless lifestyle. He is the Patron Saint of Bishops, Cardinals, Seminarians and Spiritual Leaders.

Thurs 5th November – St. Martin de Porres

Martin was born in Lima, Peru, in 1579. His father left his family when Martin was eight. This left Martin and his baby sister and their mother very poor.

When he was 12, Martin went to work for a barber. He learned to cut hair and to heal wounds. Later, Martin wanted to join the Dominicans in their work. He was allowed to work with them as a servant who swept floors and answered the door Finally his years of good works and miraculous cures led the Dominicans to allow him to become a lay brother. He eventually founded orphanages for homeless children and cared for lonely African slaves who had been forced to come to Lima.

In 1639, Martin died. Everyone in Lima mourned him, even bishops and members of the royal court in Lima. In 1962, the Church declared that Martin de Porres was a saint. Many statues of St. Martin de Porres show him holding a broom, with a dog, cat, and mouse at his feet. He is the patron saint of persons of mixed race, those who suffer discrimination, and also barbers, hairdressers and social workers.

Friday 6th November – All the Saints of Ireland

Today the Church in Ireland gives thanks for all who have lived the Gospel faithfully in this land. Their lives shaped the faith of the people and their prayers still sustain the Church. Holiness was not rare among them. It was found in the way they prayed, worked, and cared for one another. It is a reminder to us of a rich heritage of Catholic Faith that is rooted in Ireland, that grew across the sea with the many Irish immigrants who travelled across the world. We pray today in particular to the saints who carried the light of faith in the early centuries and whose witness continues to guide us.

PRAYER OF REMEMBRANCE

Lord God, thank you for the special people in our lives whom we remember in a special way during the month of November. We thank you for being a compassionate God who walks with us in our dark moments of grief and loneliness. We are thankful for all who love and support us through our grief. Lord, continue to be a light for us, giving us hope, direction and comfort. May we now live our lives treasuring the memories of those we have known and loved. May we bring light and hope to one another in our empathy and compassion. AMEN.

Sunday's Liturgy of the Word

ENTRANCE HYMN

Be Thou my vision, O Lord of my heart
Be all else but naught to me, save that Thou art. Be thou my best thought, in the day or by night. Both Waking or sleeping, Thy presence my light

Be Thou my wisdom, be Thou my true word. Be thou ever with me and I with thee Lord. Be Thou my great Father, and I Thy true son. Be Thou in me dwelling and I with thee one.

FIRST READING Apoc. 7:2-4.9-14

A reading from the book of Apocalypse.

I John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, "Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God" Then I heard how many were sealed; a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel. After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, "Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words. "Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.

One of the elders then spoke, and asked me, "Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from?" I answered him, "You can tell me, my Lord." Then he said, "These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb." The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps. 23:1-6.R.v.6

(R) Such are the men who seek your face, O Lord.

1. The Lord's is the earth and its fullness, the world and all its peoples.
It is he who set it on the seas;
on the waters he made it firm. (R)

2. Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord? Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart, who desires not worthless things. (R)

3. He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the men who seek him,
seek the face of the God of Jacob. (R)

SECOND READING 1 Jn.3:1-3

A reading from the first letter of St. John.

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us. My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is. Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify himself, must try to be as pure as Christ.

The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION Mt. 11:28

Alleluia, alleluia! Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest, says the Lord. Alleluia!

GOSPEL Mt. 5:1-12

Priest: The Lord be with you

People: And with your Spirit

Priest: A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

People: Glory to you O Lord.

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them; "How happy are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Happy the gentle; they shall have the earth for their heritage. Happy those who mourn; they shall be comforted. Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right; they shall be satisfied. Happy the merciful; they shall have mercy shown them. Happy the pure in heart; they shall see God. Happy the peacemakers; they shall be called sons of God. Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right; theirs is the kingdom of heaven. "Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

RECESSIONAL

1. Hail, Redeemer, King divine.
Priest and Lamb, the throne is thine;
King whose reign shall never cease,
Prince of everlasting peace!

