In today's Gospel from Matthew Jesus faces the first challenge to His teachings from the Pharisees. They failed to see Jesus as the Word of God, the Love of God and the Power of God. All they saw was someone breaking their laws. They tried to trap Jesus into saying something with which they could condemn Him. A delegation composed of Pharisees who hated Rome and some Herodians who worked with Rome approached Jesus with a question. Both sides hated each other but their hatred of Jesus united them. They open their conversation flattering Jesus for His honesty and sense of justice. Jesus saw through their hypocrisy at once. They then posed the question : "Tell us then, what you think. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?

This question put Jesus in a difficult position as the Pharisees did not want to pay taxes to the Romans while the Herodians were willing to pay taxes. Jesus knows that the answer to the question is not what the group is interested in rather they want to trap Jesus into a yes or no answer which would alienate one or other section of the community against Him. Jesus asks them to show Him a coin. On the coin is the head of Caesar. Jesus answers their question "Give therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's." In some ways we are people of this world and also of Jesus. Our loyalties as Christians are first to God and then trying to make the world a better place through living as witnesses of God's word. There can be times when there is conflict, we can't allow our loyalty to earthly goods ever to overcome our loyalty to God. Where there's disrespect for life, injustice, war, racism, or any other evils in our society our loyalty to God moves us to speak and work to alleviate such things. We are obliged to be positive and speak the truth in love. Since God's image is stamped on each baptized person he or she is owned by Him and so must give himself or herself to Him. As St. Thomas More said "the king's good servant, but God's first.

****

Do you know the purpose of Holy Mass?

The primary purpose of the Holy Mass is to worship God through participation in the re-presentation of Jesus' passion, death and Resurrection. The Secondary purpose is to receive Jesus in Holy Communion and thirdly to unite as God's Church sharing Faith and Thanksgiving.

SHORT BUT SWEET: "Mummy," asked the little girl, "do men go to Heaven?" "Why, yes, of course, my dear," answered the mother. "Why do you ask?" "Because I have never seen Angels with moustaches, whiskers or beards." "Well," replied the mother "Some men do go to Heaven, but they get there only by a close shave!"

Thought for the Week: Go forth and teach all peoples.
Holy Father make us one in Christ, rooted in his love that unites and renews. May we all be united in mission, open to the Holy Spirit, courageous in bearing witness to the Gospel. Mary, Christ's first disciple, accompany our work of proclaiming the Good News. Make us instruments of peace, love and reconciliation. Amen.

Thought for the day: The relationship between religious faith and public life is perplexing. In some societies, even today, there is virtually no difference between the two. In other, more secular societies, any expression of religious conviction is unacceptable in public. It is true of course that there is an appropriate distinction and even separation to be made, as indeed Jesus does make today in the Gospel. But on at least two issues, there is bound to be some crossover. Religious faith informs our values, and in society today policies and laws must be grounded, not in a particular faith certainly, but in values, nevertheless. Prayer: Lord, we need your wisdom to tell what belongs to God and what belongs to Caesar. Send your Holy Spirit into the heart of all believers that we may be true to ourselves and tolerant towards people with whom we disagree. (www.tarsus.ie)

Pope Leo XVI on X: Prayer becomes effective when it reaches out to others. The charity born of the Holy Spirit is God's love poured into our hearts: a love that takes shape in a commitment to life and service. This love must become the goal, the way, and the meaning of our lives.

Message of his Holiness Pope Leo XIV for the 100th World Mission Day 2026
Mission to love – Proclaiming, living and sharing God's faithful love. If unity is the condition of mission, love is its essence. The Good News that we are sent to proclaim to the world is not an abstract ideal; it is the Gospel of God's faithful love, which became flesh in the face and life of Jesus Christ. The mission of the disciples and the Church as a whole is to continue the mission of Christ in the Holy Spirit: a mission born of love, lived in love, and leading to love. In fact, the Lord himself, in his great prayer to the Father before his Passion, after invoking unity among his disciples, concludes: "so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them" (Jn 17:26). Impelled by the love of Christ, the Apostles then went out to evangelize for Christ (cf. 2 Cor 5:14). Thus, guided by the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of love, the Church's evangelizing mission will continue until the end of time.

NOVEMBER MASS FOR THOSE WHO HAVE DIED DURING THE YEAR:

A special Mass will be celebrated on Saturday, 14th November at 6.00pm in St. Agatha's Church, Glenflesk, in memory of all those whose funeral Masses were celebrated in our parish during the past year (November 2025 – November 2026). We also warmly invite parishioners to submit the names of loved ones who have died during the year but whose funerals took place outside the parish. These names will be included and remembered at our Annual Mass for the Dead. Please give names to Jackie in the Parish Office by Friday 6th November.

A NOTE FROM FR. JIM.....