Chorus: Angels, saints and nations sing "Praise be Jesus Christ, our King; Lord of life, earth, sky and sea; King of love on Calvary."

Eucharistic king what love
Draws thee daily from above
Clad in signs of bread and wine
Feed us lead us keep us thine.

The Sign of Peace

"Peace Be With You"

What the Happening

After the Our Father, the priest prays for peace and unity in the Church, then invites the congregation to offer one another a sign of peace. This gesture has ancient roots - early Christians called it the holy kiss - and its placement here is deeply intentional. Before we receive Christ in Communion, we are reconciled to one another. We cannot approach the altar carrying unresolved contempt for anyone. Christ himself taught this: "If you bring your gift to the altar and there recall that your brother/sister has something against you, leave your gift and go first to be reconciled."

How We Should Respond The Sign of Peace is not a greeting or a social moment. It is a prayer - offered through gesture rather than words. Offer it to those immediately around you with genuine intention, rather than reaching past others for a more comfortable exchange across the pew. If reconciliation with someone present is genuinely needed, let this moment be its beginning.

Living This at Mass Before Mass begins, notice if you are carrying any friction or resentment towards anyone present or in your life, Let the Sign of Peace be a real moment of release - however small rather than a handshake on autopilot.

Annual Mass.

Thank you to all who planned, took part, and attended our Mass for the Dead held here last Monday night. There are too many to thank individually, but we were delighted that so many took solace and hope from the evening. As you know during the month of November we pray each day here for all who died over the last year, and all the dead. We draw your attention also to our beautiful Remembrance Cross which has the names of those who died over the past year hanging from it. May they rest in the peace of Christ, and may all who mourn them be comforted.

Entrance

I am the bread of life You who come to Me shall not hunger

And who believe in Me shall not thirst No one can come to Me

Unless the Father beckons.

And I will raise you up And I will raise you up

And I will raise you up on the last day.

The bread that I will give Is My flesh for the life of the world

And if you eat of this bread You shall live forever

You shall live forever

And I will raise you up And I will raise you up

And I will raise you up on the last day.

Recessional

I watch the sunrise lighting the sky, Casting its shadows near.

And on this morning bright though it be, I feel those shadows near me.

But you are always close to me Following all my ways.

May I be always close to you Following all your ways, Lord.

I watch the sunset fading away, Lighting the clouds with sleep. And as the evening closes its eyes, I feel your presence near me. For you are always close to me Following all my ways. May I be always close to you Following all your ways, Lord.

ALTAR LIST OF THE DEAD. 2025-26.

The New Altar List Of The Dead is being complied at the moment. Please return your competed lists to the Church. Thank you to all those who helped in their delivery. Spare envelopes and lists are on the tables around the Church. The first Mass for the New Llst will be offered on All Souls Day, November 2nd, and every First Friday in the months ahead.

A November Reflection.

In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter, we remember them.

In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them.

In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.

When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them.

So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

POPE LEO XIV

When we pray for the dead, we do so not only for them, but also with them, drawn into a reciprocal relationship that the Holy Spirit brings to life in our hearts. The Church is a mystery of communion between Christ, our head, and us, His members: from Him we receive life. This communion unites the blessed souls who already contemplate the face of God and all those who, in heaven or on earth, are journeying toward the radiant destination. Pope Leo

ADVENT RETREAT "some things work – some don't "

The Parish Residential Advent Retreat, entitled Making Room: Every Heart a Bethlehem, has been cancelled, after very little uptake and this made it difficult to hold on to the places in the retreat centre on the off-chance that others may come forward. So we had to decide. We are exploring other options to provide reflection opportunities throughout Advent for parishioners. Indeed, we will be doing further reflection on what are the initiatives that meet the needs of today's parishioners. More on this later?

NEW STAINED GLASS WINDOWS

Two new stained glass windows for the parish church have been commissioned to commemorate the worldwide Aids epidemic. This will be an opportunity to remember in prayer & reflection all those who died of Aids, all those in Church and State who cared for them and all family and friends who grieve the great loss of loved ones. The new windows will be installed in this week and have been funded by a very kind parish benefactor. United Nations, World Aids Day is marked on the 1st December each year

NEW PORCH FOR THE LITTLE FLOWER CHAPEL

The Parish Team are considering the installation of a new porch entrance to the Little Flower Prayer Room. We are aware that this will be a considerable expense to the parish. However, we consider it worthwhile as, it is likely that in the future the Little Flower Chapel will be used more and more. The New Porch entrance is necessary for ease of access, health & safety, assisted access, & weather protection for the room. Further details later.

Parish Weekly News for St Benedict's & St Monica's

8th November 2026 32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time/ *A

Parish Mission Statement

We, as members of St Benedict's & St Monica's Parishes, strive to be a community united in our Catholic Faith, and strengthened by prayer, worship and service. We accept our call to live out the Gospel of Jesus Christ, working to serve all with justice, peace and love, in the name of one God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit

The lamp is the light of love and hope, and at its centre is the light of Christ. The light is given to us in many ways in our lives - it shines within as an eternal joy, and outwards to many others. Jesus often advises, 'keep your lamps burning' and 'Let you lights shine.

Like when the bulb goes out when the electricity fails, the lamp can go out without oil. The people of the gospel felt foolish that they had not brought oil with them to light their way. The oil is prayer an our relationship with Jesus. This is the essence of the Christian life. Our Christian life is following a real, loving person: it is an invitation to get to know Jesus, and to find ourselves drawn from our hearts to follow him. Without this living relationship with Christ, words sound empty. We sometimes hear someone speaking of their Christian faith and cannot help wondering if it comes from the inside or is just a list of things to be believed and read.

Ignatius of Loyola's famous prayer is the prayer of the follower of Jesus; 'Lord, teach me to know you more, love you more and serve you more faithfully in my life.' (Spiritual Exercises). The more indicates that this is never a finished product: like love and friendship it grows in our lives. It is exciting that Jesus is never gone from us.: risen from the dead he is always alive, always new. Our reading of the gospel, our sharing at Mass and the sacraments and our personal prayer keep this relationship always alive, always new.

Thinking of a bright lamp, or imagining one,
ask for an ever-brightening light of Christ in your life.
Lord, teach me to know, love and serve you more faithfully every day

Food collection for the St Vincent de Paul Foodbank at Darndale, Dublin 17

We are planning another Food collection for the above foodbank. You have been very generous when we had collections in the past. Currently each week the approximately 140 families in the Darndale area use the food bank.

As you can well imagine, this is a service more and more in demand in these times of increasing food prices. The food bank volunteers appreciate any extra supplies they receive; Nonperishable food items, toiletries, treats and cleaning materials are welcome.

Please bring your items to the church during the period Saturday 14th November to Monday 23rd November and leave them on the side altar.

Go raibh maith agat.

FOR GRIEF
By John O'Donohue (1956-2008)

When you lose someone you love,
Your life becomes strange,
The ground beneath you gets fragile,
Your thoughts make your eyes unsure;
And some dead echo
drags your voice down
Where words have no confidence.

Your heart has broken heavy with loss;
And though this loss has wounded others too,
No one knows
what has been taken from you
When the silence of absence deepens.
Flickers of guilt kindle regret
For all that was left unsaid or undone.

There are days
when you wake up happy;
Again inside the fullness of life,
Until the moment breaks
And you are thrown back
Onto the black tide of loss.

Days when you have your heart back,
You are able to function well
Until in the middle of work or encounter,
Suddenly with no warning,
You are ambushed by grief.

It becomes hard to trust yourself.
All you can depend on now is that
Sorrow will remain faithful to itself.
More than you, it know its way
And will find the right time
To pull and pull the rope of grief
Until that coiled hill of tears
Has reduced to its last drop.

Gradually, you will learn acquaintance
With the invisible form of your departed;
And when the work of grief is done,
The wound of loss will heal
And you will have learned
To wean your eyes
From that gap in the air
And be able to enter the hearth
In your soul where your loved one
Has awaited your return
All the time.