Over the past twenty years, Ireland has undergone an extraordinary transformation. We have moved from a society deeply rooted in Christianity to one increasingly shaped by secular values. As one English commentator recently remarked, Ireland has gone from organising itself around the Catholic religion to organising itself around the "woke religion." We see this in changing attitudes towards the sacredness of human life, marriage, family and the place of Christianity in public life. There was a time when people looked to the Gospel, the 10 Commandments and the teachings of the Church as their moral compass. Today, many look instead to politicians, legislators and the laws of the land. The assumption seems to be that if something is legal, it must be morally right. But since when did a majority vote determine what is good or evil? Let us not forget Nazi Germany, where appalling injustices were given the force of law and accepted or tolerated by so many. History reminds us that something can be perfectly legal and yet profoundly immoral. The law of the land is not necessarily the law of God. In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells us: "Give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." Jesus asks for a coin: "Whose image is this?" "Caesar's," they reply. But there is a deeper question. If the coin bears Caesar's image, whose image do you and I bear? Genesis gives us the answer: we are created in the image and likeness of God. Jesus is not telling us to disregard civil authority. We have a Christian responsibility to be good citizens, pay our taxes, respect just laws and contribute to the common good. But Caesar is not God. Governments have legitimate authority, but that authority has limits.

When the laws of the state conflict with God's law, our first allegiance must always be to God. As St Peter reminds us, "We must obey God rather than men." The coin belongs to Caesar because it bears his image. But we belong to God because we bear his image. God doesn't simply want an hour on Sunday or a few prayers. He wants our hearts, our minds and our whole lives. Perhaps that is the real challenge of today's Gospel: Who ultimately governs my life? Caesar, with his changing laws and values, or God, whose truth never changes? So who do I belong to Caesar? (Our government) or do I belong to God? Give Caesar what is rightly his, but never give Caesar what belongs to God.

NOVEMBER MASSES FOR THE HOLY SOULS:

You will find a purple offering envelope in your box of Parish Envelopes together with a sheet to list the names of your deceased relatives & friends. For those of you who do not use the boxes, there are offering envelopes and sheets available in Holy Cross. Please place the envelopes, with your offering, in the secure safe at the front or back of the church or in the collection basket at the weekend masses. Your loved ones will be especially remembered on the FEAST OF ALL SAINTS, Sunday 1st November at 12 noon, FEAST OF ALL SOULS, Monday 2nd November and at all November Masses, including a Novena of masses from Monday 9th to Tuesday 17th, celebrated in the parish.

November mass, in memory of all those whose funerals took place in Kenmare Parish since last year's remembrance mass in November, will take place on Friday 20th November at 7.30pm. Everyone is invited to attend especially if you wish to remember a loved one, neighbour or friend. We will be in contact with the families of the deceased regarding the November 20th mass.

Mission Sunday will be held on October 18th when a special second collection will be taken up. The Mission Sunday Collection is vital to financing missionary work worldwide. The mission projects worldwide are coordinated by Missio Head Office in Rome and the money goes direct from Ireland to specific projects worldwide. Your generous support of Mission Sunday is much appreciated.

Ministers of the Word – OCTOBER 2026
Saturday 24th Vigil 7.30 p.m.	Sunday 25th 12.00
Allyson Thomas	Declan Finnegan

The month of October has been designated as a special time of prayer for vocations to the priesthood in the Diocese of Kerry. Week three focuses on those on Mission.

Crossing the Sea

"Brendan sailed where maps ended."
Brendan never knew exactly where God would lead him.
Neither do we.
Mission begins whenever we choose love over fear, Faith over comfort, Hope over despair.
God still sends ordinary people to accomplish extraordinary things.
Missionary disciples go where God asks

The Rosary is prayed every night at 7pm in Holy Cross Church. Everyone is welcome to join

♫ Entrance Hymn: Hail Redeemer King Divine - Canaimís 75

Hail, redeemer, king divine!
Priest and lamb, the throne is thine;
King whose reign shall never cease,
Prince of everlasting peace.

Angels, saints and nations sing:
"Praised be Jesus Christ, our king;
Lord of earth and sky and sea,
King of love on Calvary."

♫ Offertory Hymn – I am the Bread of Life– Canaimís 81♫

♫ Recessional Hymn –– Now thank we all our God – Canaimís 127♫

Now thank we all our God
With heart and hands and voices
Who wondrous things hath done
In whom His world rejoices
Who, from our mothers' arms
Hath blest us on our way
With countless gifts of love
And still is ours today

O may this bounteous God
Through all our lives be near us
With ever joyful hearts
And blessed peace to cheer us
And keep us in His grace
And guide us when perplexed
And free us from all ills
In this world and the next

Adoration takes place after mass each Wednesday (except in the event of a funeral)

This collection promotes mission outreach worldwide

A Month of Prayer for Priestly Vocations. The month of October, Mission Month, our Diocese unites in prayer that more men will respond to that call. For those who are considering a call to the Priesthood, we encourage you to reach out to our vocations team at vocations@dioceseofkerry.ie.