NOVEMBER – A Season of Memory, Mercy and Eternal Hope

As the leaves fall and the days grow shorter, the arrival of November marks a profound transition in the Christian calendar. It is a month uniquely suspended between grief and gratitude, earth and eternity, memory and hope. By stepping into this quieter season, we are invited to anchor our hearts in three timeless Christian truths.

We begin the month by celebrating All Saints' Day (November 1st). This feast reminds us that holiness is not an unreachable ideal meant only for stained-glass windows; rather, it is a lived pathway of humility, purity of heart, and love outlined in the Beatitudes.

The saints - both the famous figures of history and the quiet, holy people who populated our own lives- stand as a "cloud of witnesses". They remind us that our ultimate citizenship is in heaven, and their lives serve as a beautiful testament that victory over sin and darkness is entirely possible through Christ.

Directly following the saints, All Souls' Day (November 2nd) shifts our focus toward prayerful remembrance of our loved ones who have gone before us. November is traditionally dedicated to the Holy Souls. For many, the bare trees and gray skies mirror the interior landscape of grief.

Yet, as Christians, we do not mourn as those without hope. The doctrine of the Communion of Saints assures us that our bond with the deceased is not severed by death; it is simply transformed. We still hold their hands in the spirit. By offering prayers and Masses for the faithful departed, we actively participate in their journey toward full, unclouded union with God.

As the liturgical year draws to a close, the Sunday scripture readings focus heavily on final things - the end of time, the second coming of Christ, and the ultimate triumph of Christ the King. This seasonal stripping away forces us to confront our own mortality and the finite nature of this earthly life.

It is natural to feel a sense of restlessness or melancholy as the winter dark approaches. But as Saint Augustine famously noted, our hearts are restless until they rest in God. Jesus extends a gentle invitation to us through the gloom of late autumn: "Come to me, all you who labour and are overburdened, and I will give you rest" (Matthew 11:28). The dark days are not empty; they are a sacred space to let go of distractions and seek internal truth, healing, and divine comfort.

Thirty Second Week in Ordinary Time 8th November 2026

Thought for the day

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus shares the Parable of the Ten Virgins. Five were wise and brought extra oil for their lamps; five were foolish and brought none. When the bridegroom arrived late, the foolish virgins begged the wise for oil, but they were told there wasn't enough to share.

At first glance, the refusal of the wise virgins feels uncharitable. But it reveals a profound spiritual truth: there are some things in life you simply cannot borrow at the last minute.

The "oil" in the parable represents our personal relationship with God. It is built drop by drop through daily prayer, quiet moments of scripture reading, acts of hidden charity, and the frequent receiving of the Sacraments. When we face life's unexpected crises—or when we eventually stand before the Lord—we cannot borrow someone else's faith,

Prayer

"Lord, grant me the Wisdom that seeks me out daily. Fill my lamp with the oil of patience, charity, and deep faith, so that I may never be caught unprepared for Your arrival, but may instead step joyfully into Your eternal banquet. Amen."

Please return Mass Leaflet and yellow sheet (if not taking home) to the back of Church – Thank You.

Week of Witness for Persecuted Christians

One in ten Christians, 220 million people, live in countries where they are persecuted for their faith. The charity Aid to the Church in Need, which works to support them, is organising a Week of Witness from November 15-22 to highlight their plight with a special appeal for parishioners to pray for the suffering Church on 'Red Wednesday' November 18. More information is available at www.acnireland.org.

FROM THE DEACON'S DESK

Liturgy of Remembrance

Last Wednesday's Liturgy of Remembrance provided a beautiful opportunity to pray for and remember our faithful departed. The church was gently lit by candlelight, creating a peaceful atmosphere enhanced by reflective music. All present were invited to light a candle in memory of a loved one. More than 250 people attended this moving celebration.

Thank You Fr. Kevin

I have been in touch with Fr Kevin, and I am delighted to confirm that he will return to concelebrate Mass with us on Sunday 22 November. This will provide parishioners with an opportunity to thank him and wish him well.

Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confession)

The Sacrament of Reconciliation is a wonderful opportunity to experience God's mercy and peace. Fr Eugen is available before and after morning Mass each day. Please speak with him in the sacristy if you wish to celebrate the Sacrament.

This Week's Readings

Wisdom 6:12-16 & Matthew 25:1-13

The parable of the wise and foolish virgins speaks to the importance of being ready for the coming of the Lord. While all ten awaited the bridegroom, only the wise brought enough oil to keep their lamps burning through the long night. Jesus reminds us that discipleship is not simply about waiting, but about living each day in faithful readiness.

The first reading from Wisdom tells us that wisdom is "bright, and does not grow dim." Those who seek her will find her. Wisdom is more than knowledge; it is a way of living that keeps our hearts attentive to God's presence and guidance. Like the oil in the lamps, wisdom sustains faith when life becomes difficult, uncertain, or demanding.

The Gospel challenges us to ask what keeps our own lamps burning. Prayer, the sacraments, acts of kindness, forgiveness, and care for others nourish the light of Christ within us. None of us knows when the Lord will come, but every day offers an opportunity to be prepared.

The wise disciple is not driven by fear, but by a loving and faithful relationship with Christ, who calls us to be ready to welcome him with joy.

Being Prepared!

I mentioned a few weeks back in our Bulletin that I would do my best to bring clarity to you in relation to the future of Mount Argus as soon as feasible. Again I thank all the people who responded so positively and encouragingly. As many of the 'governance' and organisation issues have to be decided at a higher level, it was necessary to get guidance from them, at least in broad outline. Such discussions have taken place, at least at a preliminary level, and having spoken with our own Provincial here, Fr. Martin Coffey, he has kindly agreed to meet with all those interested and able on this coming Wednesday evening, at 7.30 pm. in the St. Charles' Centre, in order to fill us in on latest developments and likely future directions, on the one hand, and on the other to hear whatever contributions and suggestions you may wish to make with regard to the way forward.

This is a critical time in the history of Mount Argus. Since we have come here in 1856 the Passionists have striven to serve not only the local church, but, particularly through their special ministry of parish missions and retreats have attempted to bring the message of Christ's love for all, as especially revealed through His Sacred Passion, to our whole nation. With a changing world, a changing Church, and a changing Passionist Congregation, the time has come for a major re-assessment of how to most fruitfully serve God's people with the much-diminished resources now at our disposal.

Our meeting on Wednesday evening is an opportunity for those interested to express how they feel in relation to the inevitable decisions that must be made. It's especially an occasion to assess the opportunities that are there to maximise on the good will and many talents that are clearly demonstrated in those who attend here. We are all agreed that while on the one hand we can't return to the past, neither can we just let the future happen. We need to put our best efforts into planning and being prepared for the way forward.

Which is a message the foolish bridesmaids in today's Gospel should have learnt. Even though their principal function was to provide light, they still risked skimping on the amount of oil they had with them to keep their lamps lit. Any unexpected developments and they were bound to be in trouble. Not just in relation to our Parish, but also in relation to our own individual spiritual journeys, we need to "stay awake", as our gospel reminds us. We need to stay awake to the opportunities to grow closer to the Lord and His way of love. We need to stay awake to the opportunities to fulfil our baptismal commission of spreading his word throughout our community and our world. And we need to stay awake to the opportunities to build up the community of the church, our spiritual family, our constant source of nourishment and love.

In the view of one commentator, it does not treat Scripture as texts to be studied, but as the living out of God's Word.

Our Parish

Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time-8th November 2026

"So stay awake, because you do not know either the day or the hour" (Mt 25:13)
Even the sensible ones sleep. The parable (in Sundays' Gospel) does not scold us for being tired. It only asks whether when we are shaken awake, there is still enough in us to know who is calling and to go in with him. The closed door sounds harsh, but Jesus tells the story now, while the door is still open. We do not know the day or the hour. That is not meant to make us anxious. It is meant to keep us from leaving important things until some later version of ourselves gets around to them. So the last line is simple and it is for us: stay awake. Not frantic. Just awake enough to keep a little oil nearby. He takes longer than we expect. And then he comes. (Michael Kelly ACN)