Message of His Holiness Pope Leo XIV for the 100th World Mission Day (18th October) 2026 has been posted on the bulletin board in the porches.

Reflection

Holy Father, make us one in Christ, rooted in his love that unites and renews. May all members of the Church be united in mission, docile to the Holy Spirit, courageous in bearing witness to the Gospel, proclaiming and daily embodying your faithful love for all creatures. Bless all missionary men and women, support them in their efforts, and watch over them in hope! Mary, Queen of Missions, accompany our work of evangelization in every corner of the earth: make us instruments of peace, and grant that the whole world may recognize in Christ the light that saves. Amen

2nd Collection at all Masses this weekend 17th& 18th Oct. for the Missions

Bishop Ray has requested a head count in every Parish throughout the Diocese of Kerry at all Masses on the weekends of 11th & 18th Oct.'26. This is completed every few years. There will be two people standing at the doors to complete the count.

From Tuesday 20th October onwards Eucharistic Adoration will take place every Tuesday morning (unless there is a funeral) from 10.30am to 11.30am in the Church of the Assumption Moyvane. The Ciborium will be placed on the side altar at the Sacred Heart Shrine, on the left hand side of the Church. Only that section of the Church will be heated due to the high energy costs.

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE LEO XIV FOR
THE 100th WORLD MISSION DAY 2026 [18 October 2026]

3. Mission to love – Proclaiming, living and sharing God's faithful love

If unity is the condition of mission, love is its essence. The Good News that we are sent to proclaim to the world is not an abstract ideal; it is the Gospel of God's faithful love, which became flesh in the face and life of Jesus Christ.

The mission of the disciples and the Church as a whole is to continue the mission of Christ in the Holy Spirit: a mission born of love, lived in love, and leading to love. In fact, the Lord himself, in his great prayer to the Father before his Passion, after invoking unity among his disciples, concludes: "so that the love with which you have loved me may be in them, and I in them" (Jn 17:26). Impelled by the love of Christ, the Apostles then went out to evangelize for Christ (cf. 2 Cor 5:14). In the same way, throughout the centuries, multitudes of Christians — martyrs, confessors and missionaries — have given their lives to make this divine love known to the world. Thus, guided by the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of love, the Church's evangelizing mission will continue until the end of time.

I would like to express my special gratitude to today's ad gentes missionaries. Like Saint Francis Xavier, they have left their homeland, their families and all sense of security in order to proclaim the Gospel and bring Christ and his love to places that are often challenging, poor, conflict-ridden or culturally distant. Despite adversity and human limitations, they continue to give themselves joyfully, because they know that Christ himself, and his Gospel, are the greatest treasures we can offer. Through their perseverance, they demonstrate that God's love transcends all barriers. The world still needs these courageous witnesses of Christ, and ecclesial communities still need new missionary vocations. We must always keep them close to our hearts and continually pray to the Father for them. May he grant us the gift of young people and adults who are willing to leave everything behind to follow Christ on the path of evangelization even to the ends of the earth!

Filled with admiration for men and women missionaries, I make a special appeal to the whole Church to join them in the mission of evangelization through the witness of our lives in Christ, through prayer and through our contributions to the missions. As Saint Francis of Assisi said, "Love is not loved," and we look to him in a special way on the eight hundredth anniversary of his passing to heaven. Let us find inspiration in his desire to live in the love of the Lord and to transmit it to those both near and far, because, as he said, "this love Who hath loved us much is much to be loved" (Saint Bonaventure of Bagnoregio, The Life of Saint Francis, chap. IX, 1; Fonti Francescane, 1161). Let us also draw inspiration from the zeal of Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus, who declared that she would continue her mission even after death: "I shall desire in heaven the same thing as I do now on earth: to love Jesus and to make him loved" (Letter 220 to l'Abbé Bellière, 24 February 1897).

Inspired by these testimonies, let us all commit to contributing to the great mission of evangelization — which is always a work of love —according to our own vocation and the gifts we have received. Your prayers and practical support, particularly on World Mission Day, will be a great help in bringing the Gospel of God's love to everyone, especially the poorest and those most in need. Every gift, no matter how small, becomes a meaningful act of missionary communion. I renew my heartfelt gratitude "for everything you will do to help me help missionaries throughout the world" (Video Message for World Mission Day 2025, 19 October 2025). To foster spiritual communion, I give you my blessing with this simple prayer:

Holy Father, make us one in Christ, rooted in his love that unites and renews. May all members of the Church be united in mission, docile to the Holy Spirit, courageous in bearing witness to the Gospel, proclaiming and daily embodying your faithful love for all creatures.
Bless all missionary men and women, support them in their efforts, and watch over them in hope!
Mary, Queen of Missions, accompany our work of evangelization in every corner of the earth: make us instruments of peace, and grant that the whole world may recognize in Christ the light that saves. Amen.