SHARE
APPEAL SUNDAY
November 7/8, 2026

In November each year we take the opportunity, on Share Appeal Sunday, to remind ourselves about the second collection taken up at weekend Masses throughout the year. Share, the diocesan development fund, depends on the generosity of parishioners. It reflects, practically, our mission, service and solidarity, responding to needs felt in parishes across the Archdiocese. I appeal to you today, then, if you can, to increase your contribution to Share throughout the year so that we can enhance our response to the needs of all. Because of your generosity to Share, a wide range of skilled personnel are available to parishes from the diocesan offices. They offer consultation, training, formation and guidance concerning local pastoral, education, strategic leadership, safeguarding and communications initiatives. The Share collection has evolved over the years and continues to evolve. It is a significant source of funding and support across the Archdiocese. Importantly, Share provides much needed financial relief to disadvantaged parishes where alternative funding cannot be secured. Thank you in anticipation for giving what you can on this Share Appeal Sunday, and for your continued support for Share at the second collection every Sunday throughout the year. May we be a people blessed with wisdom, humility, generosity, and great hope.

+ Dermot Farrell, Archbishop of Dublin

Students from Portmarnock Community School, hosting a cake sale after the 10.30am Mass on Sunday 15th of November for Portmarnock Community's School's & Actions Ireland's Charity work in Lesotho 2027.

Today's Gospel is the parable of the bridesmaids some of whom did not bring enough oil for their lamps. The bridegroom arrives unexpectedly and some of them miss his arrival as they have to go and buy oil. The story reminds us to always be ready for what God may have in store for us in the future. The best modern analogy for this story may be an electric car or bike: we have to be sure that its always charged up when we need to go on a journey. According to Jewish custom, the role of bridesmaids was to accompany and help the bride to prepare for the wedding. Bridesmaids would often wait with the bride in her home until the groom arrived and then joyfully escort the bridal couple with lighted lamps to the bridegroom's home, where the marriage ceremony and subsequent feast would take place. And the feast would last for several days. Scripture scholars tell us that the parable can also be applied to any moment of grace in our lives. It reminds us that moments of grace can surprise us, and we need to be awake to receive them. Some of us my think that the wise bridesmaids were not so generous by being unwilling to share their oil with the others who had none but perhaps they were wise to conserve their supply until the bridegroom arrived. Today's Gospel certainly presents us with a challenge. You may be familiar with the term "God of surprises". Jesus is saying to us today to get ready for surprises. Sometimes when children are asked what Christmas present they would like, they might say "a surprise". So, our prayer this week may be to ask God to help us to be ready for the surprises he may have in store for us. This may be a new challenge on our journey of faith, the opportunity to help those in need or an unexpected moment for prayer. Even though there may be times when we struggle to keep the flame of faith alive in our hearts, that flame never fully goes out. The Lord never stops saying to us, "You are the light of the world. Let your light shine". The Lord stays with us, even in those times when the light of our faith grows dim. He is always awake to us. We are preparing in the coming weeks in the coming weeks for Advent and Christmas. Pope Benedict once said: "It is the beautiful task of Advent to awaken in all of us memories of goodness and this to open doors of hope." May we allow time in our in our lives for gentle prayer as we begin to notice the presence of Jesus in so many different ways this Autumn. And may we thank him for the gifts we have been given, especially the people with whom we live and work and also very specially our families.

Parish Partnership name

Throughout the diocese parishes are being called to come together in new forms. Grouping, cluster, amalgamation of parishes are the way ahead for the diocese that is reduced in priests to service local areas. We are privileged that the parish of Saggart, Rathcoole, Brittas and the parish of Newcastle have been working together for many years. A shared Parish Pastoral Council and Finance Committee has been in place for a number of years showing a shared interest and cooperation between the 'four districts'. We have been invited to discern a common name that has a resonance throughout the area.

One suggestion raised recently was "Mo Sacra" a saint from the 7th century who set up a monastery in what is currently Saggart cemetery. St Brigid's Well in Rathcoole, St. Finian's Well in Newcastle are other names. Have you any thoughts or suggestions on a name that could be used.

APPEAL SUNDAY
November 7/8, 2026

Share Appeal Sunday
Sharing Our Responsibility

This Sunday is Share Appeal Sunday, an opportunity for everyone in our parish to support the important work of the Church throughout the Archdiocese of Dublin.

The Share collection helps provide financial support for parishes and communities, particularly those facing greater challenges. It contributes towards the training and formation of priests, the education and preparation of lay people for ministry, pastoral programmes, youth ministry, safeguarding, and the many services that help the Church reach out to people in need. It also assists parishes with fewer resources, ensuring that the work of the Church can continue in every community.

The Church is more than our own parish. We are part of a much wider family, and Share reminds us that we have a responsibility to support one another. Some parishes have greater resources than others, but all share in the mission of bringing Christ's love and message to the world.

This week, parishioners are invited to consider giving a little more generously to the Share collection. Even a small increase in our usual contribution can make a real difference when it is added to the gifts of others. Your generosity helps sustain the life and mission of the Church across the Archdiocese. Thank you for your continued support.

No. 2497 1st-8th November, 2026

Solemnity of All Saints
Apoc 7:2-4, 9-14 Ps 23:1-6 ! Jn 3:1-3 Mt 5:1-12
The Beatitudes – our identity card as Christians.

On this solemnity we remember and honour all those who have gone before us. These are our family, friends and neighbours who have by the way they lived their lives showed us something of the face of God. We reflect on those whose names are not recorded in the Church's calendar of saints, but who stand out in our thoughts and spirits for some good reason.

When we speak of saints, we usually refer to those with a capital 'S' already beatified and canonised. These tend to be people who led lives of great virtue or who gave their lives as martyrs for the Gospel and are written about. The greater number, however, are those who 'each in his or her own way' answered the Lord's call to holiness. Sharing lives with us that gave us glimpses into the life we are all called to live together as God's people. They are still encouraging us to persevere in faith, hope, and love together.

All Saints Day reminds us of those who have shown us something of the Kingdom of God in their activity or attitude to living our lives together as God's people. In this regard Pope Francis reminds us there is nothing more enlightening than Jesus' words (Gaudete Exsultate). In the Beatitudes, we find a portrait of the Master which we are called to reflect in our lives.

'On this feast we ask not merely to admire the blessed, but to be numbered among them.'
Fr. Melvyn

NOVEMBER MASS OF REMEMBRANCE

The November Mass of Remembrance will take place on Sunday 8th November at 12.30pm. At this Mass, we remember in a special way, all our beloved parishioners who have died, holding them close in our hearts and prayers. A candle will be lit in memory of each loved one who has passed, symbolising the light, love and cherished memories that remain with friends and family. May they all rest in the eternal peace of the Lord.

TAP AND GO MACHINE

Please note that our Tap and Go Machine in the main Church Foyer is still Out of Order, unfortunately. We are continuing to work with our provider to rectify this issue as soon as possible. We apologise for the delay in resolving this problem and we would like to thank all our Parishioners for their patience and understanding.

ALTAR LIST OF THE DEAD

Envelopes are still available at the Church porches for inclusion of names on the Altar List of the Dead. GAISCE & TRANSITION YEAR: VOLUNTEER WITH THE PARISH

Is there a young person in your family (a son, daughter or grandchild) in Transition Year or older and looking for a Gaisce Community Involvement activity?

St. Fintan's Parish is running a Parish Participation Programme for 2026/2027. Students help organise and run parish events alongside our liturgical team and volunteers. Roles include music, coordination, preparing materials and PowerPoint for Mass, hospitality in the Parish Centre, and leading parts of events.

Opportunities run throughout the year, from the Family Masses and Holy Week to the Life in the Spirit course and the visit of the relics of St. Carlo Acutis in January. Every event a student takes part in is signed off by the parish, and a confirmation form is provided for their school's Gaisce leader (PAL) or TY Coordinator.

To find out more or to sign up, contact Fr. Paul Hampson at pa_hampson@yahoo.com
